NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that The Association of Professional Engineers of the Province of Ontario will apply at the coming Session of the Legislature for amendments to The Professional Engineers Act:

(1) Substituting for the words "telephone systems, telegraph systems, cables, wireless plants" in Section 1 (h) the more general terms "electrical communication systems and equipment";

(2) Inserting after the word "airships" in Section 1 (h) the words "aircraft, airports, landing fields, and landing strips; and all buildings and equipment necessary thereto," to bring the section up to date in such matters;

(3) Inserting before the words "steam engines" in Section 1 (h) the words "boilers and their auxiliaries" to clarify the section on this point;

(4) Providing for the inclusion of town and community planning within the definition of professional engineering to bring the section up to date;

(5) Providing for the election of two Vice-Presidents of the Association in place of one and defining their duties;

(6) Inserting in Section 2 (a) in place of the words "naval, military or aerial services" the words "armed forces" as being more comprehensive;

(7) Inserting after the word "licensee" in the third line of Section 2 (b) the following "acting under the direction and responsibility of such member or licensee" in order to ensure adequate supervision of the licensee's employee;

(8) Inserting after the word "geologist" in Section 2 (d) the word "metallurgist" so as to make it clear that such persons are included in the exceptions; and amending Section 6 (1) by inserting the words "and metallurgical" after the word "chemical" thereby enlarging the branch now described as "chemical" to expressly include metallurgical engineers.

(9) Striking out Section 2 (e) and inserting in lieu thereof a provision reserving to prospectors the right to advise and report on mineral properties and prospects although not members of or licensed by the Association, thereby limiting this exception to prospectors;

(10) Providing that the persons named in Section 2 may not describe or designate themselves as "engineers";

(11) Empowering the Association to make grants for purposes which the Council considers will advance the status and well-being of the profession;

(12) Substituting for ratification of by-laws by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council the right of disallowance within thirty days after the passing thereof;

(13) Restricting the right of applicants for membership, to registration in one branch of the Association only, but without prejudice to the right of a member to practise in any branch or branches provided he has the education and experience so to do;

(14) Limiting the term of office of a Councillor appointed by the Lieutentant-Governor-in-Council to a maximum of five years;

(15) Recasting the sections of the Statute relating to qualifications for registration so as to discard sections no longer applicable and provide in place of the qualification of residence in Ontario, that of Domicile in Ontario; and to make clear that evidence of good character is also necessary.

(16) Substituting for the words "a certificate" in Sections 14 and 15 the words "satisfactory proof" as evidence of membership in another Association;

(17) Amending Section 16 (2) so as to make general the right of graduates or under-graduates recorded with the Association of bona fide assistants serving under articles, to engage in professional engineering under the guidance of professional engineers;

(18) Amending Section 19 (1) by adding after the word "Engineer" in the last line thereof the following "or 'Engineer' with such context or in such manner as to lead to the belief that he is a professional engineer or capable of performing the service as defined in paragraph 1 (h)", thereby clarifying the restriction on the use of engineering titles by unqualified persons;

(19) Substituting in place of Section 20, which is no longer applicable, a provision that persons applying for registration who have served in an engineering capacity with the armed forces in this War shall be granted certain credits on the term of employment in engineering work required for registration;

(20) Making the certificates of membership the property of the Association, and requiring the same to be displayed during membership and to be returned when membership is ended;

(21) Extending to licensees the disciplinary powers which Council now possesses over members under Section 32;

(22) Substituting in place of Sections 32 (4) and (5) provisions protecting the Council and the members thereof and the officers of the Association from liability for anything done under the Act or any by-law or regulation passed in accordance therewith, but granting to any member suspended or expelled a right of appeal to the Court of Appeal similar to that provided in similar cases under "The Architects Act," thereby bringing the law as to the engineering profession into line with that of the other professions;

(23) Providing for imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months in place of or in addition to the fine specified for a second or subsequent offence under Section 33;

(24) Providing for a number of minor changes in the duties of the officers of the Association, the holding of examinations, and the form of licenses.

Dated at Toronto this 18th day of January, 1945.

THE NATURAL GAS CONSERVATION ACT

O. Reg. 236/44.
General.
Replacing.
Made—October 31st, 1944.
Filed—December 7th, 1944, 9.15 a.m.

PERMITS

GAS FOR OTHER THAN HEATING OR COOKING

1. No natural gas shall be sold or used for any purpose other than heating or cooking without an annual or special permit.

ANNUAL AND SPECIAL PERMITS

2.—(1) Annual permits may be issued by the Commissioner for the following uses and in the following order of preference,—

(a) for gas engines where, in the opinion of the Commissioner, the amount consumed is not excessive;

(b) for bakeries, where the amount consumed is under 50,000 cubic feet per month in each case; and

(c) for power purposes in the operation of drilling rigs used for the purpose of sinking wells for mineral products of any kind, at a pressure of not over eight ounces.

(2) Natural gas may be supplied under special permit where, in the opinion of the Commissioner, natural gas is essential for special purposes that cannot be served satisfactorily by other fuels, or where purposes of health or sanitation demand the use of natural gas, or where he finds by inquiry that the granting of such permit will create or substantially increase employment.

EXPIRATION OF PERMITS

3. Every permit shall expire on a date not later than the 31st day of December of the calendar year in which it is issued.

LICENSES

PROSPECTING

4. The fee for a prospector's license shall be $5.

PRODUCING, TRANSMITTING, DISTRIBUTING

5. The fee for a license to produce, transmit or distribute natural gas shall be $10 but where the amount of natural gas produced, transmitted or distributed in any year is less than one million cubic feet the Commissioner may refund such fee upon application therefor.

EXPIRATION OF LICENSE

6. Every license shall expire on the 31st day of December of the year in which it is issued but may be renewed upon payment of a fee of the same amount as was payable upon the issue thereof.

PRIORITIES

7. Natural gas shall be supplied to consumers according to the following order of preferences,—

(a) for cooking and lighting in dwelling houses;

(b) for cooking meals elsewhere;

(c) to new consumers for cooking or cooking and lighting where an extension of the distributing lines is not required;

(d) for heating of dwelling houses where individual rooms are heated by separate appliances;

(e) for heating of dwelling houses by one central gas furnace designed for the use of gas only;

(f) for heating in hospitals and sanatoria;

(g) for heating of apartment houses;

(h) for heating of boarding houses;

(i) for heating of hotels;

(j) for heating of charitable institutions;

(k) for heating of schools that do not require more than 60,000 cubic feet in any one month;

(l) for heating of offices;

(m) for heating of stores where merchandise is exposed for sale, wholesale or retail;

(n) for heating of private garages, not used commercially; and

(o) for heating of churches, in heaters designed for the use of gas only.

USE OF NATURAL GAS

NEW APPLIANCES

8. No person shall, without the approval in writing of the Commissioner, purchase or instal,—

(a) a furnace or room heater constructed, converted or designed for the use of natural gas and intended to be used for domestic, industrial or commercial heating purposes; or

(b) any other equipment or appliance constructed, converted or designed for the use of natural gas and intended to be used for industrial or commercial purposes.

UNSUITABLE APPLIANCES

9.—(1) No person shall supply natural gas for or use natural gas in any appliance unless such appliance is designed for the use of natural gas or unless such appliance has been altered or converted to use natural gas and is in a good state of repair and properly adjusted so as not to waste such gas.

(2) No person shall use natural gas in an ordinary steam boiler designed for the use of coal except for the purposes indicated in clause c of subregulation 1 of regulation 2 under proper adjustment.

OPEN FLARES

10. No natural gas shall be supplied for use in open flares of any kind.

EXCESSIVE USE

11.—(1) When any person or municipality using natural gas without charge under the terms of any agreement, franchise or otherwise, except where such person is the owner of the land upon which the natural gas well is situated, uses more natural gas than is reasonably necessary for his or its requirements, the person supplying such person or municipality may notify the Commissioner in writing of such use and shall indicate in the notice what amount of natural gas he considers to be reasonably necessary for the requirements of such person or municipality.

(2) The Commissioner may make such investigation as he deems necessary and may make an order declaring the amount of natural gas which is reasonably necessary for the requirements of such person or municipality and fixing the compensation to be paid for natural gas in excess of such amount.

FORCED WITHDRAWAL FROM MAIN

12. The Commissioner may order that no further natural gas shall be supplied to any person who makes use of any device attached to any service pipe for the purpose of withdrawing natural gas from any main in a larger quantity or under greater pressure than the ordinary flow of natural gas from the main.

METERING

13. All natural gas delivered, whether to free or pay consumers, shall be measured through a suitable meter at a pressure not greater than eight ounces.

SERVICE LINES

14. Service lines installed after the date of the coming into force of these regulations shall not be less than one inch in diameter.

REPORTS

PLANS

15. Every licensee shall,—

(a) file with the Commissioner plans at a scale of not less than one inch equals one mile, showing the location of all wells drilled or to be drilled, collecting, transmitting and distributing lines, regulators, meters and other pipes and installations, showing diameters or other appropriate dimensions;

(b) file a plan of changes, alterations and additions in wells, lines and other equipment referred to in clause a at the end of every year; and

(c) furnish to the Commissioner such information as he may direct in such form as he may prescribe.

MONTHLY REPORTS

16. Every producer, transmitter and distributor of natural gas shall report to the Commissioner at the end of each month or after each monthly meter reading,—

(a) the quantity of natural gas produced by him;

(b) the quantity of natural gas purchased by him from producing companies other than subsidiary or allied companies;

(c) the quantity of natural gas sold to distributors by him;

(d) the quantity of natural gas distributed by him; and

(e) the industries to whom natural gas is sold under permit indicating,—

(i) the number of the permit,

(ii) the quantity allowed by permit, and

(iii) the quantity actually delivered.

DRILLING AND LOCATION OF WELLS

OTHER DRILLING

17. If natural gas or oil is encountered in any drilling operations where other minerals or substances are being sought, such operations shall come under these regulations and shall not be continued until a license has been obtained.

DRILLING ON HIGHWAY

18. No person shall drill for natural gas upon any highway without the permission of the Commissioner.

LOCATION OF WELLS

19.—(1) No person shall drill any well within three hundred and fifty feet of a boundary line of a property owned or leased by any other person without the approval of the Commissioner.

(2) With the exception of the wells mentioned in subregulation 1 no well shall be drilled nearer than one thousand feet from any producing well without the approval of the Commissioner.

GENERAL

POWERS OF COMMISSIONER

20. The Commissioner may cancel any permit or order any distributor to reduce the supply of natural gas,—

(a) where the domestic supply is threatened by shortage;

(b) in order to secure the preference given to any class of consumers in regulation 8; or

(c) where natural gas is being supplied in excess of the quantity specified in the permit.

INTERRUPTION OF SUPPLY

21. No person engaged in the producing, transmitting or distributing of natural gas shall diminish, hinder or otherwise interrupt the supply of natural gas to any consumer or to any person depending upon such person for a supply of natural gas for transmission or distribution to consumers, but the natural decline in pressure of the natural gas field from which such person received his supply, unavoidable interruptions in maintaining such a natural gas service, discontinuance of service because of non-payment of moneys legally owing for natural gas furnished, or any diminution or interruption ordered or authorized by the Commissioner shall not constitute an infringement of this regulation.

DISTRIBUTION PLANTS

22.—(1) Distributing plants shall be so designed, equipped and maintained that low pressure regulators set at a maximum pressure of eight ounces per square inch will give satisfactory service to all consumers and the leakage in any distributing plant shall not exceed two hundred thousand cubic feet of natural gas per annum per mile of three-inch pipe or a proportional amount for other sizes of pipe.

(2) All leakage shall be reported to the Commissioner at the end of each month on a form prescribed and supplied by him on application.

METERS

23.—(1) Every person delivering natural gas from natural gas wells or pipe lines into pipe lines shall measure such natural gas through a suitable meter situated at or as near the well as possible and shall also measure all natural gas delivered from such pipe lines to other pipe lines or to distributing plants at the point of junction.

(2) All measurements shall be reported to the Commissioner at the end of every month on a form prescribed and supplied by him upon application and the basis of such measurement shall be eight ounces per square inch.

INSPECTION OF APPLIANCES

24. Every distributor of natural gas shall inspect the appliances of consumers at least twice yearly and shall either adjust or instruct and assist the consumer in adjusting all appliances to burn natural gas with the greatest possible economy.

OPEN FLOW MEASUREMENT

25. Every person owning, controlling or operating natural gas wells shall once in each year measure the open flow of each well owned, controlled or operated by him and shall forthwith forward to the Commissioner a report of such open flow and the condition of the well at the time of the taking of such measurements.

PRESSURE OF WELL

26. Every person or company owning, controlling or operating natural gas wells shall once in each year shut in each well for a period of not less than forty-eight hours and shall forthwith forward to the Commissioner a report showing the pressure of the gas in pounds per square inch confined in such well.

GAS AT REDUCED RATES OR WITHOUT CHARGE

27.—(1) No person shall furnish, supply or receive any natural gas without charge or at a special reduced rate under any agreement, bargain, lease or other contract in which the supplying of natural gas without charge or at a special or reduced rate is the consideration or part of the consideration, or a term or condition of the contract, unless such contract is in writing and has been approved by the Commissioner in writing, signed by him and endorsed upon the contract.

(2) Every contract entered into in violation of subregulation 1 shall be null and void unless and until approved by the Commissioner in writing.

CONSTRUCTION OF REGULATIONS

28. These regulations shall be read and construed subject to any order made under the War Measures Act (Canada) or The Natural Gas Conservation Suspension Act, 1943.

REVOCATION

All regulations in force under The Natural Gas Conservation Act on the date of the coming into force of these regulations are revoked.

THE NATURAL GAS CONSERVATION ACT

O. Reg. 237/44.
Procedure before Referee.
New.
Made—January 7th, 1937.
Approved—August 30th, 1937.
Amendment approved—November 28th, 1944.
Filed—December 7th, 1944, 9.20 a.m.

APPLICATION

1. Every application shall be commenced by the filing with the Referee of a statement of claim which shall be prepared by the applicant and shall contain the names and addresses of the applicant and all other parties interested in the application, and shall state the character in which the applicant applies, and that the parties cited therein and referred to as defendants shall be required to file a reply with the Referee within fourteen days of the service of the application and there shall be endorsed upon the application a concise statement setting forth the nature and grounds of the applicant's claim.

NOTICE TO PARTIES

2. The applicant shall cause copies of the application to be served upon all parties cited in the application or such additional or other parties as the Referee may direct and shall file with the Referee evidence of the proper service of such application upon such parties.

STATEMENT OF DEFENCE; REPLY

3. Every party so served shall, within fourteen days of such service file with the Referee and serve upon the applicant a statement of the defence to the claim of the applicant, and the applicant may, within ten days of receiving the statement of defence or the last statement of defence, as the case may be, serve upon the defendant and file with the Referee a reply to the statement of defence and upon the filing of such reply or the lapse of time for so doing, pleadings shall be deemed to be closed.

SERVICE

4. The form and manner of service and proof of service shall be in accordance with the practice of the Supreme Court of Ontario, unless otherwise specially directed by the Referee.

EXTENSION OF TIME; VARIATION IN PROCEDURE

5. The Referee may consider any motion on notice, or ex parte, in his discretion, to extend the time for filing a statement of defence or a reply or in any other manner to vary the procedure prescribed and upon rendering a decision on any such motion shall forthwith send a copy of such decision to each of the parties by prepaid registered post addressed to him at the address indicated in the application or in any statement of defence.

DISCOVERY AND PRODUCTION

6. The Referee may, concurrently with the filing of the application, or at any time thereafter, consider an ex parte motion made by any of the parties requesting the privilege of examining and auditing the books of any of the other parties or appraising their inventories and assets, and may in his discretion make an order directing any of the parties to produce for immediate inspection by any other party, or at the hearing, all books, records or material in the possession of the parties which may be material to the issue, and upon rendering such decision, shall notify all parties forthwith.

DIRECTION FOR HEARING; DISMISSAL OF APPLICATION

7.—(1) Where the Referee upon consideration of the application, statement of defence and reply is of the opinion that the material submitted discloses a cause for complaint by the applicant, he may direct a hearing and shall name a time and place for such hearing and advise the applicants and all parties cited or served or who, in the opinion of the Referee, have any interest in the matter.

(2) Where in the opinion of the Referee a cause for complaint has not been shown, he may require the applicant to attend before him at a time and place to be fixed, and show cause to the Referee that a hearing is necessary.

(3) If evidence is not produced at such hearing which in the opinion of the Referee discloses a satisfactory cause for complaint, he may dismiss the application.

PRACTICE OF SUPREME COURT

8. Subject to these Rules, the practice and procedure at a hearing shall be in accordance with the practice and procedure of the Supreme Court of Ontario in the trial of civil actions provided that the Referee may admit any evidence which he may deem proper or desirable in the interests of the issue and may vary the mode of procedure.

THE WELL DRILLERS ACT

O. Reg. 238/44.
Natural Gas and Oil Wells.
Replacing.
Made—October 31st, 1944.
Filed—December 7th, 1944, 9.25 a.m.

APPLICATION

1.—(1) These regulations shall apply to natural gas wells and oil wells.

(2) If natural gas or oil is encountered in any drilling operations where other minerals or substances are being sought, such operations shall come under these regulations and shall not be continued until a license has been obtained.

LICENSES; REPORTS; RECORDS

2.—(1) The fee for a license shall be $5.

(2) Every license shall expire on the last day of the year for which it is issued.

3. The Minister may cancel the license of any person who contravenes any of these regulations.

4. The owner or operator of every drilling rig shall forward to the Commissioner,—

(a) unwashed samples, as collected, of rock cuttings in every well drilled, taken at approximately every five feet and such samples shall be plainly marked with the identity of the well, date and depths, on the receptacles which shall be furnished by the Commissioner on application;

(b) a log of the well on a form prescribed and supplied by the Commissioner upon application showing the exact location and all other information required by such form; and

(c) samples of all mineral water encountered at different depths, in quart bottles or other suitable containers, plainly marked with the location of the well and the depth and formation from which it originated.

5. At least two weeks before commencing operations to drill a well the person carrying on such operations shall report the location thereof to the Commissioner upon a form prescribed and supplied by the Commissioner upon application.

PLUGGING

6. An abandoned well shall not be plugged until the owner or other person in possession or control thereof has given the Commissioner at least two weeks' notice by registered mail of the date on which the plugging is to be done, so as to enable the Commissioner or inspector to be present and approve the method of plugging, and in the case of a gas well he shall, at least two weeks immediately before such date, close the well in such a manner that no gas may escape.

7.—(1) Wooden plugs shall be round and of seasoned pine or cedar that is sound and shall be at least three feet in length and of sufficient size to completely fill the drill hole.

(2) Where driven in casing seats, the top of the wooden plug shall be the size of the drill hole above the casing seat and the bottom of the wooden plug shall be the size of the drill hole below the casing seat.

8.—(1) In the case of gas wells having a pressure of more than one pound per square inch for every ten feet of depth to the gas horizon the drill hole shall be filled with clay to a point about ten feet above the gas producing formation on top of which shall be placed a wooden plug.

(2) Where the rock pressure is over one hundred pounds,—

(a) two wooden plugs separated by ten feet of tamped clay shall be used;

(b) immediately above and touching such wooden plug shall be deposited, so as to make a perfect bond with the wall of the well, sufficient pure cement mixed with water to the consistency of a thick paste, to completely fill the well for a height of twenty feet above the wooden plug;

(c) immediately above and touching the cement shall be placed another wooden plug the full size of the drill hole; and

(d) the drill hole to the casing seat above shall be filled with clay and the remainder of the well treated as in regulation 9.

(3) All cement shall be so deposited in a well that it shall not come in contact with any water while being so deposited.

(4) Wherever possible cement plugs shall be put in before the casing is removed so that it may not come in contact with any water.

(5) No containers shall be left in the cement after it is deposited and it shall not be agitated in any way after it is in place.

(6) Lead plugs may be used in place of cement, as directed in regulation 11.

(7) The method of plugging known as "mud fluid method" may be used, provided that a pressure of two hundred pounds greater than the gas or hydrostatic pressure in the well is maintained for at least twenty-four hours after the rock has taken up all the mud fluid it will readily hold.

9. In the case of wells that have no gas pressure or where the rock pressure is less than one pound per square inch for each ten feet of depth from the surface to the gas horizon, a tapered wooden plug shall be driven where each string of casing is seated as in subregulation 2 of regulation 7 and the drill hole shall be completely filled with clay to the surface.

10.—(1) Where in a producing well a known gas or oil bearing formation has been penetrated and water is encountered below such gas bearing formation, the drill hole shall be filled with clay to a point five feet above such water horizon and a wooden plug driven firmly on top of the clay filling, and the hole shall then be bailed dry to ensure that the plug is satisfactory.

(2) Where the method of plugging prescribed in subregulation 1 fails to shut off the water, the drill hole shall be plugged in the manner prescribed in subregulation 2 of regulation 11.

11.—(1) Where water is encountered,—

(a) at the base of the Trenton formation; or the hole shall be filled with clay and stone to a point five feet above such water horizon, on top of which a wooden plug shall be placed and the drill hole shall then be plugged in the manner prescribed in subregulation 2.

(b) below any gas or oil horizon,

(2) Two lead plugs the full size of the drill hole and at least nine inches in length and separated by five feet of iron cuttings or lead wool shall be placed on top and touching the wooden plug and each lead plug shall be struck at least one thousand full blows with a drill of the same weight as was used in drilling at the depth that the plug is set.

12. Other plugs way be used only on the approval of the inspector, who may vary these regulations to meet any special case.

13. On the completion of the plugging of every gas or oil well the owner of such gas or oil well shall forthwith send to the Commissioner a report of such plugging on a form prescribed and supplied by the Commissioner upon application.

REVOCATION

All regulations in force under The Well Drillers Act on the date of the coming into force of these regulations are revoked.

QUALIFICATIONS OF EXAMINERS

1. No person shall be eligible as member of the Board unless he possesses the following qualifications:

(a) Holder of Ontario First Class Engineer's Certificate issued upon examination by the Board.

(b) Education equivalent to high school graduation.

(c) A knowledge of Applied Science with reference to Mechanical, Electrical and Refrigeration Engineering.

(d) Ability to compile examination papers and conduct examinations.

(e) General experience in correspondence and office routine.

2. Classification and Grades of Operating Engineers and Firemen:

Firemen;
Stationary Engineers, 4th, 3rd, 2nd, 1st Class;
Hoisting Engineer;
Hoisting Engineers (Electric and Internal Combustion);
Traction Engineer;
Hoisting and Traction Engineer (Duplex);
Refrigeration Operator, 4th, 3rd, 2nd Class.

3. The scope of work and duties which may be performed by Operating Engineers and Firemen under the foregoing classifications and grades:

FIREMAN CLASS

(a) A person within this classification shall be entitled to take charge and operate any low pressure stationary steam plant, the registration horsepower of which does not exceed 100. He shall also be entitled to tend boilers, engines, compressors and equipment in a high pressure plant not exceeding 200 horsepower during the brief absence of the chief or shift engineer from the boiler or compressor room but not from the plant.

He may also take charge of a shift under the direction of the engineer in charge in a low pressure plant, the registration horsepower of which does not exceed 200.

FOURTH CLASS

(b) A person within this classification shall be entitled to take charge and operate, as chief engineer, any high pressure stationary steam, refrigeration or compressor plant, or any combination of such, the registration horsepower of which does not exceed 75, or act as shift engineer under the direction of a certificated chief engineer in any plant, the registration horsepower of which does not exceed 200.

He shall also be entitled to take charge and operate any low pressure stationary steam plant, the registration horsepower of which does not exceed 200, or act as shift engineer in a low pressure plant, the registration horsepower of which does not exceed 600, and perform any of the duties of the previous grade.

THIRD CLASS

(c) A person within this classification shall be entitled to take charge and operate, as chief engineer, any high pressure stationary steam, refrigeration, or compressor plant or any combination of such, the registration horsepower of which does not exceed 200, as engineer in charge thereof, or act as shift engineer under the direction of a certificated chief engineer in any stationary plant, the registration horsepower of which does not exceed 600.

He shall also be entitled to take charge and operate any low pressure stationary steam plant, the registration horsepower of which does not exceed 600, or act as shift engineer in a low pressure plant of any capacity, and perform any of the duties of the previous grades.

SECOND CLASS

(d) A person within this classification shall be entitled to take charge and operate, as chief engineer, any high pressure stationary steam, refrigeration, or compressor plant, or any combination of such, the registration horsepower of which does not exceed 600, or act as shift engineer under the direction of a certificated chief engineer in any stationary plant of unlimited horsepower.

He shall also be entitled to take charge and operate any low pressure plant of unlimited horsepower as engineer in charge thereof, and perform any of the duties of the previous grades.

FIRST CLASS

(e) A person within this classification shall be entitled to take charge and operate any stationary steam, refrigeration, or compressor plant, or any combination of such of unlimited horsepower as chief engineer thereof.

He shall also be entitled to perform the duties of any stationary engineer.

HOISTING ENGINEER

(f) A person within this classification shall be entitled to take charge and operate a steam boiler and engine or an internal combustion engine or an engine driven by air or an electric motor when used as the motive power for operating shovels, cranes, derricks, excavators, hoists or other similar apparatus which constitute a hoisting plant, as defined by the Act.

He shall also be entitled to operate a steam concrete mixer, a boiler supplying steam to pumps used in connection with excavating work, air compressors on construction work, heating plants temporarily installed, asphalt plants, and portable saw mills.

HOISTING ENGINEER

(Electric and Internal Combustion)

(g) A person within this classification shall be entitled only to take charge and operate a hoisting plant, within the meaning of the Act, wherein the motive power is supplied by an electric motor or an internal combustion engine.

TRACTION ENGINEER

(h) A person within this classification shall be entitled to take charge and operate a steam boiler and engine when used as the motive power for operating road rollers, traction engines, locomotives (other than chartered railroads) and other similar self-propelling apparatus which constitutes a traction plant, as defined by the Act.

He shall also be entitled to operate a steam concrete mixer, a boiler supplying steam to pumps used in excavating work, air compressors on construction work, heating plants temporarily installed, asphalt plants, and portable saw mills.

HOISTING AND TRACTION ENGINEER

(Duplex)

(i) A person within this classification shall be entitled to perform the combined duties of a Hoisting and Traction Engineer.

REFRIGERATION OPERATOR—4TH CLASS

(j) A person within this classification shall be entitled to take charge and operate a Refrigeration Plant only, the motive power of which is other than steam and wherein the total horsepower of the driving units is over 25 and does not exceed 75, or act as shift operator under the direction of a chief operator in such a Refrigeration Plant not exceeding 200 motive horsepower. The operation of steam boilers within the meaning of the Act is always excepted under this classification.

REFRIGERATION OPERATOR—3RD CLASS

(k) A person within this classification shall be entitled to take charge and operate a Refrigeration Plant only, the motive power of which is other than steam and wherein the total horsepower of the driving units does not exceed 200, or act as shift operator under the direction of a certified chief operator in such a Refrigeration Plant not exceeding 600 motive horsepower, or perform the duties of the previous grade. The operation of steam boilers within the meaning of the Act is always excepted under this classification.

REFRIGERATION OPERATOR—2ND CLASS

(l) A person within this classification shall be entitled to take charge and operate a Refrigeration Plant only, the motive power of which is other than steam and wherein the total horsepower of the driving units does not exceed 600, or act as shift operator under the direction of a certified Chief Engineer in such a Refrigeration Plant of unlimited capacity, or perform the duties of the previous grades. The operation of steam boilers within the meaning of the Act is always excepted under this classification.

Refrigeration Plants in excess of 600 motive horsepower shall require a First Class Stationary Engineer in a charge capacity.

THE FORMS OF CERTIFICATES OF QUALIFICATION

4. The Minister may issue, upon the recommendation of the Board, the following certificates of qualification, viz.:

A certificate designated—

"Fireman"
"Stationary Engineer, Fourth Class"
"Stationary Engineer, Third Class"
"Stationary Engineer, Second Class"
"Stationary Engineer, First Class"
"Hoisting Engineer"
"Hoisting Engineer, Electric and Internal Combustion Only"
"Traction Engineer"
"Hoisting and Traction Engineer, Duplex"
"Stationary Engineer, Fourth Class, Refrigeration Only"

"Stationary Engineer, Third Class, Refrigeration Only"
"Stationary Engineer, Second Class, Refrigeration Only"

REGULATIONS GOVERNING EXAMINATIONS

5. An applicant for examination for such certificates of qualification shall be required to fulfil the following requirements:

GENERAL

(All Classifications and Grades)

(a) That he fill in the required form, stating accurately and in detail all the mechanical and electrical training and experience he has acquired relative to the examination for which he is a candidate.

(b) To satisfy the Board as to his character and ability.

(c) That he has attained the age required and stated hereinafter.

(d) To take an affidavit attesting that his statement is true.

(e) To write the answers to examination questions presented and obtain at least the percentage of marks required as stated hereinafter.

(f) To pay the required fee as stated hereinafter, upon application for examination or at the time his examination takes place.

FIREMAN CLASS

5A. Experience Required—Twelve months actual firing in a boiler plant coming within the meaning of the Act and defined in the Regulations.

Age—To be at least 18 years of age.

Percentage of Marks—To obtain at least sixty per cent.
Fee—Three Dollars.

STATIONARY ENGINEER—4TH CLASS

5B. Experience Required—At least twelve months practical operating experience in a high pressure steam plant, within the meaning of the Act and defined in the Regulations, firing on a regular shift, or twelve months firing on regular shift in a low pressure plant of over 100 horsepower.

Age—To be at least 19 years of age.

Percentage of Marks—To obtain at least sixty per cent.

Fee—Three Dollars.

STATIONARY ENGINEER—3RD CLASS

5C. Experience Required—At least two years practical operating experience in a high pressure stationary steam plant of 75 horsepower or over on a regular shift of which at least twelve months must be actual firing experience in the boiler room, and to be the holder of an Ontario fourth class, hoisting or traction certificate of the current year, or a third class certificate of current issue by any other Province of the Dominion of Canada.

Age—To be at least 21 years of age.

Percentage of Marks—To obtain at least sixty per cent.

Fee—Five Dollars.

STATIONARY ENGINEER—2ND CLASS

5D. Experience Required—At least five years practical operating experience in a high pressure stationary steam plant on a regular shift of which at least three years must have been in the boiler room of a steam plant of over 200 horsepower, and to be the holder of an Ontario third class stationary certificate of the current year, or a second class certificate of current issue by any other Province of the Dominion of Canada.

Percentage of Marks—To obtain at least sixty per cent.

Fee—Seven Dollars.

STATIONARY ENGINEER—1ST CLASS

5E. Experience Required—At least ten years practical operating experience in a high pressure stationary steam plant on a regular shift, at least seven years of which must have been as chief or shift engineer. Included in the above experience a candidate must show at least four years operating experience as engineer in a stationary steam plant of not less than 350 horsepower and one year's experience as engineer in a plant of over 600 horsepower with at least three years in the boiler room and one year in the engine or compressor room, and to be the holder of an Ontario second class stationary certificate of the current year, or a first class certificate of current issue by any other Province of the Dominion of Canada.

Deductible Time—At the discretion of the Board, in the case of a skilled mechanic trained in the building of steam engines or boilers, or of a candidate who has completed a course in engineering in any recognized University, a period not exceeding three years may be deducted from actual operating experience.

Percentage of Marks—To obtain at least seventy per cent.

Fee—Ten Dollars.

HOISTING ENGINEER

5F. Experience Required—At least eighteen months practical operating experience in a high pressure steam plant which shall include at least twelve months experience in a hoisting plant.

Age—To be at least 19 years of age.

Percentage of Marks—To obtain at least sixty per cent.

Fee—Five Dollars.

HOISTING ENGINEER

(Electrical and Internal Combustion)

5G. Experience Required—At least eighteen months practical operating experience on hoisting machinery, twelve months of which must have been in connection with such machinery wherein the prime mover is an internal combustion engine or an electric motor.

Age—To be at least 19 years of age.

Percentage of Marks—To obtain at least sixty per cent.

Fee—Five Dollars.

TRACTION ENGINEER

5H. Experience Required—At least eighteen months practical operating experience in a high pressure steam plant, at least twelve months of which must be experience in a steam traction plant.

Age—To be at least 19 years of age.

Percentage of Marks—To obtain at least sixty per cent.

Fee—Five Dollars.

HOISTING AND TRACTION ENGINEER (Duplex)

5I. A candidate passing the examination for Hoisting Engineer and also the examination for Traction Engineer shall be issued one certificate designated "Hoisting and Traction Engineer".

REFRIGERATION OPERATOR—4TH CLASS

5J. Experience Required—At least twelve months practical operating experience in a refrigeration plant, as defined by the Regulations, wherein the motive power is other than steam.

Age—To be at least 19 years of age.

Percentage of Marks—To obtain at least sixty per cent.

Fee—Three Dollars.

REFRIGERATION OPERATOR—3RD CLASS

5K. Experience Required—At least two years practical operating experience in a refrigeration plant, as defined by the Regulations, wherein the motive power is other than steam and the total brake horsepower of the driving motors is in excess of 75, and to have been engaged upon regular shift, and to be the holder of an Ontario fourth class Refrigeration Stationary certificate of the current year, or a third class stationary certificate of current issue by any other Province of the Dominion of Canada.

Age—To be at least 21 years of age.

Percentage of Marks—To obtain at least sixty per cent.

Fee—Five Dollars.

REFRIGERATION OPERATOR—2ND CLASS

5L. Experience Required—At least five years practical operating experience in a refrigeration plant as defined by the Regulations wherein the motive power is other than steam and the total brake horsepower is in excess of 200, and to have been engaged upon a regular shift, and to be the holder of an Ontario third class Refrigeration Stationary certificate of the current year or a second class stationary certificate of current issue by any other Province of the Dominion of Canada.

Percentage of Marks—To obtain at least sixty per cent.

Fee—Seven Dollars.

COMPRESSOR OPERATORS

5M. (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Regulations, a person trained in the operation of air or gas compression machines, other than refrigeration, may at the discretion of the Board be examined for a Compressor Operator's Certificate provided the applicant has had at least eighteen months practical compressor operating experience, has attained the age of nineteen years and is unable to comply with the requirements of entrance to any examination for a stationary, steam hoisting or steam traction engineer's certificate conducted by this Board.

(b) The holder of such a certificate shall not operate or have charge of any steam or refrigeration plant within the meaning of the Act, and shall perform only such work as may be inscribed upon such certificate.

B.O.T. MARINE CERTIFICATES

6.—(a) A person who possesses a B.O.T. Marine Certificate may at the discretion of the Board be examined for a certificate one grade lower than his Marine Certificate, provided that his experience covers the same period of time required for the stationary grade which he tries, providing, also, that his experience includes two years boiler operating experience in a stationary plant of over 200 horsepower, when applying for second class examination, and two years boiler operating experience in a stationary plant of over 350 horsepower, and one years experience as shift engineer in a stationary steam plant of over 600 horsepower when applying for first class examination.

AS TO REFERENCES

(b) The Board may demand an applicant for examination or the holder of a certificate to produce references from his present and past employers as to time and nature of his service.

AS TO APPLICATION FOR EXAMINATION

7.—(a) When a candidate's application for examination has been accepted he will be notified in due course as to the time and place of the Examining Board's next visit to his nearest centre. Applicants living in Toronto district may be examined at Toronto Office without notice.

(b) Application forms for examination of engineers will be supplied by the Board upon request.

AS TO EXAMINATIONS

8.—(a) Examination questions shall be furnished only at the time of examination and under no circumstances shall they be furnished by mail.

(b) No person shall be allowed in the examination rooms during the examinations, other than those whose duties require them to be present.

(c) Examinations shall be written but should the Board deem it necessary they may subject the applicant to an oral examination and may have him demonstrate his knowledge of a steam, refrigeration, compressor, traction or hoisting plant.

(d) In the event of an applicant failing on his examination, ninety days shall elapse before he becomes eligible for re-examination.

(e) If a candidate fails on his examination, the Board at its discretion may issue a certificate of one grade lower.

As to Certificates of Qualification

9.—(a) All certificates, with the exception of plant registration and those issued provisionally from a duly accepted certificate of current issue from one of the other Provinces of the Dominion of Canada, and those issued by examination on or after October 15th, shall expire on the 31st day of December of the year in which such certificates are issued.

A Provisional certificate is good for one year from date of issue and is not renewable.

(b) All holders of certificates engaged in the operation of plants must renew their certificates annually before the 31st day of December of each year. A certificate holder who has not registered with the Board on or before the 1st day of February next ensuing shall be granted a certificate only on payment of TWO DOLLARS, and ONE DOLLAR shall be added for each additional year that the certificate remains unrenewed, or until cancelled.

(c) A certificate which is not renewed for five consecutive years shall be cancelled, and shall be placed in good standing again by examination only.

(d) A certificate issued by examination on or after October 15th of any year shall be good for the remainder of the year and the next ensuing year.

(e) A certificate issued by the Board, with or without examination, and classified in the year 1920, shall have the same status as a certificate issued by the Board upon examination since January 1, 1920.

(f) The holder of a certificate classified without examination in 1920 shall be allowed to continue in the position he at that time held, but should he make any change in his position, either by promotion or by transferring his duties to another plant which requires a certificate of a higher grade than that which he now holds, he must apply for and obtain a certificate of the grade demanded by the foregoing sections of the Regulations before he assumes his new position.

(g) When the horsepower of a plant is increased to the extent that there is a change in classification, it shall not be compulsory that an operating engineer in said plant shall immediately obtain a certificate of the grade required caused by the enlargement of the plant, provided he has been operating in the plant for three consecutive years immediately previous to the change, but he shall present himself for examination within a time limit set by the Board.

(h) Certificates are subject to cancellation or suspension:

(a) If the holder is habitually intemperate, or addicted to the use of drugs;

(b) if he operates a plant while he is in an intemperate condition;

(c) if he becomes insane or physically incapacitated;

(d) if he has proven incompetent or negligent in the discharge of his duties;

(e) if he has obtained his certificate through misrepresentation or fraud;

(f) if he maliciously destroys his employer's property;

(g) if he allows another to operate under his certificate;

(h) if he is proven to be dishonest;

(i) if he impersonates another and thereby attempts to secure a certificate by false means for a person other than himself;

(j) if he absents himself from his plant before ascertaining that all machinery is properly shut down and all boiler fires are properly pulled or banked, or that he is relieved of his duties by the proper person;

(k) if he signs an application form of a candidate for examination without personally knowing that the written statement of engineering experience is true;

(l) if he allows his certificate to lapse for more than FIVE consecutive years.

Plant Registration and Certificates

10.—(a) On the recommendation of the Board and on payment of the fees prescribed by the Regulations, the Minister may issue to the owner of any kind of plant to which this Act applies, a Certificate of Registration.

(b) The Registration Certificate shall show the total horsepower of the plant to which it is applicable, such horsepower having been computed as follows:

A High Pressure Steam Plant—

"The Sum of the boiler horsepower installed PLUS the brake horsepower rating of the motive power driving all compressors other than air PLUS one-half of the brake horsepower rating of the motive power driving air compressors. The horsepower of steam driven compressors being always excepted."

A High Pressure Steam Plant when combined with A Low Pressure Steam Plant—

"The Sum of the high pressure boiler horsepower installed PLUS the brake horsepower rating of all compressors other than air PLUS one-half the SUM of the low pressure boiler horsepower PLUS one-half the brake horsepower rating of the motive power driving air compressors."

A Low Pressure Steam Plant—

"The sum of the boiler horsepower installed plus the brake horsepower rating of the motive power driving all compressors other than air plus one half the brake horsepower rating of the motive power driving all air compressors."

A "Refrigeration Plant" wherein the motive power is other than steam and no steam boiler equipment, within the meaning of the Act, is included—

"The Sum of the brake horsepower rating of the motive power unit or units driving the compressor or compressors."

A "Compressor Plant" other than air, wherein the motive power is other than steam and no steam boiler equipment, within the meaning of the Act, is included—

"The Sum of the brake horsepower rating of the motive power unit or units driving the compressor or compressors."

An "Air Compressor Plant, Stationary" wherein the motive power is other than steam and no steam boiler equipment, within the meaning of the Act, is included—

"The Sum of the brake horsepower rating of the motive power unit or units driving the air compressor or air compressors."

As to Fees

11.—(a) The fee for examination for Fireman's Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Three Dollars;

(b) the fee for examination for Stationary Fourth Class Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Three Dollars;

(c) the fee for examination for Stationary Third Class Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Five Dollars;

(d) the fee for examination for Stationary Second Class Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Seven Dollars;

(e) the fee for examination for Stationary First Class Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Ten Dollars;

(f) the fee for examination for Hoisting Engineer's Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Five Dollars, except where the applicant is the holder of a Traction Engineer's Certificate of current issue, when the fee shall be Two Dollars;

(g) the fee for examination for Hoisting (Electrical and Internal Combustion) Engineer's Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Five Dollars;

(h) the fee for examination for Traction Engineer's Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Five Dollars, except where the applicant is the holder of a Hoisting Engineer's Certificate of current issue, when the fee shall be Two Dollars;

(i) the fee for examination for Refrigeration Fourth Class Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Three Dollars;

(j) the fee for examination for Refrigeration Third Class Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Five Dollars;

(k) the fee for examination for Refrigeration Second Class Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Seven Dollars;

(l) the fee for examination for Special Compressor Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Five Dollars;

(m) the fee for re-examination for Fireman's Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be One Dollar;

(n) the fee for re-examination for Fourth Class Certificate, under all classifications (including certificate, if granted) shall be One Dollar;

(o) the fee for re-examination for Third Class Certificate, under all classifications (including certificate, if granted) shall be Three Dollars;

(p) the fee for re-examination for Second Class Certificate, under all classifications (including certificate, if granted) shall be Five Dollars;

(q) the fee for re-examination for First Class Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Seven Dollars;

(r) the fee for re-examination for Hoisting Engineer's Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Three Dollars, except where the applicant is the holder of a Traction Engineer's Certificate of current issue, when the fee shall be Two Dollars;

(s) the fee for re-examination for Hoisting (Electrical and Internal Combustion) Engineer's Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Three Dollars;

(t) the fee for re-examination for Traction Engineer's Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Three Dollars, except where the applicant is the holder of a Hoisting Engineer's Certificate of current issue, when the fee shall be Two Dollars;

(u) the fee for re-examination for Special Compressor Certificate (including certificate, if granted) shall be Three Dollars;

(v) the annual renewal of a certificate shall be One Dollar;

(w) the fee for renewing a certificate which the holder has failed to renew by the 1st day of February next ensuing shall be TWO DOLLARS and the fee shall increase at the rate of ONE DOLLAR per year until such time as the certificate is renewed or cancelled;

(x) the fee for issuing a Duplicate Certificate shall be One Dollar;

(y) the fee for issuing a Plant Registration Certificate shall be One Dollar;

(z) the fee for issuing a Provisional Certificate shall be Five Dollars.

General Regulations

12.—(a) Plant Operation by Shifts—When a plant is operated in two or more shifts the chief engineer shall arrange that a shift engineer holding a certificate not less than one grade lower than that required to operate such plant as chief engineer, according to the registration horsepower, take charge and operate during his temporary absence from the plant.

(b) Sickness and Holidays—In the temporary absence of an engineer due to sickness or holidays an engineer holding a certificate of not less than one grade lower may take charge and operate in his stead for a period not exceeding 21 days in any one year. Under special circumstances this period may be extended upon application to the Board.

(c) When a high pressure stationary steam, or refrigeration plant, or any combination of steam, refrigeration, or compressor equipment is in operation, of 25 horsepower but not exceeding 75 horsepower, an engineer possessing at least a fourth class certificate issued by the Board shall be required as chief or engineer in charge thereof.

(d) When a high pressure stationary steam, compressor, or refrigeration plant, or any combination of steam, refrigeration, or compressor equipment is in operation of over 75 horsepower but not exceeding 200 horsepower, an engineer possessing at least a third class certificate issued by the Board shall be required as chief or engineer in charge thereof.

(e) When a high pressure stationary steam, compressor, or refrigeration plant, or any combination of steam, refrigeration or compressor equipment is in operation of over 200 horsepower but not exceeding 600 horsepower, an engineer possessing at least a second class certificate issued by the Board shall be required as chief or engineer in charge thereof.

(f) When a high pressure stationary steam, compressor, or refrigeration plant or any combination of steam, refrigeration, or compressor equipment is in operation, of over 600 horsepower, an engineer possessing a first class certificate issued by the Board shall be required as chief or engineer in charge thereof.

(g) When a steam plant of a portable nature is in operation consisting of a steam boiler, or boiler and engine, machinery and equipment used in connection therewith, and such boiler is not permanently attached to a solid base, and used in the operation of portable saw mills, drills, temporary asphalt plants, pumps, heating systems temporarily installed during construction work, or other similar apparatus not self-propelling and of a portable nature, an engineer possessing a steam certificate issued by the Board shall be required to operate and take charge thereof.

(h) Separate Ownership—Steam engine or engines, turbine or turbines or any combination of such where the steam is supplied to drive said machinery from boiler or boilers situated on premises not owned and operated by the owner of the steam engines or turbines, shall be deemed to be a separate plant, and the horsepower rating of such plant shall be the combined brake horsepower of the engines or turbines at full load.

(i) Absence of Engineer—When a stationary plant is in operation of over 200 horsepower and the chief or shift engineer absents himself from the boiler, engine, or compressor room while occupied on matters concerning other machinery or equipment of the plant, as defined in the Act, it must be arranged that a person possessing an engineer's certificate of not less than one grade lower than that required to operate such a plant as shift engineer be present and in charge of all boilers, engines and compressors.

(j) When a stationary plant is in operation of 200 horsepower or less, and the chief or shift engineer absents himself from the boiler, engine, or compressor room for a period exceeding fifteen minutes, while occupied on matters concerning machinery or equipment of the plant, as defined in the Act, it must be arranged that a person possessing a fireman's or engineer's certificate be present and in charge of all boilers, engines or compressors.

(k) Portable Air Compressors—Air compressor plants of a portable nature, or temporarily installed during construction work, wherein the brake horsepower rating of the motive power is 75 or over and wherein the motive power is other than steam, must be in charge of a person holding a hoisting or traction engineer's certificate.

Air compressor plants of a portable nature situated on or near a public highway in villages, towns or cities must be in the charge of a person holding a hoisting or traction engineer's certificate if the motive power is other than steam and the brake horsepower rating of the motive power exceeds 35.

(l) Low Pressure Plant Operation—When a low pressure stationary steam plant of 75 horsepower, but not exceeding 100 horsepower, is in operation, a person possessing at least a fireman's certificate issued by the Board shall be required to take charge and operate.

(m) When a low pressure stationary steam plant of over 100 horsepower, but not exceeding 200 horsepower is in operation, an engineer possessing at least a fourth class certificate issued by the Board shall be required to take charge and operate.

(n) When a low pressure stationary plant of over 200 horsepower, but not exceeding 600 horsepower is in operation, an engineer possessing at least a third class certificate issued by the Board shall be required to take charge and operate.

(o) When a low pressure stationary steam plant of over 600 horsepower is in operation, an engineer possessing at least a second class certificate issued by the Board shall be required to take charge and operate.

(p) Stationary Air Compressor Plant—In a stationary air compressor plant of 75 horsepower or over wherein there is no steam boiler equipment, the class of certificate required may be one grade lower than that required in a steam plant of equal horsepower.

DEFINITIONS

13.—(a) Boiler Horse Power Installed shall mean the Sum of the individual boiler horsepower of boilers so connected as to be possible of supplying steam.

(b) A Boiler Plant shall mean either or each or any combination of a "high pressure steam plant" and a "low pressure steam plant" irrespective of whether such plant is a "stationary steam plant" or a "hoisting plant" or in anywise portable.

(c) A High Pressure Steam Plant shall mean a boiler plant of 25 horsepower or over where the safety valves are set to relieve the pressure at over 15 pounds per square inch.

(d) A Low Pressure Steam Plant shall mean a boiler plant of 75 horsepower or over where the safety valves are set to relieve the pressure at 15 pounds per square inch or under.

(e) Compressor Plant shall mean, for the purpose of these Regulations, any plant wherein the compression of air or other gases is performed for any purpose other than a refrigeration process. Total motive horsepower of below 25 is not covered by this Act, steam power plants being always excepted.

(f) Compressor Plant Horsepower, for the purpose of these Regulations, is computed as follows:—For gases other than air the horsepower shall be the Sum of the brake horsepower rating of the driving units connected to such compressors, steam power always excepted.

For Air the horsepower shall be the Sum of the brake horsepower rating of the driving units connected to such air compressors, steam power always excepted.

(g) Refrigeration Plant shall mean the compressor (mechanical or thermal) together with such component parts as constitute equipment necessary to perform a refrigeration process irrespective of the gas used as a refrigerant.

(h) Refrigeration Plant Horsepower, for the purposes of these Regulations, is defined as follows:—For motive power, other than steam, the Sum of the brake horsepower rating of the driving units connected to refrigeration compressors.

For steam-driven compressors—Where the boilers are integral with the refrigeration plant the prime mover horsepower shall not be added to the plant horsepower.

For steam-driven compressors—Where the boilers are separately owned and remote from the refrigeration plant the prime mover horsepower, at full load, shall be included in the plant horsepower.

(i) Registration Horsepower shall mean the total plant horsepower as computed by the provisions of the Act and as shown upon the face of the Registration Certificate.

(j) Chief Engineer or Engineer in Charge shall mean a qualified operating engineer who has charge of, and at all times has the full responsibility of the care and operation of boilers, engines, compressors, pumps, machinery and equipment, and things connected therewith, pertaining to the power plant.

(k) Shift Engineer shall mean a qualified operating engineer who operates and takes charge of the boilers, engines, compressors, pumps, machinery and equipment and things connected therewith under the direction of a chief engineer.

THE COUNTY JUDGES ACT

O. Reg. 240/44.
Fees.
New.
Made—February 17th, 1919.

Order-in-Council approved by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, dated the 17th of February, A.D. 1919.

Upon the recommendation of the Honourable the Attorney-General, the Committee of Council advise that, pursuant to the provisions of sec. 18 of The County Judges Act, Ch. 58, R.S.O. 1914, the remuneration by salary of the shorthand writers for the local Courts and the fees for copies of evidence to be taken by them for their own use be fixed as follows:

1. For services at Court, each day on which actually employed, eight dollars ($8.00) per diem.

2. For copies of evidence required for the Judges under rules made or to be made in that behalf and to be furnished at the expense of the parties, and for one copy for the party desiring to move thereon, ten cents (10c) per folio of one copy for all the copies required of any one transcription of shorthand notes, not exceeding six altogether.

3. For any additional copies made for the parties, five cents (5c) per folio for each copy.

4. For single copies ordered, seven and one-half cents (7½c) per folio.

5. For copies ordered by the Judge for his own use, seven and one-half cents (7½c) per folio, to be paid by the county treasurer upon the order or certificate of the Judge.

6. For reading evidence to the Judge from notes taken where no copies are ordered, at the rate of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per hour, to be paid by the county treasurer upon the order or certificate of the Judge.

The Committee further advise that the above provisions shall be applicable to the shorthand writers for the local Courts in districts as well as in organized counties.

NOMINATIONS

1. All elections shall be conducted as follows:

(a) At the October meeting in each year Council shall appoint a nominating committee of ten members, who are not members of Council, two from each branch. This committee shall make nominations for president, vice-president and councillors.

(b) Any ten members may, however, nominate candidates for president or vice-president, and five members in any branch may nominate councillors for that branch.

(c) Nominations shall be filed with the secretary-treasurer on or before the 10th day of November.

VOTING

2.—(a) Unless the election is by acclamation, the ballot shall be prepared from the nominations received by the secretary-treasurer, who shall mail a printed copy to each member of the branch or branches concerned, on or before December 1st.

(b) Each member shall be entitled to vote for president and for vice-president, but he can vote only for the councillors nominated to represent the branch in which he is registered to vote. (A copy of this subsection shall be printed on each ballot.)

(c) The marked ballots are to be in the hands of the secretary-treasurer on or before December 20th.

3. The candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. In the event of a tie between two or more candidates, the secretary-treasurer shall cast the deciding vote or votes.

4. When an election is necessary, three scrutineers shall be appointed by the president prior to December 20th. Such scrutineers shall count the votes received by the secretary-treasurer, and shall report the result of the voting to him on or before December 28th. The secretary-treasurer shall notify the members of the new Council of their election and they shall take office on January 1st.

MEETINGS OF COUNCIL

5.—(a) Regular meetings of Council shall be held in January, April, July and October. The day, hour and place of meeting is to be selected by the president, and notice shall be given by the secretary-treasurer to each member of Council not less than seven days before such meeting.

(b) Special meetings of Council may be called at the direction of the present or executive committee, and the secretary-treasurer shall give such reasonable notice to all members of Council as circumstances shall permit.

6. Seven members of Council shall constitute a quorum.

7. The office of member of Council is vacated by resignation, by death, by ceasing to be a member of the Association, or by absence from three consecutive meetings without consent of Council. If a vacancy should occur in Council, it may be filled by Council for the balance of the year or left vacant until the next annual election.

8. The transactions of Council or of any committee shall be valid notwithstanding disqualification of any member thereof, through any defect or irregularity in his election or appointment.

MEETINGS OF ASSOCIATION

9. General meetings of the Association may be called by the president, with the consent of Council, or by the secretary-treasurer upon the petition of twenty-five members.

10. Fifty members shall constitute a quorum for all such general meetings.

11. Notices of a general meeting shall be sent to all members at least ten days before the date of such meeting, in which notice the purpose of the meeting shall be set forth.

12. All notices required to be given to members shall be deemed to have been given if mailed prepaid in the Toronto Post Office within the time specified for such notice, addressed to the member at his last known address recorded in the office of the Association. A declaration by the secretary-treasurer shall be conclusive evidence of the mailing of such notice.

OFFICERS

13. At the January meeting, Council shall appoint a secretary-treasurer and a registrar, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the Council.

14. The secretary-treasurer shall keep minutes of all meetings of the Association and of the Council; conduct the correspondence; receive all payments due the Association; certify to the correctness of all accounts to be paid; levy fees; give notices of meetings; keep correct accounts; prepare financial statements; and perform such other secretarial duties as the Council may prescribe.

15. The registrar shall keep the register, issue certificates and licenses, and perform such other duties and in such manner as Council may prescribe.

16.—(a) The offices of secretary-treasurer and of registrar may be combined.

(b) Should a vacancy occur in any office or should any officer be unable to carry on his duties from any cause, Council shall have power to fill the vacancy, or to make such arrangements as are necessary for the performance of such duties.

FINANCES

17. The membership fee for the first calendar year of membership, or for the balance thereof, shall be $10.00 and shall be paid by the applicant with his application for registration as a member of the Association. If the applicant is not granted membership, such fee shall be returned to him.

18. Each member shall pay to the Association in the year following the year of his admission a fee of $10.00 and in each succeeding year a fee of $5.00, which fee in each case shall be due on January 1st.

19. The fee for license for a non-resident of Ontario to practise in the Province shall be five dollars, which sum shall be paid to the Association upon application for license.

20. Each applicant who is required by Council to sit for an examination shall transmit to the Association, with his notice of intention to qualify for examination, the sum of twenty-five dollars for each branch in which examination is required, to cover examination cost.

21.—(a) All money received on behalf of the Association shall be deposited in a chartered bank in the name of the Association. If considered advisable by Council, such money or any part of it may be invested in approved securities, registered in the name of the Association, guaranteed by the Dominion or Provincial governments. Such securities are to be placed in a safety deposit vault, subject to access only by the president or vice-president accompanied by the registrar or secretary-treasurer. Any securities held in the name of the Association shall only be sold or exchanged by direction of Council at a meeting at which not less than twelve members are present.

(b) All payments shall be made by cheque signed by the president or vice-president and by the registrar or Secretary-treasurer.

22. The secretary-treasurer shall be bonded by a guarantee company approved by Council in the amount of $5,000.00, and such other employees shall be bonded in such amounts as may be determined by Council from time to time. The cost of any such bonds shall be paid by the Association.

23. The fiscal year of the Association shall be the calendar year.

24. At the January meeting of the Council one or more chartered accountants shall be appointed as auditors, who shall examine the financial or other records of the Association for the current year, and who shall prepare a statement of account and report to the secretary-treasurer on or before January 15th of the following year.

25. The balance sheet, with summary of report of Auditors, shall be printed and mailed to all members of the Association, by the secretary-treasurer, after its presentation to Council.

REMUNERATION

26.—(a) The Council shall have power to employ, and to remunerate from the funds of the Association, the secretary-treasurer, the registrar, the auditor, and the necessary clerical assistants, and defray any other expenses incidental to the work of the Association.

(b) The Council shall also have power to provide for an office and to equip the same for carrying on the business of the Association.

27. Members of Council shall be reimbursed for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred in carrying out the work of the Association, subject to the approval of Council.

28. The Council shall have power to fix the remuneration to be paid to examiners, to provide rooms in which the examinations are to be held, and for incurring necessary expenses connected with the examinations.

EXAMINATIONS

29.—(a) At the January or other meeting of the Council the board of examiners shall be appointed for the current year, consisting of two or more examiners for each branch.

(b) The Council may at any time fill any vacancy in the board of examiners or replace any member of the board or may add to the number.

30.—(a) Examinations shall be held in March and in September or when ordered by Council, and the board of examiners shall report the results to the secretary-treasurer within one month after such examination.

(b) The board of examiners shall conduct the examinations in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Council may prescribe.

31. The board of examiners may delegate authority to any member of the Association to conduct a partial or supplemental examination of any candidate, at any time, in any part of the Province.

CERTIFICATE

32. The registrar shall issue a certificate of membership and registration to each member of the Association within three months after his application has been accepted by Council.

SEALS

33. The seal of the Association shall contain the words "Association of Professional Engineers of the Province of Ontario, Incorporated 1922," and shall be of such design as the Council may select, and when used shall be authenticated by the signature of the president and secretary-treasurer or vice-president or registrar or any two of them, except as otherwise provided by Statute.

34. For uniformity, the members' seals shall be obtained only through the Association, and will be supplied to members at an amount not exceeding their actual cost.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

35. The order of business at meetings shall be as follows:

(a) Meetings of Association—

Reading of minutes.
Business arising out of minutes.
Reading and considering correspondence.
Reading and considering reports from Council and of committees.
General business.

(b) Meetings of Council—

Reading of minutes.
Business arising out of minutes.
Reading and considering correspondence.
Reading and considering reports from committees, board of examiners, auditor, etc.
Considering and passing accounts.
General business.
Receiving and considering applications for membership.

36. The proceedings at all meetings of the Association, and of Council, shall be governed by the rules laid down in "Bourinot's Procedure," except as these by-laws may otherwise provide.

37. In the event of any dispute as to the meaning or intent of any of these by-laws, or of any by-laws which may hereafter be made, the interpretation of the Council may be final.

38.—(a) All proposed amendments or additions to the by-laws may (1) originate in Council, (2) be submitted to Council by a petition signed by not less than twenty members.

(b) If the proposed amendments or additions are approved by Council they shall be printed and submitted to ballot of the membership within two months. If the majority of the ballots returned be favourable, the amendments or additions shall be submitted to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for approval.

(c) If the proposed amendments or additions are not approved by Council they shall be returned to the petitioners with Council's reason for rejection, and they shall not go to the membership for ballot until such time as the petitioners have secured at least one hundred signatures to the petition. Upon receipt of the petition with not less than one hundred signatures, they shall be printed and submitted to ballot of the membership within two months. If the majority of the ballots returned be favourable, the amendments or additions shall be submitted to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for approval.

COMMITTEES

39. In addition to any other committees which Council may appoint from time to time, the following standing committees shall be appointed each year at the January meeting of Council: Executive, Legislation, Finance, and Publicity.

40. The president of the Association shall be an ex-officio member of all committees. The vice-president and immediate past president shall be ex-officio members of the four standing committees.

41. In addition to the representation hereinbefore provided, the standing committees shall be constituted as follows:

(a) Executive Committee—One member of Council from each of the branches.

(b) Legislation Committee—Two members of Council.

(c) Finance Committee—Two members of Council.

(d) Publicity Committee—Two members of Council.

42. The six members of the three standing committees next hereinbefore mentioned shall be selected from Council at large.

43. Duties of Standing Committees—In addition to the specific duties which are hereinafter set forth for any standing or other committee, Council may refer such other matters to them from time to time as may be deemed expedient.

44.—(a) Executive Committee—

(1) To deal with emergent matters arising between regular meetings of Council.

(2) To consult with other committees of Council.

(3) To report to Council in matters involving the ethical behaviour of members.

(4) To advise the secretary-treasurer on matters of policy.

(5) To act upon or report upon any matter which may be referred to it by Council.

(6) To prepare a resumé of the year's activities, with particular reference to matters of policy both as to the outgoing and incoming Council.

(b) Legislation Committee—

(1) To recommend to Council changes in the Act which may be necessary or advisable.

(2) To inform Council of any proposed legislation which directly or indirectly affects the interest of the Association.

(3) To consult the solicitor of the Association, when necessary, on matters pertaining to legislation.

(c) Finance Committee—

(1) To advise Council on the purchase or sale of securities.

(2) To check and report to Council on all expenditures.

(3) To report from time to time the current position in relation to the budget.

(4) To advise on expenditures not included in the budget.

(5) To prepare a budget for the consideration of the incoming Council at its January meeting, which shall be adopted or amended by Council at that meeting.

(d) Publicity Committee, under the direction of Council—

(1) To prepare and issue the bulletin of the Association.

(2) To inform the public on the Association's activities.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION

1.—(1) A course of instruction, consisting of actual instruction in anatomy, sanitary science and the general practice of embalming and funeral directing may be established by or with the approval of the Board.

(2) No school of embalming, lecture, course of lectures or demonstrations in embalming or funeral directing shall be conducted or carried on without the approval of the Board.

ARTICLES; REGISTRATION

(2) The fee for registration shall be $1.00.

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

3. A student shall not be eligible to take the course of instruction or to write the examination for an embalmer's certificate of qualification until he has passed from the second to the third form in a secondary school in Ontario or in the opinion of the Board has attained equivalent educational qualifications.

SERVICE

4. Every articled student shall continue to serve as an articled student until he succeeds in passing the examinations for an embalmer's certificate of qualification or is otherwise dropped from the register.

NUMBER OF STUDENTS

5. No funeral director shall have more than one articled student for each licensed embalmer regularly in his employ.

INSTRUCTIONS

6. Every funeral director to whom a student becomes articled shall explain the provisions of the Act and regulations pertaining to articled students to him and during the course of his term shall instruct such student to the best of his ability in the work of a funeral director and embalmer.

QUALIFICATIONS TO TRY EXAMINATION

7.—(1) Every articled student shall, before he is permitted to write the examination for certificate of qualification as an embalmer,—

(a) serve a period of not less than two years full time employment from the date of registration, with a funeral director studying the business and practice of embalming and funeral directing; and

(b) attend a course of instruction prescribed by the Board in anatomy, sanitary science, and the general practice of embalming and funeral directing.

(2) Every articled student shall attend such course of instruction and write the examination for a certificate of qualification within three years from the date of registration and the name of every student who fails to do so and who does not furnish reasons in writing satisfactory to the Board for such failure within a reasonable time shall, upon the instructions of the Board, be dropped from the register.

(3) Any person whose name has been dropped from the register as an articled student may apply to the Board to have his name restored to the register and if the Board is satisfied after full investigation that the name of such person should be so restored, the Board may cause it to be restored.

SUBJECTS AND TIME OF EXAMINATION

8.—(1) The Board shall prescribe the subjects and conduct the examination of all candidates for certificates of qualification as embalmers.

(2) Examinations shall be held at least once each year at such time and place as the Board shall direct.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXAMINATION

9.—(1) Applications for examination shall be made on the form prescribed by the Board, and shall be mailed at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the examination, together with,—

(a) proof of sobriety, good character and preliminary education satisfactory to the Board;

(b) proof of compliance with subregulation 1 of regulation 7 satisfactory to the Board; and

(c) the prescribed fee.

(2) The fee for examination shall be $25.00 which shall include certificate of qualification to the successful candidate.

RETRYING EXAMINATION

10.—(1) Candidates who fail to pass the examination shall try the examination the following year unless excused by the Board, and failing to do this their names shall be dropped from the register.

(2) Candidates failing to pass the examination and who try the examination the following year shall pay a further examination fee of $10.00.

CERTIFICATES OF QUALIFICATION

11. A certificate of qualification as embalmer shall be issued by the Board to every candidate who has successfully passed the examination.

PERMITS

12.—(1) Permits shall be granted only in such cases as come under sections 8 and 14 of the Act, and each permit shall be dealt with individually by the Board which shall have discretionary power to decide each case on its merits.

(2) The annual fee for such permit shall not exceed $10.00 and shall be subject to the discretionary power of the Board.

EMBALMERS' LICENSES

13.—(1) A license for an embalmer shall be granted only to the holder of a certificate of qualification who has attained the age of twenty-one years and has submitted evidence of good character satisfactory to the Board.

(2) The fee for such license or renewal thereof shall be $3.00.

(3) An embalmer who has not renewed his license for a period not exceeding five years may renew his license on payment of all arrears, together with the fee for the current year, but in every such case the Board shall be satisfied as to the moral standing and character of the applicant.

(4) An embalmer who has not renewed his license for a period exceeding five consecutive years shall in addition to payment of his arrears of license fees demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Board that he is qualified to do the work of an embalmer.

REFRESHER COURSE

14.—(1) In order to be in good standing for renewal of license every embalmer shall at least once in every five years attend a two-day course of instruction in embalming, restorative art, sanitation and funeral management conducted or approved by the Board.

(2) Every embalmer who attends the full two-day course shall be furnished with a certificate of attendance and shall mail such certificate forthwith to the Board which shall keep a record thereof.

(3) This regulation shall not apply to an embalmer who is,—

(a) on active service with any of His Majesty's Forces;

(b) seventy years of age or over and not actively engaged as an embalmer; or

(c) engaged in an occupation other than embalming.

(4) An embalmer who is unable to attend the course as required by subregulation 1 through illness, physical disability or shortage of help as a result of the war, may be granted an extension of one year by the Board in which to comply with the requirement.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS' LICENSES

15.—(1) A license as a funeral director shall be issued to a licensed embalmer whose premises, accommodation and equipment have been approved by the local board of health, and whose furnishings, premises and equipment have been approved by the Board.

(2) The fee for such license or renewal thereof shall be $3.00.

(3) Every license issued to a funeral director shall specify by name the person to whom it is issued, the particular place with street and number where possible at which and the name under which the business shall be carried on, and shall authorize the conduct of such business only at the particular place, and by the person and under the name so designated and only one such license shall be granted to or held by any person.

(4) Where a funeral director desires to change his place of business from that for which his license has been granted, he shall notify the Board before making such change, giving full description of the new premises and shall return his funeral director's license for cancellation and make application for a funeral director's license to enable him to operate from the new premises.

16.—(1) Every applicant for a funeral director's license shall furnish with his application a certificate of the local board of health on a form approved by the Board certifying that his premises, accommodation and equipment have been inspected by an officer of the board of health and approved by it as sufficient to enable him to conduct his business in a sanitary manner.

(2) The Board may request an inspection and report by the local board of health of the premises, accommodation and equipment of any funeral director licensed under the Act and the local board of health may make such inspection and report.

LICENSES FROM OUTSIDE OF ONTARIO

17. The Board may issue an embalmer's or funeral director's license to any person who furnishes to the Board,—

(a) evidence that he is the holder of a corresponding license in any other province of Canada or any state of the United States of America in which,

(i) the requirements respecting the qualifications and licensing of funeral directors are substantially the same as in Ontario, and

(ii) persons licensed in Ontario are granted corresponding privileges;

(b) a statement of the corresponding licensing authority of such province or state,

(i) showing the rating upon which such person was granted a license,

(ii) making such recommendation respecting the issue of a license in Ontario as such licensing authority may see fit to make, and

(iii) certifying that such person has held such a license in such province or state for the period of five years next preceding the application; and

(c) a fee of $25.00.

SECRETARY

18. The secretary of the Board shall perform the usual secretarial duties and such further clerical or other responsibilities as may be specially assigned to him by the Board.

INQUIRIES

19.—(1) The chairman of the Board may, on representation made to him, direct the secretary to convene a special meeting of the Board for the purpose of hearing evidence with respect to infractions of the Act, non-observance of the regulations or for infamous or disgraceful conduct in a professional respect on the part of any embalmer or funeral director.

(2) On the request of any two members of the Board, expressed in writing, the chairman shall convene such a meeting.

(3) In the notice convening the meeting a copy of the charges made or a statement of the subject matter of the inquiry shall be given, the time and place of the hearing shall be designated and all parties interested shall have not less than ten days' notice of such meeting.

(4) In the case of any person whose conduct is the subject of any inquiry, the secretary shall serve on such person, personally, or shall send by prepaid registered post to the address of such person as last entered on the register, at least ten days before the holding of the inquiry, notice of the charges made against him, and such notice shall contain a statement of the subject matter of the inquiry and shall specify the time and place of the meeting to hold such inquiry.

(5) In the event of the non-attendance of the person whose conduct is the subject of such inquiry, the Board may upon proof of service of the notice, which proof of service may be by statutory declaration, proceed with the subject matter of the inquiry in his absence, and may make its report of the facts without further notice to such person.

(6) All evidence at such hearing shall be given on oath, and the Board on any inquiry or investigation shall have the same power of summoning any person or persons and requiring him or them to give evidence on oath, and to produce such documents or things as the Board deems requisite, with full power to enforce attendance of witnesses and to compel them to give evidence and to produce documents and things as may be conferred upon a commissioner under The Public Inquiries Act.

(7) The Board and the respondent may be represented by counsel at such hearing.

ERASURE FROM REGISTER

20.—(1) Upon receipt of proof of the finding or decision of any court of record in Ontario, civil or criminal, that a criminal offence has been committed in connection with the practice of his profession by any licensed embalmer or funeral director, the secretary, on the order of the Board, shall forthwith erase from the register the name of such embalmer or funeral director, and cancel his certificate of qualification and license.

(2) The Board may, and upon the application in writing of any four licensed funeral directors shall cause inquiry to be made into the case of a person alleged to be liable to have his name erased under this regulation, and on proof of such conviction or on proof of infamous or disgraceful conduct in a professional respect, the Board shall cause the name of such person to be erased from the register and his certificate and license cancelled, but the name of a person shall not be erased nor shall his certificate or license be cancelled under this regulation on account of a conviction for an offence which, though within the provisions of this regulation, ought not, either from the trivial nature of the offence or from the circumstances under which it was committed, to disqualify the person from practising as a licensed embalmer or funeral director.

(3) Where any embalmer or funeral director has either before or after registration been convicted either in any of His Majesty's dominions or elsewhere of an offence which if committed in Canada would be an indictable offence or been guilty of infamous or disgraceful conduct in a professional respect, the Board may direct that his name be erased from the register and his certificate of qualification and license be cancelled.

21. In the cases mentioned in regulation 19 the Board may at its discretion instead of directing the erasure from the register of the name of any person and the cancelling of his certificate and license, direct that the license of such person be suspended for such period as the Board may deem proper, and during the period of such suspension, it shall be unlawful for the person so suspended to engage in practice as an embalmer or funeral director and he shall during the said period be deemed to be not licensed.

22. Notice of cancellation or suspension of the certificate of qualification and license of any person as provided in regulations 20 and 21 shall be sent forthwith by registered prepaid post to the address of the person as last entered upon the register or served on him personally, notifying him of such cancellation or suspension and requring him to forthwith deliver to the secretary or to a member of the Board, his certificate of qualification and license and in default of compliance with such requirement forthwith, the Board shall have power to take possession of such certificate and license.

REINSTATEMENT

23. Where any person whose registration has been erased or whose certificate of qualification has been cancelled or whose license has been cancelled or suspended applies to the Board for reinstatement and the Board is satisfied, after full inquiry, that the person applying should be reinstated, the Board shall have full power and authority to reinstate such person, either conditionally or unconditionally, as the Board deems expedient.

INFAMOUS OR DISGRACEFUL CONDUCT

24. For the purpose of this Act infamous or disgraceful conduct in a professional respect on the part of an embalmer or funeral director shall mean,—

(a) personal or professional conduct of an embalmer or funeral director which is not such as to lend dignity to the profession and inspire confidence on the part of the public in the members of the profession;

(b) the conduct of a business operated by a funeral director in such manner, economically and professionally, which is not such as to reflect credit on the profession and to inspire confidence on the part of the funeral purchasing public;

(c) the conduct of advertising, including the sign used at the place of business, in a manner which is not such as to inspire confidence on the part of the funeral purchasing public and reflect credit on the profession;

(d) the payment, award or giving of any commission, remuneration or reward by any funeral director or embalmer or any agent or representative thereof to any person for the purpose of extending the services of or procuring patronage for such funeral director or embalmer.

PAYMENT OF EXPENSES

25.—(1) Out of the fees received under the Act, that Board may,—

(a) pay the secretary such salary or other remuneration as may by resolution be fixed by it;

(b) pay for such clerical, professional or other service as may be required from time to time;

(c) purchase such supplies and equipment and pay such incidental expenses as may be necessary for the proper carrying out of the work of the Board;

(d) pay rent for such office or other accommodation as may be required; and

(e) pay such travelling and incidental expenses as the Board may deem proper.

(2) While absent from home for the purpose of attending meetings of the Board, conducting examinations or attending to any work authorized by the Board, each member of the Board shall be paid out of the fees received by the Board, the sum of $20.00 per day and actual travelling and living expenses.

MANAGER

26. Every person, partnership, firm or corporation carrying on business as a funeral director shall have as manager of such establishment and for each branch of such establishment operated by such person, partnership, firm or corporation, a person licensed as a funeral director and embalmer except in cases where provision is made in the Act for granting a permit, and the premises, furnishings and equipment of each such establishment shall be subject to the approval of the Board and of the local board of health.

REVOCATION

All regulations in force under The Embalmers' and Funeral Directors' Act at the date of the coming into force of these regulations are revoked.

VOL. LXXVIII. TORONTO, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24th, 1945 No. 8

Speech from the Throne

THE HONOURABLE THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR was pleased to open the Second Session of the Twenty-first Legislature on Thursday, February 15th last, with the following speech from the throne:

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly

As you meet at the Opening of the Second Session of the Twenty-first Legislature, I wish to extend my best wishes as you resume your Legislative duties.

At the outset I would like to take the opportunity to join with you in paying respect to the memory of a former Speaker, the Honourable W. D. Black, who has died since we last met. For nearly half a century, Mr. Black was prominent in the public life of Ontario and won the affection and esteem of all who knew him. He sat continuously as a member of this Legislature from 1911 until 1943, when advancing years led to his retirement. I believe that as we pay respect to his memory we may well recall such examples of long public service.

Since you were last in session, the United Nations have gone forward from victory to victory, and statements issuing from the meeting of the three leaders of our combined effort do give reason for confidence that the war in Europe is rapidly reaching its climax. But there will still be hard and costly fighting, and our first thought must be with those who bear the brunt of that mighty struggle and with their loved ones at home who wait in anxiety for their safe return.

Education lays the foundation for the strength of Ontario and of every other part of Canada. Many important changes have been made in our educational system. The most important single step which has been taken is the assumption by the Government of fifty per cent of the total cost of elementary and secondary education throughout the province. This will make it possible to equalize educational opportunity as never before, and it will enable the Department of Education to accelerate the improvement of many of our less satisfactory schools. It will greatly relieve the burden of taxation on real estate for school purposes, and in this way have the effect of encouraging the building and improvement of homes where all education begins.

Much has been done already to improve the possibilities of good rural education. Approximately one-quarter of the old school sections have been merged in Township School Areas. This brings to children in the rural schools better teachers, standard courses of instruction, and wider opportunities to continue their education through the secondary school grades. Special grants have been offered to rural high schools which adapt the regular school courses to local needs by the introduction of practical agriculture, shop work and home economics; open the school for use as a community centre, and provide hot lunches for pupils who come from a distance. Thirty schools have already undertaken this special program, and many others have indicated their intention of following the same course as soon as staff and equipment are available. More rural schools with an enrolment below eight have been closed temporarily, bringing the number closed up to 425. The value of this policy is not so much the saving in cost as it is the improvement of instruction which can be given in the larger class-groups.

The provincial scholarship plan has been considerably expanded to aid able but needy students. Five hundred and eighteen winners of scholarships and bursaries are now studying in our universities, normal schools and other institutions of higher learning.

A new step has been taken in the field of advanced technical training by the opening of the Ontario Mining Institute at Haileybury. Under the direction of an Advisory Committee, which represents all phases of mining activity, the Institute is already functioning satisfactorily.

One of the most interesting developments in the past year has been the opening of a training centre in Toronto for ex-service men and women. This is the first establishment of its kind in Canada. It is under the administrative direction of the Department of Education, working in full co-operation with the Dominion Government as part of the broad rehabilitation program. Training is already being given in fourteen different occupations, and instruction in other trades will be available as soon as the need arises. There is a great demand for special educational training which will prepare returning veterans for university courses or vocational training, and a highly successful tutorial course has been established which will be expanded rapidly as demobilization proceeds.

It is fully recognized that the efficiency of any system of education depends primarily upon the teachers themselves, and it has been the desire of the Department of Education to improve teaching standards throughout the province and to put the teaching profession upon a sound and satisfactory basis. Since the passing of the Ontario Teaching Profession Act during the last Session, the Teachers' Federation has assumed new responsibilities and has given to the teachers of the province a means of expression and professional direction which will be of great help to them and to the whole province. It appears that many improvements which are so necessary in educational administration would be greatly helped if there were some single organization of a similar nature which brought together the combined opinion of all Boards of School Trustees throughout Ontario.

The serious shortage of trained teachers, which has reached critical proportions in all provinces, was met in Ontario by organizing summer sessions in two Normal Schools and in the Ontario College of Education. The closing of many schools was averted by this action. And the results were so satisfactory that it will not be necessary to conduct these special courses during the coming year. There is, however, a definite need for teachers of general shop work and trade subjects. To meet this need, the Ontario Training College for Technical Teachers was reopened last month.

Guidance of the instruction of pupils is arousing ever increasing interest, and a Provincial Director of Guidance has been appointed to extend the full advantages of this important educational development to every part of the province. School Boards may now employ their own Guidance Officer. Material which will assist in organizing this work in the schools can now be secured from the Ontario College of Education at cost price.

New courses have been introduced which place special emphasis upon character, physical fitness, and citizenship. Religious education has been extended as a part of the curriculum in the public schools, and in co-operation with the Inter-Church Committee on Weekday Religious Education, a Teacher's Manual and guide books for the first four grades have been prepared and issued. Under a Director of Physical and Health Education, courses have been revised and greatly extended. Cadet training has been introduced as a part of the high school program. This course is co-related with physical and health education to develop physical fitness, initiative, and a sense of responsibility. Another important development has been the appointment of a Provincial Supervisor of Art, who is responsible for encouraging the arts and crafts, placing particular emphasis upon the use of local materials. Increased emphasis has been placed upon the teaching of history and the responsibilities of citizenship. A very valuable new book has just been completed explaining the history and operation of Canadian institutions, which will shortly be ready for use in Grade XII. Many further revisions of school courses are under consideration but are delayed for the present by wartime shortages and the difficulty of obtaining new text books.

A committee has been set up to assist in the planning, construction and equipment of schools. The purpose of this advisory committee is to take advantage of new construction methods so that schools may be built at the lowest possible cost, and at the same time give every modern advantage to the pupils. This committee will be of great assistance in carrying out a much-needed program of school renovation and construction.

The Department of Health has done much to ensure a maximum of public health and preventive services for all of the people within the province despite the difficulties of carrying out a comprehensive program under wartime conditions. The principle of larger units for public health administration is being accepted by local authorities. A return to civilian life of physicians, nurses and other technical staff will make it possible to establish a substantial number of units throughout the province at that time. Two such units were established last year and three more are now being organized.

The plan of the Department for securing public health nurses has been most effective. Fifty-two nurses were recruited and are now taking the post-graduate training required for this work. They will be available on May 1st, 1945.

The Government has extended an opportunity to other professional personnel to secure the needed special qualifications required for positions in these units. It is proposed to continue this plan for another year.

The health of the worker, particularly in industry, continues to assume its proper relationship to the public health program as a whole. The Department is hopeful of the opportunity during the coming year to set up one or more demonstration units in selected highly industrialized areas. The purpose of these is to show what can be accomplished in this field when an effective method of extending this service is carried out.

Sustained efforts are being made to reduce the incidence of social diseases. It may be noted that during the past year there has been a substantial drop in the number of reported cases of the most serious of these diseases. Legislation will be introduced to further assist an effective control program.

The problem of the control of tuberculosis is still mainly one of increased diagnostic facilities and adequate sanatarium accommodation. It has been demonstrated that the mass survey of entire communities by x-ray is both practicable and effective. An extension of this method of case finding is being undertaken.

Post-war construction of needed sewage disposal and water supply plants is being considered in an increasing number of communities now in need of this type of service. It has been of extreme interest to note the acceptance by the public at large of the need for quite substantial commitments on the part of the local authorities in support of these projects.

The protection of the public food supply is a task assuming substantial proportions, and a survey of the procedure now being followed in both urban and rural municipalities will be undertaken during the coming year.

Over-crowding in the mental hospitals of the province continues to be a cause of great concern. The return of the Ontario Hospital at St. Thomas, which is an early possibility, will only provide temporary relief of the need for additional beds. An addition to the hospital at Orillia is now nearing completion, and new hospitals in other parts of the province will be part of our post-war program.

Plans are ready for an extensive program of mental hygiene to be implemented upon the return of the fifty-seven psychiatrists of the Department now serving with the Armed Forces.

Reduction of the incidence of cancer continues to receive the attention of the Government. The members of the Cancer Foundation have worked assiduously with the Department in the evolution of a program for an extension of diagnostic and curative services for this condition.

Investigation has shown that the present rate of payment for indigent patients in public hospitals is not sufficient to meet the mounting cost of hospital care at the public ward level. Legislation will be introduced to deal with this subject. Hospital accommodation is under review, and it is hoped that the needs of those municipalities where it is at present insufficient may be met at an early date.

One of the basic problems of medical care is the lack of diagnostic facilities, particularly in the smaller communities. The cost of necessary equipment, the difficulty of securing a technical staff and medical men with the required skill and experience in interpretation, make local effort in many areas virtually impossible. This problem has been and is being studied with a view to establishing a comprehensive program within the coming year, augmented as soon as personnel is available.

The Board, set up under authority of the Municipal Health Services Act, 1944, has reported that there is a total lack of reliable information as to the cost of operating comprehensive curative health services. Due to this and a shortage of personnel, there is no present possibility of making these services generally applicable throughout the province. The Board is attempting to establish municipal services in a few representative communities in order that exact information as to the cost can be obtained.

The Government has continued to receive the co-operation of the medical profession, both individually and collectively, in its efforts to promote a constructive program of public health, preventive care, and curative health services.

The Department of Public Welfare has put into effect new food schedules so that persons requiring assistance may be assured of an adequate diet based on proper nutritional requirements. The Government makes a contribution to the municipality of 50% of the cost of these food allowances. Mothers' Allowances have also been increased where need is shown. New Day Nurseries and Day Care Centres are being opened. Twenty-two of the former and forty of the latter are now in operation. A Youth and Child Welfare Division has been established to deal specially with the problems of these groups.

The work of the Department of Labour has been greatly expanded. The Regional War Labour Board for Ontario has continued to function during the past year under the Chairmanship of the Minister of Labour. This Board administers the Wartime Wages Control Order in the Province of Ontario as part of the Dominion machinery set up to prevent inflation. Approximately 8,000 cases were considered last year by this Board, or about one-third of the total for the whole Dominion. In addition to applications for rate adjustments, the Board has dealt with many applications concerning sick benefit schemes, group insurance, pension schemes, extended vacation programs and hospitalization. These advances in the protection and welfare of industrial workers will undoubtedly have a permanent place in the conditions of employment in industry, and will be available to many ex-service men returning to their peacetime occupations.

The Workmen's Compensation Act will be broadened again this year to bring additional classes of workers under its protection and legislation will be introduced for this purpose. I am advised that it is the opinion of my Ministers that every person who works for an employer should ultimately have the protection of this Act.

The Ontario Labour Relations Board has disposed of a great majority of the 400 cases submitted to it since it was established last April. It is worthy of note that the number of cases in which the employer and employee members of the Board have been in disagreement has been almost negligible, and it is a gratifying fact that the man-days of work lost in industrial disputes throughout Ontario have been considerably reduced. The Ontario Government has agreed with the Dominion Government that all decisions of the Board shall be subject to appeal to the National Wartime Labour Relations Board.

The Minimum Wage Act and the regulations thereunder will be amended to secure a more satisfactory remuneration for female workers and to change the hours of work from 52 to 48. Rates of pay will be adjusted by the Industry and Labour Board.

The pressing needs of war production and the shortage of labour have made it necessary for the Department of Labour to exercise great care in administering the Act passed last year dealing with hours of work and vacations with pay. Thousands of workers have, however, enjoyed shorter hours and holidays with pay. All work over 48 hours, or above any lower minimum, which may have been established in particular industries, has been considered as overtime work. This Act has caused work to be spread among a greater number of workers, an effect which will be more pronounced after the war. The Department of Labour has been co-operating in the effort to provide technical and practical training for men discharged from the Armed Forces. Provision has been made, for example, to allow stationary engineers, when demobilized, to count their period of war service in meeting the requirements for operating experience.

Agriculture continues to be the most important basic industry in Ontario. In the past year production increased in spite of the critical shortage of farm labour, and the demands upon our farmers this year will be equally great.

During the past year, considerable study has been devoted to the organization and administration of the Ontario Agricultural College, the MacDonald Institute, and the Ontario Veterinary College. Appropriate steps will be taken to bring these important institutions, which are situated on one campus, under a co-ordinated plan of administration, which will make the utmost use of all their educational, research, and other facilities.

The Ontario Stockyards have been taken over and placed under the control of the Ontario Stockyards Board. Its operation has already proved most satisfactory.

Pasture is one of our most important crops which has for many years received little attention. The Government has embarked on an extensive series of demonstration lots where experiments in various types of permanent pasture are carried out under the supervision of County Field Crop Associations. Further extensions of this important program will be undertaken this year.

County Agricultural Committees have been organized in many counties and it seems likely that most if not all the counties of Ontario will soon have committees of outstanding farmers to guide and assist agricultural production in their own counties.

Heavy Dominion taxation, manpower shortage, and wartime restrictions continue to depress Ontario's great mining industry and to affect adversely the revenues of the province and the mining municipalities. The value of mineral production in 1944 was $210,000,000 as compared with $230,000,000 in 1943. This was mainly because of lowered output from the gold mines, which fell from more than $122,000,000 in 1940 to $65,000,000 in 1944. The number of producers have fallen from 74 in 1941 to less than 40 at the present time. There are indications that other producing mines will be forced to abandon operations in the near future. In terms of revenue the decline is much more marked, with the Government collecting less than 19% of the amount collected in 1941 from gold production. The Royal Ontario Mining Commission, appointed in October, 1943, has made an exhaustive report on mining in the province. Some of its recommendations have already been put into effect and others will be presented to you in the form of legislation. A meeting of Provincial Mines Ministers is to be held in Quebec this Spring when it is hoped that solutions will be found for various problems, including that of overlapping taxation.

You will be gratified to learn that the Provincial Treasurer has completed an agreement with the Treasurer of the Province of Quebec whereby overlapping of Succession Duties upon estates situated within the two provinces will be avoided. A similar arrangement has been completed with the Province of Nova Scotia. The remaining provinces have been invited to enter into similar agreements, so that multiple provincial taxation may be ended. Important amendments designed to clarify the provisions of the Succession Duty Act and thus make for better administrative procedure will be presented to you for consideration.

The Travel and Publicity Bureau arranged during the year an important conference on post-war tourist planning. The proceedings are printed and have been in wide demand. The Bureau is respecting the wish of the Government of the United States that long distance travel should not be encouraged at present, but contacts are being maintained and plans laid for attracting tourists to Ontario after the war.

The Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway is also exploring the possibilities of the tourist trade and investigating supplementary methods of transportation. Although the railway has not participated to any noticeable extent in the business expansion which the war industries have brought to certain parts of the province, and although it has felt the effects of the depressed condition of the mining industry, the Commissioners have cause for satisfaction in reporting that for the year ended March 31st, 1944, the gross revenues of the railway reached an all-time high of $6,358,428.95. The Commission is considering a substantial program of expansion this year, which includes boat service on the Temagami Lakes and on Lake Nipissing, together with the purchase of additional rail equipment and general improvement in facilities.

The Department of Game and Fisheries has completed plans for additional fish hatcheries designed to take care of the increasing demands on the game and commercial fish of the province. To ensure that these facilities will be put to the best possible use it is proposed to add to the staff of the Fish Culture Branch a number of men with biological training or who are qualified to take such training. A general survey of water conditions is to be made, with special enquiry into natural and artificial barriers in lakes and streams which obstruct the passage of fish to the spawning beds. The desirability of establishing fish ladders where obstructions cannot be removed will also be considered. This Department, which derives substantial revenues from hunting and fishing licenses, also proposes to improve tourist accommodations through a more intensive camp inspection and a program of education. Crown Lands where fur-bearing animals may be taken will be zoned, and preference in the allocation of areas will be given to experienced trappers and war veterans.

To achieve uniformity in Vital Statistics Laws throughout the Dominion, a new Vital Statistics Act will be introduced. Legislation will also be introduced to permit the province to replace County and City Gaols with suitable modern institutions, where that may be deemed advisable. The Mimico Reformatory, which for several years has been used by the Federal authorities for war purposes, was returned to the control of the province last May and is again being used as a reformatory. Facilities for training and accommodation at the Ontario Training School for Girls have been almost doubled, and a suitable gymnasium has been provided.

The municipalities of the province are shown by their reports to be in a sound financial position, and have led the way in debt reduction for the whole of Canada. Investments in post-war reserves already total $1,827,569. Amendments to the Assessment Act will be introduced which, among other provisions, will enable municipalities to collect taxes from Crown tenants of commercial properties. The Municipal Act will also be amended in important particulars.

The Government recognizes that the forests, the lands and the streams, and their resources, constitute Ontario's greatest asset for the employment of the skills of her people, and for their health and enjoyment. Our forests must produce perpetual supplies of raw material if they are to provide continuous employment for our citizens. To assure this employment and to produce the required material our forests must be adequately protected, and the crop must be cultured and improved. The Government, therefore, proposes first to bring the protection of the forests to a high standard of efficiency, and to make it possible to maintain a continuously high standard in the years to come. It proposes secondly to assure proper management of these forests. These plans embody rehabilitation opportunities on a large scale for war veterans. An immediate project is to find, if possible, some way of controlling the Budworm epidemic in Northern Ontario. A large scale experiment is proposed along practical lines in the Nipigon Lake Area. The Legislature will be asked to provide funds to purchase the most modern insecticides and when these are made available by the Wartime Priorities Board an area of over 100,000 acres will be treated by aerial methods. Our air fleet, greatly depleted in the war years, will be augmented by the purchase of four of the most modern aircraft.

A laboratory at Sault Ste. Marie for the study of forest insects will be completed during the year as part of a long term program for the protection of our forests from insects. This laboratory, in equipment and staffing, will be among the most modern in the world. The Forest Rangers who fight fires and supervise timber cutting are the foundation of the protection and management system. The new Ranger School in Haliburton will be opened this year. Here it will be possible for rangers and for key men in the woods industries to attend and take advantage of the educational facilities provided by this advanced school. In the field of Reforestation, preparations are being made to add to the production of our forest nurseries by additions to existing stations, and by the establishment of new stations where needed. You will be asked to consider legislation to permit counties to deal with the cutting of wood lots on patented lands within their municipal boundaries. Authority will also be sought to provide a body of trained men capable of dealing with the broad questions of management in our forests.

In keeping with wartime conditions, the work of the Department of Highways during the past year has been confined almost entirely to maintenance and only minor construction involving the replacement of bridges was undertaken. The Department faced a serious shortage of equipment and manpower and considerable deterioration of many highways has been the result. To prevent serious damage being caused to many road surfaces, a program of light bituminous paving was successfully carried out. More than 200 miles of main highway were surfaced in this manner, which will give a substantial saving in maintenance costs in the coming year. Exceptionally heavy snowfall throughout the province, accompanied by high winds, caused increased expenditure and taxed the snow plowing facilities of the Department to the limit. Increased financial assistance was given to the municipalities, particularly in regard to bridges. Recognizing the importance of the county and township roads to the war effort, very little reduction was made in the subsidy grants.

For the coming year capital expenditure will again be confined to those highways serving military camps, airports and war industries. It is proposed to continue the program of light bituminous surfacing so far as available equipment and manpower will permit, not only as a means of reducing maintenance expenditures but also to conserve available supplies of gravel for future use. Additional snow plowing equipment is being purchased and arrangements will also be made whereby road maintenance machinery, such as power graders, will be available for rental to sparsely settled townships which cannot finance this equipment themselves.

The Department has a comprehensive program of post-war work. Engineering data and bridge design have now advanced to the stage that work could be started on short notice should the necessity arise to provide employment for returning war veterans or those presently engaged in war industries. Proposed legislation affecting this Department is confined to minor amendments to The Highway Improvement Act and The Highway Traffic Act, which are designed to clarify the administration of certain sections of both Acts.

The Department of Public Works has plans prepared and work projected for a program of building construction which will have a beneficial and far-reaching effect, in that it will provide nine million man days' work throughout the province. The amount of work so provided will apply to all branches of the construction industry, including not only the personnel engaged in, or directly connected with the actual building operations, but also to those engaged directly and indirectly in the production, supply, or manufacture of the materials and other equipment and furnishings to be used. It is proposed to proceed with building projects urgently required to fill present requirements, as soon as the necessary men, materials and equipment can be obtained.

Electrical energy generated and purchased by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission to supply the Ontario load reached an all-time high exceeding twelve billion kilowatt-hours. All the demands for war activities in Ontario have been met and essential domestic and municipal power requirements have suffered no shortage. The Ogoki diversion and the remedial weir above Niagara Falls continued to have a beneficial effect upon the output of the generating stations on the Niagara River, and the new plant at DeCew Falls added its full quota to the power resources of southern Ontario.

The Commission has agreed, as trustee for the Government, to purchase the power system of the Northern Ontario Power Company Limited for $12,500,000. If and when the necessary legal details have been completed the Commission will take over its operation. The properties include eight hydro-electric plants with an installed capacity of 66,840 horsepower, 739 miles of transmission lines and 157 miles of distribution lines. When acquired the properties will be amalgamated with the Abitibi district of the Northern Ontario Properties, thus eliminating duplication of service and resulting in great economies. The acquisition of these properties will also enable the Commission to extend its Hydro rural service to many consumers in the areas served by the Company. It will further allow the Commission to reduce the cost of power to the mines in this territory from $36.00 per horsepower to the price recently approved by the Government to all mines served by the Commission, which is $27.50 per horsepower. The new price of $27.50 per horsepower will represent a great saving which will encourage development in hard rock mining in that area in the immediate post-war era.

Notwithstanding the restricted supply of labour and materials, the Commission has been able to construct 400 miles of rural primary line, chiefly short extensions to existing lines, as compared with 40 miles in 1943. Service was given to about 10,000 new consumers, 7,000 of whom received service from lines which already existed. The Commission is projecting plans for a vigorous 5-year post-war rural Hydro program.

The average power sold to all rural consumers, including war industries in rural areas, increased by nearly 14 per cent. There is strong evidence everywhere of a keen desire to use more electricity. This desire has been stimulated by the new uniform rural rate structure. As a result of increased use and the lower rates incorporated in the new schedule the average cost to rural consumers decreased in 1944 from 2.6 to about 2.3 cents per kilowatt-hour or about 11 per cent. It is the purpose of the Commission to encourage greater consumption by rural consumers, which will further reduce the cost of power.

The Attorney-General will submit several measures considered to be in the public interest. Legislation repealing The Securities Act and substituting new Act will be introduced.

At the last session of the Assembly a Select Committee was appointed with instructions to study the Acts governing the holding of Provincial Elections, with a view to their general revision. This Committee has held a number of meetings during the recess and has given careful consideration to the Acts referred to it. The Committee's report will be tabled. Bills revising The Active Service Election Act, The Voters' Lists Act and The Election Act will be introduced.

A Royal Commission was established with wide powers to study the question of safety in public halls. The report of the Commission has been received, and, as a result, legislation will be submitted which will require public halls to maintain certain definite standards of safety.

The Department of Planning and Development, which was created last year, will introduce a Bill dealing with conservation and flood control and also one providing for town planning. There is need for a comprehensive and effective solution of the problem of flood control, especially in certain watersheds in Southern Ontario. The Government recognizes that any fully effective undertakings designed to control floods must combine the appropriate engineering projects with a broad and complete programme of conservation, restoration and development of the natural resources of the whole watershed. Such programmes must be carried out with the full co-operation and agreement of the various groups of people residing in the watershed. The main responsibility will necessarily rest with the municipal governments. The Conservation and Flood Control Bill will, therefore, provide for the establishment of conservation and flood control authorities, to be appointed by the municipalities concerned.

The Government recognizes the advisability of laying the foundation for municipal planning, especially to enable municipalities to derive the fullest advantage from post-war construction, and also to enable municipalities and their citizens to take the utmost advantage of the provisions of The National Housing Act. The Government will present a Town and Regional Planning Bill which will enable municipalities to carry out their plans effectively, and will also enable a group of municipalities to enter into a joint plan where they have common planning problems.

The Ontario Civil Service has been assured of greatly improved conditions of employment and amendments will be introduced to The Public Service Act. May I take this opportunity to pay a tribute to the splendid work done by the Civil Servants of this province during more than five years of war. The Queen's Park War Service Guild and other organizations within the Civil Service also deserve great credit for what they have done to assist the members of our armed forces overseas.

The Government is greatly concerned about the delay in the calling of a Dominion-Provincial Conference for which it has been pressing for considerably more than a year. With brighter hopes of victory in Europe, the need for such a conference becomes increasingly imperative and the Government has again asked that at least a preliminary meeting be held to settle the basic principles upon which inter-governmental co-operation must rest if some of the most important plans for post-war construction, rehabilitation and social services are to be prepared upon a workable basis.

The Public Accounts for the year ending March 31st, 1944, have been issued, and estimates for the coming year will be placed before you.

In conclusion, I wish to express the hope that Divine Providence may so guide your deliberations that your work may promote the general welfare of the people of Ontario.

Private Bills

PUBLIC NOTICE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO

The attention of Municipal Officials, Solicitors and all other persons who may be interested in the preparation of Private Bills for submission to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario is directed particularly to the following Rules of the House governing the submission of such Bills.

RULES RE SUBMISSION OF PRIVATE BILLS

63.—(1) No petition for any Private Bill is received by the House after the first two weeks of each Session; nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session; nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first six weeks of each Session and no motion for the general suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House unless after reference made thereof, at a previous sitting of the House, to the several Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills or upon Report submitted by two or more of such committees.

64.—(1) Any person desiring to obtain a Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House at least eight (8) days before the meeting of the House a copy of such Bill, together with a fee of $150, and if such Bill is not deposited by that time the applicant shall pay $10 for each and every day which intervenes between the said eighth day and the date of the filing of the Bill.

(2) After the first reading of the Bill, and before its consideration by the Committee to which it is referred, the applicant in every case shall pay the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes.

(3) The following charges shall also be levied and paid in addition to the foregoing:

(a) When any rule of the House is suspended with reference to a Bill or the Petition therefor, for each suspension $50.

(b) When a Bill is presented to the House after the first three weeks of the Session and before the end of the fourth week, $75.

(c) When a Bill is presented after the fourth week of the Session, $100.

(4) In case of any Bill incorporating a company or increasing the capital stock of a company already incorporated, there shall be paid to the Clerk of the House, by or on behalf of the applicant, before the same is reported to the House, the same fee as would be payable to the Provincial Secretary in the case of an incorporation or increase of capital under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, less the sum of $150 already paid to the Clerk of the House.

(5) When a Bill is for the purpose of confirming by-laws, bonds, debentures or other securities, or authority is asked to borrow money or to increase borrowing powers, the following additional fees shall be paid according to the amount of money involved:

On amounts less than $10,000, $25; on amounts over $10,000 and up to $25,000, $50; on amounts over $25,000 and up to $40,000, $75; on amounts over $40,000 and up to $75,000, $100; on amounts over $75,000 and up to $125,000, $125; on amounts over $125,000 and up to $175,000, $150; amounts over $175,000 and up to $250,000, $200; an amounts over $250,000 and up to $350,000, $250; and an additional fee of $50 for every $100,000 over $350,000.

66. All applications for Private Bills properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867" shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such Notice to be published as follows, viz.:

A notice inserted in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE and in one newspaper published in the Municipality affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest municipality in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

If the application is by a Municipal Corporation for authority to issue debentures the notice shall set out the particulars of the existing debenture debt and the amount of the rateable property of the Municipality according to the last revised assessment roll of the Corporation, and in brief and general terms, the object for which the new issue of debentures is required.

67. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the Notice required by the preceding Rule, also, at the same time and in the same manner, give Notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privileges, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

68. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Bill for the construction of Railways, Tramways or Canals is received by the House, the person or persons petitioning for such Bill shall deposit with the Clerk the following documents:

1. A map or plan upon a scale of not less than half an inch to the mile, showing the location upon which it is intended to construct the proposed work, and showing also the lines of existing or authorized works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting the district or any part thereof which the proposed work is intended to serve. Such map or plan to be signed by the Engineer or other party making the same.

2. A book of reference in which shall be clearly set out the following information in separate schedules namely:

SCHEDULE A.—The name of each municipality within which the proposed works or any part thereof are intended to be constructed; the population of each such municipality as returned by the next preceding census, the rateable value of the property within each such municipality, as returned by the next preceding assessment rolls thereof; and this schedule may contain in a separate statement similar information as to the adjoining districts intended to be served by the proposed work.

SCHEDULE B.—A general description of the nature, extent, and proposed character of the contemplated works, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, distinguishing the general items of construction and the cost thereof respectively, as well as the nature, extent and probable cost of all engines and car stock or other outfit or equipment necessary to the use and operation of the proposed undertaking, such schedule to be signed by the Engineer, or other person preparing the same.

SCHEDULE C.—An exhibit showing the total amount of capital proposed to be raised for the purposes of the undertaking and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same, whether by ordinary shares, bonds, debentures or other securities, and the amount of each respectively.

SCHEDULE D.—An estimate of the probable revenues of the proposed undertaking showing the sources whence the same are expected to be derived; the annual earnings thereof respectively; the probable annual cost of operation or working expenditure, and the annual net revenue applicable to the payment of interest on the proposed investments, such schedules to be signed by the person preparing the same.

72. When any Bill for confirming any Letters Patent, or Agreement, is presented to the House, the copy of such Letters Patent, or Agreement, shall be attached to it.

74. Every Private Bill, when read a first time shall, unless it be an Estate Bill or a Bill providing for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a Municipal Corporation, shall stand referred to the proper Standing Committee, and all petitions before the House, for or against the Bill, are considered referred to such Committee.

75. Every Private Bill, in so far as it provides for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a municipal corporation, when the Bill has been read a first time, shall, without special reference, stand referred to The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board for their report; and a copy of such Bill and of the Petition on which the same is founded shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the Board, in order that the Board may, after an inquiry into the allegations set out in the Bill, and into any other matters which the Board may deem necessary in connection therewith, report to the House whether or not it is reasonable that such Bill or the part thereof relating to the matters aforesaid, shall be passed, and what alterations, if any, should be made in the same, and the Board shall make such inquiry accordingly, and shall sign the same; and the said Report, Bill and Petition shall be transmitted to the Clerk, and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table and shall be entered on the Journals of the House, and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills.

76. Every Estate Bill, when read a first time shall without special reference, stand referred to the Commissioners of Estate Bills, for their Report, and a copy of such Bill, and of the Petition on which the same is founded, shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the said Commissioners, or one of them, in order that they, or any two of them, may, after perusing the Bill, without requiring any proof of the allegations thereof, report to the House their opinion thereon under their hands; and whether presuming the allegation contained in the preamble to be proved so the satisfaction of the House, it is reasonable that tuch Bill do pass into a law: and whether the provisions thereof are proper for carrying its purposes into effect, and what alterations or amendments, if any, are necessary in the same, and in the event of their approving the said Bill they are to sign the same; and the said Report, with the said Bill and Petition, are to be transmitted by the said Commissioners to the Clerk; and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table, and shall be entered on the Journals of the House; and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills, which is not to consider the said Bill, before the delivery of the said Report, Bill and Petition to the Chairman of the said Committee.

77. In the event of the Commissioners of Estate Bills reporting that, in their opinion, it is not reasonable that the Bill submitted to them shall pass into law such Bill shall not be further considered.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION TO THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that The Association of Professional Engineers of the Province of Ontario will apply at the coming Session of the Legislature for amendments to The Professional Engineers Act:

(1) Substituting for the words "telephone systems, telegraph systems, cables, wireless plants" in Section 1 (h) the more general terms "electrical communication systems and equipment";

(2) Inserting after the word "airships" in Section 1 (h) the words "aircraft, airports, landing fields, and landing strips; and all buildings and equipment necessary thereto," to bring the section up to date in such matters;

(3) Inserting before the words "steam engines" in Section 1 (h) the words "boilers and their auxiliaries" to clarify the section on this point;

(4) Providing for the inclusion of town and community planning within the definition of professional engineering to bring the section up to date;

(5) Providing for the election of two Vice-Presidents of the Association in place of one and defining their duties;

(6) Inserting in Section 2 (a) in place of the words "naval, military or aerial services" the words "armed forces" as being more comprehensive;

(7) Inserting after the word "licensee" in the third line of Section 2 (b) the following "acting under the direction and responsibility of such member or licensee" in order to ensure adequate supervision of the licensee's employee;

(8) Inserting after the word "geologist" in Section 2 (d) the word "metallurgist" so as to make it clear that such persons are included in the exceptions; and amending Section 6 (1) by inserting the words "and metallurgical" after the word "chemical" thereby enlarging the branch now described as "chemical" to expressly include metallurgical engineers.

(9) Striking out Section 2 (e) and inserting in lieu thereof a provision reserving to prospectors the right to advise and report on mineral properties and prospects although not members of or licensed by the Association, thereby limiting this exception to prospectors;

(10) Providing that the persons named in Section 2 may not describe or designate themselves as "engineers";

(11) Empowering the Association to make grants for purposes which the Council considers will advance the status and well-being of the profession;

(12) Substituting for ratification of by-laws by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council the right of disallowance within thirty days after the passing thereof;

(13) Restricting the right of applicants for membership, to registration in one branch of the Association only, but without prejudice to the right of a member to practise in any branch or branches provided he has the education and experience so to do;

(14) Limiting the term of office of a Councillor appointed by the Lieutentant-Governor-in-Council to a maximum of five years;

(15) Recasting the sections of the Statute relating to qualifications for registration so as to discard sections no longer applicable and provide in place of the qualification of residence in Ontario, that of Domicile in Ontario; and to make clear that evidence of good character is also necessary.

(16) Substituting for the words "a certificate" in Sections 14 and 15 the words "satisfactory proof" as evidence of membership in another Association;

(17) Amending Section 16 (2) so as to make general the right of graduates or under-graduates recorded with the Association of bona fide assistants serving under articles, to engage in professional engineering under the guidance of professional engineers;

(18) Amending Section 19 (1) by adding after the word "Engineer" in the last line thereof the following "or 'Engineer' with such context or in such manner as to lead to the belief that he is a professional engineer or capable of performing the service as defined in paragraph 1 (h)", thereby clarifying the restriction on the use of engineering titles by unqualified persons;

(19) Substituting in place of Section 20, which is no longer applicable, a provision that persons applying for registration who have served in an engineering capacity with the armed forces in this War shall be granted certain credits on the term of employment in engineering work required for registration;

(20) Making the certificates of membership the property of the Association, and requiring the same to be displayed during membership and to be returned when membership is ended;

(21) Extending to licensees the disciplinary powers which Council now possesses over members under Section 32;

(22) Substituting in place of Sections 32 (4) and (5) provisions protecting the Council and the members thereof and the officers of the Association from liability for anything done under the Act or any by-law or regulation passed in accordance therewith, but granting to any member suspended or expelled a right of appeal to the Court of Appeal similar to that provided in similar cases under "The Architects Act," thereby bringing the law as to the engineering profession into line with that of the other professions;

(23) Providing for imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months in place of or in addition to the fine specified for a second or subsequent offence under Section 33;

(24) Providing for a number of minor changes in the duties of the officers of the Association, the holding of examinations, and the form of licenses.

Publications Under The Regulations Act, 1944

FEBRUARY 24th, 1945

(Regulations Filed in 1944)

THE REGULATIONS ACT, 1944

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection 1 of section 3 of The Regulations Act, 1944, that every regulation shall within one month of the filing thereof be published in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE, and whereas by virtue of subsection 2 of the said section 3 and of a certain Order-in-Council dated the 11th day of May, 1944, the Attorney General may at any time by order, extend the time for publication of a regulation, such order to be published with the regulation, and whereas having regard to the volume of regulations which have been and which will be filed before the 31st day of December, 1944, and to the present shortage of skilled craftsmen in the printing trade, it will in many cases be impossible to comply with the provisions of subsection 1 of section 3 of the said Act;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the time for publication of regulations filed before the 1st day of January, 1945, be extended for such period as may be necessary in the case of each set of regulations so filed.

Dated at Toronto this 9th day of November, 1944.

Attorney General.

THE UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF ACT, 1935

O. Reg. 248/44.
General.
Amending O. Reg. 33/44.
Made—December 5th, 1944.
Filed—December 14th, 1944, 9.15 a.m.

Order-in-Council approved by The Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor, dated the 5th day of December, A.D. 1944.

Upon the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Public Welfare, the Committee of Council advise that subregulation 1 of regulation 2 of the regulations made pursuant to The Unemployment Relief Act, 1935, by Order-in-Council dated the 19th day of September, 1944, be amended,—

(1) by striking out the word "or" at the end of clause b, by inserting the word "or" at the end of clause c and by adding thereto the following clause:

(d) of being a single person who in all the circumstances it is desirable should continue his edution, so that the said subregulation shall now read as follows:

2.—(1) Relief shall be paid or supplied by a municipality in accordance with the provisions of these regulations to a person in necessitous circumstances who is unemployable because,—

(a) of physical or mental defect, including infirmity due to age;

(b) of being a widow, a wife separated from her husband or whose husband is incapacitated, or an unmarried mother, whose full time is required in her home caring for dependents;

(c) of being a single person who carries on the functions of the head of the home; or

(d) of being a single person who in all the circumstances it is desirable should continue his education;

(2) by adding at the end of the said regulation 2 the following subregulation:

(4) Where relief is paid or supplied in respect of a person who is unemployable because of being a single person who in the circumstances it is desirable should continue his education,—

(a) if such person is resident with a parent or other person who stands in loco parentis to him, he shall be regarded as a dependent and not as a single person; and

(b) in all other cases regard shall be had to all the circumstances of the case, in the administration of these regulations.

THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION ACT

O. Reg. 249/44.
General legislative grants.
Replacing.
Made—December 5th, 1944.
Approved—December 5th, 1944.
Filed—December 15th, 1944, 12.00 noon.

INTERPRETATION

1. In these regulations,—

(a) "approved cost" shall mean the cost of operating the school or schools, as the case may be, for the preceding calendar year, as determined by the board and approved by the Minister;

(b) "cost of operating" used in reference to a school shall mean the actual amount of capital expenditures and expenditures for maintenance paid out of current revenue under the authority of the Acts administered by the Department and the regulations thereunder, reduced by the amount of,—

(i) any receipts other than receipts from provincial or municipal sources derived from taxation, and

(ii) any expenditures which have been or will be reported for a special legislative grant.

APPORTIONMENT

2. The general legislative grants for public and separate schools, collegiate institutes, high schools, grade A and grade B continuation schools, and day and evening vocational schools and technical institutes shall be apportioned and distributed on the bases hereinafter prescribed and shall be applied to such school purposes as each of the boards may deem most expedient.

3. Where the general legislative grant payable to a board under these regulations is less than the general legislative grant paid to such board in 1944, the amount of such grant shall be an amount equal to the general legislative grant paid to the board in 1944.

4. Upon the recommendation of the inspector the Minister may withold the whole or any part of the grants payable to any board where the school or schools are not being operated in full compliance with the requirements of the Acts administered by the Department and the regulations thereunder.

PART I

PUBLIC AND SEPARATE SCHOOLS

Urban Public and Separate Schools

1. For urban public and separate schools in municipalities having a population of,—

(a) 100,000 or more, 30% of the approved cost,
(b) 10,000 or more but less than 100,000, 35% of the approved cost,
(c) 5,000 or more but less than 10,000, 42% of the approved cost,
(d) 2,500 or more but less than 5,000, 50% of the approved cost,
(e) less than 2,500, 60% of the approved cost.

Rural Public and Separate Schools

2.—(1) For rural public and separate schools in a public school section or separate school organization in which the assessment per classroom is,—

(a) $80,000 or more, 50% of the approved cost,
(b) $50,000 or more but less than $80,000, 60% of the approved cost,
(c) $30,000 or more but less than $50,000, 75% of the approved cost,
(d) less than $30,000, 90% of the approved cost.

(2) "Assessment per classroom" shall be determined by dividing the equalized assessment in counties and the actual assessment in territorial districts of all the rateable property in the public school section or separate school organization by the number of public school or separate school classrooms within the public school section or separate school organization, as the case may be.

Township Boards and Township School Area Boards

3.—(1) Grants to township boards and township school area boards shall be upon the same basis as grants for rural public schools.

(2) An additional grant equal to one mill calculated on the equalized assessment in counties and on the actual assessment in territorial districts of all rateable property in the township or area, as the case may be, shall be paid to township boards and township school area boards but such additional grant shall not be less than $150 nor more than $300 for each school section which has become part of the larger unit.

(3) In the year in which a township board or township school area board is established, the additional grant shall be paid to the boards of the school sections and not to the township board or township school area board.

Union Separate School Boards

4.—(1) Grants to union separate school boards shall be upon the same basis as grants for rural separate schools.

(2) An additional grant equal to one mill calculated on the equalized assessment in counties and on the actual assessment in territorial districts of all rateable property in the union separate school organization shall be paid to union separate school boards but such additional grant shall not be less than $150 nor more than $300 for each separate school organization which has become part of the larger unit.

(3) In the year in which a union separate school board is established the additional grant shall be paid to each of the separate school boards and not to the union separate school board.

LIMITING CONDITIONS

5. In no case shall,—

(a) grants to a board exceed 95% of the approved cost;

(b) grants to a rural board in an organized township exceed the difference between the approved cost and the amount of the township grant made under section 112 of The Public Schools Act;

(c) approved cost in an urban municipality exceed the amount obtained by multiplying $115 by the number representing the average attendance for the preceding calendar year.

PART II

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTES, HIGH SCHOOLS AND GRADE A AND GRADE B CONTINUATION SCHOOLS

1.—(1) For collegiate institutes, high schools and grade A and grade B continuation schools, $10 per pupil of average attendance for the preceding calendar year.

(2) For collegiate institutes, high schools, and grade A and grade B continuation schools, an additional grant where the mill rate is,—

| | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| (a) | less than 1 mill | | | | | | 5% | of the | approved | cost, |
| (b) | 1 mill | or more | but | less | than | 2 mills, | 10% | " | " | " |
| (c) | 2 mills | " | " | " | 3 | " | 15% | " | " | " |
| (d) | 3 | " | " | " | 4 | " | 20% | " | " | " |
| (e) | 4 | " | " | " | 5 | " | 25% | " | " | " |
| (f) | 5 | " | " | " | 6 | " | 30% | " | " | " |
| (g) | 6 | " | " | " | 7 | " | 35% | " | " | " |
| (h) | 7 | " | " | " | 8 | " | 40% | " | " | " |
| (i) | 8 | " | " | " | 9 | " | 45% | " | " | " |
| (j) | 9 | " | " | " | 10 | " | 50% | " | " | " |

| (n) | 13 | " | " | " | 14 | " | 70% | " | " | " |
| (o) | 14 mills or more | | | | | | 75% | " | " | " |

(3) "Mill rate" shall mean the mill rate required to raise the amount of the approved cost by taxation based on,—

(a) the local municipal assessment in,

(i) cities,

(ii) separated towns,

(iii) townships and urban municipalities adjacent to cities having a population of 150,000 or more, and

(iv) territorial districts;

(b) the equalized assessment of the portion of the high school district lying within an urban municipality plus one fifth of the equalized assessment of the portion of the high school district lying within a rural municipality, in all other cases.

2. In no case shall,—

(a) grants to a board exceed 95% of the approved cost;

(b) approved cost exceed the amount obtained by multiplying,

(i) $200 by the number representing the average attendance for the preceding calendar year in the case of high schools and collegiate institutes, or

(ii) $150 by the number representing the average attendance for the preceding calendar year in the case of grade A and grade B continuation schools.

PART III

VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS AND TECHNICAL INSTITUTES (DAY AND EVENING)

1.—(1) For vocational schools and technical institutes (day and evening) a grant equal to the following percentages of the total salaries paid by the board to teachers of day and evening classes for the preceding school year,—

(a) 90% of the first $20,000,

(b) 80% of the next $20,000,

(c) 70% of the next $20,000, and

(d) 60% of any further amount.

(2) For vocational schools and technical institutes (day and evening) an additional grant equal to 50% of any amount paid out of current revenue with the approval of the Minister during the preceding calendar year for,—

(a) the erection of a building or portion of a building for the special purposes of a day vocational school; or

(b) new equipment and furniture provided for instructional purposes.

2. In no case shall,—

(a) grants to a board exceed 95% of the approved cost;

(b) approved cost exceed the amount obtained by multiplying $300 by the number representing the average attendance for the preceding calendar year.

All regulations relating to general legislative grants in force under The Department of Education Act at the date of the coming into force of these regulations are revoked.

THE PROVINCIAL PARKS ACT

O. Reg. 250/44.
Rondeau Provincial Park.
Replacing.
Made—December 5th, 1944.
Filed—December 15th, 1944, 1.00 p.m.

INTERPRETATION

1. In these regulations,—

"intoxicating liquor" shall include any intoxicating liquor within the meaning of any Act of the Province of Ontario;

"Minister" shall mean Minister of Lands and Forests;

"Park" shall mean the Rondeau Provincial Park.

"regulation" shall mean regulation herein set forth.

"Superintendent" shall mean Superintendent of the Rondeau Provincial Park.

ADMINISTRATION

2. The Minister may appoint a superintendent, necessary rangers, and other officers for the enforcement of these regulations and the provisions of The Provincial Parks Act.

3. The Minister may employ persons to render temporary services in connection with the operation of the Park.

4. The rangers and other officers shall assist the superintendent in his duties.

5. The Superintendent, rangers, and other officers shall be paid such salaries as may be decided by Order-in-Council. Persons temporarily employed shall be paid such remuneration as may be determined by the Minister.

6. The Minister may direct payment for the remuneration of persons rendering temporary services; all disbursements for necessary expenditures arising out of the maintenance of the Park; the enforcement of regulations; and the directions of the Minister.

7. No person, except a duly appointed superintendent, his duly authorized assistants, or actual bona fide visitors to the Park, shall occupy, locate, or reside upon, temporarily or otherwise, any portion of the Rondeau Provincial Park unless permission for such occupation is given by lease, license, or permit, as hereinafter provided.

8. The Minister may lease for any term not exceeding twenty-one years such parcels of land in the Park as he deems advisable for the construction of buildings for ordinary habitation, as summer residences, at such rental and subject to such conditions as to rental, occupation, construction, or erection of houses or buildings, the cost and character thereof, renewal, assignment or cancellation of the lease, or subletting thereunder, and otherwise, as the Minister may seem reasonable and proper.

9. The Minister may issue licenses to persons authorizing them to occupy during the periods mentioned therein any part of the Park as may be therein described to occupy structures already erected, or to erect thereon structures for the purpose of leasing, and to therein lease bathing suits and boats. The Minister shall fix the schedule of charges which may be made for the use of such bathing suits and such boats, and said schedule of charges shall be displayed by the licensee in a prominent place on the premises so occupied.

10. The Minister or Superintendent may by written authority permit occupation during the periods mentioned therein of any part of the Park as may be therein described to erect thereon temporary structures for the accommodation of visitors or persons resorting to the Park as a sanitarium or health or summer resort, to keep and sell provisions and refreshments (other than intoxicating liquors) for such visitors or persons, and to keep and provide conveyances (other than boats) for the use of persons resorting to the Park, and for other like purposes. A fee determined by the Minister or Superintendent shall be payable in advance for the full term or as otherwise directed. Such written authority shall contain a provision that it shall be subject to cancellation by the Minister at any time upon contravention of any of the terms thereof or of any of the provisions of The Provincial Parks Act, or the regulations, and the Minister's decision shall be final.

(a) If any person to whom such written authority is granted, his servant or agent, is convicted of any breach of any Act of the Province of Ontario relating to the control of intoxicating liquor, such written authority shall be cancelled and shall not thereafter issue to any such person.

(b) In the discretion of the Minister, he shall approve of any charges for the hire of conveyances, for accommodation for or services rendered to visitors, and for the sale of provisions or refreshments inside the Park.

11. The Superintendent may grant tenting privileges for Saturdays and Sundays only, free of charge. For remaining days of the week the charge shall be at the rate of 50c per day, $2.00 per week, and $7.00 per season.

12.—(a) The Superintendent may issue permits to visitors for camping upon such portions of the park as he may designate. Persons so camping shall be subject to the control and supervision of the superintendent and shall refrain from doing any damage to the Park and shall take all necessary precautions to prevent damage by fire, as prescribed by law or by the regulation of the Superintendent, in default whereof such permit may be cancelled by the Superintendent.

(b) No person except the holder of such permit shall camp within the Park.

13. If any person, after having been convicted of a contravention of The Provincial Parks Act or of these regulations, in locating or settling upon, using or occupying any portion of the Park, thereafter remains or continues in possession of any such or other portion thereof, or returns into such possession or occupation, the Superintendent, or, under his direction, any park ranger or constable shall forthwith remove the offender from the Park, and shall keep him removed therefrom, and may call to his aid all needed assistance to enable him so to do.

14. Not more than one dwelling shall be erected on any lot, and its location on the said lot shall be subject to the approval of the Superintendent. No dwelling shall be erected until the plan thereof has been submitted to and approved of by the Superintendent, to whose supervision and control the construction of said dwelling shall also be subject. No building shall be removed from the Park without the permission of the Minister.

15. Each transfer of a lease or any interest therein shall be subject to the approval of the Minister and to the payment of a transfer fee of $5.00.

SANITARY AND OTHER PRECAUTIONS

16. Every occupant of any part of the Park shall take such precautions to guard against the ravages of the marsh fires as the Superintendent may deem necessary and, in particular, shall remove all dead or dry grass, leaves, debris, and other combustible matter on lands under lease, license, or permit to such occupant by raking up and burning or drawing away the same to some place to be designated by the Superintendent for that purpose, not later than the 1st day of May in each year. In case an occupant fails to comply with this regulation, the Superintendent shall have the work done at the expense of the person in default and may recover it from him on behalf of the Minister.

17. Every building or other structure placed by any person upon the Park without a written permit signed by the Superintendent shall forthwith become the property of the Crown.

18. Without the consent of the Superintendent no building shall be used for any purpose save that for which it was originally constructed.

19. Every lessee and sub-tenant, and every person who occupies a tent, shall, to the satisfaction of the Superintendent, provide a metal can or cans in which he shall deposit all waste paper and garbage from his premises, and said can or cans shall at least twice each week be emptied by the lessee, sub-tenant, or occupant, as the case may be, in a place provided therefor by the Superintendent of the Park.

20. Every dry-earth closet upon the premises of any occupant shall be destroyed by him and the same shall be replaced by an equipment or septic tank to the satisfaction of the Superintendent.

LICENSES AND OTHER PERMITS

21. No pedlar or travelling salesman shall offer any article for sale in the Park.

22. No cattle, pig, or sheep, other than those owned by or in charge of the Superintendent or ranger, shall be permitted within the Park. No horse or dog shall be permitted to run at large within the Park. Dogs running at large may be destroyed on written order of the Superintendent.

23. The Superintendent may prescribe the places where, the times when, and the conditions under which, motor vehicles may be permitted to stand or operate within the Park.

24. No motor vehicle shall be driven within the Park at a greater speed than thirty miles per hour.

25. No timber on any land leased for residential purposes, except so much as is actually necessary to be removed to make room for the building and reasonable access thereto, shall be cut or removed, and then only by permission of the Superintendent first had and obtained, and under the immediate supervision and direction of himself or a ranger, and no other lumber or wood shall be cut within the limits of the Park except dead or fallen wood, or in clearing for roads or other Park purposes, or under-brushing in clearing and maintaining the Park, and then only by like permission, supervision and direction.

HUNTING AND FISHING

26. The Superintendent may give authority to carry or use firearms, explosives, nets, traps, spears, fishhooks, or lines within the Park.

27. No person shall within the Park, without the authority of the Superintendent, carry or use firearms, explosives, nets, traps, spears, fishhooks, or lines, except those used with rod and line and held in the hand for angling or for trolling.

28. No person shall fish with trap, spear, or night line in the waters within the Park.

PENALTIES

29. Any person who violates any of the regulations shall be guilty of an offence and for each said offence shall be liable on a summary conviction to a penalty of not less than $20.00 and not more than $50.00.

30. The provisions of The Ontario Summary Conviction Act shall apply to prosecutions and convictions for the recovery of penalties under these regulations.

Private Bills

PUBLIC NOTICE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO

The attention of Municipal Officials, Solicitors and all other persons who may be interested in the preparation of Private Bills for submission to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario is directed particularly to the following Rules of the House governing the submission of such Bills.

RULES RE SUBMISSION OF PRIVATE BILLS

63.—(1) No petition for any Private Bill is received by the House after the first two weeks of each Session; nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session; nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first six weeks of each Session and no motion for the general suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House unless after reference made thereof, at a previous sitting of the House, to the several Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills or upon Report submitted by two or more of such committees.

64.—(1) Any person desiring to obtain a Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House at least eight (8) days before the meeting of the House a copy of such Bill, together with a fee of $150, and if such Bill is not deposited by that time the applicant shall pay $10 for each and every day which intervenes between the said eighth day and the date of the filing of the Bill.

(2) After the first reading of the Bill, and before its consideration by the Committee to which it is referred, the applicant in every case shall pay the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes.

(3) The following charges shall also be levied and paid in addition to the foregoing:

(a) When any rule of the House is suspended with reference to a Bill or the Petition therefor, for each suspension $50.

(b) When a Bill is presented to the House after the first three weeks of the Session and before the end of the fourth week, $75.

(c) When a Bill is presented after the fourth week of the Session, $100.

(4) In case of any Bill incorporating a company or increasing the capital stock of a company already incorporated, there shall be paid to the Clerk of the House, by or on behalf of the applicant, before the same is reported to the House, the same fee as would be payable to the Provincial Secretary in the case of an incorporation or increase of capital under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, less the sum of $150 already paid to the Clerk of the House.

(5) When a Bill is for the purpose of confirming by-laws, bonds, debentures or other securities, or authority is asked to borrow money or to increase borrowing powers, the following additional fees shall be paid according to the amount of money involved:

On amounts less than $10,000, $25; on amounts over $10,000 and up to $25,000, $50; on amounts over $25,000 and up to $40,000, $75; on amounts over $40,000 and up to $75,000, $100; on amounts over $75,000 and up to $125,000, $125; on amounts over $125,000 and up to $175,000, $150; amounts over $175,000 and up to $250,000, $200; an amounts over $250,000 and up to $350,000, $250; and an additional fee of $50 for every $100,000 over $350,000.

66. All applications for Private Bills properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867" shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such Notice to be published as follows, viz.:

A notice inserted in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE and in one newspaper published in the Municipality affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest municipality in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

If the application is by a Municipal Corporation for authority to issue debentures the notice shall set out the particulars of the existing debenture debt and the amount of the rateable property of the Municipality according to the last revised assessment roll of the Corporation, and in brief and general terms, the object for which the new issue of debentures is required.

67. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the Notice required by the preceding Rule, also, at the same time and in the same manner, give Notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privileges, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

68. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Bill for the construction of Railways, Tramways or Canals is received by the House, the person or persons petitioning for such Bill shall deposit with the Clerk the following documents:

1. A map or plan upon a scale of not less than half an inch to the mile, showing the location upon which it is intended to construct the proposed work, and showing also the lines of existing or authorized works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting the district or any part thereof which the proposed work is intended to serve. Such map or plan to be signed by the Engineer or other party making the same.

2. A book of reference in which shall be clearly set out the following information in separate schedules namely:

SCHEDULE A.—The name of each municipality within which the proposed works or any part thereof are intended to be constructed; the population of each such municipality as returned by the next preceding census, the rateable value of the property within each such municipality, as returned by the next preceding assessment rolls thereof; and this schedule may contain in a separate statement similar information as to the adjoining districts intended to be served by the proposed work.

SCHEDULE B.—A general description of the nature, extent, and proposed character of the contemplated works, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, distinguishing the general items of construction and the cost thereof respectively, as well as the nature, extent and probable cost of all engines and car stock or other outfit or equipment necessary to the use and operation of the proposed undertaking, such schedule to be signed by the Engineer, or other person preparing the same.

SCHEDULE C.—An exhibit showing the total amount of capital proposed to be raised for the purposes of the undertaking and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same, whether by ordinary shares, bonds, debentures or other securities, and the amount of each respectively.

SCHEDULE D.—An estimate of the probable revenues of the proposed undertaking showing the sources whence the same are expected to be derived; the annual earnings thereof respectively; the probable annual cost of operation or working expenditure, and the annual net revenue applicable to the payment of interest on the proposed investments, such schedules to be signed by the person preparing the same.

72. When any Bill for confirming any Letters Patent, or Agreement, is presented to the House, the copy of such Letters Patent, or Agreement, shall be attached to it.

74. Every Private Bill, when read a first time shall, unless it be an Estate Bill or a Bill providing for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a Municipal Corporation, shall stand referred to the proper Standing Committee, and all petitions before the House, for or against the Bill, are considered referred to such Committee.

75. Every Private Bill, in so far as it provides for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a municipal corporation, when the Bill has been read a first time, shall, without special reference, stand referred to The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board for their report; and a copy of such Bill and of the Petition on which the same is founded shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the Board, in order that the Board may, after an inquiry into the allegations set out in the Bill, and into any other matters which the Board may deem necessary in connection therewith, report to the House whether or not it is reasonable that such Bill or the part thereof relating to the matters aforesaid, shall be passed, and what alterations, if any, should be made in the same, and the Board shall make such inquiry accordingly, and shall sign the same; and the said Report, Bill and Petition shall be transmitted to the Clerk, and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table and shall be entered on the Journals of the House, and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills.

76. Every Estate Bill, when read a first time shall without special reference, stand referred to the Commissioners of Estate Bills, for their Report, and a copy of such Bill, and of the Petition on which the same is founded, shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the said Commissioners, or one of them, in order that they, or any two of them, may, after perusing the Bill, without requiring any proof of the allegations thereof, report to the House their opinion thereon under their hands; and whether presuming the allegation contained in the preamble to be proved so the satisfaction of the House, it is reasonable that tuch Bill do pass into a law: and whether the provisions thereof are proper for carrying its purposes into effect, and what alterations or amendments, if any, are necessary in the same, and in the event of their approving the said Bill they are to sign the same; and the said Report, with the said Bill and Petition, are to be transmitted by the said Commissioners to the Clerk; and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table, and shall be entered on the Journals of the House; and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills, which is not to consider the said Bill, before the delivery of the said Report, Bill and Petition to the Chairman of the said Committee.

77. In the event of the Commissioners of Estate Bills reporting that, in their opinion, it is not reasonable that the Bill submitted to them shall pass into law such Bill shall not be further considered.

THE FARM PRODUCTS CONTROL ACT

O. Reg. 251/44.
Marketing of Ontario asparagus for processing or preserving.
Replacing.
Approved—February 18th, 1941.
Filed—December 19th, 1944, 2.30 p.m.

ORDER-IN-COUNCIL

Order-in-Council approved by The Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor, dated the 18th day of February, A.D. 1941.

Upon the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Agriculture, the Committee of Council advise that, pursuant to the provisions of The Farm Products Control Act, asparagus produced in Ontario be designated a farm product within the meaning of The Farm Products Control Act and the attached regulations made by The Farm Products Control Board be approved, and that your Honour declare the attached scheme, together with the attached order of The Farm Products Control Board and the said regulations to be in force in Ontario.

The Committee further advise that the Order-in-Council approved on the 26th day of March, A.D. 1938, pursuant to the provisions of The Farm Products Control Act, designating asparagus a farm product within the meaning of The Farm Products Control Act and approving the Ontario Asparagus Marketing Regulations and the proclamation declaring The Ontario Asparagus Growers' Marketing for Processing Scheme to be in force in Ontario as from the 26th day of March, A.D. 1938, be revoked.

SCHEME

1. This scheme may be cited as "The Ontario Asparagus Growers' Marketing for Processing Scheme."

2. A local board established by The Farm Products Control Board under The Farm Products Control Act and known as The Ontario Asparagus Growers' Marketing Board, shall have power to control the marketing of asparagus produced in Ontario for processing and to regulate its sale in accordance with the provisions of The Farm Products Control Act and the regulations passed thereunder.

3. The local board shall, in addition to the powers and duties vested in and imposed upon it by The Farm Products Control Act and any regulations passed thereunder, have authority to stimulate, increase and improve the marketing of Ontario asparagus by appointing such persons and doing such acts as it deems advisable, provided that expenses thereby incurred shall be paid out of the moneys raised by license fees levied by the regulations under The Farm Products Control Act for the marketing and processing of asparagus produced in Ontario or out of such other funds as the local board may determine.

ORDER

1. It is ordered that a local board which shall be known as "The Ontario Asparagus Growers' Marketing Board" be and it is hereby established in accordance with the further provisions of this Order.

2. The local board shall consist of seven members.

3. There shall be a committee known as the Ontario Asparagus Growers' Committee.

4. The following branches of the Ontario Asparagus Growers' Co-operative Ltd., shall be known as Membership Units of the Ontario Asparagus Growers' Committee:

The St. Catharines Branch,
The Vineland Branch,
The Burlington Branch,
The Simcoe Branch,
The Leamington Branch,
The Chatham Branch,
The Huttonville Branch,
The Peel County Branch.

5. The growers comprising the membership of each Membership Unit described in section 4 shall on or before the 10th day of January in each year nominate and elect a representative or representatives to the Ontario Asparagus Growers' Committee, on the following basis:

(a) Membership units producing 1 to 50 tons of asparagus shall be entitled to 1 member;

(b) Membership units producing 51 to 100 tons of asparagus shall be entitled to 2 members;

(c) Membership units producing more than 100 tons of asparagus shall be entitled to 1 member for each 50 tons of asparagus.

6. The Ontario Asparagus Growers' Committee as constituted in sections 4 and 5 of this Order shall on or before the 31st day of January in each year nominate and appoint seven members to the local board from among themselves.

7. The members of the local board who shall hold office until not later than the 31st day of January, 1942, unless they are re-elected, or until their successors are elected, shall be,—

William Carr Nickerson, R.R. 2, St. Catherines, Ont.

George Bruce McCalla, R.R. 2, St. Catharines, Ont.
Kenneth Bruce Watson, R.R. 1, Port Credit, Ont.
Harry Wellington Neff, R.R. 2, Simcoe, Ont.

8. The members of the local board shall annually at the first meeting after their election elect a chairman from among themselves and may appoint a secretary-treasurer and such other officers and employees as they may deem expedient.

9. In a case where the chairman is not present at a meeting the members present may elect an acting chairman.

10. All elections shall be held annually at such time and place as the local board may direct.

11. The officers of the local board shall be located in the City of St. Catharines, Ontario, or such other place as the local board may determine.

12. The Farm Products Control Board may remove from office any member of the local board if he is convicted of any offence under this Act, or any offence under the Criminal Code.

13. Where a vacancy occurs on the local board by reason of death, resignation, removal or any other cause, the remaining members of the local board shall appoint a member to fill such vacancy from among the growers that the former member represented on the local board.

14. Notwithstanding any irregularity in the appointment or election and qualification of any member of the local board, every act of the local board shall be as valid as if the local board were duly constituted and every member thereof duly appointed or elected and qualified.

15. Meetings of the local board may be called,—

(a) by the chairman by giving reasonable notice thereof by telegraph, telephone, or post;

(b) by any three members of the local board by giving reasonable notice by post; and shall be held at the offices of the local board or at such other place as the chairman or any three members may determine.

16. Four members of the local board shall constitute a quorum.

17. Questions arising at any meeting of the local board shall be decided by the majority of the votes of the members present and in the case of an equality of votes the chairman or acting chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

18. Minutes shall be kept of the proceedings of the local board and shall be signed by the chairman or acting chairman and secretary.

19. Any business of the local board may be conducted by correspondence or by telegram, and any vote taken by correspondence or by telegram shall be as effective and binding as if taken at a meeting of the said local board regularly called, and shall be recorded in the minute book and confirmed at the next meeting of the local board.

20. Copies of all orders, directions and other determinations and of the minutes of the local board shall be forthwith forwarded to the secretary of The Farm Products Control Board.

(d) "Person" shall include association, corporation, firm, partnership and syndicate;

(e) "Processor" shall include every person engaged in the business of processing sugar beets for the purpose of obtaining sugar or any other article of food or processing sugar beets in any manner whatsoever;

(f) "Regulations" shall mean regulations under The Farm Products Control Act;

(g) "Sugar Beets" shall mean sugar beets produced in Ontario of any variety used in any manner, shape or form in the processing or manufacturing of sugar or any other article of food or any variety or grade of sugar or article of food or product derived from the processing of sugar beets.

LICENSES FOR PERSONS ENGAGED IN PROCESSING SUGAR BEETS

2. The Board is hereby empowered to grant licenses to persons engaged in the business of processing sugar beets produced in Ontario.

3. No person shall engage in the business of processing sugar beets produced in Ontario except under the authority of a license granted by the Board.

4. Every application to the Board for a license shall be made in writing upon and according to the form prescribed by the Board.

5. Such licenses shall be issued annually for the period from the 1st day of January in the year in which the license is issued to the 31st day of December in the same year and may be renewed for a similar period.

6. Subject to the provisions of section 7 of these regulations no fee shall be charged for any licenses granted to processors.

MARKETING

7.—(1) For the purpose of defraying the expenses of the local board for services rendered in the marketing of sugar beets produced in Ontario for processing and for carrying out the duties of the local board as provided for in The Ontario Sugar Beet Growers' Marketing Scheme every processor shall annually pay to the local board license fees amounting to two (2) cents per ton for each ton of sugar beets produced in Ontario and processed by such processor provided that the license fees payable by a processor for sugar beets received from a grower and processed by such processor shall be deducted by such processor from the sum of money owing, if any, to such grower and when no sum of money is owing to the grower or an insufficient amount is owing, the processor shall pay the license fees and charge to the grower the amount of license fees payable for sugar beets received from such grower.

(2) The amount of the license fees provided for in subsection (1) of this section shall be forwarded by every processor to the local board on or before December 15th in each year.

8.—(1) There shall be a committee of not more than six persons to be known as "The Negotiating Committee" and the Negotiating Committee shall be annually elected and constituted as follows:

Subject to the approval of the Board, the local board shall annually appoint three members to the Negotiating Committee and the processor or processors of sugar beets shall annually appoint not more than three members to the Negotiating Committee from among themselves.

(2) The Negotiating Committee is hereby empowered to negotiate and fix agreements respecting the forms of contract, conditions of sale, minimum prices and fulfilment of contracts.

9. In the event that the Negotiating Committee referred to in section 8 should fail to arrive at an agreement in any matter, the same shall be referred to a Board of Arbitration.

10. The Board of Arbitration shall be elected and constituted as follows:

One member shall be appointed by the three grower members mentioned in section 8, another member shall be appointed by the processor or processors mentioned in section 8, and the third member shall be appointed by the first two mentioned members of such Board of Arbitration and in the event that the first two members of the Board of Arbitration fail to agree on the appointment of the third member, the Board shall appoint such third member.

11. Notwitstanding any irregularity in the appointment or election and qualification of any member of the Negotiating Committee or the Board of Arbitration every act of the Negotiating Committee or the Board of Arbitration shall be as valid as if the Negotiating Committee or the Board of Arbitration were duly constituted and every member of such Negotiating Committee or Board of Arbitration duly appointed or elected and qualified.

12.—(a) The agreements respecting the forms of contract, conditions of sale, minimum prices and fulfilment of contract as approved by the Negotiating Committee or the Board of Arbitration shall be submitted to the Board with a request for the Board's approval.

(b) The Board may approve in whole or in part or may refuse to approve the agreements respecting the forms of contract, conditions of sale, minimum prices and fulfilment of contract, or may approve the same in whole or in part with any alterations, additions or changes that the Board deems advisable.

(c) When the Board has approved of such agreements, or any of them, the Board may by order declare such agreements subject to any alterations or changes made by the Board as provided for in clause (b) to be in force in the district or districts concerned and written notice shall be sent by prepaid post to such persons as the Board may direct.

GENERAL

13. Before purchasing or contracting for any sugar beets produced in Ontario a processor shall, if required by an order of the Board, furnish documentary proof of his financial responsibility in such form as the Board may determine.

14. The Board may exempt any sugar beets for processing or a portion thereof, or any processor, grower or person from the whole or any of the provisions of the Act or these regulations.

15. The Board shall have power for the purpose of the operation of the scheme to require production of information from any processor relative to the seasonal production, demand and prevailing prices of sugar beets and statistics of the yearly production, seasonal carryover and the quantity, grade and quality of sugar beets and such other products as may be derived from processing sugar beets, in any factory, warehouse, or other storage plant.

16. Every processor and other person engaged in the purchasing of sugar beets for processing shall permit any person authorized by the Board to inspect his books, records and premises, and shall furnish to the Board copies of any invoices, contracts, bills of lading, accounts or other documents relating to the contracting for and purchasing of sugar beets and the conditions of sale for processing which the Board or its representative may require.

17. Every grower, processor or other person who is required to furnish any information to the Board or the local board shall furnish such information to the Board or local board by prepaid post at such times as the Board or the local board may determine.

18. Subject to any amendments that may be made the provisions of these regulations shall apply to every contract entered into for the purchase of sugar beets, to be produced during the year 1942, and for each subsequent year that these regulations remain in force.

19. These regulations shall come into force on the day upon which they are approved by Order-in-Council.

THE FARM PRODUCTS CONTROL ACT

O. Reg. 254/44.
Marketing of Ontario tomatoes for processing or preserving.
New and amending.
Approved—December 7th, 1940.

ORDER-IN-COUNCIL

Order-in-Council approved by the Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor, dated the 7th day of December,

A.D. 1940, as amended by Order-in-Council, approved by the Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor, dated the 2nd day of November, A.D. 1943.

Upon the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Agriculture, the Committee of Council advise that, pursuant to the provisions of The Farm Products Control Act, tomatoes produced in Ontario for processing be designated a farm product within the meaning of The Farm Products Control Act and the attached regulations made by The Farm Products Control Board under the said Act for the marketing of tomatoes produced for processing, be approved, and that your Honour declare the attached scheme, together with the attached order of The Farm Products Control Board and the said regulations, to be in force in Ontario as from the 7th day of December, 1940.

SCHEME

1. This scheme may be cited as "The Ontario Tomato Growers' Marketing for Processing Scheme."

2. A local board established by The Farm Products Control Board under The Farm Products Control Act and known as The Ontario Tomato Growers' Marketing Board, shall have power to control the marketing of tomatoes produced in Ontario for processing and to regulate their sale in accordance with the provisions of The Farm Products Control Act and the regulations passed thereunder.

3. The local board shall, in addition to the powers and duties vested in and imposed upon it by The Farm Products Control Act and any regulations passed thereunder, have authority to stimulate, increase and improve the marketing of Ontario tomatoes by appointing such persons and doing such acts as it deems advisable, provided that expenses thereby incurred shall be paid out of the moneys raised by license fees levied by the regulations under The Farm Products Control Act for the marketing and processing of tomatoes or out of such other funds as the local Board may determine.

ORDER

1. It is ordered that a local board which shall be known as "The Tomato Growers' Marketing Board" be and it is hereby established in accordance with the further provisions of this Order.

2. The local board shall consist of seven members.

3. It is further ordered that committees which shall be known as "District Tomato Growers' Committees" be and are hereby established in accordance with the further provisions of this Order.

4. The growers of tomatoes for processing shall be divided into five districts and the districts shall comprise the following:

DISTRICT 1—Shall be composed of the County of Essex;

DISTRICT 2—Shall be composed of the following counties—Kent and Lambton;

DISTRICT 3—Shall be composed of the following counties—Elgin, Norfolk, Brant, Haldimand, Welland, Oxford, Lincoln and Middlesex;

DISTRICT 4—Shall be composed of the following counties—Wentworth, Halton, Peel, York, Simcoe and Grey;

DISTRICT 5—Shall be composed of the following counties—Ontario, Durham, Northumberland, Hastings, Prince Edward and Lennox-Addington; provided that any person who produces tomatoes for processing in any county or district not included in any of the districts mentioned above may become a member of the county group of growers nearest to his place of residence.

5. The growers producing tomatoes for processing in each of the counties mentioned in section 4 shall form a county group.

6.—(a) Each county group shall on or before the 1st day of December in each year elect a representative to the District Tomato Growers' Committee for the District in which the County is located as provided in section 4, on the basis of one representative for the first 10 to 100 growers, and one additional representative for each additional 100 growers or fraction thereof.

(b) Notwithstanding the other provisions of the said Order of the Board, any county mentioned in any of the Districts provided for in section 4 may, for the purpose of electing a representative or representatives to the appropriate District Tomato Growers' Committee, join with the growers of any other county in the same District.

7. The District Tomato Growers' Committee, as constituted in section 6 for each district, shall annually elect the members of the local board on the following basis:

(a) The District Tomato Growers' Committee for Districts 1 and 5 shall each elect two members to the local board for each of the said Districts.

(b) The District Tomato Growers' Committees for Districts 2, 3 and 4 shall each elect one member to the local board for each of the said Districts.

8. A majority of the representatives elected by the county groups for any District mentioned in section 4 shall, for the purpose of electing a representative or representatives to the local board, constitute a quorum for such District.

9. Members of the local board and the members of each District Tomato Growers' Committee shall hold office for one year or until their successors are elected or unless they are re-elected.

10. The members of the local board shall in each year be elected prior to December 20th.

11. The members of the local board shall annually at their first meeting after their election elect a chairman from among themselves and may appoint a secretary-treasurer and such other officers and employees as they deem expedient.

12. When the chairman is not present at a meeting the members present may elect an acting chairman.

13. The offices of the local board shall be located in the City of Hamilton, Ontario, or such other place as the local board may from time to time determine.

14. The Farm Products Control Board may remove from office any member of the local board if he is convicted of any offence under this Act, or any offence under the Criminal Code.

15. Where a vacancy occurs on the local board by reason of death, resignation, removal or any other cause, the remaining representatives of such local board shall appoint a member to fill such vacancy.

16. Notwithstanding any irregularity in the appointment or election and qualification of any member of the local board or each District Tomato Growers' Committee, every act of the local board shall be as valid as if the local board or each District Tomato Growers' Committee were duly constituted and every member thereof duly appointed or elected and qualified.

17. Meetings of the local board may be called,—

(a) by the chairman by giving reasonable notice thereof by telegraph, telephone, or post;

(b) by any four members of the local board by giving reasonable notice by post; and shall be held at the offices of the local board, or at such other place as the chairman or any four members may determine.

18. Four members of the local board shall constitute a quorum.

19. Questions arising at any meeting of the local board shall be decided by the majority of the votes of the members present and in the case of an equality of votes the chairman or acting chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

20. Minutes shall be kept of the proceedings of the local board and shall be signed by the chairman or acting chairman and secretary.

21. Any business of the local board may be conducted by correspondence or by telegram, and any vote taken by correspondence or by telegram shall be as effective and binding as if taken at a meeting of the said local board regularly called, and shall be recorded in the minute book and confirmed at the next meeting of the local board.

22. Copies of all orders, directions and other determinations and of the minutes of the local board shall be forthwith forwarded to the secretary of The Farm Products Control Board.

23.—(1) All monies received by the local board shall be deposited in a chartered bank or Province of Ontario Savings Office and all payments shall be made by cheque drawn on such bank or savings office by the secretary-treasurer and countersigned by the chairman of the local board and, in the absence of the secretary-treasurer or the chairman or both, cheques may be signed by such persons as the local board may authorize.

(2) Accounts may be paid when passed by the chairman and secretary-treasurer and, in the absence of either of them or both, by such persons as the local board may authorize provided all accounts shall be submitted to the local board for inspection at the first meeting of the local board following the payment of such accounts.

24. The local board shall keep proper books of account which shall be audited at the end of each calendar year and within three months thereof by an auditor approved by The Farm Products Control Board, and a report of such audit shall be forthwith sent to The Farm Products Control Board, accompanied by a report of the local board on its operations during the preceding calendar year.

25. Service of any order, direction or other determination of the local board may be effected by prepaid post.

26. Orders, directions and other determinations of the local board may be proved by the signature of the secretary.

27. The expenses of the local board shall be paid out of such license fees as may be levied by the regulations under The Farm Products Control Act for the marketing and processing of tomatoes.

THE INDUSTRIAL STANDARDS ACT

O. Reg. 281/44.
Barbering Industry—Port Arthur and Fort William Zone.
Replacing O. Reg. 133/44.
Made—December 19th, 1944.
Filed—December 22nd, 1944, 9.45 a.m.

Order-in-Council approved by The Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor, dated the 19th day of December, A.D. 1944.

WHEREAS pursuant to the provisions of The Industrial Standards Act, R.S.O. 1937, Chapter 191, the Honourable, the Minister of Labour, has designated and defined all work usually performed by barbers as the Barbering Industry, for the purposes of the said Act;

AND WHEREAS the Minister of Labour has designated the Cities of Port Arthur and Fort William, in the Province of Ontario, as a zone for the said industry;

AND WHEREAS a petition from representatives of employers and employees in the said industry was received by the Minister of Labour who thereupon authorized an Industrial Standards Officer to convene a conference of employers and employees engaged in the said Industry within the said zone;

AND WHEREAS such conference was duly held and has submitted to the Minister of Labour a schedule in writing pursuant to section 7 of the said Act;

AND WHEREAS the said schedule has been approved by the Industry and Labour Board;

AND WHEREAS such schedule has been approved by the Minister of Labour who is of the opinion that it has been agreed to by a proper and sufficient representation of the employers and employees engaged in the said industry within the said zone;

Upon the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Labour, the Committee of Council advise that your Honour declare the said schedule annexed hereto shall be in force ten days after publication of this Order-in-Council in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE, and shall be binding upon the employers and employees engaged in the said industry during pleasure, in place and stead of the schedule for the said industry which was approved by Order-in-Council dated the 12th day of August, 1941.

APPLICATION

1. This schedule of wages and hours and days of labour shall apply to the Barbering Industry and all employers and employees engaged therein.

(a) Barbering Industry shall include the following operations:

RULES RE SUBMISSION OF PRIVATE BILLS

63.—(1) No petition for any Private Bill is received by the House after the first two weeks of each Session; nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session; nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first six weeks of each Session and no motion for the general suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House unless after reference made thereof, at a previous sitting of the House, to the several Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills or upon Report submitted by two or more of such committees.

64.—(1) Any person desiring to obtain a Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House at least eight (8) days before the meeting of the House a copy of such Bill, together with a fee of $150, and if such Bill is not deposited by that time the applicant shall pay $10 for each and every day which intervenes between the said eighth day and the date of the filing of the Bill.

(2) After the first reading of the Bill, and before its consideration by the Committee to which it is referred, the applicant in every case shall pay the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes.

(3) The following charges shall also be levied and paid in addition to the foregoing:

(a) When any rule of the House is suspended with reference to a Bill or the Petition therefor, for each suspension $50.

(b) When a Bill is presented to the House after the first three weeks of the Session and before the end of the fourth week, $75.

(c) When a Bill is presented after the fourth week of the Session, $100.

(4) In case of any Bill incorporating a company or increasing the capital stock of a company already incorporated, there shall be paid to the Clerk of the House, by or on behalf of the applicant, before the same is reported to the House, the same fee as would be payable to the Provincial Secretary in the case of an incorporation or increase of capital under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, less the sum of $150 already paid to the Clerk of the House.

(5) When a Bill is for the purpose of confirming by-laws, bonds, debentures or other securities, or authority is asked to borrow money or to increase borrowing powers, the following additional fees shall be paid according to the amount of money involved:

On amounts less than $10,000, $25; on amounts over $10,000 and up to $25,000, $50; on amounts over $25,000 and up to $40,000, $75; on amounts over $40,000 and up to $75,000, $100; on amounts over $75,000 and up to $125,000, $125; on amounts over $125,000 and up to $175,000, $150; amounts over $175,000 and up to $250,000, $200; an amounts over $250,000 and up to $350,000, $250; and an additional fee of $50 for every $100,000 over $350,000.

66. All applications for Private Bills properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867" shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such Notice to be published as follows, viz.:

A notice inserted in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE and in one newspaper published in the Municipality affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest municipality in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

If the application is by a Municipal Corporation for authority to issue debentures the notice shall set out the particulars of the existing debenture debt and the amount of the rateable property of the Municipality according to the last revised assessment roll of the Corporation, and in brief and general terms, the object for which the new issue of debentures is required.

67. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the Notice required by the preceding Rule, also, at the same time and in the same manner, give Notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privileges, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

68. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Bill for the construction of Railways, Tramways or Canals is received by the House, the person or persons petitioning for such Bill shall deposit with the Clerk the following documents:

1. A map or plan upon a scale of not less than half an inch to the mile, showing the location upon which it is intended to construct the proposed work, and showing also the lines of existing or authorized works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting the district or any part thereof which the proposed work is intended to serve. Such map or plan to be signed by the Engineer or other party making the same.

2. A book of reference in which shall be clearly set out the following information in separate schedules namely:

SCHEDULE A.—The name of each municipality within which the proposed works or any part thereof are intended to be constructed; the population of each such municipality as returned by the next preceding census, the rateable value of the property within each such municipality, as returned by the next preceding assessment rolls thereof; and this schedule may contain in a separate statement similar information as to the adjoining districts intended to be served by the proposed work.

SCHEDULE B.—A general description of the nature, extent, and proposed character of the contemplated works, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, distinguishing the general items of construction and the cost thereof respectively, as well as the nature, extent and probable cost of all engines and car stock or other outfit or equipment necessary to the use and operation of the proposed undertaking, such schedule to be signed by the Engineer, or other person preparing the same.

SCHEDULE C.—An exhibit showing the total amount of capital proposed to be raised for the purposes of the undertaking and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same, whether by ordinary shares, bonds, debentures or other securities, and the amount of each respectively.

SCHEDULE D.—An estimate of the probable revenues of the proposed undertaking showing the sources whence the same are expected to be derived; the annual earnings thereof respectively; the probable annual cost of operation or working expenditure, and the annual net revenue applicable to the payment of interest on the proposed investments, such schedules to be signed by the person preparing the same.

72. When any Bill for confirming any Letters Patent, or Agreement, is presented to the House, the copy of such Letters Patent, or Agreement, shall be attached to it.

74. Every Private Bill, when read a first time shall, unless it be an Estate Bill or a Bill providing for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a Municipal Corporation, shall stand referred to the proper Standing Committee, and all petitions before the House, for or against the Bill, are considered referred to such Committee.

75. Every Private Bill, in so far as it provides for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a municipal corporation, when the Bill has been read a first time, shall, without special reference, stand referred to The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board for their report; and a copy of such Bill and of the Petition on which the same is founded shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the Board, in order that the Board may, after an inquiry into the allegations set out in the Bill, and into any other matters which the Board may deem necessary in connection therewith, report to the House whether or not it is reasonable that such Bill or the part thereof relating to the matters aforesaid, shall be passed, and what alterations, if any, should be made in the same, and the Board shall make such inquiry accordingly, and shall sign the same; and the said Report, Bill and Petition shall be transmitted to the Clerk, and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table and shall be entered on the Journals of the House, and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills.

76. Every Estate Bill, when read a first time shall without special reference, stand referred to the Commissioners of Estate Bills, for their Report, and a copy of such Bill, and of the Petition on which the same is founded, shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the said Commissioners, or one of them, in order that they, or any two of them, may, after perusing the Bill, without requiring any proof of the allegations thereof, report to the House their opinion thereon under their hands; and whether presuming the allegation contained in the preamble to be proved so the satisfaction of the House, it is reasonable that such Bill do pass into a law; and whether the provisions thereof are proper for carrying its purposes into effect, and what alterations or amendments, if any, are necessary in the same, and in the event of their approving the said Bill they are to sign the same; and the said Report, with the said Bill and Petition, are to be transmitted by the said Commissioners to the Clerk; and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table, and shall be entered on the Journals of the House; and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills, which is not to consider the said Bill, before the delivery of the said Report, Bill and Petition to the Chairman of the said Committee.

77. In the event of the Commissioners of Estate Bills reporting that, in their opinion, it is not reasonable that the Bill submitted to them shall pass into law such Bill shall not be further considered.

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection 1 of section 3 of The Regulations Act, 1944, that every regulation shall within one month of the filing thereof be published in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE, and whereas by virtue of subsection 2 of the said section 3 and of a certain Order-in-Council dated the 11th day of May, 1944, the Attorney General may at any time by order, extend the time for publication of a regulation, such order to be published with the regulation, and whereas having regard to the volume of regulations which have been and which will be filed before the 31st day of December, 1944, and to the present shortage of skilled craftsmen in the printing trade, it will in many cases be impossible to comply with the provisions of subsection 1 of section 3 of the said Act;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the time for publication of regulations filed before the 1st day of January, 1945, be extended for such period as may be necessary in the case of each set of regulations so filed.

Dated at Toronto this 9th day of November, 1944.

Attorney General.

PART I

DEFINITIONS

1. The interpretation provisions of the Act, as extended or amended from time to time by regulation, shall apply to these regulations.

2. "Act" shall mean The Securities Act, 1930.

3. "Official" wherever used in the Act or Regulations shall include the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, managing director, general manager, department and branch office managers, and all other persons acting in a similar capacity whether so designated or not.

4. "Security" in extension of the definition contained in clause (h) (now clause (i) ) of section 2 (now section 1) of the Act shall, without in any way restricting the generality of such definition, include any bond, debenture, share, stock, note, unit, unit certificate, any participation certificate, certificate of share or interest, pre-organization certificate or subscription: agreement providing that money received will be repaid or treated as a subscription to shares, stock, units, or interests at the option of the recipient, or of any person or company: certificate of share or interest in a trust estate or association: profit-sharing agreement or certificate: certificate of interest in an oil, gas or mining lease, claim or royalty Voting Trust certificate: oil or gas royalties or leases or fractional or other interest therein: collateral trust certificate: income or annuity contract not issued by an insurance company: bankers' share: Trustees' share: investment contract: investment participating bond or investment trust debenture; whether any of the foregoing relate to a person, proposed company or company as the case may be: agreements to purchase any fur-bearing animal which is not to be appropriated to the contract or cannot be identified as so appropriated: memberships in any organization, league, or association.

5. "Trade" or "Trading" in extension of the definition contained in clause (j) (now clause (k) ) of section 2 (now section 1) of the Act shall, without in any way restricting the generality of such definition, include participation as a floor trader in any transaction in a security upon the floor of any stock exchange, and also any receipt by a broker or salesman of an order to buy or sell a security, whether the order is received over the telephone or in person and whether the recipient receives such order as a broker or salesman or on behalf of a broker.

PART II

EXEMPTIONS

6. Section 4 (now section 8) of the Act shall not apply to any person in respect to any of the following classes of trade or securities:

"Non-trading" Employees' Transactions

(1) Trades in securities which may occasionally be transacted by employees of a registered broker (whether individual, partnership or company) where such employees do not usually sell securities to the public and have been temporarily designated by the Registrar as "non-trading" employees, either individually or as a class.

Government Bonds

(2) Debentures, bonds, stocks or other securities of or guaranteed by the government of Great Britain or any dominion, colony or dependency thereof, or of or guaranteed by the Government of any foreign country or state forming a portion of such foreign country.

Co-Operative Corporations

(3) Securities issued by corporations operated on a co-operative basis as defined by Part XII of The Companies Act.

Private Mining Syndicates

(4) The sale of securities of mining syndicates organized in Canada for the purpose of financing prospecting expeditions or development, where the total capital of the syndicate is not in excess of $35,000, and the securities are not being sold to the public. Provided, however, that before selling securities in such a syndicate, the organizer or organizers of the syndicate shall file with the Ontario Securities Commission a copy of the syndicate agreement together with the names and addresses of those persons who will be selling its securities. The Commission may, if it is deemed advisable, order the syndicate to register under the Act.

Failure to file this information or to comply with an order of the Commission under this regulation shall constitute an offence.

In this regulation the word "mining" shall be deemed only to apply to mining for metals.

Incorporated Mining Syndicates

(5) The sale of securities of a mining syndicate incorporated under Part I of The Companies Act (Ontario) with capital not exceeding $35,000 divided into shares of the par value of one dollar. Provided, however, a copy of the prospectus required by the provisions of The Companies Information Act, together with the names and addresses of those persons who will be selling its securities, shall be filed with the Commission, and the consent in writing of the Registrar first obtained.

Each purchaser of securities shall receive at the time of purchase a copy of such prospectus.

Any violation of this regulation shall constitute an offence.

PART III

REGISTRATION, ETC.

7. Every applicant for registration shall make a written request to the Registrar for forms of application, stating whether applicant desires to trade,—

A. Generally in securities as a broker;

B. As a security issuer, and whether applicant is

(1) A syndicate organized for mining purposes,

(2) A company incorporated for mining purposes,

(3) A syndicate organized for industrial purposes,

(4) A company incorporated for industrial purposes,

(5) A syndicate or company whose assets or securities consist of or are based upon oil or gas lands, royalties, leases, any fractional or other interests therein; or whose assets or securities consist of or are based upon any past, present or future income ascribed to or derived therefrom;

C. As a salesman; and the Registrar shall cause the proper forms to be sent to the applicant, together with a statement showing additional information required.

8. The "$500 bonds" and the "surety bonds" required under the Act shall be in forms D and E respectively, in the schedule to these regulations.

Fees

9. The following fees shall be paid to the Registrar:

|---|---|
| (1) Fee for registration of a broker or security issuer | $100.00 |
| Additional fee for every branch office | 50.00 |
| (2) Fee for registration of a salesman | 10.00 |
| (3) Fee when salesman notifies Registrar of change of employer | 1.00 |
| (4) Fee for renewal of registration: Same fee as upon a first application. | |
| (5) Alteration fee for every material change in registration | 1.00 |

Disposition of Fees

10. The Registrar shall cause all cheques, money orders and postal notes to be deposited daily with the Treasurer of Ontario and the same shall form part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Refunds

11. The Registrar shall where any application is refused make a refund to the applicant of the amount of the fee which accompanied the application, and in any other case may make such proportionate refund as seems fair and reasonable.

Termination of Registration

12. Registration under the Act shall lapse on the 31st day of March and every registered broker or salesman shall apply for renewal of registration on or before the 21st day of March, giving full particulars of any change in the facts set forth in the latest application form on record, and enclosing the proper fee as upon a first application.

No Broker or Salesman Shall Trade Until Notified of Registration

13. No broker or salesman shall trade in securities until notified in writing of registration, or hold himself or itself out as registered either directly or indirectly, nor exhibit to any of the public any letter, receipt or copy thereof received from the Registrar, nor advertise the registration in any way, save to state to inquirers the name in which such registration stands.

Any violation of this regulation shall constitute an offence.

Non-trading Employees

14. The Registrar may designate as "non-trading" any employee or class of employees of a registered broker (whether an individual, partnership or company) not usually selling securities to the public, but such designation shall be temporary only and shall be cancelled at any time as to any employee or class of employees whenever the Registrar is satisfied that any such employee or member of any such class of employees should be required to apply for registration as a salesman, whereupon notice thereof with proper application forms shall be sent to the employer.

Changes in Registration

15.—(1) Every registered broker shall in writing notify the Registrar of,—

(a) any change in the address for service;

(b) any change in the officials or members in the case of a company of partnership; or

(c) the commencement and termination of employment of every salesman.

(2) Every registered salesman shall, in writing, notify the Registrar of,—

(a) any change in his address for service;

(b) each commencement and termination of his employment by a registered broker.

Failure to comply with this regulation shall constitute an offence.

Salesman's Change of Employer

16. The registration of a salesman shall be suspended upon the termination of his employment with a registered broker, of which termination both the employer and salesman shall at once notify the Registrar in writing and such suspension shall continue until another registered broker has, in writing, notified the Registrar that the salesman is in his employ.

Salesmen Trading for Other Brokers

17. Any salesman who trades in any security on behalf of any broker other than his employer, without the consent of the latter, confirmed in writing, shall be guilty of an offence.

Stock Exchange Requires Consent

18. No person or company shall carry on business as a stock exchange in the Province of Ontario without the consent in writing of the Ontario Securities Commission.

Failure to comply with this regulation shall constitute an offence.

Broker Correspondents

19. No broker shall use the name of another broker on letterheads, forms, advertisements or signs as correspondent or otherwise unless he is a partner or agent of the other broker.

Failure to comply with this regulation shall constitute an offence.

Report re Refusal of Dominion Company

20. The Registrar, whenever registration of a security issuer which is a Dominion company or of an official thereof is refused, may, whenever the circumstances warrant, report thereon, together with the reasons therefor, to the Secretary of State for Canada.

Deputy Registrar

21. During the absence of the Registrar, the Deputy Registrar shall be deemed to be the Registrar.

PART IV

REGULATION OF TRADING

Broker to File Data and Obtain Consent for Sale

22. No broker or salesman shall trade in any security where the whole or any part of the proceeds thereof will be paid, either,—

(a) into the treasury of the company whose securities are offered for sale, or

(b) to any person or company allotted or issued such security with a view to resale to the public, whether such allotment be by way of option or underwriting agreement or for cash, or

(c) to any person or company allotted or issued such security for a consideration other than cash, until there has been filed with the Registrar the information prescribed by the Commission from time to time and until the consent of the Registrar has first been obtained.

"Company" shall include a partnership, association, syndicate or other unincorporated organization.

This regulation shall not apply to the sale of any security coming within the classes of trades or securities which are exempt from registration under the provisions of section 4 (now section 8) of The Securities Act or regulation number 6 (except for any conditions therein required to be observed), or to securities listed or posted for trading on any recognized Stock Exchange.

Any violation of this regulation shall constitute an offence.

Oil or Gas Royalties

23. No broker shall trade in any security which consists of or is based upon oil or gas lands, royalties, leases, any fractional or other interests therein, or which consists of or is based upon any past, present or future income ascribed to or derived therefrom, until there has been filed with the Registrar a statement in the form prescribed by the Commission from time to time and until the consent in writing of the Registrar has first been obtained.

Every broker and salesman before accepting payment or receiving any security in respect of a trade in a security of the class above mentioned shall deliver to every customer a written or printed statement in such form and containing such information as may from time to time be prescribed by the Commission.

Any violation or this regulation or any misrepresentation in the statement filed or delivered shall constitute an offence.

Information to Purchasers

24. Where the whole or any part of the proceeds of a trade in any security will be paid, either,—

(1) into the treasury of the company whose securities are offered for sale, or

(2) to any person or company allotted or issued such security with a view to resale to the public, whether such allotment be by way of option or underwriting agreement or for cash, each purchaser shall receive, at the time of purchase, a written or printed statement, setting forth,—

(a) the quantity and description of the security;

(b) the consideration;

(c) whether or not the proceeds will be paid to the treasury of the Company whose securities are offered for sale;

(d) when the broker or salesman is acting as agent the commission received or to be received from the vendor or purchaser or both;

(e) where the purchaser may obtain a copy of the latest prospectus (filed under The Companies Information Act) of the company whose securities are offered for sale.

"Company" shall include a partnership, association, syndicate or other unincorporated organization.

This regulation shall not apply to the sale of any security coming within the classes of trades or securities which are exempt from registration under the provisions of section 4 (now section 8) of The Securities Act or regulation number 6, (except for any conditions therein required to be observed) or to securities listed or posted for trading on any recognized stock exchange.

Any violation of this regulation shall constitute an offence.

Syndicate Agreement Must be Delivered

25. If a security, as defined by the Act or regulations thereunder, of or in a partnership, association, syndicate or other unincorporated organization is offered for sale, a copy of the agreement which establishes the rights and liabilities of those joining such unincorporated organization must at the same time be delivered to the person to whom the offer is made.

Any violation of this regulation or any misrepresentation in the agreement shall constitute an offence.

No Representation re Ontario Securities Commission

26. No person shall make any representation, written or oral, that the Ontario Securities Commission has in any way passed upon the financial standing, fitness or conduct of any broker, security issuer or salesman; or upon the merits of any security offered for sale by any broker, security issuer or salesman.

Any violation of this regulation shall constitute an offence.

Call at Residence in Person or by Phone Prohibited

27. No person shall call at any residence for the purpose of trading in any security with the public or any member of the public, and any violation of this regulation shall constitute an offence.

In this regulation the word "residence" shall mean and include any building, or part of a building in which the occupant thereof resides, either permanently or temporarily, and any premises appurtenant thereto but shall not include an office used for business purposes; the word "public" shall not include close personal friends, business associates or customers with whom the person making the offer has been in the habit in the past of doing regular business in the sale of or obtaining subscriptions for securities; the word "call" includes telephonic communications.

This regulation shall not apply to the sale of bonds of any Government in Canada or Great Britain or of any municipality or other incorporated body in the Dominion of Canada which is empowered by statute to obtain money necessary for the payment of interest and redemption of bonds by public taxation.

This regulation shall not apply to the sale of units in a mining syndicate with a capital of not more than $35,000 by a bona fide prospector who has a substantial interest in the syndicate.

Promises to Refund, Resell or Repurchase and List Prohibited

28. No broker or salesman shall make any representation, written or oral that he or any other person or any company will,—

(a) resell or repurchase; or

(b) list, or make application to list, upon any stock exchange; or

(c) refund all or any of the purchase price of any security offered for sale by the broker or salesman, or give any guarantee relating thereto.

Any violation of this regulation shall constitute an offence.

Saving Plans

29. No company shall solicit or accept from its employees or the employees of its subsidiary or allied companies subscriptions to securities of its own issue or to securities issued by any of its subsidiary or allied companies or receive money or other valuable securities, or make deductions from salaries or wages therefor, in the guise of a savings plan, unless all moneys arising from such subscriptions are held and administered as a trust fund for such employees.

Any violation of this regulation shall constitute an offence.

Breach of Section 1 (d) of Act an Offence

30. Any person who commits any fraudulent act as defined by clause (c) (now clause (d)) of section 2 (now section 1) of The Securities Act, shall be guilty of an offence.

APPEARANCE

5. The person requesting a review may appear personally or by counsel before the Board of Review.

ADJOURNMENTS

6. The Chairman of the Board of Review or in his absence any member of the Board may adjourn a hearing from time to time as may be deemed necessary.

FAILURE TO APPEAR

7. If upon the return of an appointment for a hearing before the Board of Review the person requesting the review does not appear either personally or by counsel, the Board of Review may in its discretion confirm the direction, decision, order or ruling of which a review is sought, or may enlarge the hearing to a subsequent date, or may make such recommendation to the Commission with respect to the matter under review as the Board of Review may deem proper.

CLERK OF SITTINGS

8. The Board of Review may appoint a clerk for the sittings of the Board of Review.

EXHIBITS

9. Exhibits shall be marked and numbered and the clerk to the Board of Review shall at the conclusion of the hearing make a list thereof giving a description of each exhibit and stating by whom it was put in. The exhibits shall remain in the custody of the Secretary until the Board of Review has given its decision and thereafter shall be delivered out unless an appeal is taken when the exhibits shall be retained until the appeal is disposed of.

ENTRY OF DECISION

10.—(1) Every decision given by the Board of Review shall be entered in a book to be kept by the secretary.

(2) The secretary shall note in the margin of the book the date of entry.

WITNESSES

11. All witnesses shall be examined on oath, which oath may be administered by the clerk.

Applications to Parliament

Private Bills

PUBLIC NOTICE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO

The attention of Municipal Officials, Solicitors and all other persons who may be interested in the preparation of Private Bills for submission to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario is directed particularly to the following Rules of the House governing the submission of such Bills.

RULES RE SUBMISSION OF PRIVATE BILLS

63.—(1) No petition for any Private Bill is received by the House after the first two weeks of each Session; nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session; nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first six weeks of each Session and no motion for the general suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House unless after reference made thereof, at a previous sitting of the House, to the several Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills or upon Report submitted by two or more of such committees.

64.—(1) Any person desiring to obtain a Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House at least eight (8) days before the meeting of the House a copy of such Bill, together with a fee of $150, and if such Bill is not deposited by that time the applicant shall pay $10 for each and every day which intervenes between the said eighth day and the date of the filing of the Bill.

(2) After the first reading of the Bill, and before its consideration by the Committee to which it is referred, the applicant in every case shall pay the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes.

(3) The following charges shall also be levied and paid in addition to the foregoing:

(a) When any rule of the House is suspended with reference to a Bill or the Petition therefor, for each suspension $50.

(b) When a Bill is presented to the House after the first three weeks of the Session and before the end of the fourth week, $75.

(c) When a Bill is presented after the fourth week of the Session, $100.

(4) In case of any Bill incorporating a company or increasing the capital stock of a company already incorporated, there shall be paid to the Clerk of the House, by or on behalf of the applicant, before the same is reported to the House, the same fee as would be payable to the Provincial Secretary in the case of an incorporation or increase of capital under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, less the sum of $150 already paid to the Clerk of the House.

(5) When a Bill is for the purpose of confirming by-laws, bonds, debentures or other securities, or authority is asked to borrow money or to increase borrowing powers, the following additional fees shall be paid according to the amount of money involved:

On amounts less than $10,000, $25; on amounts over $10,000 and up to $25,000, $50; on amounts over $25,000 and up to $40,000, $75; on amounts over $40,000 and up to $75,000, $100; on amounts over $75,000 and up to $125,000, $125; on amounts over $125,000 and up to $175,000, $150; amounts over $175,000 and up to $250,000, $200; an amounts over $250,000 and up to $350,000, $250; and an additional fee of $50 for every $100,000 over $350,000.

66. All applications for Private Bills properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867" shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such Notice to be published as follows, viz.:

A notice inserted in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE and in one newspaper published in the Municipality affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest municipality in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

If the application is by a Municipal Corporation for authority to issue debentures the notice shall set out the particulars of the existing debenture debt and the amount of the rateable property of the Municipality according to the last revised assessment roll of the Corporation, and in brief and general terms, the object for which the new issue of debentures is required.

67. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the Notice required by the preceding Rule, also, at the same time and in the same manner, give Notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privileges, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

68. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Bill for the construction of Railways, Tramways or Canals is received by the House, the person or persons petitioning for such Bill shall deposit with the Clerk the following documents:

1. A map or plan upon a scale of not less than half an inch to the mile, showing the location upon which it is intended to construct the proposed work, and showing also the lines of existing or authorized works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting the district or any part thereof which the proposed work is intended to serve. Such map or plan to be signed by the Engineer or other party making the same.

2. A book of reference in which shall be clearly set out the following information in separate schedules namely:

SCHEDULE A.—The name of each municipality within which the proposed works or any part thereof are intended to be constructed; the population of each such municipality as returned by the next preceding census, the rateable value of the property within each such municipality, as returned by the next preceding assessment rolls thereof; and this schedule may contain in a separate statement similar information as to the adjoining districts intended to be served by the proposed work.

SCHEDULE B.—A general description of the nature, extent, and proposed character of the contemplated works, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, distinguishing the general items of construction and the cost thereof respectively, as well as the nature, extent and probable cost of all engines and car stock or other outfit or equipment necessary to the use and operation of the proposed undertaking, such schedule to be signed by the Engineer, or other person preparing the same.

SCHEDULE C.—An exhibit showing the total amount of capital proposed to be raised for the purposes of the undertaking and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same, whether by ordinary shares, bonds, debentures or other securities, and the amount of each respectively.

SCHEDULE D.—An estimate of the probable revenues of the proposed undertaking showing the sources whence the same are expected to be derived; the annual earnings thereof respectively; the probable annual cost of operation or working expenditure, and the annual net revenue applicable to the payment of interest on the proposed investments, such schedules to be signed by the person preparing the same.

72. When any Bill for confirming any Letters Patent, or Agreement, is presented to the House, the copy of such Letters Patent, or Agreement, shall be attached to it.

74. Every Private Bill, when read a first time shall, unless it be an Estate Bill or a Bill providing for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a Municipal Corporation, shall stand referred to the proper Standing Committee, and all petitions before the House, for or against the Bill, are considered referred to such Committee.

75. Every Private Bill, in so far as it provides for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a municipal corporation, when the Bill has been read a first time, shall, without special reference, stand referred to The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board for their report; and a copy of such Bill and of the Petition on which the same is founded shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the Board, in order that the Board may, after an inquiry into the allegations set out in the Bill, and into any other matters which the Board may deem necessary in connection therewith, report to the House whether or not it is reasonable that such Bill or the part thereof relating to the matters aforesaid, shall be passed, and what alterations, if any, should be made in the same, and the Board shall make such inquiry accordingly, and shall sign the same; and the said Report, Bill and Petition shall be transmitted to the Clerk, and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table and shall be entered on the Journals of the House, and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills.

76. Every Estate Bill, when read a first time shall without special reference, stand referred to the Commissioners of Estate Bills, for their Report, and a copy of such Bill, and of the Petition on which the same is founded, shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the said Commissioners, or one of them, in order that they, or any two of them, may, after perusing the Bill, without requiring any proof of the allegations thereof, report to the House their opinion thereon under their hands; and whether presuming the allegation contained in the preamble to be proved so the satisfaction of the House, it is reasonable that such Bill do pass into a law: and whether the provisions thereof are proper for carrying its purposes into effect, and what alterations or amendments, if any, are necessary in the same, and in the event of their approving the said Bill they are to sign the same; and the said Report, with the said Bill and Petition, are to be transmitted by the said Commissioners to the Clerk; and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table, and shall be entered on the Journals of the House; and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills, which is not to consider the said Bill, before the delivery of the said Report, Bill and Petition to the Chairman of the said Committee.

77. In the event of the Commissioners of Estate Bills reporting that, in their opinion, it is not reasonable that the Bill submitted to them shall pass into law such Bill shall not be further considered.

Publications Under The Regulations Act, 1944

MARCH 17th, 1945

THE REGULATIONS ACT, 1944

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection 1 of section 3 of The Regulations Act, 1944, that every regulation shall within one month of the filing thereof be published in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE, and whereas by virtue of subsection 2 of the said section 3 and of a certain Order-in-Council dated the 11th day of May, 1944, the Attorney General may at any time by order, extend the time for publication of a regulation, such order to be published with the regulation, and whereas having regard to the volume of regulations which have been and which will be filed before the 31st day of December, 1944, and to the present shortage of skilled craftsmen in the printing trade, it will in many cases be impossible to comply with the provisions of subsection 1 of section 3 of the said Act;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the time for publication of regulations filed before the 1st day of January, 1945, be extended for such period as may be necessary in the case of each set of regulations so filed.

Dated at Toronto this 9th day of November, 1944.

Attorney General.

THE CREDIT UNIONS ACT, 1940

O. Reg. 257/44.
General.

(f) "Registrar" shall mean Registrar of Credit Unions appointed under the provisions of the Act.

APPLICATION FOR INCORPORATION

2. Every application for the incorporation of a credit union shall be by Memorandum of Association in the form prescribed by Schedule "A" to these regulations and such Memorandum shall be delivered to the Registrar.

PROPOSED BY-LAWS

3. Every Memorandum of Association delivered to the Registrar for the incorporation of a credit union shall be accompanied by a copy of the proposed by-laws of such credit union.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

4. The certificate of incorporation of a credit union shall be in such form as the Minister may determine.

FIRST MEETING

5.—(1) At the first meeting of the members of the credit union a majority shall constitute a quorum.

(2) At the first meeting of a credit union convened pursuant to the provisions of the Memorandum of Association or convened in any other manner by notice to all the members of the credit union, the by-laws of such credit union shall be enacted and confirmed by a majority of the members of the credit union present at such meeting.

(3) The first meeting of a credit union shall be held within one month after the date of the receipt of the certificate of incorporation unless a later date is authorized by the Registrar, and the by-laws shall be forwarded to the Registrar for filing immediately after the enactment thereof.

(4) When the Minister has approved any such by-laws the Registrar shall file one copy with the Department and return the other copy to the credit union.

6. The annual meeting of every credit union shall be held prior to the 15th day of February in each year.

GUARANTEE FUND

7.—(1) Every credit union shall invest the moneys set aside for the guarantee fund in securities authorized by The Trustee Act (Ontario) for trustees to invest trust funds held for investment or in the shares of any League which complies with the proviso contained in subsection 2 of this section, but no such moneys shall be invested in mortgages on real estate.

(2) Every League issued a certificate of incorporation under section 48 of the Act may receive from any credit union moneys set aside by such credit union for the guarantee fund and issue shares to the credit union for the amount of the moneys so received provided that every such League shall retain at all times, invested in securities authorized by The Trustee Act (Ontario) for trustees to invest trust funds held for investment, an amount equal at least to the total sum of moneys so received from credit unions.

ANNUAL RETURNS

8. A summary of the annual return and the audited statement required under section 46 of the Act shall be forwarded to the Inspector on or before March 1st in each year upon and according to the form prescribed by the Inspector.

SPECIAL RETURNS

9. Every credit union shall in addition to any other returns required by these regulations make such returns to the Inspector as he may require upon and according to the form prescribed by the Inspector.

INCORPORATION FEES

10. The fee for the incorporation of a credit union shall be $10.00 and such fee shall be forwarded to the Registrar with the Memorandum of Association.

FILING FEES

11. The fee for filing copies of the by-laws of a credit union and for filing every amendment to such by-laws shall be $1:00 in each case and such fee shall be forwarded to the Registrar with such by-laws or amendments.

FEES FOR SEARCHES AND CERTIFICATES

12.— (1) The fee for every search of the records on file of any credit union shall be fifty cents.

(2) The fee for a certified copy of the certificate of incorporation of a credit union or a certified copy of the by-laws of a credit union shall be $2.00.

CONSOLIDATED REVENUE FUND

13. The fees received under these regulations shall be paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

CORPORATE SEAL

14. Every credit union incorporated under the Act shall have a corporate seal.

BY-LAWS

15. Subject to any additional by-laws or amendments to the by-laws of a credit union that may be permitted by the Act and approved by the Minister, the contents of the by-laws of a credit union incorporated under the Act after the coming into force of these regulations shall contain the by-laws prescribed by Schedule "B" to these regulations.

16. Every credit union may pass by-laws in relation to the matters contained in the by-laws for credit unions prescribed by Schedule "B" to these regulations.

3. Whenever any vacancy occurs on the Supervisory Committee the remaining members thereof may appoint a member to the said Committee for the unexpired term of the member who caused the vacancy.

4. The Supervisory Committee shall from among themselves elect a Chairman of such Committee.

5. Regular meetings of the Supervisory Committee shall be held..... and other meetings may be called by the Chairman of such Committee or upon the petition of two members thereof.

6. It shall be the duty of the Supervisory Committee to,—

(a) examine the affairs of the credit union at least quarterly and when they deem it advisable they shall call a special meeting of the credit union in accordance with these by-laws;

(b) examine each application for a loan during the period under examination and verify for each loan made during the said period that an application is on file and that the loan has been approved by the Credit Committee as required by these by-laws and that the security, if any, given for each loan is on file;

(c) submit an audit and written report to each annual meeting of the credit union;

(d) perform such other duties as are required by the Act.

7. The Supervisory Committee shall have authority in accordance with the provisions of section 31 of the Act to suspend any member of the Board of Directors or Credit Committee or any officer of the credit union for misappropriation of the funds of the credit union or contravening any by-law thereof and may appoint a member of the credit union to perform the duties of the person so suspended until he has been relieved of such duties at a meeting convened to consider the matter.

8. The balance sheet which the Treasurer is required by these by-laws to prepare each month shall be certified by.....member(s) of the Supervisory Committee.

9. A majority shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Supervisory Committee.

ARTICLE XII

GUARANTEE FUND AND EDUCATION FUND

1. At the close of each fiscal year there shall be set aside for the guarantee fund twenty per centum of the net profits for the year just closed as a reserve fund against uncollectible loans and losses provided the credit union may by resolution upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors increase such per centum.

2. Entrance fees, transfer fees and fines, if any, shall be added to the guarantee fund.

3. Uncollectible loans shall be charged to the guarantee fund after deducting from each of such loans the interest, fines and any portion of the money loaned which may have been received by the credit union provided that no loan shall be charged to the guarantee fund without the approval of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee.

4. Moneys set aside for the guarantee fund shall be invested in such investments as are authorized by The Trustee Act (Ontario) for a trustee to invest moneys held by him for investment provided that the Board of Directors shall determine each investment and give its approval to the same.

5. The credit union may by resolution upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors provide that after making provision for the guarantee fund and before declaring a dividend, there shall be set aside in any year an amount not to exceed five per centum of the net earnings for such year as a special fund which shall be used for such educational purposes as the said resolution may provide for.

ARTICLE XIII

DIVIDENDS

1. At each annual meeting the credit union may by resolution upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors after providing for the operating expenses, guarantee fund and educational fund, if any, declare a dividend payable on all shares outstanding at the end of the fiscal year just closed provided that shares which became paid in full during such fiscal year shall be paid such proportional dividend as the resolution provides for.

ARTICLE XIV

EXPULSION AND WITHDRAWAL

1. The credit union may upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors at any annual or special meeting called for such purpose expel any member thereof provided such member shall be given notice of the intended expulsion and an opportunity of appearing before the meeting for a hearing.

2. Subject to the Act and the by-laws of the credit union any member thereof may upon application to the Board of Directors withdraw from the credit union.

3. The withdrawal or expulsion of any member of the credit union shall not relieve such member of his liabilities, if any, to the credit union.

4. The amount of money paid in on shares or deposits by any member who has withdrawn or has been expelled from the credit union shall, after deducting the amounts, if any, due by such member to the credit union be paid to such member in the order of withdrawals and expulsions provided such payment shall not be made until funds are available.

ARTICLE XV

POWER TO BORROW

Subject to the limitations and requirements of sections 35, 36, 37 and 38 of the Act the credit union may borrow money.

Applications to Parliament

Private Bills

PUBLIC NOTICE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO

The attention of Municipal Officials, Solicitors and all other persons who may be interested in the preparation of Private Bills for submission to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario is directed particularly to the following Rules of the House governing the submission of such Bills.

RULES RE SUBMISSION OF PRIVATE BILLS

63.—(1) No petition for any Private Bill is received by the House after the first two weeks of each Session; nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session; nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first six weeks of each Session and no motion for the general suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House unless after reference made thereof, at a previous sitting of the House, to the several Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills or upon Report submitted by two or more of such committees.

64.—(1) Any person desiring to obtain a Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House at least eight (8) days before the meeting of the House a copy of such Bill, together with a fee of $150, and if such Bill is not deposited by that time the applicant shall pay $10 for each and every day which intervenes between the said eighth day and the date of the filing of the Bill.

(2) After the first reading of the Bill, and before its consideration by the Committee to which it is referred, the applicant in every case shall pay the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes.

(3) The following charges shall also be levied and paid in addition to the foregoing:

(a) When any rule of the House is suspended with reference to a Bill or the Petition therefor, for each suspension $50.

(b) When a Bill is presented to the House after the first three weeks of the Session and before the end of the fourth week, $75.

(c) When a Bill is presented after the fourth week of the Session, $100.

(4) In case of any Bill incorporating a company or increasing the capital stock of a company already incorporated, there shall be paid to the Clerk of the House, by or on behalf of the applicant, before the same is reported to the House, the same fee as would be payable to the Provincial Secretary in the case of an incorporation or increase of capital under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, less the sum of $150 already paid to the Clerk of the House.

(5) When a Bill is for the purpose of confirming by-laws, bonds, debentures or other securities, or authority is asked to borrow money or to increase borrowing powers, the following additional fees shall be paid according to the amount of money involved:

On amounts less than $10,000, $25; on amounts over $10,000 and up to $25,000, $50; on amounts over $25,000 and up to $40,000, $75; on amounts over $40,000 and up to $75,000, $100; on amounts over $75,000 and up to $125,000, $125; on amounts over $125,000 and up to $175,000, $150; amounts over $175,000 and up to $250,000, $200; an amounts over $250,000 and up to $350,000, $250; and an additional fee of $50 for every $100,000 over $350,000.

66. All applications for Private Bills properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867" shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such Notice to be published as follows, viz.:

A notice inserted in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE and in one newspaper published in the Municipality affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest municipality in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

If the application is by a Municipal Corporation for authority to issue debentures the notice shall set out the particulars of the existing debenture debt and the amount of the rateable property of the Municipality according to the last revised assessment roll of the Corporation, and in brief and general terms, the object for which the new issue of debentures is required.

67. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the Notice required by the preceding Rule, also, at the same time and in the same manner, give Notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privileges, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

68. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Bill for the construction of Railways, Tramways or Canals is received by the House, the person or persons petitioning for such Bill shall deposit with the Clerk the following documents:

1. A map or plan upon a scale of not less than half an inch to the mile, showing the location upon which it is intended to construct the proposed work, and showing also the lines of existing or authorized works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting the district or any part thereof which the proposed work is intended to serve. Such map or plan to be signed by the Engineer or other party making the same.

2. A book of reference in which shall be clearly set out the following information in separate schedules namely:

SCHEDULE A.—The name of each municipality within which the proposed works or any part thereof are intended to be constructed; the population of each such municipality as returned by the next preceding census, the rateable value of the property within each such municipality, as returned by the next preceding assessment rolls thereof; and this schedule may contain in a separate statement similar information as to the adjoining districts intended to be served by the proposed work.

SCHEDULE B.—A general description of the nature, extent, and proposed character of the contemplated works, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, distinguishing the general items of construction and the cost thereof respectively, as well as the nature, extent and probable cost of all engines and car stock or other outfit or equipment necessary to the use and operation of the proposed undertaking, such schedule to be signed by the Engineer, or other person preparing the same.

SCHEDULE C.—An exhibit showing the total amount of capital proposed to be raised for the purposes of the undertaking and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same, whether by ordinary shares, bonds, debentures or other securities, and the amount of each respectively.

SCHEDULE D.—An estimate of the probable revenues of the proposed undertaking showing the sources whence the same are expected to be derived; the annual earnings thereof respectively; the probable annual cost of operation or working expenditure, and the annual net revenue applicable to the payment of interest on the proposed investments, such schedules to be signed by the person preparing the same.

72. When any Bill for confirming any Letters Patent, or Agreement, is presented to the House, the copy of such Letters Patent, or Agreement, shall be attached to it.

74. Every Private Bill, when read a first time shall, unless it be an Estate Bill or a Bill providing for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a Municipal Corporation, shall stand referred to the proper Standing Committee, and all petitions before the House, for or against the Bill, are considered referred to such Committee.

75. Every Private Bill, in so far as it provides for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a municipal corporation, when the Bill has been read a first time, shall, without special reference, stand referred to The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board for their report; and a copy of such Bill and of the Petition on which the same is founded shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the Board, in order that the Board may, after an inquiry into the allegations set out in the Bill, and into any other matters which the Board may deem necessary in connection therewith, report to the House whether or not it is reasonable that such Bill or the part thereof relating to the matters aforesaid, shall be passed, and what alterations, if any, should be made in the same, and the Board shall make such inquiry accordingly, and shall sign the same; and the said Report, Bill and Petition shall be transmitted to the Clerk, and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table and shall be entered on the Journals of the House, and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills.

76. Every Estate Bill, when read a first time shall without special reference, stand referred to the Commissioners of Estate Bills, for their Report, and a copy of such Bill, and of the Petition on which the same is founded, shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the said Commissioners, or one of them, in order that they, or any two of them, may, after perusing the Bill, without requiring any proof of the allegations thereof, report to the House their opinion thereon under their hands: and whether presuming the allegation contained in the preamble to be proved so the satisfaction of the House, it is reasonable that such Bill do pass into a law: and whether the provisions thereof are proper for carrying its purposes into effect and what alterations or amendments, if any, are necessary in the same, and in the event of their approving the said Bill they are to sign the same; and the said Report, with the said Bill and Petition, are to be transmitted by the said Commissioners to the Clerk: and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table, and shall be entered on the Journals of the House; and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills, which is not to consider the said Bill, before the delivery of the said Report, Bill and Petition to the Chairman of the said Committee.

77. In the event of the Commissioners of Estate Bills reporting that, in their opinion, it is not reasonable that the Bill submitted to them shall pass into law such Bill shall not be further considered.

Publications Under The Regulations Act, 1944

MARCH 24th, 1945

THE REGULATIONS ACT, 1944

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection 1 of section 3 of The Regulations Act, 1944, that every regulation shall within one month of the filing thereof be published in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE, and whereas by virtue of subsection 2 of the said section 3 and of a certain Order-in-Council dated the 11th day of May, 1944, the Attorney General may at any time by order, extend the time for publication of a regulation, such order to be published with the regulation, and whereas having regard to the volume of regulations which have been and which will be filed before the 31st day of December, 1944, and to the present shortage of skilled craftsmen in the printing trade, it will in many cases be impossible to comply with the provisions of subsection 1 of section 3 of the said Act;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the time for publication of regulations filed before the 1st day of January, 1945, be extended for such period as may be necessary in the case of each set of regulations so filed.

Dated at Toronto this 9th day of November, 1944.

Attorney General.

THE LIQUOR AUTHORITY CONTROL ACT, 1944

O. Reg. 258/44.
General.
New.
Approved—November 14th, 1944.
Filed—December 21st, 1944, 8.45 a.m.

INTERPRETATION

1. In these regulations,—

(a) "beverage room" shall mean a public or common room in authorized premises in which beer may be sold, served and consumed;

(b) "club" shall mean a club whether incorporated or unincorporated which,—

(i) has for its objects definite purposes of a social or recreational nature,

(ii) is composed of not less than fifty members in good standing who pay regular fees, dues or assessments,

(iii) has been organized and in active operation for not less than one year prior to the time of application for an authority, and

(iv) is not operated for pecuniary gain;

(c) "dining room" shall mean,—

(i) a room in authorized premises in which meals are regularly served,

(ii) a room in authorized premises which is used for special meals such as banquets and other like functions during the time the room is being used for such purpose, or

(iii) a private room in authorized premises in which a meal is being served to the occupant thereof during the time the room is being used for the service and consumption of the meal;

(d) "hotel" shall mean a separate building or part of a building or two or more connected buildings used mainly for the purpose of catering to the needs of the public by the supply of food and having available for the use of the travelling public sleeping accommodation of at least six bedrooms, as distinguished from any other building or connected buildings used mainly for the purpose of supplying food and lodging by the week or otherwise commonly known as "boarding houses" or of furnishing living quarters for families and having a dining room or restaurant, commonly known as "apartment houses" or "private hotels";

(e) "military mess" shall include a canteen and an institute in a building or camp used for the accommodation of the active or reserve units of the naval, military or air forces of Canada;

(f) "railway dining car" shall include railway cars of the types known as buffet car and club car; and

(g) "steamship" shall mean any vessel propelled through the water by any power other than muscular power, which carries passengers and plies regularly between any port in Ontario and any port within or outside of Ontario.

AUTHORITIES

2. The Board may issue authorities to the following classes of authorized premises and for the following purposes,—

(a) clubs,—for the sale and consumption of beer and wine with meals in their respective dining rooms and of beer without meals in other parts of the club premises approved by the Board;

(b) hotels,—for the sale and consumption of beer and wine with meals in their respective dining rooms and of beer without meals in their respective beverage rooms;

(c) military messes,—for the sale and consumption of beer and wine with meals and of beer without meals therein in accordance with the instructions issued from time to time by the Board;

(d) railway trains,—for the sale and consumption of beer and wine with meals and of beer without meals in dining cars and drawing rooms or compartments in sleeping cars; and

(e) steamships,—for the sale and consumption of beer and wine with meals in their respective dining rooms and of beer without meals in such portions of the steamship as are approved by the Board.

3. Every application for an authority shall be made in the name of the true owner or owners of the business carried on upon the authorized premises and shall be in writing upon the prescribed form.

4. Every authority shall be in writing upon the prescribed form and shall be issued in the name of the true owner or owners of the business carried on upon the authorized premises and shall be kept posted up and displayed in a conspicuous place in the authorized premises for which it is issued.

5. Every application for renewal of an authority shall be made in writing upon the prescribed form.

6. No authority may be issued to any person or corporation if any such person or any director or officer of such corporation has been convicted of any offence involving moral turpitude under the provisions of the Criminal Code (Canada) or to any person or corporation if such person or corporation or any director or officer thereof has been convicted of selling or supplying liquor contrary to the provisions of The Liquor Control Act or The Liquor Authority Control Act, 1944.

REGISTRAR

(e) keep the minutes of the meetings and proceedings of the Board in his authority district;

(f) attend to the correspondence affecting his authority district;

(g) inform and advise the Board on any matters arising out of the administration of the Act and these regulations;

(h) file with the registrar copies of all the Board's orders, directions, certificates and such other documents as may be required; and

(i) generally perform and carry out the directions, orders and instructions of the Board.

OFFICIALS, INSPECTORS AND EMPLOYEES

9. The officials, inspectors and other employees of the Board shall obey the instructions of the Board and perform such duties as it shall direct.

CORPORATIONS

10. No authority shall be issued to a corporation unless its principal object is the operation of any of the premises and undertakings mentioned in regulation 2 and unless such corporation is incorporated under the laws of the Dominion of Canada or of the Province of Ontario or, in the case of an extra provincial corporation, unless such corporation is licensed to do business in Ontario.

FEES

11. The annual fees payable in respect of the issue of an authority by the holder thereof and the manner of payment shall be as follows:

(a) for hotel, railway and social club authorities, the fee shall be 8 cents per gallon of beer purchased and five per centum of the value of wine purchased with minimum fees as follows:

hotel and railway authorities . . $300 per annum six months summer hotels . . . . . 150 per annum social clubs . . . . . 100 per annum

(b) for labour and veterans' club authorities, the fee shall be 8 cents per gallon of beer purchased, with the exception that for veterans' clubs where the sale of beer is restricted to bottled beer only, the fee shall be 5 cents per gallon of beer purchased; and

(c) for steamship authorities . . . . . $50 per annum for military mess authorities . . . . 30 per annum

TRANSFER OF AUTHORITIES

12.—(1) For the purposes of section 38 of the Act, the monopoly value of an authority at the time of sale shall be determined as follows:

10% on the gross value of the purchases of beer for the preceding twelve months up to 10,000 gallons with a minimum fee of $100;

20% on the gross value of the purchases of beer for the preceding twelve months from 10,001 to 20,000 gallons;

30% on previous twelve months' purchases from 20,001 to 30,000 gallons;

40% on previous twelve months' purchases from 30,001 to 40,000 gallons;

50% on previous twelve months' purchases from 40,001 to 50,000 gallons;

60% on previous twelve months' purchases from 50,001 to 60,000 gallons;

70% on previous twelve months' purchases from 60,001 to 70,000 gallons;

80% on previous twelve months' purchases from 70,001 to 80,000 gallons;

90% on previous twelve months' purchases from 80,001 to 90,000 gallons;

100% on previous twelve months' purchases from 90,001 to 100,000 gallons;

110% on previous twelve months' purchases from 100,001 to 110,000 gallons;

(2) The minimum transfer fee for summer hotels shall be $50.

(3) No transfer fee shall be charged where the death of the holder of an authority results in the premises being operated by the husband, wife, father, mother, children, sister or brother.

13.—(1) Where the transfer tax results in encroachment on the capital investment of the authority holder beyond the point of a nominal license fee, the Board may, in its discretion, give relief from the transfer tax.

(2) In this regulation "capital investment" shall mean the original capital investment plus any capital improvements that the owner may have made from time to time out of income, less proper depreciation at the rates allowed under the Income War Tax Act (Canada) and the regulations thereunder.

14. Where the present vendor has himself purchased the authorized premises at a price which represents a capitalization of the value of the authority, the vendor shall be permitted to set up such purchase price as his capital investment and shall be entitled to relief from the tax as provided by regulation 13 in the discretion of the Board.

15.—(1) In cases of partnership where a partner retires, a proportionate transfer fee shall be charged, such proportion to be based on the number of persons forming the partnership, e.g., where two persons constitute a partnership, upon the retirement of one, a fifty per centum transfer fee shall be charged.

(2) Where changes in a partnership occur by the inclusion of an additional person or persons, a proportionate transfer fee shall be charged.

16. The Board shall charge such transfer fee as it may determine in the case of any change in the shareholders of an incorporated company.

COMPENSATION FOR DISQUALIFICATION

17. The sum awarded to any person by way of compensation under section 40 of the Act shall be determined according to the provisions of The Arbitrations Act provided, however, that no compensation shall be allowed for forcible taking.

EQUIPMENT, MAINTENANCE, MANAGEMENT AND OPERATION OF AUTHORIZED PREMISES

18. The equipment, maintenance, management and operation of authorized premises shall be in accordance with the directions of the Board.

HOURS OF SALE

19. Except as hereinafter provided beer and wine may be sold in authorized premises on every day of the week except Sunday between such hours as may be determined by the Board.

HOLIDAYS

20. No beer or wine may be sold in authorized premises on Sunday, Good Friday or on Christmas Day or on any other holiday as defined in The Interpretation Act, which may be designated by the Board, or on a day when the general polling for any Dominion, provincial or municipal election is being held in the electoral district or municipality in which the authorized premises are situate.

METHOD OF SERVICE

21. Service of beer and wine in dining room in authorized premises shall be limited to persons having a meal therein and while seated at a table.

22. Service of beer in beverage rooms shall be limited to persons seated at a table and the beer shall be consumed by such persons while so seated.

23. No beer or wine may be served in any authorized premises over or at any counter except to the employees of the authority holder in the ordinary course of their duties.

MILITARY MESSES

24. Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, beer and wine may be sold on any day in the authorized premises of a military mess.

CLUBS

25.—(1) Unless otherwise required by the Board, the holder of an authority for a club premises shall furnish annually to the Board a certified list of the officers and bona fide members of such club in accordance with the by-laws of the club regulating eligibility for membership together with a certified annual financial statement.

(2) No beer or wine shall be sold by the holder of an authority for a club except to bona fide members of the club and their guests.

RAILWAY TRAINS

26. Beer may be sold and served upon railway trains with meals and also in drawing rooms or compartments of sleeping cars to any occupant thereof for consumption in such drawing rooms or compartments.

STEAMSHIPS

27. Beer may be sold and served upon steamships in private state rooms to occupants thereof for consumption in such state rooms.

EMPLOYEES

28. No person under the age of eighteen years shall be employed in the sale or serving of beer or wine at meals in any authorized premises, and only male persons over the age of twenty-one years shall be employed in any tap room or beverage room in authorized premises.

PLACING OF ORDERS

29.—(1) All purchases by the holder of an authority of wine and beer imported into Canada and of Ontario wine shall be made at a government store and purchases of other beer shall be made at a brewers' retail store or government store.

(2) All orders for the purchase of beer and wine by the holder of an authority, including mail and telephone orders, shall be made in writing upon the forms supplied or prescribed by the Liquor Control Board and shall be signed by the holder of his duly authorized employee.

(3) Beer purchased at a brewers' retail store and wine purchased at a government store may be ordered thereat by mail or by telephone and when ordered by mail or by telephone receipt of delivery shall be acknowledged in writing signed by the holder of the authority or his authorized employee and such receipt shall be returned forthwith to the brewers' retail store or government store from which delivery was made.

(4) All order forms for the purchase of beer by the holders of authorities, including mail and telephone orders, made at or through a brewers' retail store shall be forwarded daily to the Liquor Control Board.

PAYMENT IN CASH

30. Unless otherwise authorized by the Liquor Control Board all beer and wine purchased by the holder of an authority shall be paid for in cash at the time it is ordered, or, in case it is ordered by mail or telephone, at the time of delivery thereof, and no credit shall be given upon any purchase.

STORAGE PREMISES

31.—(1) The holder of an authority shall provide proper storage space for the cooling and storage of beer and wine in the basement, or immediately adjoining the tap-room of the authorized premises and shall designate such storage space upon the application for an authority.

(2) The holder of an authority granted with respect to a railway or a steamship may, subject to the approval of the Board and to any condition which it may impose, establish and maintain storage premises upon its property wherein beer and wine may be stored for subsequent sale.

PRICE LISTS

32. Every holder of an authority shall by means of price lists available to customers or by means of signs of a type approved by the Board, show the varieties of beers and wines offered for sale by him and the prices at which they may be purchased, but such price lists shall not be published elsewhere than in the authorized premises.

SIGNS

33. The interior and exterior signs on authorized premises relating to the sale of beer and wine shall be approved by the Board before being hung or erected

BOOKS AND RECORDS

34.—(1) Every holder of an authority shall keep such books and records as shall fully and clearly set forth a daily record of all purchases, sales and stock-in-trade of beer and wine and of all transactions relating thereto, in such form and together with such further books and records as the Board may prescribe.

(2) The Board may require every holder of an authority to make a written return not later than the 10th day of every month in accordance with the form prescribed, of all purchases, sales and daily inventory of stock-in-trade of beer and wine during the next preceding calendar month.

(3) All authorized premises shall at all times be open to inspection by such officers or agents of the Board as it shall authorize and every holder of an authority shall conform to the requirements in respect to his premises and to the conduct of the business for which the authority is granted.

(4) The books and records which by these regulations the holder of an authority is required to keep shall be open at all times to inspection and audit by such officers or agents of the Board as it shall authorize, and for the purpose of inspection and audit and for the verification of such books and records, all books, accounts, invoices, vouchers, documents, papers and writings of the holder of the authority shall be open to such inspection and audit, and the holder and his employees shall give such information in respect thereto as may be required.

Orders-in-Council

Copy of an Order-in-Council, approved by the Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor, dated the 20th day of March, A.D. 1945.

Having reference to the memorandum from the Deputy Minister of Mines, dated March 7th, 1945, and notwithstanding the provisions of Order-in-Council dated January 27th, 1910, and upon the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Mines, the Committee of Council advise that, under the authority of section 182, subsection 2, of The Mining Act, Licenses of Occupation be granted, subject to payment of an annual rental of one dollar ($1.00) per acre, for land under the waters of Night Hawk Lake, as follows:

Name of applicant—EDGEWATER PORCUPINE GOLD MINES LIMITED.

Area—Water Lot No. 10, containing 960 acres, more particularly described as follows:

All and singular that certain parcel or tract of land and land under the waters of Night Hawk Lake in the Townships of Cody and Carman, District of Cochrane, containing a total area of 960.0 acres, be the same more or less, and being composed of all that part of the bed of Night Hawk Lake, together with any islands or islets or parts thereof, which lie within the herein described limits:

Commencing at a point in Night Hawk Lake where the northerly production of the west limit of the surveyed summer resort location on the eastern end of Moose Island in the said Night Hawk Lake, as shown on a plan of survey dated December 9th, 1918, signed by Chas. V. Gallagher, O.L.S., is intersected by a line drawn east astronomically from the point of intersection of the west limit of Lot 9 in the 1st Concession of the said Township of Cody with the northern limit of the original one chain road allowance laid out along the western shore of Night Hawk Lake and along the northern shore of Redstone River; thence southerly to and along the said west limit of the surveyed summer resort location on the eastern end of Moose Island and along its production southerly a total distance of 65.00 chains; thence west astronomically 152.00 chains, more or less, to a point in the normal highwater mark on the western shore of Night Hawk Lake; thence in a general northerly direction following the said high-water mark to its intersection with the aforementioned line drawn east astronomically from the point where the said west limit of Lot 9 in the 1st Concession of the Township of Cody is intersected by the said northern limit of the original one chain road allowance along the northern shore of Redstone River; thence east astronomically 151.00 chains, more or less, to the point of commencement, as shown outlined in red on a plan prepared by the Department of Lands and Forests, Ontario, Division of Surveys and Engineering, dated February 27th, 1945, a print of which plan is attached hereto.

Save and excepting from the hereinbefore described parcel all or any portion of patented Islands H. 2, H. 3, and H. 4, and any portion of Crow Island which may lie within the hereinbefore described limits and also save and excepting surveyed mining claim 12783 in the Township of Carman, as shown on a plan of survey dated March 27th, 1913, signed by Sutcliffe & Neelands, Ontario Land Surveyors, which lies within the hereinbefore described limits.

Name of Applicant—WILWOOD GOLD MINES LIMITED.

Area—Water Lot No. 9, containing 737 acres, more particularly described as follows:

All and singular that certain parcel or tract of land covered by the waters of Night Hawk Lake situate in the Township of Cody, District of Cochrane, containing 737 acres, be the same more or less, the boundaries of which may be more particulary described as follows:

Commencing at a point in the highwater mark on the shore of Night Hawk Lake where it is intersected by the production easterly of the south limit of Lot 4 in the 6th Concession of the said Township; thence east astronomically 20 chains; thence south astronomically 30.38 chains, more or less, to a point in a line drawn east astronomically from the northwesterly angle of surveyed mining claim P. 8721; thence east astronomically along the said line 65.42 chains, more or less, to a point in a line drawn north astronomically from the northwesterly angle of Mining Claim H.R. 4; thence in an easterly direction along the northerly limit of Water Lot No. 7, as described in License of Occupation No. 10663, of record in the Department of Lands and Forests, Ontario, a distance of 34.50 chains, more or less, to the point of intersection with a line drawn south astronomically from the southeasterly angle of Lot 1 in the 6th Concession of the said Township of Cody; thence north astronomically along the last mentioned line 88.00 chains, more or less, to the highwater mark on the northerly shore of Night Hawk Lake; thence in a general southwesterly direction following the said highwater mark to the point of commencement as shown outlined in red on a plan prepared by the Department of Lands and Forests, Ontario, Division of Surveys and Engineering, dated March 2nd, 1945, a print of which plan is attached hereto.

The Committee of Council further advise that such Licenses of Occupation reserve the right to raise, lower or maintain the waters of Night Hawk Lake to and at such height as may be deemed advisable by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario.

Certified,

H. A. STEWART,
Assistant Clerk, Executive Council.

Private Bills

PUBLIC NOTICE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO

The attention of Municipal Officials, Solicitors and all other persons who may be interested in the preparation of Private Bills for submission to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario is directed particularly to the following Rules of the House governing the submission of such Bills.

RULES RE SUBMISSION OF PRIVATE BILLS

63.—(1) No petition for any Private Bill is received by the House after the first two weeks of each Session; nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session; nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first six weeks of each Session and no motion for the general suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House unless after reference made thereof, at a previous sitting of the House, to the several Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills or upon Report submitted by two or more of such committees.

64.—(1) Any person desiring to obtain a Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House at least eight (8) days before the meeting of the House a copy of such Bill, together with a fee of $150, and if such Bill is not deposited by that time the applicant shall pay $10 for each and every day which intervenes between the said eighth day and the date of the filing of the Bill.

(2) After the first reading of the Bill, and before its consideration by the Committee to which it is referred, the applicant in every case shall pay the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes.

(3) The following charges shall also be levied and paid in addition to the foregoing:

(a) When any rule of the House is suspended with reference to a Bill or the Petition therefor, for each suspension $50.

(b) When a Bill is presented to the House after the first three weeks of the Session and before the end of the fourth week, $75.

(c) When a Bill is presented after the fourth week of the Session, $100.

(4) In case of any Bill incorporating a company or increasing the capital stock of a company already incorporated, there shall be paid to the Clerk of the House, by or on behalf of the applicant, before the same is reported to the House, the same fee as would be payable to the Provincial Secretary in the case of an incorporation or increase of capital under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, less the sum of $150 already paid to the Clerk of the House.

(5) When a Bill is for the purpose of confirming by-laws, bonds, debentures or other securities, or authority is asked to borrow money or to increase borrowing powers, the following additional fees shall be paid according to the amount of money involved:

On amounts less than $10,000, $25; on amounts over $10,000 and up to $25,000, $50; on amounts over $25,000 and up to $40,000, $75; on amounts over $40,000 and up to $75,000, $100; on amounts over $75,000 and up to $125,000, $125; on amounts over $125,000 and up to $175,000, $150; amounts over $175,000 and up to $250,000, $200; an amounts over $250,000 and up to $350,000, $250; and an additional fee of $50 for every $100,000 over $350,000.

66. All applications for Private Bills properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867" shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such Notice to be published as follows, viz.:

A notice inserted in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE and in one newspaper published in the Municipality affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest municipality in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

If the application is by a Municipal Corporation for authority to issue debentures the notice shall set out the particulars of the existing debenture debt and the amount of the rateable property of the Municipality according to the last revised assessment roll of the Corporation, and in brief and general terms, the object for which the new issue of debentures is required.

67. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the Notice required by the preceding Rule, also, at the same time and in the same manner, give Notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privileges, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

68. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Bill for the construction of Railways, Tramways or Canals is received by the House, the person or persons petitioning for such Bill shall deposit with the Clerk the following documents:

1. A map or plan upon a scale of not less than half an inch to the mile, showing the location upon which it is intended to construct the proposed work, and showing also the lines of existing or authorized works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting the district or any part thereof which the proposed work is intended to serve. Such map or plan to be signed by the Engineer or other party making the same.

2. A book of reference in which shall be clearly set out the following information in separate schedules namely:

SCHEDULE A.—The name of each municipality within which the proposed works or any part thereof are intended to be constructed; the population of each such municipality as returned by the next preceding census, the rateable value of the property within each such municipality, as returned by the next preceding assessment rolls thereof; and this schedule may contain in a separate statement similar information as to the adjoining districts intended to be served by the proposed work.

SCHEDULE B.—A general description of the nature, extent, and proposed character of the contemplated works, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, distinguishing the general items of construction and the cost thereof respectively, as well as the nature, extent and probable cost of all engines and car stock or other outfit or equipment necessary to the use and operation of the proposed undertaking, such schedule to be signed by the Engineer, or other person preparing the same.

SCHEDULE C.—An exhibit showing the total amount of capital proposed to be raised for the purposes of the undertaking and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same, whether by ordinary shares, bonds, debentures or other securities, and the amount of each respectively.

SCHEDULE D.—An estimate of the probable revenues of the proposed undertaking showing the sources whence the same are expected to be derived; the annual earnings thereof respectively; the probable annual cost of operation or working expenditure, and the annual net revenue applicable to the payment of interest on the proposed investments. such schedules to be signed by the person preparing the same.

72. When any Bill for confirming any Letters Patent, or Agreement, is presented to the House, the copy of such Letters Patent, or Agreement, shall be attached to it.

74. Every Private Bill, when read a first time shall, unless it be an Estate Bill or a Bill providing for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a Municipal Corporation, shall stand referred to the proper Standing Committee, and all petitions before the House, for or against the Bill, are considered referred to such Committee.

75. Every Private Bill, in so far as it provides for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a municipal corporation, when the Bill has been read a first time, shall, without special reference, stand referred to The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board for their report; and a copy of such Bill and of the Petition on which the same is founded shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the Board, in order that the Board may, after an inquiry into the allegations set out in the Bill, and into any other matters which the Board may deem necessary in connection therewith, report to the House whether or not it is reasonable that such Bill or the part thereof relating to the matters aforesaid, shall be passed, and what alterations, if any, should be made in the same, and the Board shall make such inquiry accordingly, and shall sign the same; and the said Report, Bill and Petition shall be transmitted to the Clerk, and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table and shall be entered on the Journals of the House, and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills.

76. Every Estate Bill, when read a first time shall without special reference, stand referred to the Commissioners of Estate Bills, for their Report, and a copy of such Bill, and of the Petition on which the same is founded, shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the said Commissioners, or one of them, in order that they, or any two of them, may, after perusing the Bill, without requiring any proof of the allegations thereof, report to the House their opinion thereon under their hands; and whether presuming the allegation contained in the preamble to be proved so the satisfaction of the House, it is reasonable that such Bill do pass into a law: and whether the provisions thereof are proper for carrying its purposes into effect, and what alterations or amendments, if any, are necessary in the same, and in the event of their approving the said Bill they are to sign the same; and the said Report, with the said Bill and Petition, are to be transmitted by the said Commissioners to the Clerk; and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table, and shall be entered on the Journals of the House; and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills, which is not to consider the said Bill, before the delivery of the said Report, Bill and Petition to the Chairman of the said Committee.

77. In the event of the Commissioners of Estate Bills reporting that, in their opinion, it is not reasonable that the Bill submitted to them shall pass into law such Bill shall not be further considered.

ALEX. C. LEWIS, K.C.,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario.

Under and by virtue of a Writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the County Court of the County of York, to me directed, against the goods and chattels and lands and tenements of Frank Taylor, in a certain action wherein Norah Russell and Trusts & Guarantee Co., Limited, Executors of the Estate of Joseph Russell, deceased, are Plaintiffs, and Frank Taylor is Defendant, I have seized and taken in execution all the right, title, interest and equity of redemption of Frank Taylor in and to:

All and singular that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the City of Toronto, in the County of York, and being composed of the north half of Lot 24 on the East side of Hiawatha Road, according to Plan 1428.

On the premises there is said to be erected a detached, two storey, solid Brick house, having brick foundation and asphalt shingle roof. There is a private drive and a two car frame garage with earth floor. The property is known as 67 Hiawatha Road.

All of which said right, title, interest and equity of redemption of the said Frank Taylor, the Defendant, in the said lands and tenements, I shall offer for sale by Public Auction at my office in the City Hall on Monday, the Ninth day of July, A.D. 1945, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

Dated at Toronto this Thirty-first day of March, A.D. 1945.

W. H. S. CANE,
Sheriff of the County of York.

Publications Under The Regulations Act, 1944

MARCH 31st, 1945

THE REGULATIONS ACT, 1944

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection 1 of section 3 of The Regulations Act, 1944, that every regulation shall within one month of the filing thereof be published in The Ontario Gazette, and whereas by virtue of subsection 2 of the said section 3 and of a certain Order-in-Council dated the 11th day of May, 1944, the Attorney General may at any time by order, extend the time for publication of a regulation, such order to be published with the regulation, and whereas having regard to the volume of regulations which have been and which will be filed before the 31st day of December, 1944, and to the present shortage of skilled craftsmen in the printing trade, it will in many cases be impossible to comply with the provisions of subsection 1 of section 3 of the said Act;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the time for publication of regulations filed before the 1st day of January, 1945, be extended for such period as may be necessary in the case of each set of regulations so filed.

Dated at Toronto this 9th day of November, 1944.

Attorney General.

THE FOREST FIRES PREVENTION ACT

O. Reg. 259/44.
"Travel Permit" areas.
Replacing.
Made—May 30th, 1939.

Private Bills

PUBLIC NOTICE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO

The attention of Municipal Officials, Solicitors and all other persons who may be interested in the preparation of Private Bills for submission to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario is directed particularly to the following Rules of the House governing the submission of such Bills.

RULES RE SUBMISSION OF PRIVATE BILLS

63.—(1) No petition for any Private Bill is received by the House after the first two weeks of each Session; nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session; nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first six weeks of each Session and no motion for the general suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House unless after reference made thereof, at a previous sitting of the House, to the several Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills or upon Report submitted by two or more of such committees.

64.—(1) Any person desiring to obtain a Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House at least eight (8) days before the meeting of the House a copy of such Bill, together with a fee of $150, and if such Bill is not deposited by that time the applicant shall pay $10 for each and every day which intervenes between the said eighth day and the date of the filing of the Bill.

(2) After the first reading of the Bill, and before its consideration by the Committee to which it is referred, the applicant in every case shall pay the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes.

(3) The following charges shall also be levied and paid in addition to the foregoing:

(a) When any rule of the House is suspended with reference to a Bill or the Petition therefor, for each suspension $50.

(b) When a Bill is presented to the House after the first three weeks of the Session and before the end of the fourth week, $75.

(c) When a Bill is presented after the fourth week of the Session, $100.

(4) In case of any Bill incorporating a company or increasing the capital stock of a company already incorporated, there shall be paid to the Clerk of the House, by or on behalf of the applicant, before the same is reported to the House, the same fee as would be payable to the Provincial Secretary in the case of an incorporation or increase of capital under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, less the sum of $150 already paid to the Clerk of the House.

(5) When a Bill is for the purpose of confirming by-laws, bonds, debentures or other securities, or authority is asked to borrow money or to increase borrowing powers, the following additional fees shall be paid according to the amount of money involved:

On amounts less than $10,000, $25; on amounts over $10,000 and up to $25,000, $50; on amounts over $25,000 and up to $40,000, $75; on amounts over $40,000 and up to $75,000, $100; on amounts over $75,000 and up to $125,000, $125; on amounts over $125,000 and up to $175,000, $150; amounts over $175,000 and up to $250,000, $200; an amounts over $250,000 and up to $350,000, $250; and an additional fee of $50 for every $100,000 over $350,000.

66. All applications for Private Bills properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867" shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such Notice to be published as follows, viz.:

A notice inserted in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE and in one newspaper published in the Municipality affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest municipality in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

If the application is by a Municipal Corporation for authority to issue debentures the notice shall set out the particulars of the existing debenture debt and the amount of the rateable property of the Municipality according to the last revised assessment roll of the Corporation, and in brief and general terms, the object for which the new issue of debentures is required.

67. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the Notice required by the preceding Rule, also, at the same time and in the same manner, give Notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privileges, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

68. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Bill for the construction of Railways, Tramways or Canals is received by the House, the person or persons petitioning for such Bill shall deposit with the Clerk the following documents:

1. A map or plan upon a scale of not less than half an inch to the mile, showing the location upon which it is intended to construct the proposed work, and showing also the lines of existing or authorized works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting the district or any part thereof which the proposed work is intended to serve. Such map or plan to be signed by the Engineer or other party making the same.

2. A book of reference in which shall be clearly set out the following information in separate schedules namely:

SCHEDULE A.—The name of each municipality within which the proposed works or any part thereof are intended to be constructed; the population of each such municipality as returned by the next preceding census, the rateable value of the property within each such municipality, as returned by the next preceding assessment rolls thereof; and this schedule may contain in a separate statement similar information as to the adjoining districts intended to be served by the proposed work.

SCHEDULE B.—A general description of the nature, extent, and proposed character of the contemplated works, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, distinguishing the general items of construction and the cost thereof respectively, as well as the nature, extent and probable cost of all engines and car stock or other outfit or equipment necessary to the use and operation of the proposed undertaking, such schedule to be signed by the Engineer, or other person preparing the same.

SCHEDULE C.—An exhibit showing the total amount of capital proposed to be raised for the purposes of the undertaking and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same, whether by ordinary shares, bonds, debentures or other securities, and the amount of each respectively.

SCHEDULE D.—An estimate of the probable revenues of the proposed undertaking showing the sources whence the same are expected to be derived; the annual earnings thereof respectively; the probable annual cost of operation or working expenditure, and the annual net revenue applicable to the payment of interest on the proposed investments, such schedules to be signed by the person preparing the same.

72. When any Bill for confirming any Letters Patent, or Agreement, is presented to the House, the copy of such Letters Patent, or Agreement, shall be attached to it.

74. Every Private Bill, when read a first time shall, unless it be an Estate Bill or a Bill providing for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a Municipal Corporation, shall stand referred to the proper Standing Committee, and all petitions before the House, for or against the Bill, are considered referred to such Committee.

75. Every Private Bill, in so far as it provides for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a municipal corporation, when the Bill has been read a first time, shall, without special reference, stand referred to The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board for their report; and a copy of such Bill and of the Petition on which the same is founded shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the Board, in order that the Board may, after an inquiry into the allegations set out in the Bill, and into any other matters which the Board may deem necessary in connection therewith, report to the House whether or not it is reasonable that such Bill or the part thereof relating to the matters aforesaid, shall be passed, and what alterations, if any, should be made in the same, and the Board shall make such inquiry accordingly, and shall sign the same; and the said Report, Bill and Petition shall be transmitted to the Clerk, and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table and shall be entered on the Journals of the House, and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills.

76. Every Estate Bill, when read a first time shall without special reference, stand referred to the Commissioners of Estate Bills, for their Report, and a copy of such Bill, and of the Petition on which the same is founded, shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the said Commissioners, or one of them, in order that they, or any two of them, may, after perusing the Bill, without requiring any proof of the allegations thereof, report to the House their opinion thereon under their hands; and whether presuming the allegation contained in the preamble to be proved so the satisfaction of the House, it is reasonable that such Bill do pass into a law: and whether the provisions thereof are proper for carrying its purposes into effect, and what alterations or amendments, if any, are necessary in the same, and in the event of their approving the said Bill they are to sign the same; and the said Report, with the said Bill and Petition, are to be transmitted by the said Commissioners to the Clerk; and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table, and shall be entered on the Journals of the House; and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills, which is not to consider the said Bill, before the delivery of the said Report, Bill and Petition to the Chairman of the said Committee.

77. In the event of the Commissioners of Estate Bills reporting that, in their opinion, it is not reasonable that the Bill submitted to them shall pass into law such Bill shall not be further considered.

ALEX. C. LEWIS, K.C.,

Clerk of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario.

(Oct., 1939) T.F.N.

I

PRESENTATION OF PETITION

1. The Presentation of an Election Petition complaining of the undue election or return of a member of the Legislative Assembly, or complaining of any unlawful and corrupt act of any candidate at such election who was not returned, shall be made as follows:

(a) in cases arising in the County of York or City of Toronto by delivering it to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal;

(b) in cases arising in an Electoral District situated or partly situated in a Provisional Judicial District by delivering it to the Local Registrar of the High Court for the Provisional Judicial District in which the Electoral District or any part thereof is situated.

(c) in cases other than the above by delivering it to the Local Registrar of the High Court for the County in which the Electoral District or any part thereof is situated.

2. In case there is no Local Registrar of the High Court for a County or Provisional Judicial District, presentation of the Petition may be made by delivering it to the Deputy Clerk of the Crown for such County or provisional Judicial District.

3. In any case not otherwise prescribed presentation of the Petition may be made by delivering it to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal.

4. With every petition delivered as aforesaid there shall also be delivered the affidavit prescribed by The Ontario Controverted Elections Act, and no Petition shall be received unless accompanied by such affidavit.

5. With the Petition shall also be left a copy thereof to be sent by the said Registrar, Local Registrar or other officer to the Returning Officer pursuant to section 12 of the said Act.

6. The Registrar of the Court of Appeal, Local Registrar or other officer, or the Clerk of such Registrar, Local Registrar or other officer shall (if required) give a receipt which may be in the following form:

Received on the day of , A.D. at the office of the Registrar of the Court of Appeal (or of the Local Registrar of the High Court for the County of or as the case may be), a Petition (here state the purport of the said petition) for the Electoral District of the (state the place) purporting to be signed by (insert the names of Petitioners) and the affidavit of the said Petitioners annexed thereto.

Registrar, or Local Registrar, or as the case may be.

7. On receipt of a Petition by a Local Registrar or other officer he shall forthwith send notice thereof, by registered letter, to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal.

II

CONTENTS OF PETITION

1. An Election Petition shall contain the following statements:

(a) The right of the Petitioners to petition as defined by the said Act;

(b) The holding and result of the Election, and a brief statement of the grounds relied on; and shall conclude with a prayer, stating the relief claimed.

2. Evidence is not to be stated in the Petition.

III

DIVISION OF PETITION

The Petition shall be divided into paragraphs, each of which, as nearly as may be, shall be confined to a distinct portion of the subject, and every paragraph shall be numbered consecutively, and no costs shall be allowed of drawing or copying any Petition not substantially in compliance with this Rule, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge.

IV

FORM OF PETITION

The following form of a Petition, or one to the like effect, shall be sufficient:

In the Court of Appeal

The Ontario Controverted Elections Act. Election for the Electoral District of the (state the place) holden on the day of , A.D.

The Petition of whose names, or name are or is subscribed.

1. Your Petitioners are persons who voted, or had a right to vote (as the case may be) at the above Election, or your Petitioner was a candidate at the above Election; or (in case of a cross petition) is the Respondent in the Petition presented by A., or are persons who voted, or had the right to vote (as the case may be), at the above Election.

2. And your Petitioners state that the Election was holden on the day of , A.D. , when A.B., C.D. and E.F. were candidates, and the Returning Officer has returned A.B. as being duly elected.

3. And your Petitioners say that [here state briefly and concisely the grounds on which the Petitioners rely, e.g., That the Respondent by himself and by his agents was guilty of bribery, treating and undue influence and of other corrupt and illegal practices at the said Election as defined by The Ontario Election Act and The Ontario Controverted Elections Act. And on the ground that—state briefly and concisely any other ground that may be relied upon.]

Wherefore your Petitioners pray that it may be determined that the said A.B. was not duly elected or returned, and that the Election was void, or that the said E.F. was duly elected and ought to have been returned, (or as the case may be); or (in the case of a cross petition), that the said C.D. or E.F. (or as the case may be) may be declared guilty of the unlawful and corrupt practices and acts alleged.

(Signature of Petitioner or Petitioners.)

AGENTS

With the Petition, the Petitioner shall leave at the office where the Petition is filed a writing, signed by him or on his behalf, giving the name of some person entitled to practise as a Solicitor, whom he authorizes to act as his Agent, or stating that he acts for himself, as the case may be; and in either case giving an address, within the City, Town or place where the Petition is filed, at which notices addressed to him may be left; and if no such writing be left or address given, then all notices and proceedings may be given to and served on the Petitioner by the Respondent by sticking up the same at the office where the Petition is filed.

VI

Any person returned as a Member, and any person who may be a Respondent under sections 4, 5 or 7 of the said Act, may at any time after the election, send to or leave at the office where a Petition should properly be filed, a writing signed by him or on his behalf, appointing a person entitled to practise as a Solicitor, to act as his Agent in case there should be a Petition against him, or stating that he intends to act for himself; and in either case giving an address within the City, Town or place where a Petition should be filed at which notices may be left, and in default of such writing being left within a week after service of the Petition, notices and proceedings may be given and served respectively on any such Respondent by sticking up the same at the office where the Petition is filed.

VII

An Agent employed for the Petitioner or Respondent shall forthwith leave written notice at the office where the Petition is filed of his appointment to act as such agent, and service of notices and proceedings upon such agent shall be sufficient service thereof on his principal for all purposes.

VIII

1. The Registrar of the Court of Appeal, Local Registrar or other officer, as the case may be, shall keep a book or books at his office in which he shall enter the names of such agents, and of all addresses given under either of the preceding Rules, which book shall be open to inspection by any person during office hours, without payment of any fee.

2. Every Local Registrar or other officer in whose office a Petition is filed shall forthwith send to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal the names and addresses of the agents as appearing in the book kept under this Rule by such Local Registrar or other officer.

IX

DUTIES OF LOCAL REGISTRAR

1. The Registrar of the Court of Appeal, Local Registrar or other officer as the case may be, shall, upon the presentation of the Petition, and notice of the deposit of money, forthwith send the copy of the Petition left with him for that purpose to the Returning Officer pursuant to the said Act, and shall therewith send the name of the Petitioner's agent, if any, and of the Respondent's agent, if any, and the Returning Officer shall forthwith publish those particulars along with the notice prescribed by the said Act.

2. Every Local Registrar or other officer shall, forthwith after receipt of notice of the deposit and transmission by him of the copy of the Petition to the Returning officer, forward the original Petition by registered letter to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal, first endorsing thereon the date of the receipt of the notice of deposit.

X

SERVICE OF PETITION

Where the Respondent has named an agent or given an address, at which notices addressed to him may be left, the service of an Election Petition may be made by delivery of it to the Agent, or by posting it in a registered letter to the address given at such a time that, in the ordinary course of post, it would be delivered within the prescribed time.

In other cases the service must be personal on the Respondent, unless the Court or a Judge, on an application made not later than five days after security is given, on affidavit showing what has been done, shall be satisfied that all reasonable effort has been made to effect personal service, and to cause the matter to come to the knowledge of the Respondent, including, when practicable, service upon his agent for Election expenses, in which case the Court or a Judge may order that what has been done shall be considered sufficient service, subject to such conditions as may be reasonable.

XI

POSTING OF NOTICE

In case of evasion of service, the sticking up in the office where the Petition is filed of a notice of the Petition having been presented, stating the name of the Petitioner, and the relief prayed, shall be deemed equivalent to personal service, if so ordered by the Court or a Judge.

XII

DEPOSITS

The deposit of money by way of security for payment of costs, charges and expenses payable by the Petitioner, shall be made by payment into the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Toronto, to an account to be opened there as directed by the said Act; and the Bank on receiving the said deposit of money shall give a receipt or certificate for the same in duplicate, one copy to be given to the party making the deposit, and the other to be forthwith left at the office of, or posted to, the Accountant of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario.

XIII

CLAIMS TO DEPOSITS

All claims to the money deposited in the Bank for payment of costs, charges and expenses payable by the Petitioner, pursuant to the said Act, shall be disposed of by order of the Court or a Judge.

XIV

ORDER FOR RETURN OR DISPOSAL OF DEPOSITS

Money so deposited shall, if and when the same is no longer needed for securing payment of such costs, charges and expenses, be returned or otherwise disposed of as justice may require, by order of the Court or a Judge.

XV

Such order may be made after such notice of intention to apply, and proof that all just claims have been satisfied, or otherwise sufficiently provided for, as the Court or a Judge may require.

XVI

The order may direct payment either to the party by whom the same was deposited, or to any person entitled to receive the same.

XVII

FILING OF BANK RECEIPTS, ETC.

The Accountant shall file the Bank receipt or certificate, and keep a book open to inspection of all parties concerned, in which shall be entered from time to time a memorandum of all such Bank receipts or certificates and the amounts thereof, and the Petitions to which they are respectively applicable, which book may be inspected without payment of any fee.

XVIII

PETITION AT ISSUE

Ten days after the service of the said Petition on the Respondent or his agent, or in the manner prescribed by the said Act or these Rules, the Petition shall be at issue, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge.

XIX

PRODUCTION AND INSPECTION OF BOOKS, LISTS, COMMISSIONS, ETC.

At any time after the Election Petition is at issue, either party, by order of the Court or a Judge, may have production and inspection of all books, lists, commissions, ballots, certificates, statements, papers, documents and returns whatsoever, relating to the Election, returned to, or in possession of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, at such place and in such manner, and upon such terms as the Court or a Judge shall direct. And for the purpose of such production and inspection, and for the purposes of the trial of the Election Petition, the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery shall deliver or transmit the said books, lists, commissions, ballots, certificates, statements, documents, papers and returns in such manner and to such officer as by order of the Court or a Judge shall be directed.

The said books, lists, commissions, ballots, certificates, statements, documents, papers and returns shall be returned to the custody of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery after the trial of the Petition, or after the purpose has been served for which their delivery or transmission was required.

XX

PARTICULARS OF VOTES

When a Petitioner claims the seat for an unsuccessful candidate, alleging that he had a majority of lawful votes, the party complaining of, and the party defending, the Election or return, shall, fourteen days before the day appointed for the trial, give to the respective agents, or leave at the respective addresses, if any, given by the Petitioner and Respondent (as the case may be), particulars of the votes intended to be objected to, and of the heads of objection to each vote, verified by affidavit as prescribed by the said Act, and shall also file with the Registrar of the Court of Appeal one copy of such particulars and leave with him two additional copies for the use of the Judges at the trial.

XXI

CORRUPT PRACTICES

When a Petition alleges corrupt practices against a Respondent or his agents, the Petitioner shall, fourteen days before the day appointed for the trial, give to the Respondent, or his agent, particulars in writing of the specific corrupt practices charged, specifying the persons alleged to have been guilty of the same, together with their addresses, as far as known, and also specifying the times and places when the specific corrupt practices were committed by or between the persons charged, and also of any illegal practices intended to be relied upon, as may, in connection with the said alleged corrupt practices, affect the result of the election, verified by affidavit as prescribed by the said Act, and shall also file with the Registrar of the Court of Appeal one copy of such particulars and leave with him two additional copies for the use of the Judges at the trial.

XXII

PARTICULARS OF OBJECTIONS TO ELECTION OR RETURN

When at the trial of a Petition, complaining of an undue election or return, and claiming the seat for some person, the Respondent intends to give evidence to prove that the election of such person was undue, such Respondent shall, fourteen days before the day appointed for the trial, give to the Petitioner or his agent, particulars of the objections to the election or return of such person upon which he intends to rely, verified by affidavit, as prescribed by the said Act, and shall also file with the Registrar of the Court of Appeal one copy of such particulars and leave with him two additional copies for the use of the Judges at the trial.

XXIII

UNLAWFUL AND CORRUPT ACTS

When a Petitioner, in a cross Petition under section 7 of the Act, alleges that unlawful and corrupt acts were committed by any candidate at the same election, who was not returned, he shall, fourteen days before the day appointed for trial, give to the Respondent, or his agent, particulars in writing of the alleged unlawful and corrupt acts of the said candidate, verified by affidavit as prescribed by the said Act, and shall also file with the Registrar of the Court of Appeal one copy of such particulars and leave with him two additional copies for the use of the Judges at the trial.

XXIV

FURTHER PARTICULARS

The Court or a Judge may at any time order such further particulars as may be necessary to prevent surprise and unnecessary expense, and to ensure a fair and effectual trial, in the same manner as in ordinary proceedings in the High Court of Justice, and as prescribed by the said Act, and upon such terms as may be ordered.

XXV

FURNISHING PARTICULARS

The Registrar of the Court of Appeal shall allow inspection and, on request, shall furnish office copies of the particulars specified in the five preceding rules, to all parties concerned; and no evidence shall be given against the validity of any vote, nor upon any head of objection, or corrupt or illegal practice, not specified in the particulars, except by leave of the Court or a Judge upon such terms as may be ordered.

XXVI

LIST OF PETITIONS AND CROSS PETITIONS

The Registrar of the Court of Appeal shall make out a list of all the Petitions and cross Petitions filed in his office, or of which he shall have received notice, and the dates of filing the same respectively. In it he shall insert the names of the Agents of the Petitioner and Respondent, and the addresses to which notices may be sent, if any. The list may be inspected at the office of the Registrar of the Court of Appeal at any time during office hours, and shall be put up for that purpose upon a notice board appropriated to proceedings under the said Act, and headed "The Ontario Controverted Elections Act."

XXVII

TIME AND PLACE OF TRIAL

The time and place of the trial of each Election Petition shall be fixed by the Judges on the rota, and notice thereof shall be given in writing by the Registrar of the Court of Appeal, by sticking notice up in his office, sending by post one copy to the address given by the Petitioner, another to the address given by the Respondent, if any, another to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, and another to the Sheriff, fifteen days before the day appointed for the trial. The Sheriff shall forthwith publish the same in the Electoral District. Either party may apply under this Rule to a Judge on the rota.

XXVIII

NOTICE OF TRIAL

The sticking up of the notice of trial at the office of the Registrar of the Court of Appeal shall be deemed and taken to be notice in the prescribed manner within the meaning of the said Act, and such notice shall not be vitiated by any miscarriage of, or relating to, the copy or copies thereof to be sent as hereinbefore directed.

XXIX

The notice of trial may be in the following form:

THE ONTARIO CONTROVERTED ELECTIONS ACT

Election Petition for the Electoral District of the (state the place). Take notice that the above Petition (or Petitions) will be tried at on the day of , A.D. , and on such other subsequent days as may be needful.

Dated the day of , A.D.

By order

Registrar of the Court of Appeal.

XXX

TITLE OF COURT OF RECORD

The title of the Court of Record for the trial of an Election Petition may be as follows:

Court for the trial of the Election Petition for the Electoral District of the (state the place) between , Petitioner, and , Respondent.

And it shall be sufficient so to entitle all the proceedings in that Court.

XXXI

OFFICER OF COURT

An officer shall be appointed for each Court to be holden for the trial of an Election Petition, by the Judge or Judges assigned to hold the same, who shall attend at the trial in like manner as the Clerks of Assize attend at the sittings of the High Court.

Such officer may be called the Registrar of that Election Court. He, or in case of need his sufficient Deputy, shall perform all the functions incident to the officer of a Court of Record, and also such duties as may be prescribed to him, or directed by the said Judge or Judges.

XXXII

DELIVERY OF POLL BOOKS, ETC.

The Clerk of the Crown in Chancery shall, on or before the day fixed for the trial, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Registrar of the Election Court for the trial of the Petition, or his Deputy, the Poll Books, and other documents relating to the said Election, for which the said Registrar, or his Deputy, shall give, if required, a receipt; and the said Registrar, or his Deputy, shall keep in safe custody the said Poll Books and other documents until the trial is over, and then return the same to the proper officer.

XXXIII

COPIES OF PETITION

At the time appointed for the trial of the Election Petition, the Petitioner shall leave with the Registrar of the Election Court for the use of the Judge or Judges at the trial, fairly written on one side of the paper only, a copy or copies of the Petition and of all the proceedings thereon which show the several matters to be tried, including the copies of the particulars of objections or corrupt practices or illegal acts on either side left with the Registrar as directed by Rules 20, 21, 22 and 23, the correctness of which copy or copies, in so far as the proceedings are filed or deposited with the Registrar of the Court of Appeal, shall be certified by the said Registrar. The Judge or Judges may allow amendment of the said copy or copies. In default of such copy or copies being delivered, the Judge or Judges may refuse to try the Petition or may allow a further time for delivery, or may adjourn the trial, in every case upon such terms, as to costs and otherwise, as the Judge or Judges shall see fit to impose.

XXXIV

POSTPONEMENT OF TRIAL

The Judge or Judges assigned to try the Election Petition may from time to time, by order made upon the application of a party to the Petition, or by notice to be sent to the Sheriff, in such form as may be directed, postpone the beginning of the trial to such day as may be named, and such notice, when received, shall be forthwith made public by the Sheriff.

XXXV

ADJOURNMENT OF TRIAL

In the event of the Judge or Judges not having arrived at the time appointed for the trial, or to which the trial is postponed, the commencement of the trial shall, ipso facto, stand adjourned to the ensuing day, and so from day to day.

XXXVI

No formal adjournment of the Court for the trial of an Election Petition shall be necessary, but the trial is to be deemed adjourned, and may be continued from day to day until the inquiry is concluded; and in the event of the Judge or Judges who begin the trial being disabled by illness or otherwise, it may be recommenced and concluded by another Judge or Judges.

XXXVII

STATEMENT OF SPECIAL CASE

The application to state a special case may be made to the Court of Appeal when sitting, or by motion before a Judge at Chambers.

XXXVIII

WITNESS COSTS

The reasonable costs of any witness shall be ascertained by the Registrar of the Election Court, and the certificate allowing them shall be under his hand, subject to an appeal to the trial Judge or Judges.

XXXIX

ORDER FOR ATTENDANCE OF WITNESS

The order of the Election Court or a Judge to compel the attendance of a person as a witness may be in the following form:

Court for trial of the Election Petition for the Electoral District of the (state the place). The day of , A.D.

To A.B. (describe the person). You are hereby required to attend before the above Court at (place), on the day of , at the hour of or forthwith (as the case may be), to be examined as a witness in the matter of the said Petition, and to attend the said Court until your examination shall have been completed.

As witness my hand,

A. B.,
Judge of the said Court.

XL

CONTEMPT OF COURT

In the event of its being necessary to commit any person for contempt, the warrant may be as follows:

At a Court holden on at for the trial of the Election Petition for the Electoral District of the (state the place) before The Honourable , one of the Judges (or before The Honourable and The Honourable , the Judges) on the rota for the trial of Election Petitions, pursuant to The Ontario Controverted Elections Act.

Whereas, A. B. has this day been guilty, and is by the said Court adjudged to be guilty, of a contempt thereof; the said Court does, therefore, sentence the said A. B. for his said contempt to be imprisoned in the common gaol of the County or City (as the case may be) of , for the space of calendar months, and to pay to our Lord The King a fine of $ , and to be further imprisoned in the said gaol until the said fine be paid. And the Court further orders that the Sheriff of the said County (or as the case may be) and all constables and officers of the Peace of any County or place where the said A. B. may be found, shall take the said A. B. into custody, and convey him to the said gaol, and there deliver him into the custody of the gaoler thereof to undergo his said sentence. And the Court further orders the said gaoler to receive the said A. B. into his custody, and that he shall be detained in the said gaol in pursuance of the said sentence.

Dated the day of , A.D.

(To be signed by the Judge or Judges.)

XLI

Such warrant may be made out and directed to the Sheriff or other person having the execution of process of the High Court, as the case may be, and to all constables and officers of the Peace of the County or place where the person adjudged guilty of contempt may be found; and such warrant shall be sufficient without any further particularity, and shall and may be executed by the persons to whom it is directed, or any or either of them.

XLII

RETURN OF FINDING ON PETITION

After the trial of any Election Petition, the Judge or Judges shall return to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal the evidence and proceedings before the Election Court and the finding on the said Petition.

XLIII

WITHDRAWAL OF PETITION

Notice of an Application for leave to withdraw a Petition shall be in writing and signed by the Petitioner or his agent. It shall state the ground on which the application is intended to be supported. The following form shall be sufficient:

The Ontario Controverted Elections Act. The Electoral District of the (state the place). Petition of (state petitioner), against (state respondent), presented day of , A.D.

The Petitioner proposes to apply to withdraw his Petition upon the following ground (here state the ground), and prays that a day may be appointed for hearing his application.

Dated this day of , A.D.

(Signature of Applicant.)

XLIV

1. The notice of application for leave to withdraw shall be delivered to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal.

2. Such proof of bona fides of the application to withdraw shall be given by affidavit or otherwise as the Court or a Judge shall require or direct.

XLV

A copy of such notice of the intention of the Petitioner to apply for leave to withdraw his Petition shall be given by the Petitioner to the Respondent, and to the Returning Officer, who shall make it public in the Electoral District to which it relates, and it shall also be forthwith published by the Petitioner in at least one newspaper published or circulating in the Electoral District, if any.

The following may be the form of such notice:

The Ontario Controverted Elections Act. Election Petition for the Electoral District of the (state the place) in which is Petitioner, and Respondent. Notice is hereby given that the above Petitioner has on the day of lodged at the office of the Registrar of the Court of Appeal, notice of an application to withdraw the Petition, on the following ground (set it out). And take notice that any person who might have been a Petitioner in respect of the said Election may, within ten days after the publication of this notice, give notice to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal, in writing, of his intention on the hearing to apply for leave to be substituted as a Petitioner.

A. B.,
Returning Officer.

XLVI

SUBSTITUTE FOR PETITIONER

Any person who might have been a Petitioner in respect of the Election to which the Petition relates, may, within ten days after such notice is published by the Returning Officer, give notice, in writing, signed by him or on his behalf, to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal of his intention to apply at the hearing of the application to withdraw, to be substituted for the Petitioner, but the want of such notice shall not defeat such application, if in fact made at the hearing of the application to withdraw the said Petition.

XLVII

TIME AND PLACE OF APPLICATION

The time and place for hearing the application shall be fixed by a Judge of the Court of Appeal, and either before the Court of Appeal or before a Judge, as he may deem advisable, but such time shall not be less than a week after the notice of the intention to apply to be substituted for the Petitioner has been given to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal as hereinbefore provided; and notice of the time and place appointed for the hearing of such application shall be given to such person, if any, as shall have given notice to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal of such intention to apply to be substituted as the Petitioner, and otherwise in such manner and at such time as the Court or a Judge may direct.

XLVIII

ABATEMENT OF PETITION

Notice of the abatement of a Petition, by death of the Petitioner or surviving Petitioner, under the said Act, shall be given by the party or person interested, and shall be published in the same manner as notice of an application to withdraw a Petition; and the time within which application may be made thereafter by any other person to the Court or a Judge, to be substituted as a Petitioner, shall be fourteen days after the notice of such abatement is published by the Returning Officer, or such other time as upon consideration of any special circumstances, the Court or a Judge may allow.

XLIX

DEATH OF RESPONDENT OR VACANCY IN SEAT

If the Respondent dies or if the Legislative Assembly have resolved that his seat is vacant, or if he gives notice that he does not intend to oppose the Petition, any person entitled to be a Petitioner under the said Act in respect of the Election to which the Petition relates, may give notice of the fact in the Electoral District by causing such notice to be published in at least one newspaper published or circulating therein, if any, and by leaving a copy of such notice signed by him or on his behalf with the Returning Officer, and a like copy with the Registrar of the Court of Appeal.

L

NOTICE OF INTENTION NOT TO OPPOSE PETITION

The manner and time of the Respondent giving notice to the Court that he does not intend to oppose the Petition, shall be by leaving notice thereof, in writing, at the office of the Registrar of the Court of Appeal, signed by the Respondent, or his agent, at any time before the Judges on the rota fix the day for the trial of the Election Petition. Such notice shall be in triplicate.

LI

PUBLICATION OF NOTICE

Upon such notice being left at the office of the Registrar of the Court of Appeal, he shall forthwith send one of the copies thereof by the post to the Petitioner or his agent, and another to the Returning Officer who shall cause the same to be published in the Electoral District.

LII

TIME FOR APPLYING TO BE ADMITTED AS RESPONDENT

The time for applying to be admitted as a Respondent in either of the events provided for in the 99th section of the said Act and Rule 49, shall be within ten days after such notice is given as hereinbefore directed, or such other time as the Court or a Judge may allow.

LIII

PUBLICATION

One publication of any matter required to be published by the Returning Officer or Sheriff under these Rules shall be deemed sufficient and shall be paid for by the Petitioner or person moving in the matter (not by any officer of the Court) and the costs of such publication shall form part of the general costs of the Petition, unless otherwise ordered.

LIV

APPLICATION FOR LEAVE TO WITHDRAW AFTER NOTICE OF TRIAL

If notice of the Petitioner's intention to apply for leave to withdraw, or of the abatement of the said Petition by the death of the Petitioner or survivor of several Petitioners, or of the happening of any of the events mentioned in the 99th section of the said Act, be received after notice of trial shall have been given, and before the trial has commenced, the Court or a Judge may order a countermand of the notice of trial and a postponement of the case as prescribed by section 47 of the said Act.

LV

COSTS

The order of the Court or a Judge for the payment of costs shall have the same force as an order made by the High Court of Justice or a Judge thereof, and shall be enforced in like manner.

LVI

TAXING OF COSTS

Costs shall be taxed by one of the Taxing Officers upon the order of the Court or a Judge by which the costs are directed to be paid, and, when taxed, may be recovered by execution in the ordinary way, or in case there be money in the Bank available for such purpose, it may be applied pro tanto by order of the Court or a Judge, and execution shall only issue for the deficiency.

LVII

FEES

The fees payable in stamps for proceedings under the Act, and these Rules, shall be the same as those payable, if any, for like proceedings according to the present practice of the Court of Appeal or of the High Court of Justice.

LVIII

INTERLOCUTORY QUESTIONS

All interlocutory questions and matters shall be heard and disposed of before a Judge of the Court of appeal at Chambers, or before one of the Judges on the rota, who shall have the same jurisdiction over the proceedings under The Ontario Controverted Elections Act, as a Judge at Chambers, in the ordinary proceedings of the Court of Appeal or the High Court.

LIX

TIME

The Court or a Judge shall have power to increase, enlarge, or abridge the time appointed by these Rules, or any Rules relating to time, or fixed by any order enlarging time, for doing any act, or taking any proceedings, upon such terms, if any, as the justice of the case may require; and such enlargement may be ordered or relief given, although the application for the same is not made until after the expiration of the time appointed or allowed, or until the same has begun to run.

LX

Any order or decision of a single Judge under the two last preceding Rules shall be subject to appeal to the full Court.

LXI

SINGULAR TO INCLUDE PLURAL

In these Rules words importing the singular number only shall include more persons or parties than one.

LXII

FORMAL OBJECTION NOT TO DEFEAT PROCEEDINGS

No proceeding under The Ontario Controverted Elections Act shall be defeated by any formal objection.

LXIII

POSTING OF RULES IN OFFICE OF REGISTRAR

Any Rule made or to be made in pursuance of the said Act shall be published by being put up in the office of the Registrar of the Court of Appeal.

LXIV

APPLICATION OF CONSOLIDATED RULES

So far as conveniently may be and so far as they are not inconsistent with these Rules, the Consolidated Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario shall apply to all proceedings upon an Election Petition under The Controverted Elections Act.

LXV

FORMER RULES RESCINDED

All Rules heretofore in force respecting the trial of Controverted Elections in the Province of Ontario are rescinded.

Applications to Parliament

Private Bills

PUBLIC NOTICE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO

The attention of Municipal Officials, Solicitors and all other persons who may be interested in the preparation of Private Bills for submission to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario is directed particularly to the following Rules of the House governing the submission of such Bills.

RULES RE SUBMISSION OF PRIVATE BILLS

63.—(1) No petition for any Private Bill is received by the House after the first two weeks of each Session; nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session; nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first six weeks of each Session and no motion for the general suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House unless after reference made thereof, at a previous sitting of the House, to the several Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills or upon Report submitted by two or more of such committees.

64.—(1) Any person desiring to obtain a Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House at least eight (8) days before the meeting of the House a copy of such Bill, together with a fee of $150, and if such Bill is not deposited by that time the applicant shall pay $10 for each and every day which intervenes between the said eighth day and the date of the filing of the Bill.

(2) After the first reading of the Bill, and before its consideration by the Committee to which it is referred, the applicant in every case shall pay the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes.

(3) The following charges shall also be levied and paid in addition to the foregoing:

(a) When any rule of the House is suspended with reference to a Bill or the Petition therefor, for each suspension $50.

(b) When a Bill is presented to the House after the first three weeks of the Session and before the end of the fourth week, $75.

(c) When a Bill is presented after the fourth week of the Session, $100.

(4) In case of any Bill incorporating a company or increasing the capital stock of a company already incorporated, there shall be paid to the Clerk of the House, by or on behalf of the applicant, before the same is reported to the House, the same fee as would be payable to the Provincial Secretary in the case of an incorporation or increase of capital under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, less the sum of $150 already paid to the Clerk of the House.

(5) When a Bill is for the purpose of confirming by-laws, bonds, debentures or other securities, or authority is asked to borrow money or to increase borrowing powers, the following additional fees shall be paid according to the amount of money involved:

On amounts less than $10,000, $25; on amounts over $10,000 and up to $25,000, $50; on amounts over $25,000 and up to $40,000, $75; on amounts over $40,000 and up to $75,000, $100; on amounts over $75,000 and up to $125,000, $125; on amounts over $125,000 and up to $175,000, $150; amounts over $175,000 and up to $250,000, $200; an amounts over $250,000 and up to $350,000, $250; and an additional fee of $50 for every $100,000 over $350,000.

66. All applications for Private Bills properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867" shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such Notice to be published as follows, viz.:

A notice inserted in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE and in one newspaper published in the Municipality affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest municipality in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

If the application is by a Municipal Corporation for authority to issue debentures the notice shall set out the particulars of the existing debenture debt and the amount of the rateable property of the Municipality according to the last revised assessment roll of the Corporation, and in brief and general terms, the object for which the new issue of debentures is required.

67. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the Notice required by the preceding Rule, also, at the same time and in the same manner, give Notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privileges, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

68. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Bill for the construction of Railways, Tramways or Canals is received by the House, the person or persons petitioning for such Bill shall deposit with the Clerk the following documents:

1. A map or plan upon a scale of not less than half an inch to the mile, showing the location upon which it is intended to construct the proposed work, and showing also the lines of existing or authorized works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting the district or any part thereof which the proposed work is intended to serve. Such map or plan to be signed by the Engineer or other party making the same.

2. A book of reference in which shall be clearly set out the following information in separate schedules namely:

SCHEDULE A.—The name of each municipality within which the proposed works or any part thereof are intended to be constructed; the population of each such municipality as returned by the next preceding census, the rateable value of the property within each such municipality, as returned by the next preceding assessment rolls thereof; and this schedule may contain in a separate statement similar information as to the adjoining districts intended to be served by the proposed work.

SCHEDULE B.—A general description of the nature, extent, and proposed character of the contemplated works, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, distinguishing the general items of construction and the cost thereof respectively, as well as the nature, extent and probable cost of all engines and car stock or other outfit or equipment necessary to the use and operation of the proposed undertaking, such schedule to be signed by the Engineer, or other person preparing the same.

SCHEDULE C.—An exhibit showing the total amount of capital proposed to be raised for the purposes of the undertaking and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same, whether by ordinary shares, bonds, debentures or other securities, and the amount of each respectively.

SCHEDULE D.—An estimate of the probable revenues of the proposed undertaking showing the sources whence the same are expected to be derived; the annual earnings thereof respectively; the probable annual cost of operation or working expenditure, and the annual net revenue applicable to the payment of interest on the proposed investments, such schedules to be signed by the person preparing the same.

72. When any Bill for confirming any Letters Patent, or Agreement, is presented to the House, the copy of such Letters Patent, or Agreement, shall be attached to it.

74. Every Private Bill, when read a first time shall, unless it be an Estate Bill or a Bill providing for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a Municipal Corporation, shall stand referred to the proper Standing Committee, and all petitions before the House, for or against the Bill, are considered referred to such Committee.

75. Every Private Bill, in so far as it provides for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a municipal corporation, when the Bill has been read a first time, shall, without special reference, stand referred to The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board for their report; and a copy of such Bill and of the Petition on which the same is founded shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the Board, in order that the Board may, after an inquiry into the allegations set out in the Bill, and into any other matters which the Board may deem necessary in connection therewith, report to the House whether or not it is reasonable that such Bill or the part thereof relating to the matters aforesaid, shall be passed, and what alterations, if any, should be made in the same, and the Board shall make such inquiry accordingly, and shall sign the same; and the said Report, Bill and Petition shall be transmitted to the Clerk, and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table and shall be entered on the Journals of the House, and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills.

76. Every Estate Bill, when read a first time shall without special reference, stand referred to the Commissioners of Estate Bills, for their Report, and a copy of such Bill, and of the Petition on which the same is founded, shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the said Commissioners, or one of them, in order that they, or any two of them, may, after perusing the Bill, without requiring any proof of the allegations thereof, report to the House their opinion thereon under their hands; and whether presuming the allegation contained in the preamble to be proved so the satisfaction of the House, it is reasonable that such Bill do pass into a law; and whether the provisions thereof are proper for carrying its purposes into effect, and what alterations or amendments, if any, are necessary in the same, and in the event of their approving the said Bill they are to sign the same; and the said Report, with the said Bill and Petition, are to be transmitted by the said Commissioners to the Clerk; and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table, and shall be entered on the Journals of the House; and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills, which is not to consider the said Bill, before the delivery of the said Report, Bill and Petition to the Chairman of the said Committee.

77. In the event of the Commissioners of Estate Bills reporting that, in their opinion, it is not reasonable hat the Bill submitted to them shall pass into law uch Bill shall not be further considered.

ALEX. C. LEWIS, K.C.,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly
of Ontario.

Publications Under The Regulations Act, 1944

APRIL 14th, 1945

THE REGULATIONS ACT, 1944

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection 1 of section 3 of The Regulations Act, 1944, that every regulation shall within one month of the filing thereof be published in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE, and whereas by virtue of subsection 2 of the said section 3 and of a certain Order-in-Council dated the 11th day of May, 1944, the Attorney General may at any time by order, extend the time for publication of a regulation, such order to be published with the regulation, and whereas having regard to the volume of regulations which have been and which will be filed before the 31st day of December, 1944, and to the present shortage of skilled craftsmen in the printing trade, it will in many cases be impossible to comply with the provisions of subsection 1 of section 3 of the said Act;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the time for publication of regulations filed before the 1st day of January, 1945, be extended for such period as may be necessary in the case of each set of regulations so filed.

Dated at Toronto this 9th day of November, 1944.

Attorney General.

THE JUDICATURE ACT

O. Reg. 261/44.
Rules of practice and procedure of the Supreme Court of Ontario.
Amending.
Approved—February 10th, 1942.
May 5th, 1943.
September 27th, 1944.
Filed—December 21st, 1944, 9.05 a.m.

INTERPRETATION.

1. All Rules and orders heretofore passed are rescinded, except those mentioned in the schedule hereto, and as to all matters not provided for in these Rules, the practice shall be regulated by analogy thereto.

2. In these Rules,—

(a) "Accountant" shall mean "The Accountant of the Supreme Court of Ontario".

(b) "Action" shall include garnishee proceedings and proceedings for relief by interpleader.

(c) "County Court" shall include District Court, and "County" shall include "District".

(d) "Judge" shall mean a Judge of the High Court.

(e) "Judgment creditor" shall mean the party or person who is entitled to receive payment or to enforce a judgment or order.

(f) "Judgment debtor" shall mean the party or person to make payment under any judgment or order, or against whom the same may be enforced.

(g) In Rules 533 to 599 "Judgment" shall include an order to the same effect.

(gg) In the Rules relating to References "Master" shall include and mean an Assistant Master or Clerk to whom the matter has been assigned either by the Master or by the judgment.

(h) "Sheriff" shall include any Coroner, Elisor or other officer charged with the execution of any writ or process.

(i) "Time prescribed" shall mean time limited or appointed by the Rules or by any judgment or order.

(j) In Rules 12 to 31 the words "Writ of Summons" and "Writ" shall include any document by which proceedings are commenced, and shall also include all proceedings by which a person not a party is added as a party either before or after judgment, e.g., proceedings in the Master's office and garnishee and third party proceedings.

(k) "Writ of Execution" and "execution" shall include all writs by which a judgment may be enforced, and in the Rules relating to interpleader shall also include an order of attachment under The Absconding Debtors Act.

(l) "Matrimonial Cause" shall mean an action under the provisions of "The Divorce Act (Ontario), 1930".

3. The Division of these Rules into chapters, titles, and headings is for convenience only, and shall not affect their construction.

FORM AND COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS IN THE SUPREME COURT

Writ of Summons.

4. Except when otherwise authorized by any statute or by any Rule, every proceeding in the Court (other than a proceeding that may be taken ex parte) shall be by action commenced by the issue of a Writ of Summons.

5.—(1) The Writ shall be prepared by the Plaintiff and shall contain the names of the parties and the capacity in which they sue and are sued and shall state the office in which and the time within which the defendant is to enter his appearance and shall be endorsed with a short statement of the nature of the Plaintiff's claim.

(2) Writs shall be sealed with the seal of the Supreme Court or the seal kept in the Local Office as the case may be and shall conclude with the words "In witness whereof this Writ is signed for the Supreme Court of Ontario by.....Registrar of the said Court (or Local Registrar at.....as the case may be)" and shall be signed by the officer issuing the same, and shall state the date and place of issue.

(3) A copy of the Writ certified by the Plaintiff's Solicitor shall be filed with the Officer at the time the Writ is issued.

6. A writ for service in Ontario (either personally or in any other manner) shall be according to Form No. 1. A writ for service out of Ontario shall be according to Form No. 2. Where the defendant is not a British subject and is not in British Dominions, notice of the writ, according to Form No. 3, shall be served in lieu of the writ.

7. The plaintiff may issue a duplicate writ or concurrent writ for service either within or without Ontario, tested of the same day as the original writ, and marked "duplicate" or "concurrent," and with the date of actual issue. Such writs shall only be in force during the currency of the original writ.

8. The writ shall be in force for twelve months from the date thereof, including the day of such date; but if for any sufficient reason any defendant has not been served, the writ may at any time before its expiration, by order, be renewed for twelve months, and so from time to time during the currency of the renewed writ. The writ shall be marked by the proper officer, "renewed," with the date of the order.

9. Any claim on behalf of His Majesty, including a claim to repeal letters patent under the Great Seal, may be enforced by an action brought by the Attorney-General on behalf of His Majesty.

Originating Notice.

10.—(1) The proceedings authorized by Rules 600, 604, 605, 608, 615, 617, 618, 622, 691 and interpleader, other than interpleader proceedings by a sheriff, as provided under Rules 625 and 644, may be commenced by notice of motion called an originating notice.

(2) Garnishee proceedings and interpleader proceedings by a sheriff shall be deemed to be interlocutory proceedings in the original cause or matter.

(3) An issue directed in garnishee or interpleader proceedings or any other issue directed to be tried under the provisions of these Rules shall be deemed to be an action and the judgment upon the trial of an issue shall, for the purposes of appeal, be deemed to be final and not interlocutory.

11.—(1) When by any statute a summary application without the institution of any action may be made to the Court or a Judge in a manner therein provided, such application may also be made by originating notice but any security required by such statute shall be given.

(2) This Rule shall apply to proceedings which by any statute or Rule may be taken in a County Court or before a Judge of a County Court.

NOTE—See also The Interpretation Act, R.S.O. 1937, ch. 1, sec. 30.

Indorsement of Address, etc.

12.—(1) Where a plaintiff sues by a solicitor, the writ of summons (or notice in lieu thereof), shall be indorsed with the solicitor's name or firm and place of business, where service may be made.

(2) Where the solicitor issuing a writ of summons is only agent of another solicitor, his name or firm and place of business as well as the name or firm and place of business of the principal solicitor shall be indorsed.

(3) Where a plaintiff sues in person, there shall be indorsed upon the writ or notice in lieu thereof, his place of residence and occupation.

(4) If the residence of a plaintiff suing in person is more than two miles from the office in which the proceedings are commenced, there shall also be indorsed an address for service within that distance. In default, any paper not requiring personal service may be served by mailing the same to the plaintiff at his address, by registered letter.

13.—(1) The solicitor whose name is indorsed on any writ of summons shall on demand declare forthwith whether the cause or matter has been commenced by him or with his authority or privity. He shall also, if demanded, disclose the profession or occupation, and place of abode (giving name of street and house number where practicable) of the plaintiff. In default the action may be stayed and the solicitor may be directed to pay the costs.

(2) If the solicitor declares that the writ was not issued by him or with his authority or privity, an order may be obtained ex parte directing that all proceedings shall be stayed, and thereafter no further proceedings shall be taken without leave.

14.—(1) Where an action is brought in the name of a firm or in a name or style other than the plaintiff's own name, the plaintiffs shall, on demand, declare forthwith in writing the names and places of residence of all the persons constituting the firm, or carrying on business under such name or style.

(2) If the plaintiffs fail to comply with such demand, all proceedings in the action may, upon an application for that purpose, be stayed.

Service.

15. Service of a writ of summons shall not be required where the defendant by his solicitor accepts service, and undertakes to appear.

16. Save as hereinafter provided, in the absence of such acceptance of service every writ of summons shall be served personally, but if it appears that the plaintiff is unable to effect prompt personal service, substituted service, by advertisement or otherwise, may be ordered. Substituted service may also be allowed of any other document which requires personal service.

17.—(1) The person serving a writ of summons shall, within three days after the service, indorse on the writ the day of the month and week of the service thereof, and the date of the making of the indorsement, otherwise the plaintiff shall not be at liberty, in case of non-appearance, to proceed by default without leave, to be obtained at the sole cost of the plaintiff.

(2) Every affidavit of service of a writ of summons shall state the day on which such indorsement was made.

18.—(1) Where an infant is sued in respect of his interest in an estate, he shall be served by delivering a copy of the writ to the Official Guardian.

(2) The post office address of the father or guardian of such infant or of the person with whom or under whose care the infant is shall be indorsed on the copy of the writ so served.

(3) From the time of such service, the said Official Guardian shall be the guardian ad litem of the infant, unless and until otherwise ordered, and it shall be the duty of the said Official Guardian, or of any other guardian appointed for such infant, forthwith to attend to the interests of the infant, and to take all such proceedings as may be necessary for the protection of such interests in the proceeding in which he is appointed guardian, and for that purpose to communicate with all proper persons and parties, including the father or guardian of the infant and the person with whom or under whose care the infant is.

(4) In case there is more than one infant for whom service is made on the Official Guardian, one copy only of the writ need be served, but the name of each person on whose behalf the Official Guardian is served shall be stated on the copy served.

19. Where the action against an infant defendant is for the recovery of lands, goods, or chattels of which he is personally in possession, service shall be made on the infant personally, and a copy of the writ shall also be delivered to the Official Guardian, indorsed as aforesaid, who may enter an appearance for the infant, in the absence of other order or direction.

20. Where the action is against an infant in respect of a personal tort or for the recovery of money only, the infant shall be served as in the case of an adult defendant.

21. Where a mentally incompetent person or person of unsound mind not so found by inquisition or judicial declaration, is a defendant, service on the committee of the mentally incompetent person or on the person with whom the defendant of unsound mind resides, or under whose care he is, shall, unless otherwise ordered, be deemed good service.

NOTE—As to service on a mentally incompetent person in an institution. See The Mental Hospitals Act, R.S.O. 1937, ch. 392, secs. 72 et seq.

22. After service of the writ no further proceedings shall be taken against a defendant who is a mentally incompetent person and has no committee, or no committee except the Public Trustee, or against a defendant of unsound mind not so found, until a guardian ad litem is appointed.

NOTE—As to service upon a patient in an institution. See The Mental Hospitals Act, R.S.O. 1937, ch. 392, sec. 79.

23.—(1) A corporation may be served with a writ of summons by delivering a copy to the Mayor, Warden, Reeve, President, or other head officer, or on the Township, Town, City or County Clerk, or on the Cashier, Treasurer or Secretary, Clerk or Agent of such corporation, or of any branch or agency thereof in Ontario. Any person who, within Ontario, transacts or carries on any of the business of, or any business for, any corporation whose chief place of business is without Ontario, shall, for the purpose of being served as aforesaid, be deemed the agent thereof.

(2) Service may also be effected on any person appointed for that purpose under The Extra Provincial Corporations Act.

(3) In the case of a railway, telegraph, or express corporation, service may be effected on the agent of such corporation at any branch or agency thereof, or on any station master of the railway company, or on the telegraph operator or express agent having charge of any telegraph or express office belonging to such corporation.

24. Where service of a writ out of Ontario may be allowed and the defendant, whether a British subject or not, is, or was at the time the cause of action arose, carrying on business within Ontario, if the cause of action arose in respect of such business, an order may be made allowing service upon any person having the control or management of the business.

Service Out of Ontario.

25.—(1) Service out of Ontario of a writ of summons or notice of writ may be allowed wherever,—

(a) The whole subject-matter of the action is land situate within Ontario (with or without rents or profits);

(b) Any act, deed, will, contract, obligation, or liability affecting land or hereditaments situate within Ontario is sought to be construed, rectified, set aside, or enforced;

(bb) Any will of a deceased person who at the time of his death was domiciled within Ontario, affecting personal property is sought to be construed or where the executors or administrators of any such person apply by way of originating notice under the provisions of Rule 600;

(c) Any relief is sought against any person domiciled or ordinarily resident within Ontario;

(d) Administration is sought of the personal estate of a deceased person who at the time of his death was domiciled within Ontario, or the execution (as to property situate within Ontario) of the trusts of a written instrument of which the person to be served is a trustee, which ought to be executed according to the law of Ontario;

(e) The action is in respect of a breach committed within Ontario of a contract wherever made, even though such breach was preceded by or accompanied by a breach out of Ontario which rendered impossible the performance of the part of the contract which ought to have been performed within Ontario;

(f) The action is upon or in relation to a mortgage or charge or lien of any description upon personal property of any description within Ontario in which foreclosure sale possession or redemption is sought but in which a personal judgment or order for payment is not claimed unless a personal judgment or order for payment may be claimed under some other provision of this Rule;

(g) The action is founded on a tort committed within Ontario;

(h) An injunction is sought as to anything done or to be done within Ontario, or any nuisance within Ontario is sought to be prevented or removed, whether damages are or are not claimed in respect thereof;

(i) A person out of Ontario is a necessary or proper party to an action properly brought against another person duly served within Ontario;

(j) Service may also be allowed where the action is for any other matter and it appears that the plaintiff has a good cause of action against the defendant upon a contract or in respect of a claim for alimony, and that the defendant has assets in Ontario, of the value of $200 at least, which may be rendered liable for the satisfaction of the judgment; but the order allowing service shall in such case provide that if the defendant does not appear, the plaintiff shall prove his claim to the satisfaction of a judge before judgment shall be entered;

(k) In an action upon a contract where the parties have agreed that the courts of Ontario shall have jurisdiction to entertain the action or have agreed as to the manner in which service, either within or without Ontario of the writ in an action brought in Ontario may be effected. In either of such cases, service may be effected in the manner agreed upon or as may be ordered;

(l) The action is founded upon a judgment, of any court in Ontario; or

(m) In a matrimonial cause.

(2) Where it is necessary or proper to serve persons, not already parties to an action, with an office copy of any judgment or order, or notice to prove claims thereunder, service of the same out of Ontario may be allowed.

(3) Service out of Ontario may also be allowed of an attaching order in cases falling within the provisions of Rule 590.

NOTE—As to service out of Ontario in actions respecting shares in companies. See The Companies Act, R.S.O. 1937, ch. 251, sec. 137 (6).

26. An application to allow service out of Ontario may be made ex parte and shall be supported by an affidavit, stating that in the belief of the deponent the applicant has a right to the relief claimed, and showing in what place or country the person to be served is or probably may be found, and whether he is a British subject or not, and that the case is a proper one for service out of Ontario under these Rules.

27.—(1) An order allowing service of a writ of summons out of Ontario may be made before the writ is issued and shall limit the time for entering appearance.

(2) An order allowing service out of Ontario of a notice of motion or attaching order, shall limit a time, which must elapse after service before the day when the motion is to be heard.

(3) An order allowing service out of Ontario of a judgment or order or notice to prove claims thereunder shall limit a time for moving to add to, vary or set aside the judgment or order.

(4) In limiting the time, regard shall be had to the place where service is to be effected. (Form No. 64.)

28. Where a defendant is to be served out of Ontario with a writ of summons or notice in lieu thereof, the statement of claim shall be served therewith unless the writ is specially endorsed.

29. Where the defendant is to be served out of Ontario, and is neither a British subject nor in British dominions, notice of the writ and not the writ itself shall be served. Such notice shall, save as herein provided, be served personally unless otherwise directed.

30. Where service is to be effected in any foreign country to which this Rule is by direction of the Chief Justice of Ontario made to apply, upon any one other than a British subject, the following procedure shall be adopted:

(1) The notice of the writ and statement of claim shall be transmitted by the Registrar to the Secretary of State with a copy thereof, translated into the language of the country in which service is to be effected with a request for further transmission of the same to the government of the country in which it is to be served, with the request that service, either personal or in such manner as is consistent with the practice and usage of that country when personal service cannot be made, be effected and that return be made showing how such service has been effected.

(2) Any such official return shall be regarded as proof of the facts therein stated.

(3) The plaintiff's solicitor shall, before the papers are transmitted, pay or secure to the satisfaction of the Registrar a sum to answer the fees and charges in connection with such service.

31. Where in any civil or commercial matter pending before a Court or Tribunal of a foreign country, a letter of request from such Court or Tribunal for service on any person in Ontario of any process or citation in such matter, is transmitted to the Supreme Court for Ontario, the following procedure shall be adopted:

(1) The letter of request for service shall be accompanied by a translation thereof in the English language, and by two copies of the process or citation to be served, and two copies thereof in the English language.

(2) Service of the process or citation shall, by a direction of a Judge, be effected by any sheriff or his authorized agent.

(3) Such service shall be effected by delivering to and leaving with the person to be served one copy of the process to be served and one copy of the translation thereof or may be effected in such other manner as may be directed by the letter of request.

(4) After service has been effected the process shall be returned to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, together with the evidence of service by affidavit of the person effecting the service, sworn before a Notary Public and verified by his seal, and particulars of charges for the cost of effecting such service.

(5) The Clerk of the Supreme Court for Ontario shall return the letter of request for service, together with the evidence of service, with a certificate appended thereto, duly sealed with the seal of the said Court. Such certificate shall be in accordance with Form No. 14.

(6) Nothing in this rule shall prevent service from being effected in any other manner in which it may now be made.

Indorsement of Claim.

32. Upon every writ of summons the plaintiff shall indorse a concise statement of his claim. It shall not be essential to set forth the precise ground of complaint, or the precise remedy or relief sought. (See Form No. 4.)

Special Indorsements.

33.—(1) The writ of summons may, at the option of the plaintiff, be specially indorsed with a statement of claim, where the plaintiff seeks to recover a debt or liquidated demand in money (with or without interest, and whether the interest be payable by way of damages or otherwise), arising,—

(a) Upon a contract, express or implied (as for instance on a bill of exchange, promissory note, cheque, or other simple contract debt); or

(b) On a bond or contract under seal for payment of a liquidated sum; or on a judgment; or

(c) On a statute where the amount sought to be recovered is a fixed sum of money or in the nature of a debt other than a penalty; or

(d) On a guaranty, whether under seal or not, where the claim against the principal is in respect of a debt or liquidated demand; or

(e) On a trust;

and also

(f) In actions for the recovery of land (with or without a claim for rent or mesne profits); and

(g) In action for the recovery of chattels;

(h) In action for foreclosure or sale.

(2) The writ in such case shall be in accordance with Form No. 5.

(3) Where a writ is specially indorsed in respect of any of the above claims the plaintiff may also claim in respect of any other matter.

34. Where the plaintiff in an action of dower claims damages for detention of her dower, the indorsement shall contain a statement that the plaintiff claims damages for the detention of her dower, from some day to be stated.

DEFAULT OF APPEARANCE.

35. Except where otherwise provided or otherwise ordered a defendant who fails to appear shall not be entitled to notice of any subsequent proceedings in the action.

36. Where a defendant fails to appear the plaintiff before signing judgment or noting the pleadings closed, shall file an affidavit of service of the writ, or the notice in lieu thereof, or the undertaking of the defendant's solicitor accepting service and agreeing to enter an appearance, with an affidavit verifying the undertaking as the case may be.

37. Where the writ is specially indorsed for a debt or liquidated demand in money, and any defendant fails to appear, the plaintiff, notwithstanding that the writ may be indorsed with any other claim, may, as against such defendant, sign final judgment for any sum not exceeding the amount for which the writ is so specially indorsed, together with interest as claimed to the date of the judgment, and for his costs, without prejudice to his right to proceed with the action against any other defendant, and as to any other claims indorsed. (Form No. 86.)

38.—(1) Where the writ is specially indorsed with a claim for the recovery of chattels, and any defendant fails to appear the plaintiff, notwithstanding that the writ may be indorsed with any other claim, may, as against such defendant, sign final judgment for the recovery of the chattels and his costs without prejudice to his right to proceed with the action against any other defendant and as to any other claims indorsed. (Form No. 92.)

(2) Where the claim indorsed upon the writ includes a claim for the detention of goods and pecuniary damages, or either of them, and any defendant fails to appear, interlocutory judgment may be signed against such defendant, directing an assessment of damages, without prejudice to the right of the plaintiff to proceed against any other defendants or for any other claim; and such damages may, unless otherwise ordered, be assessed, as against such defendant, either before or at the same time as the trial of the action, against any other defendant, or for any other claim, or the Court may order that instead of an assessment the value of the goods and amount of damages, or either of them, shall be ascertained by a reference or in any other way. (Form No. 93.)

(3) When interlocutory judgment has been signed and damages have been assessed a final judgment for the recovery of the damages awarded may be entered. (Form No. 94.)

39. No interlocutory judgment shall be signed for default of appearance, unless the precise cause of action is clearly stated in the indorsement of the writ.

40.—(1) Where a defendant fails to appear in an action for dower, the plaintiff may sign judgment of seisin forthwith, and sue out a writ of assignment of dower, but she shall not, unless otherwise ordered, be entitled to costs. (Form No. 91.)

(2) Where the plaintiff claims arrears of dower or damages for detention of her dower, the entry of a judgment of seisin and the taking of proceedings for the assignment of her dower thereunder shall not prevent her from proceeding with the action for the recovery of such arrears or damages.

41.—(1) Where an action is for or includes a claim for the recovery of land, and any defendant fails to appear, or if an appearance is entered but the defence is limited to part only, the plaintiff, notwithstanding that the writ may be indorsed with any other claim, may sign judgment against such defendant for possession of the land or of the part thereof to which the defence does not apply without prejudice to the right of the plaintiff to proceed against any other defendant or for any other relief. (Form No. 87.)

(2) Where judgment by default is signed, but is not signed against all the defendants, a writ of possession shall not be issued unless directed by a Judge.

42. Where an action is for or includes a claim for the recovery of land, and any defendant fails to appear, and the writ is indorsed with a claim for mesne profits, arrears of rent, or double value in respect of the premises claimed or any part of them, or damages for breach of contract, or wrong or injury to the premises claimed, the plaintiff may sign judgment against such defendant for possession, and may proceed as to the other claims. (Form No. 89.)

43. Where any defendant fails to appear in an action for recovery of land, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to costs unless he files an affidavit showing that such defendant was at the time of the issue of the writ in actual adverse possession of the land, or obtains an order allowing him to sign judgment as well for his costs as for possession of the land.

44. In all cases not hereinbefore provided for a statement of claim must be delivered.

APPEARANCE, ETC.

45. When a defendant is served within Ontario, he shall appear within ten days, including the day of service.

46. A defendant shall appear by filing with the proper officer a memorandum in writing, if he appears by solicitor, stating the name and place of business of such solicitor, or, if he appears in person, stating that he defends in person, and giving his address and naming a place to be called his address for service, which shall not be more than two miles from the office from which the writ of summons was issued. (Form No. 6.)

47. If the memorandum does not contain the address of the solicitor or the defendant (as the case may be) it shall not be filed; and if such address is illusory or fictitious, the appearance may be set aside.

48. Where a defendant desires to contend that an order for service out of Ontario could not properly be made, a conditional appearance may be entered by leave.

49. A defendant may appear at any time before judgment.

50. A defendant appearing to a writ, indorsed to recover a money demand, may, in his appearance, state that he disputes only the amount claimed. The plaintiff may thereupon proceed to take an account of the amount due to him before the officer with whom the judgment is to be signed on four clear days' notice, and judgment may be signed for the amount found due, or the plaintiff may move for a judgment of reference.

51.—(1) A defendant in an action for dower, may, with his appearance, file an acknowledgment that he is tenant of the freehold of the land named in the writ, together with his consent that the plaintiff may have judgment for her dower therein, and may take the proceedings authorized by The Dower Procedure Act to have the same assigned to her, unless the parties otherwise agree, and he shall forthwith serve the plaintiff or her solicitor with a copy of such acknowledgment and consent, and upon such consent the plaintiff may enter judgment of seisin, and may obtain a writ of assignment of dower, but shall not, without an order, be entitled to tax or recover the costs of the action or judgment against the defendant.

(2) The entry of a judgment of seisin and the taking of proceedings for the assignment of her dower thereunder shall not prevent the plaintiff from proceeding with the action for the recovery of arrears of dower or damages.

(3) Where the defendant has filed and served such acknowledgment and consent, and the plaintiff does not within three months thereafter sue out and cause to be executed a writ of assignment of dower, the defendant may, by leave, sue out such writ; and the writ shall be, as nearly as may be, in the same form as a writ sued out by the plaintiff, and the like proceedings shall be had thereon.

52. In an action for dower the landlord or other person under whom a tenant in possession, who is not also tenant of the freehold, holds or entered into possession, may, without leave, appear and defend, by filing with his appearance an affidavit that he is tenant of the freehold, and is advised and believes that there is good ground for disputing the plaintiff's claim to dower.

53. Any person not named as a defendant in a writ for the recovery of land, may, without leave, appear and defend, by filing with his appearance an affidavit stating that he is in possession either by himself or his tenant (as the case may be).

54. Any person entering an appearance under the two preceding Rules, shall forthwith give notice thereof, and shall in all subsequent proceedings be named as a party defendant; if notice of appearance is not forthwith given the plaintiff may proceed as in case of non-appearance.

55. Any person appearing to a writ for the recovery of land may limit his defence to a part only of the land, describing the part with reasonable certainty in his appearance, or in a notice to be served within four days after appearance (Forms Nos. 7 and 27), and thereupon the plaintiff may sign judgment for the recovery of possession of the land as to which no defence is made. (Form No. 90.)

56.—(1) Where the writ is specially indorsed the defendant shall with his appearance file an affidavit that he has a good defence upon the merits and showing the nature of his defence, with the facts and circumstances which he deems entitle him to defend the action and shall forthwith serve a copy of such affidavit upon the plaintiff. The affidavit may be made by the defendant or by any one having knowledge of the facts.

(2) A counterclaim shall be deemed to be a defence within the meaning of this Rule.

(3) If the defendant fails to file an affidavit the appearance shall not be received and the plaintiff shall be entitled to sign judgment for default of appearance.

(4) An affidavit of merits shall not be necessary where an appearance is entered by the Official Guardian for an infant or mentally incompetant person, or by an executor or administrator or trustee, or an assignee for the benefit of creditors or a liquidator or receiver, who swears that after careful inquiry he does not feel justified in admitting the plaintiff's claim and desires that it shall be proved, or by the Public Trustee appearing as committee of a mentally incompetent person.

MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON SPECIALLY INDORSED WRITS AND IN ACTIONS FOR ACCOUNT.

57.—(1) Where the defendant appears to a writ specially indorsed and files an affidavit of merits, the plaintiff may cross-examine upon such affidavit and move for judgment, and if the court is satisfied that the defendant has not a good defence to the action on the merits, or has not disclosed such facts as may be deemed sufficient to entitle him to defend the action, judgment may be given for the plaintiff.

(2) Such motion may be made in respect of a cause of action specially indorsed, though the writ may also be indorsed with any other claim.

(3) On any such motion any amendment of the writ which might be ordered on a substantive motion may be directed, and judgment may be awarded in accordance with the writ as amended.

(4) Where a counterclaim is set up regard shall be had to the provisions of Rule 116.

58. Where the defence disclosed applies only to a part of the plaintiff's claim, or any part of his claim is admitted to be due, the plaintiff shall have judgment forthwith for such part of his claim as the defence does not apply to, or as is admitted to be due, subject to such terms, if any, as to suspending execution, or payment into court as may seem just, and the defendant may be allowed to defend as to the residue of the plaintiff's claim, or a reference may be directed under Rule 61.

59. Judgment may be awarded and execution issued against any defendant without prejudice to the plaintiff's right to proceed against any other defendant.

60. On any such motion, an order may be made, giving the defendant leave to defend either unconditionally, or subject to such terms as may seem just, or for a speedy trial of the action with or without pleadings upon such terms as may be deemed proper.

61. On any such motion, if it appears that the defence disclosed is substantially only as to the amount recoverable, the court may direct a reference, and either pronounce judgment to take effect on the confirmation of the report, or reserve further directions and questions of costs for consideration after the report is made.

62. Where a writ is specially indorsed and some special reason for urgency is shown the plaintiff may, at any time, by leave, serve notice of motion for judgment. Such leave may be given ex parte and subject to such directions, as to the service of the notice of motion and filing and service of the affidavits and otherwise, as may seem just.

63. In default of appearance when the plaintiff's claim is for an account, the plaintiff may apply for a judgment for the taking of the account claimed, with all directions usual in similar cases.

64. Where the plaintiff's claim is for an account and appearance is entered the plaintiff may move for judgment, without pleading, and unless the defendant satisfies the court that there is some preliminary question to be tried the appropriate judgment shall be pronounced.

65. The court may, at any stage of the proceedings in a cause or matter, direct any necessary inquiries or accounts to be made or taken, notwithstanding that some special or further relief is sought, or some issue issue is to be tried, as to which it may be proper that the cause or matter should proceed in the ordinary manner.

PARTIES AND JOINDER OF CAUSES OF ACTION.

Generally.

66. All persons may be joined in an action as plaintiffs in whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction or occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative, where if such persons brought separate actions any common question of law or fact would arise; but, if, upon the application of a defendant, it appears that such joinder may embarrass or delay the trial of the action, the Court may order separate trials, or make such other order as may be expedient; and without any amendment, judgment may be given for such one or more of the plaintiffs as may be found entitled to relief, for such relief as he or they may be entitled to but the defendant, though unsuccessful, shall be entitled to his costs occasioned by joining any person who is not found entitled to relief, unless the Court otherwise orders.

67. Where the plaintiff claims that the same transaction or occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, give him a cause of action against one or more persons, or where he is in doubt as to the person from whom he is entitled to redress, he may join as defendants all persons against whom he claims any right to relief, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative; and judgment may be given against one or more of the defendants according to their respective liabilities. The Court may order separate trials or make such other order as may be deemed expedient if such joinder is deemed oppressive or unfair.

68. It shall not be necessary that every defendant to an action shall be interested as to all the relief claimed, or as to every cause of action included therein.

69. A plaintiff may unite, in the same action, several causes of action.

70. A claim by or against husband and wife may be joined with a claim by or against either of them separately.

71. A claim by or against an executor or administrator may be joined with a claim by or against him personally, provided the last mentioned claim is alleged to have arisen with reference to the estate represented by him in the action.

72. A claim by plaintiffs jointly, may be joined with a claim by them or any of them separately against the same defendant.

73. If several causes of action joined in the same action are such as cannot be conveniently disposed of in one action, the Court may order any of them to be excluded, or may direct the issues respecting the separate causes of action to be tried separately.

74.—(1) Trustees, executors and administrators may sue and be sued on behalf of, or as representing, the property or estate of which they are trustees or representatives, without joining any of the persons beneficially interested, and shall represent them; but the Court may at any time order any of them to be made parties in addition to, or in lieu of, the previous parties.

(2) This rule shall apply to an action to enforce a security by foreclosure or otherwise.

NOTE—As to parties to mortgage actions where no personal representative. See R.S.O. 1937, c. 163, s. 9.

75. Where there are numerous persons having the same interest, one or more may sue or be sued, or may be authorized by the Court to defend, on behalf of, or for the benefit of all.

76. Where the right of an heir-at-law or of the next of kin, or of a class, or of an unborn person, depends upon the construction of an instrument, and it is not known or is difficult to ascertain who is such heir-at-law or next of kin or class, and the Court deems it convenient to have the question determined before the heir-at-law, next of kin or class in question is ascertained, or before the birth of any unborn person, the Court may appoint some person to represent the heir-at-law, next of kin or class, or unborn person, and the judgment of the Court shall be binding upon the person or class or unborn person so represented.

77. The Court may appoint some person to represent, for the purposes of any action or proceeding, the interest of any person or class, who may be not ascertained or who may be unborn, and the judgment of the Court shall be binding upon the person or class so represented.

78. Where in a proceeding concerning a trust a compromise is proposed and some of the persons interested in the compromise are not parties to the proceeding, but there are other persons in the same interest before the Court and assenting to the compromise, the Court if satisfied that the compromise will be for the benefit of the absent persons, and that to require service on them would cause unreasonable expense or delay, may approve the compromise and order that the same shall be binding on the absent persons, and they shall be bound accordingly, except where the order has been obtained by fraud or non-disclosure of material facts.

79. A residuary legatee, or next of kin, may have a judgment for the administration of the personal estate of a deceased person without serving the other residuary legatees or next of kin.

80. A legatee interested in a legacy charged upon real estate, or a person interested in the proceeds of real estate directed to be sold, may have a judgment for the administration of the estate of a deceased person without serving any other legatee or person interested in the proceeds.

81. A residuary devisee, or heir, may have the like judgment, without serving any other residuary devisee, or heir.

82. One cestui que trust, under an instrument, may have a judgment for the execution of the trusts of the instrument, without serving the other cestuis que trustent.

83. In actions for the protection of property, and in cases in the nature of waste, one person may sue on behalf of himself and of all persons having the same interest.

84. An executor, administrator, or trustee, may obtain a judgment against any one legatee, next of kin or cestui que trust, for the administration of the estate or the execution of the trusts.

85. The Court may require any other person to be made a party to an action to which Rules 79 to 84 apply, and may give the conduct of the action to such party as it deems proper; and may make such order as it deems just for placing the plaintiff on the record on the same footing in regard to costs as other persons having a common interest with him in the matter in question.

86. Where a reference is directed the persons who, but for Rules 79 to 84, would have been necessary parties, shall be served with an office-copy of the judgment (unless the Court or Master dispenses with such service) indorsed with a notice according to Form No. 38, and after such service they shall be bound by the proceedings in the same manner as if they had been originally made parties; and upon notice to the plaintiff they may at their own risk as to costs require notice to be given them to enable them to attend the proceedings under the judgment. Any person so served may apply to the Court to add to, vary, or set aside the judgment within ten days from the date of such service.

87. In administration proceedings no person other than the executor or administrator shall, unless by leave, be entitled to appear on the claim of any person against the estate of the deceased.

88. An assignee of a chose in action may sue in respect thereof without making the assignor a party. (See R.S.O. 1937, c. 152, s. 52.)

89. The Court, if it thinks fit, may pronounce a judgment saving the rights of all persons not parties.

90. Where it appears that a deceased person who was interested in the matters in question has no personal representative, the Court may either proceed in the absence of any person representing his estate or may appoint some person to represent the estate for all the purposes of the action or other proceeding, on such notice as may seem proper, notwithstanding that the estate in question may have a substantial interest in the matters, or that there may be active duties to be performed by the person so appointed, or that he may represent interests adverse to the plaintiff, or that administration of the estate whereof representation is sought is claimed; and the order so made and any orders consequent thereon, shall bind the estate of such deceased person, in the same manner as if a duly appointed personal representative of such person had been a party to the action or proceeding.

Infants and Mentally Incompetent Persons.

91. An infant may sue by his next friend; and may defend by his guardian appointed for that purpose, or by the Official Guardian, as the case may be.

92. Where an infant defendant is not represented by the Official Guardian, a guardian may be appointed for him by the Court.

93. A person desirous of appointing a guardian for himself other than the Official Guardian to defend an action or matter, may go before a Judge with the proposed guardian. He must satisfy the Judge by affidavit that the proposed guardian is a fit person, and has no adverse interest; and the Judge may examine the proposed guardian, or the person making the affidavit, viva voce, or require further evidence to be adduced until he is satisfied of the propriety of the appointment.

94. A mentally incompetent person (not so found by inquisition or judicial declaration) may sue by his next friend, and may defend by his guardian.

95.—(1) Where no appearance has been entered to a writ of summons for a defendant who is a mentally incompetent person not so found, the plaintiff may apply for an order that a guardian of such defendant be appointed, by whom he may appear and defend.

(2) No such order shall be made unless it appears that the writ was duly served, and that notice of the application was, after the expiration of the time allowed for appearance, and at least six clear days before the day in the notice named for hearing the application, served upon, or left at the dwelling-house of, the person with whom the defendant resides, or under whose care he is at the time of serving such notice.

(3) The Official Guardian shall be appointed, unless for good reason it is otherwise directed.

(4) Where the mentally incompetent person is confined in a public hospital the Public Trustee shall be appointed unless otherwise ordered.

96. Where a mentally incompetent person not so found by inquisition or judicial declaration is served with an office copy of a judgment or order or is made a party after judgment, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed for him after the like notice.

97. A mentally incompetent person who has been so found may sue or defend by his committee.

98. A person who has been declared incapable under section 36 of The Mental Incompetency Act, R.S.O. 1937, c. 110, shall be represented by any person who may be authorized under the provisions of that Act.

99. Unless otherwise ordered, before the name of any person is used as next friend or as relator, such person shall sign a written authority to the solicitor for that purpose, and the authority shall be filed in the office in which the cause or matter is commenced.

99A. An action against a mentally incompetent person confined in a public hospital may be stayed upon an application made by the Public Trustee if it appears to the Judge that the stay will work no injustice and will tend to facilitate the advantageous realization of the mentally incompetent person's estate.

Partners, etc.

100. Any two or more persons (whether British subjects or not and whether residing within or without Ontario) claiming or being liable as partners, and carrying on business within Ontario, may sue or be sued in the name of the firm of which such persons were co-partners at the time of the accruing of the cause of action.

101. Where persons are sued as partners in the name of the firm the writ shall be served either upon any one or more of the partners, or at the principal place within Ontario of the business of the partnership, upon any person having the control or management of the partnership business there; and such service shall be deemed good service upon the firm whether any of the members thereof are without Ontario or not, but in the case of a partnership which has been dissolved to the knowledge of the plaintiff before action, the writ of summons shall be served upon every person within Ontario sought to be made liable. Every person so served shall be informed by notice in writing given at the time of service whether he is served as a partner or as a person having the control or management of the partnership business, or in both characters. In default of such notice the person served shall be deemed to be served as a partner.

102. Persons sued as partners in the name of the firm shall appear individually in their own names, but all subsequent proceedings shall continue in the name of the firm.

103. Where a writ is served upon a person as the person having the control or management of the partnership business an appearance by him shall not be necessary unless he is a member of the firm.

104. A person served as a partner may (1) enter an appearance under protest, denying that he is a partner, but such appearance shall not preclude the plaintiff from otherwise serving the firm and obtaining judgment against the firm in default of appearance if no partner has entered an appearance in the ordinary form; or (2) enter an appearance not only denying that he is a partner, but also disputing the plaintiff's claim.

105.—(1) Where a judgment or order is obtained against a firm, execution may issue against the property of,—

(a) The partnership;

(b) Any person who has by his appearance or notice, under Rule 14 or pleading, admitted that he is, or who has been adjudged, to be a partner;

(c) Any person who has been served as a partner with the writ of summons and has failed to appear.

(2) If the party who has obtained the judgment or order claims to be entitled to issue execution against any other person as being a member of the firm, he may apply for leave so to do; and the Court may give such leave if the liability be not disputed, or, if disputed, after such liability has been determined in such manner as the Court may direct.

106. A judgment against a firm in the firm name shall not release, render liable or affect any member thereof who was out of Ontario when the writ was issued and who has not appeared thereto, unless he has been served either within Ontario or in accordance with the Rules respecting service out of Ontario, but this provision shall not prevent the enforcement of the judgment against partnership property.

107. Rules 100 to 106 shall apply to actions between a firm and one or more of the members and to actions between firms having one or more members in common, if the firm or firms carry on business within Ontario, but execution shall not issue in such actions without leave, and on application for leave, all such accounts and inquiries may be ordered and directions given as may seem just.

108.—(1) Any person (whether a British subject or not, and whether residing within or without Ontario) carrying on business within Ontario in a name or style other than his own name, may be sued in such name or style.

(2) The writ may be served upon the person so carrying on the business if he be within Ontario, or at the place of business within Ontario (or if there are several such places, at the place within the county in which the cause of action arose), upon any person having the control or management of the business there.

(3) The person upon whom the writ is served shall be informed by notice in writing, given at the time of service, whether he is served as the person carrying on the business or as a person having the control or management of it, and in default of such notice he shall be deemed to be served as the person carrying on the business.

(4) The person so sued shall appear in his own name, but all subsequent proceedings shall continue in such name or style.

(5) A person served as the person carrying on the business may enter an appearance under protest denying that he is the person so carrying on the business, but such appearance shall not preclude the plaintiff from otherwise serving the person sued or from obtaining judgment in default of appearance in the ordinary form by the person so sued.

(6) Any judgment or order in the action may be enforced by execution against,—

(a) The property of the person so sued, used or employed in or in connection with the business.

(b) Any property of a person who by his appearance or by notice under Rule 14, has admitted that he is or has been adjudged to be the person carrying on the business, or has been served with the writ as the person carrying on the business and has failed to appear.

(7) When judgment has been signed for default of appearance and the writ has not been personally served upon the person whom the plaintiff alleges to be carrying on the business, the Court may give leave to issue execution against such person if his liability be not disputed, or, if disputed, after it has been determined in such manner as the Court may direct.

PLEADINGS.

General Provisions.

109.—(1) The plaintiff shall state the nature of his claim and the relief sought in a pleading to be called the Statement of Claim and may therein alter, modify, or extend his claim as indorsed upon the writ.

(2) When a defendant has not appeared and the statement of claim alters, modifies, or extends the claim as indorsed upon the writ, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to judgment on default of defence unless the statement of claim is served personally or in pursuance of an order for substitutional service.

NOTE—In all actions proceeding to trial pleadings are necessary, even though the writ has been specially indorsed and an affidavit of merits has been filed, unless an order has been made under Rule 60 for a trial without pleadings.

110. The plaintiff shall deliver his statement of claim within one month from the entering of appearance or at any time before appearance and where there is more than one defendant the statement of claim shall be delivered within a month from the last appearance or from the time when the last appearance should have been entered.

111. The defendant shall deliver his defence and counterclaim (if any) within ten days from the delivery of the Statement of Claim or from the time limited for appearance whichever shall be last.

112. Where a defendant sets up a counter-claim which raises questions between himself and the plaintiff and any other person he shall add a second style of cause in which he shall be described as "Plaintiff by Counter-claim" and the plaintiff and such other person shall be described as "Defendants by Counter-claim," and shall deliver his counter-claim to such of them as are parties to the action within the period limited for the defence and shall serve the same without delay upon such of them as are not parties to the action together with a summons according to Form No. 23, issued from the proper office and a copy of the statement of claim.

113. Any defendant to a counter-claim, shall within ten days after service thereof on him, deliver a defence thereto and the plaintiff by counter-claim may reply within ten days.

114. A defendant may set up by way of counter-claim, any right or claim whether the same sounds in damages or not.

115. A counter-claim shall be treated as an action, so as to enable the Court to pronounce a final judgment upon all matters set up therein.

116. Where a defendant does not dispute the plaintiff's claim, but sets up a counter-claim, the Court may stay proceedings respecting the claim until the counter-claim is disposed of.

117. Where a plaintiff does not dispute the defendant's counter-claim the Court may stay proceedings upon the counter-claim until the claim is disposed of.

118. A plaintiff shall deliver his reply, if any, within ten days after the defence or the last of the defences has been delivered.

119. No pleading subsequent to reply shall be delivered without leave.

120. As soon as either party has joined issue upon any pleading of the opposite party, or as soon as the time for delivering a reply or subsequent pleading has expired, the pleadings shall be deemed to be closed.

121. Where any party makes default in delivering a statement of defence to the statement of claim or to the counter-claim within the time limited therefor, in cases where judgment cannot be signed, the opposite party may, upon proof of the default, by praecipe to the officer with whom the pleadings are filed, require him to note the default, and thereafter no pleading by the party in default shall be received or filed without the leave of the Court. Until default is so noted the party in default may file his pleading.

122. Either party shall be entitled to raise by his pleadings any point of law, and by consent of the parties, or by leave of a Judge, the same may be set down for hearing at any time before the trial, otherwise it shall be disposed of at the trial.

123. Upon the determination of such point of law the Court may pronounce such judgment as may be deemed proper.

124. A Judge may order any pleading to be struck out on the ground that it discloses no reasonable cause of action or answer, and in any such case, or in case of the action or defence being shown to be frivolous or vexatious, may order the action to be stayed or dismissed, or judgment to be entered accordingly.

125. Where an issue is directed to be tried it shall, if the parties differ, be settled in chambers, and as soon as settled be filed in the office in which the proceedings are carried on, and thereafter the proceedings in the issue shall be carried on in the same manner as the proceedings in an action.

126.—(1) The parties to any cause may concur in stating questions of law arising, in the form of a special case for the opinion of the Court; and may agree that on the judgment of the Court being given in the affirmative or negative of the question or questions of law raised, certain specific relief may be awarded.

(2) Upon the argument of the case the whole contents of the documents referred to therein may be read, and the Court may draw from the facts and documents any inference, either of fact or law, as at a trial.

127. A plaintiff may, without leave, amend his statement of claim, including a claim specially indorsed on the writ, once, either before the statement of defence has been delivered, or after it has been delivered and before the expiration of the time limited for reply, and before replying.

128. Where a plaintiff has amended his statement of claim the opposite party shall plead thereto or amend his pleading within the time he then has to plead, or within ten days from the delivery of the amendment, whichever shall last expire, and in case the opposite party has pleaded before the delivery of the amendment and does not plead again or amend within the time above mentioned, he shall be deemed to rely on his original pleading in answer to such amendment.

129. Either party may amend his pleadings at any time on filing the written consent of the opposite party.

130. An amendment may be made by leave of the Court, or of the Judge at the trial, and such amendment shall be at once made on the face of the record.

131. A party who has obtained leave to amend shall make the amendment within the time limited by the order, or if no time is limited, within ten days from the date of the order.

132. A pleading may be amended by written alterations in the copies filed and served and by additions on paper to be interleaved therewith if necessary; unless the amendments are so numerous or of such a nature that making them in the copies filed and served would render the same difficult or inconvenient to read; in either of which cases the amendment shall be made by delivering a fresh copy of the pleading as amended.

133. Where a pleading is amended a memorandum shall be made in the margin stating the date of and authority for the amendment, and the amendment shall be written or underlined in ink of a different colour from that used in the original pleading.

134.—(1) The Court may, at any stage of the proceedings, order that the name of a plaintiff or defendant improperly joined be struck out, and that any person who ought to have been joined, or whose presence is necessary in order to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon the questions involved in the action, be added; or where an action has through a bona fide mistake been commenced in the name of the wrong person as plaintiff, or where it is doubtful whether it has been commenced in the name of the right plaintiff, the Court may order any person to be substituted or added as plaintiff.

(2) No person shall be added or substituted as a plaintiff, or as the next friend of a plaintiff, without his own consent in writing thereto to be filed.

(3) Parties added or substituted as defendants shall, unless otherwise ordered, be served with the amended writ of summons, and the proceedings as against them shall be deemed to have begun only at the time when they are added.

135. If a statement of claim has been delivered previously to a defendant being added, it shall be amended in such manner as the making of the new defendant a party may render desirable; and a copy of the amended statement of claim shall also be served on the new defendant.

136. The Court may order that any pleading, petition or affidavit, or any part of a pleading, petition or affidavit, which is scandalous, be taken off the file, or may direct the scandalous matter to be expunged.

137. Any pleading which may tend to prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the action may be struck out or amended.

138. A further and better statement of the nature of the claim or defence or further and better particulars of any matter stated in any pleading or special endorsement, may in all cases be ordered. (Form No. 65.)

GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING.

139. Every writ, pleading or other document, may be printed, typewritten, or written in whole or in part.

140. Every pleading shall be filed, and served upon all parties concerned therewith, and shall be marked on the face with the date of filing, and with the title of the action, the desciption of the pleading, and the name and place of business of the solicitor and agent (if any) of the party filing the same, or the name and address of the party filing the same if he does not act by a solicitor.

141. Pleadings shall contain a concise statement of the material facts upon which the party pleading relies, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved; dates, sums and numbers shall be expressed in figures.

142. Each party shall admit such of the material allegations contained in the pleading of the opposite party as are true, and a defendant shall not deny generally the allegations contained in the statement of claim but shall set forth the facts upon which he relies even though this may involve the assertion of a negative.

143. A defendant to an action or counter-claim shall raise all matters which show the action or counter-claim not to be maintainable, or that the transaction is either void or voidable in point of law, and all such grounds of defence as if not raised would be likely to take the opposite party by surprise, or would raise issues of fact not arising out of the preceding pleadings, as for instance, fraud, the Statute of Limitations, release, payment, performance, facts showing illegality either by statute or common law, or the Statute of Frauds.

144. Save as otherwise provided, the silence of a pleading as to any allegation contained in the previous pleading of the opposite party shall not be construed as an admission of the truth of such allegation.

145. Every statement of claim and counter-claim shall state specifically the relief claimed, either simply or in the alternative, and may also ask for general relief. When damages are claimed the amount shall be named.

146. Any condition precedent, the performance or occurrence of which is intended to be contested, shall be distinctly specified in his pleading by the party relying thereon, and an averment of the performance or occurrence of all conditions precedent necessary for the case by the plaintiff or defendant shall be implied in his pleading.

147. Where the contents of any document are material, it shall be sufficient in any pleading to state the effect thereof as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof.

148. Where it is material to allege malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge or other condition of the mind of any person, it shall be sufficient to allege the same as a fact, without setting out the circumstances from which the same is to be inferred.

149. Where it is material to allege notice to a person of any fact, matter or thing, it shall be sufficient to allege such notice as a fact unless the form or precise terms of the notice is or are material.

150. Where a contract or relation between persons does not arise from an express agreement, but it is to be implied from a series of letters or conversations, or otherwise from a number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege the contract or relation as a fact.

151. Neither party need in any pleading allege any matter of fact which the law presumes in his favour, or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the other side.

E.G.—Consideration for a bill of exchange.]

152. If either party wishes to deny the alleged constitution of any partnership, or the right of any other party to claim as executor, or as trustee, or as assignee in insolvency, or in any representative or other alleged capacity, he shall deny the same specifically, or the same will be taken to be admitted.

153. Unless the incorporation of a corporate party is specifically denied, it shall not be necessary to prove it.

154. Where a contract is alleged, a denial of the contract shall be construed only as a denial of the making of the contract in fact, and not of its legality or its sufficiency in law, whether with reference to the Statute of Frauds or otherwise.

155. A defendant in an action for the recovery of land who is in possession by himself or his tenant need not plead his title, unless his defence depends on an equitable estate or right, or he claims relief upon any equitable ground against any right or title asserted by the plaintiff; but, except in the cases hereinbefore mentioned, it shall be sufficient to state by way of defence that he is so in possession, and he may rely upon any ground of defence which he can prove.

156. Where a defendant by virtue of any statute enabling him so to do pleads not guilty by statute he shall in his defence refer to the statute giving the right so to plead, and also to all statutes upon which he relies, giving chapter and section in every such reference, and if so required shall deliver particulars of his defence.

157. A subsequent pleading shall not raise any new ground of claim or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party pleading the same.

158. In actions for libel or slander, in which the defendant does not by his defence assert the truth of the statement complained of, he shall not be entitled on the trial without the leave of the presiding Judge to give evidence in chief, with a view to mitigation of damages, as to the circumstances under which the libel or slander was published, or as to the character of the plaintiff, unless in his pleading or by notice given seven days at least before the trial he furnishes particulars in writing to the plaintiff of the matters as to which he intends to give evidence.

159. A ground of defence or counter-claim which has arisen after action, but before the defendant has, delivered his statement of defence, may be pleaded either alone or with other grounds of defence.

160. If, after a counter-claim has been delivered a ground of defence thereto arises it may be pleaded in answer thereto.

161. Where a ground of defence or counter-claim arises after the delivery of the statement of defence or counter-claim, the defendant may within ten days after such ground of defence or counter-claim has arisen, deliver a further defence or counter-claim, setting forth the same, or introduce the same by amendment into his statement of defence or counter-claim.

162. Where a ground of defence to any counter-claim arises after the delivery of the defence thereto the defendant to the counter-claim may within ten days after such ground of defence has arisen, deliver a further pleading setting forth the same, or may set up such new ground of defence by amendment.

163. Any such amendment may be made on praecipe.

164. Where any defendant pleads any ground of defence or counter-claim which has arisen after the commencement of the action, the plaintiff may deliver a confession of such defence; and he may thereupon sign judgment for his costs up to the time of the pleading of such defence unless otherwise ordered. (Forms Nos. 26 and 95.)

THIRD-PARTY PROCEDURE.

165.—(1) Where a defendant claims to be entitled to contribution or indemnity from or any other relief over against any person not a party to the action, hereinafter called a third party, he may issue a notice in accordance with Form No. 22 (hereinafter called the third party notice) which shall be sealed in the same manner as the writ of summons, and shall state the nature and grounds of the claim.

(2) A copy of the notice shall be filed, and a copy together with a copy of the statement of claim or, if there be no statement of claim, of the writ, shall be served on the third party within the time limited for the delivery of the defence.

166. If a third party desires to dispute the plaintiff's claim in the action as against the defendant or his own liability to the defendant, he shall enter an appearance within ten days from the service of the notice, and in default of his so doing he shall be deemed to admit the validity of any judgment obtained (whether by consent or otherwise) against such defendant, and his own liability to contribute or indemnify, claimed in the third party notice.

167. Where the third party makes default in entering an appearance, the defendant giving the notice, in case he suffers judgment by default, shall be entitled at any time to move for judgment against the third party to the extent of the contribution, indemnity or relief over claimed in the third party notice.

168. Where a third party makes default in entering an appearance, if the action is tried and results in favour of the plaintiff, the Judge who tries the action may, at or after the trial, direct such judgment as the nature of the case may require to be entered for the defendant giving the notice against the third party.

169. Where the third party appears pursuant to the third party notice, the defendant giving the notice may apply for directions, and the Court may order the question of liability, as between the third party and the defendant giving the notice, to be tried in such manner at or after the trial of the action as may seem proper; and may give the third party liberty to defend the action, upon such terms as may be just, or to appear at the trial and take part therein, and generally may order such proceedings to be taken and give such directions as may appear proper for having the question between the defendant and the third party most conveniently determined, and as to the mode and extent in or to which the third party shall be bound or made liable by the judgment in the action.

170. Where a defendant claims to be entitled to contribution or indemnity from or relief over against any other defendant, a notice may be issued and the same procedure shall be adopted as if such last-mentioned defendant were a third party, except that a copy of the statement of claim or writ need not be served with the third party notice, and service may be effected upon the solicitor in the action, if any, of the defendant sought to be made liable as a third party.

171. A plaintiff is not to be prejudiced or unnecessarily delayed by reason of questions between the defendant and the third party in which he is not concerned; and such directions shall be given and terms imposed as may be necessary to prevent delay of the plaintiff, where it can be done without injustice to the defendants and third party.

TIME AND VACATIONS.

172. Where a period of less than six days is prescribed holidays shall not be reckoned.

173.—(1) Where a number of days not expressed to be clear days is prescribed the same shall be reckoned exclusively of the first day and inclusively of the last day.

(2) Where the days are expressed to be clear days, or where the term "at least" is added, both days shall be excluded.

174. Where the time for doing any act or taking any proceeding expires on a holiday the act or proceeding may be done or taken on the next juridical day.

175. Any time prescribed may be enlarged or abridged by consent in writing, without order.

176. The Court may from time to time enlarge or abridge the time prescribed by the Rules, or by an order, for doing any act or taking any proceeding, and this power may be exercised although the application is not made until after the expiration of the time prescribed.

177.—(1) The Vacations shall be:

(a) The Long Vacation consisting of the months of July and August.

(b) The Christmas Vacation consisting of the period from the 24th day of December to the 6th day of the following January, both days inclusive.

(2) Office hours during vacation shall be from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. except on Saturday when the offices shall close at noon.

178. An examination shall not be held nor shall pleadings be delivered or amended in the Long Vacation, except by consent or by direction of the Court, but when a writ is to be served out of the jurisdiction, and in Mechanics' Lien proceedings and in Matrimonial Causes, the statement of claim may be delivered in vacation.

179. Unless otherwise directed by the Court, the time of the Long Vacation, or of the Christmas Vacation, shall not be reckoned in the computation of the times appointed or allowed by these Rules for delivering or amending any pleading, save the defence in matrimonial causes and in actions for alimony, or in the times allowed for the following purposes:

(a) Appeals to a Judge in Chambers;

(b) Reports becoming absolute, save in undefended mortgage actions;

(c) Moving to discharge an order adding a party, save an order adding a subsequent encumbrancer in a mortgage action;

(d) Moving to add to, vary, or set aside a judgment by a party served therewith;

(e) Doing an act or taking a proceeding in appealing to the Court of Appeal.

180. One or more of the Judges shall be selected for the hearing in Toronto during Long and Christmas Vacations of all such applications as may require to be heard promptly.

181. During Long Vacation all applications within the jurisdiction of the Master which require to be heard immediately or promptly shall be heard by one of the following officers, viz., the Master, the Assistant Masters, and the Registrars, who shall arrange among themselves before the commencement of each Long Vacation on what days and for what period each shall act; and in the absence of such arrangement the duty shall devolve upon them in rotation, beginning with the junior officer in order of appointment, and they shall sit at least one day in each week.

182. The praecipe for any cheque to be issued during the Long Vacation shall be lodged in the Accountant's Office on or before the 20th day of July, unless otherwise directed by a Judge.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Effect of Non-compliance and Errors.

183. A proceeding shall not be defeated by any formal objection, but all necessary amendments shall be made, upon proper terms as to costs and otherwise, to secure the advancement of justice, the determining the real matter in dispute, and the giving of judgment according to the very right and justice of the case.

184. Non-compliance with the Rules shall not render the writ or any act or proceeding void, but the same may be set aside, either wholly or in part, as irregular, or may be amended, or otherwise dealt with, as may seem just.

185. An application to set aside any proceeding for irregularity shall be made within a reasonable time, and shall not be allowed if the party applying has taken a fresh step after knowledge of the irregularity.

186. Where an amendment is directed or allowed at the trial, it shall not be necessary to issue an order therefor. The amendment, unless otherwise directed, shall at once be made on the record.

187. Where an amendment of any record of the Court or document filed, other than a pleading, is directed, no physical alteration of the record or document shall be made, but a note shall be made, in the margin or other convenient place, of the amendment directed.

Form of Documents, Size of Paper, etc.

188.—(1) All pleadings, affidavits, judgments, orders and other documents shall be printed, typewritten, or written in a clear and legible manner, with a margin upon the left-hand side, upon foolscap paper of good quality.

(2) When documents are printed, pica type, leaded, shall be used.

(3) Every document filed shall be endorsed with the title of the action or matter, with the nature of the document and the name of the solicitor preparing or filing it.

189. No notice shall be given orally.

190.—(1) In all proceedings in an action, except the writ of summons, pleadings, judgments and reports, the following short style of cause shall be sufficient:

"Between John Smith and others,—Plaintiffs, and Richard Roe and others,—Defendants."

(2) In case of proceedings which it has been the practice to entitle more shortly thus: "Smith v. Roe," such practice shall continue.

(3) In proceedings under any particular Act (e.g., The Mechanics' Lien Act), the style of cause shall be "In the matter of—(naming the statute), "Between A.B., Plaintiff, and C.D., Defendant" (or "A.B., Applicant" and C.D. Respondent").

Copies and Service of Papers.

191. Where service of affidavits and other documents is required, true copies, legibly written, typewritten, or printed, are to be served.

192. Where an office copy of an order or judgment is directed to be served it shall be certified by the officer in whose office the order or judgment is entered.

193. A party requiring a copy of any affidavit, exhibit, or document not directed to be served shall serve a demand for the same and a copy shall be served with all convenient speed.

194. A party entitled to copies of or extracts from any document in possession of another party, may be directed to pay for such copy at the rate of 10 cents per folio, if the request for such copy is deemed unreasonable, or the solicitor of the party producing the document shall be at liberty to give notice that the party requiring such copy is at liberty at some reasonable time and place himself to make it, in which case the party producing shall not be entitled to any fee in respect thereof.

195. A book to be called "The Toronto Solicitors' and Agents' Book," shall be kept in the Registrar's office to be there inspected by any party or solicitor or his clerk without fee; and every solicitor having an office or carrying on his business within the said city, shall cause to be entered in such book (in alphabetical order) his name and place of business or some other proper place within the city where he may be served, and as often as any such solicitor changes his place of business or the place where he may be so served as aforesaid, he shall cause to be made the like entry thereof in the said book.

196. Every other practising solicitor shall cause to be entered in the said book (in alphabetical order) his name and place of business, and also in an opposite column the name of some solicitor having an office and carrying on business in the city of Toronto as his agent.

197. Every Deputy or Local Registrar shall keep in his office a book to be called "The County Solicitors' and Agents' Book," in which each solicitor residing within the County elsewhere than in the County Town, and not having an office there, shall specify the name of an agent, being a solicitor of the Supreme Court, and having an office in such County Town, as his agent with respect to business carried on in the local offices in the said town.

198. Admissions and acceptances of the service of an order, notice of motion or other paper, upon the opposite solicitor, need not be verified by affidavit.

199.—(1) Documents which do not require personal service shall be served upon the solicitor of the party to be served or his agent entered in the Toronto or County "Solicitors' and Agents' Book."

(2) Such service may be made by leaving the document to be served with any clerk in the solicitor's or agent's office.

(3) Where a solicitor has not caused an entry to be made, as required by Rules 195 and 197, he may be served by posting up a copy of the document in the Registrar's office or in the Office of the Local Registrar of the county in which he resides.

200.—(1) Where a party sues or defends in person and no address for service of such party is given, or where a defendant served with a writ of summons or notice in lieu thereof has not appeared thereto, no document, which does not require personal service, need be served unless the Court otherwise directs.

(2) If an address for service is given, then all documents shall be sufficiently served upon such party if left for him with any adult person appearing to be in charge of the premises at such address.

(3) In case no such adult person can be found at such address, then the document shall be sufficiently served if forwarded by registered mail prepaid to the party to be served at the address given.

201. Where at the time of attendance to serve any document, the office of the solicitor for the party upon whom the service is sought to be made is closed or no one is in attendance therein for receiving documents served, service of the document may be effected by mailing the same, at any time during the same day, addressed to the solicitor, at his office, by registered post, and the service shall be deemed to have been effected at the time of the attendance for that purpose at the office of the solicitor.

202. Service upon an execution creditor may be effected by serving the solicitor issuing the execution.

203. It shall not be necessary to regular service that the original document shall be shown, unless sight thereof is demanded.

204. Service shall, unless otherwise ordered, be effected during vacation and on Saturdays before one o'clock in the afternoon, and on other days before the hour of four o'clock in the afternoon, and service effected after those hours shall be deemed to have been made on the next juridicial day.

MOTIONS IN COURT AND CHAMBERS.

205. Any power conferred upon the Court by any statute or by law may be exercised by a Judge sitting in Court, and, when so provided by the Rules, by a Judge in Chambers, or the Master, or a Local Judge or a Local Master in Chambers, or any Master or Referee to whom any cause or matter is referred.

206. Any power conferred upon the Court may be exercised upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as may be deemed just.

207. The following applications shall be disposed of in Chambers:

1. For the sale, lease or mortgaging of the estates of infants.
2. As to the custody, guardianship, maintenance, and advancement of infants.
3. For administration or partition without action.
4. Relating to the conduct of actions or matters.
5. For the payment into Court of moneys under The Trustee Act.
6. To vacate certificates of lis pendens.
7. Appeals from the Master in Chambers and Local Judge.
8. Motions for judgment under Rules 57 to 62.

8*a*. An order upon consent dismissing an action either with or without costs.

9. Applications under The Mental Incompetency Act.
10. Applications for and on the return of a writ of Habeas Corpus.
11. Motions for mandamus, prohibition, or interpleader.
12. Motions to wind up companies under the Dominion and Ontario Acts.
13. Motions for payment of money out of Court.
14. Originating motions under Rule 600, clauses (c), (d), (f) and (i).
15. Motions under any statute which authorizes an application to a Judge.

208. The Master is empowered and required to dispose of all applications properly made in Chambers save in respect to the following matters:

1. Matters relating to criminal proceedings, or the liberty of the subject.
2. Appeals and applications in the nature of Appeals.
3. Extending the time for appealing to the Court of Appeal. (See Rule 498).
4. Applications for arrest.
5. Proceedings as to mentally incompetent persons.
6. Originating notices other than applications for administration, partition or interpleader.
7. Applications as to the custody, maintenance or guardianship of infants, or the sale, lease, mortgage of or dealing with infants' estates or settled estates.
8. Opposed applications for judgment for partition or administration.
9. Applications for Prohibition or Mandamus.
10. The payment of money out of Court, or dispensing with payment of money into Court, in administration and partition matters.
11. Allowing taxed costs in lieu of commission under the provisions of Rule 653.
12. Striking out a jury notice except for irregularity.
13. Any matter which is expressly required to be done by a Judge.
14. The removal of causes from Inferior Courts.
15. The making of orders for references under The Arbitration Act.
16. Staying proceedings after verdict, or judgment at a trial.

Local Judges and Local Masters.

209. A Local Judge and a Local Master who does not practise as a Barrister or Solicitor or take out a certificate entitling him to practise shall, in all causes and matters in his county and in interpleader proceedings where the goods in respect of which interpleader is sought are situate in his county, have concurrent jurisdiction with, and the same power and authority, as the Master at Toronto.

210.— (1) A Local Judge shall, in actions brought in his county, possess the like powers as a Judge sitting in Court or Chambers with regard to:

(a) Motions for judgment in undefended actions.

(b) Motions to appoint receivers after judgment by way of equitable execution.

(c) Applications for leave to serve short notice of a motion to be made before a Judge sitting in Court or Chambers.

And where the solicitors for all parties reside in his county or agree that the same shall be heard before him any motion or application except:

(i) Applications for taxed or increased costs under Rule 653.

(ii) Motions for injunction, save as provided in Rule 211.

(iii) Motions to strike out a jury notice save for irregularity.

(2) Where an infant or mentally incompetent person is concerned the powers conferred by this Rule shall not be exercised without the consent of the Official Guardian, or of the committee or guardian of or the person authorized to act on behalf of the mentally incompetent person.

211.—(1) A Local Judge may in cases of emergency grant an ex-parte injunction in any action brought in his county upon proof to his satisfaction that the delay required for an application to a Judge is likely to involve a failure of justice, but such injunction shall not be for a longer period than eight days.

(2) If all parties interested consent, the Local Judge may hear any motion to continue, vary or dissolve the injunction.

212. Motions for partition or administration may be made before a Judge in Chambers or the local Judge of the County where the land (or if more than one parcel, any parcel) is situate or the testator or intestate died.

General Provisions as to Motions.

213. Any application in an action or proceeding shall be made by motion, and unless the nature of the application or the circumstances of the case render it impracticable notice of the motion shall be given to all parties affected by the order sought. (Forms Nos. 34 and 35.)

214. If on the hearing of a motion it appears that any person to whom notice has not been given ought to have had notice, the Court may either dismiss the motion or adjourn the hearing thereof in order that notice may be given.

215.—(1) Except where otherwise expressly provided unless leave is given there shall be at least two days between the service of a notice of motion in an action and the day for hearing.

(2) Unless leave is given there shall be at least seven days between the service of an originating notice and the day for hearing.

216. If satisfied that the delay necessary to give notice of motion might entail serious mischief, the Court may make an interim order ex parte.

217. A party affected by an ex-parte order, or any party who has failed to appear on an application through accident or mistake, or insufficient notice of the application, may move to rescind or vary the order before the Judge or officer who made the same, or any Judge or officer having jurisdiction, within four days from the time when the order comes to his notice.

218. Every notice of motion by way of appeal shall specify the grounds intended to be argued.

219. A notice of motion to set aside a proceeding for irregularity shall specify the irregularity complained of and the objections intended to be insisted on.

220. The Court may direct any application to be turned into a motion for judgment.

221. When upon an application for an interim injunction or upon any other motion it appears expedient to direct an early trial, the Court may make such order as may be deemed necessary to secure an early hearing, either at the place named for trial or such other place as may be convenient.

222. A party may, at any stage of an action, apply for such judgment or order as he may, upon any admissions of fact in the pleadings, or in the examination of any other party, be entitled to; and it shall not be necessary to wait for the determination of any other question between the parties; or he may so apply where the only evidence consists of documents and such affidavits as are necessary to prove their execution or identity without the necessity of any cross-examination, or where infants are concerned, and evidence is necessary so far only as they are concerned, for the purpose of proving facts which are not disputed.

223.—(1) The Court may adjourn for consideration in Chambers any motion or matter brought before it which should have been brought on in Chambers or which, though properly brought on in Court, may, in the opinion of the Court, be disposed of more conveniently in Chambers; and any motion or matter brought on in Chambers which should have been brought on in Court may be adjourned into Court.

(2) Any motion or matter improperly brought before the Master or a Local Judge may be adjourned by him before the Court or a Judge in Chambers.

(3) Any motion improperly made before the Court of Appeal may be adjourned before a Judge of the High Court and any motion that should have been made before the Court of Appeal made before a Judge of the High Court may be adjourned before the Court of Appeal.

224. Where an infant or a mentally incompetent person is a defendant or interested in a fund in Court, no order in any way affecting his interest shall be made without notice to his guardian ad litem or committee.

225.—(1) An attendance on a motion in Chambers, or on an appointment before a Master, Registrar, or other officer, for half an hour next immediately following the return thereof, shall be deemed a sufficient attendance, and no such motion shall be made or matter be proceeded with ex parte, before the expiry of such half-hour.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Rule the Taxing Officer at Toronto may proceed ex parte after the expiration of fifteen minutes from the time appointed.

226. Evidence upon a motion may be given by affidavit.

227. A person who has made an affidavit to be used upon a motion or at a trial or on a reference, may be cross-examined thereon, before any officer having jurisdiction in the county in which the witness resides, upon being served with a subpoena for that purpose.

228. Any party may by subpoena require the attendance of a witness to be examined, before any officer having jurisdiction in the county in which the witness resides, for the purpose of using his evidence upon any motion.

229. Witnesses may by leave of the Court be examined viva voce before the Court upon any motion

230. The Court may order the issue of a Writ of Habeas Corpus ad testificandum to issue directed to the sheriff, goaler, or other officer having the custody of any prisoner, to produce him for any examination authorized by these Rules or as a witness at a trial. (Form No. 53.)

231. Where money is directed to be paid into a Bank, the certificate of the cashier, manager, agent, or like officer of the Bank, of default in making such payment, shall be sufficient evidence of such default.

232.—(1) On all appeals, or hearings in the nature of appeals, and on all motions for a new trial, the Court or Judge appealed to shall have all the powers as to amendment and otherwise of the Court, Judge or officer appealed from, and full discretionary power to receive further evidence, either by affidavit, oral examination before the Court or Judge appealed to, or as may be directed.

(2) Such further evidence may be given without special leave as to matters which have occurred after the date of the judgment, order or decision from which the appeal is brought.

(3) Upon appeals from a judgment at the trial, such further evidence (save as mentioned in subsection (2)) shall be admitted on special grounds only, and not without leave of the Court.

233. Upon any motion the Court shall have power to direct the trial of an issue upon oral evidence and may enlarge the motion before the Judge at the trial of the issue.

234.—(1) A Judge shall sit in Chambers on Tuesday and Friday, and in Court on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday in each week, except in vacation, when a sitting shall be held on one day in each week to dispose of urgent business.

(2) All papers for use in the Court or Chambers at Toronto shall be filed in the Registrar's Office, and when no longer required all such papers and all papers forwarded for use on the motion shall be transmitted to the office in which the proceedings were commenced.

(3) Motions and other matters to be heard in Court, except ex parte applications, shall be set down for argument, in the Registrar's Office, at least on the day before the day of argument, and a list of the cases set down shall be posted on the notice board the day before the day for which the same are set down.

(4) All papers to be used on a motion to be heard by a Judge in Chambers shall be left with the Registrar on the day before that on which the motion is to be heard, and shall be marked with the name of the office where the proceedings were commenced.

(5) All documents sent from local offices to Toronto shall be sent to The Registrar's Office, Osgoode Hall, Toronto, postage or express charges prepaid, and the necessary return postage or express charge shall be transmitted therewith.

(6) Unless otherwise directed by the Judge, ex parte and unopposed motions in Chambers shall be heard before contested motions and appeals.

239. Sittings shall be held at Ottawa and London on at least one day in each week, except during vacation; and all proceedings in any action or matter which may be heard before a Judge may be heard and determined at such sittings:

(a) Where the motion is ex parte;

(b) Where the solicitors for all parties reside in the county in which the sittings are held;

(c) Where such solicitors who do not so reside consent to the proceeding being heard at such sittings, or register their names in the book to be kept as hereinafter provided; or

(d) Where a Judge directs any proceedings to be heard at such sittings.

(e) When a notice of motion in which Ottawa is named as the place of hearing is served at least four clear days before the return day thereof upon a solicitor residing in any one of the following Counties, namely: Lanark, Leeds and Grenville, Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, Russell, Renfrew or Prescott, and the solicitor on whom it is served does not, by notice, letter or telegram delivered to the solicitor or party moving within forty-eight hours after the service of the notice of motion, give notice that he objects to the hearing at Ottawa, he shall, unless a Judge otherwise directs, be deemed to have given the consent specified in clause (c) of this Rule.

(f) When a notice of motion in which London is named as the place of hearing is served at least four clear days before the return day thereof upon a solicitor residing in any one of the following Counties, namely: Lambton, Elgin, Oxford or Perth, and the solicitor on whom it it served does not by notice, letter or telegram delivered to the solicitor or party moving within forty-eight hours after the service of the notice of motion, give notice that he objects to the hearing at London, he shall, unless a Judge otherwise directs, be deemed to have given the consent specified in clause (c) of this Rule.

240. The Deputy Clerk of the Crown at London, and the Local Registrar at Ottawa shall act as registrar and clerk of the Court.

241. All proceedings to be brought on at any such sittings shall be entered for that purpose with the Clerk of the Court on or previously to the day next but one before the day appointed for the sittings; and it shall be the duty of the Clerk immediately after the time for entry has expired to telegraph the Registrar at Toronto, advising him what business has been so entered, and the Registrar shall forthwith inform the Judge appointed to attend at such sittings; and if no business has been so entered it shall not be necessary for any Judge to attend.

242. Where the Judge appointed is unable to attend, such sittings may be presided over by any other Judge or by a Judge of any County Court, upon such Judge of a County Court being requested by a Judge to attend for that purpose.

243.—(1) Any solicitor may file with the Clerk of the Court at the place of such sittings a request to the effect following:—

I, desire to be registered as consenting to the hearing and disposal at the sittings at Ottawa (or London as the case may be) of all proceedings in which I may be acting as solicitor.

(2) A book to be called "The Consent Register," which shall be open to inspection by any solicitor or his clerk without fee, shall be kept by the Deputy Clerk of the Crown at London and the Local Registrar at Ottawa respectively, wherein shall be recorded such requests and the names of the local agents (if any) of the solicitors filing the request.

(3) A solicitor who files such request may at any time withdraw the same by giving to the same officer notice in writing to that effect, and the Deputy Clerk or Local Registrar upon receiving such notice shall forthwith make any entry thereof in the said book.

244.—(1) At any sittings appointed for the trial of actions any motion which may be made before a Judge in Court or in Chambers may be made if,—

(a) The solicitors for all parties consent; or

(b) The matter in controversy arose in the county; or

(c) The party opposing or showing cause or his solicitor resides in the county;

(d) The application relates to any action entered for trial at the sittings;

(e) The application is to make absolute a judgment nisi in a matrimonial cause pronounced in the County.

(2) Such motion shall be set down two days before the sittings unless the Judge presiding permits it to be set down later.

TRIALS.

245. Subject to any special statutory provisions the place of trial of an action shall be regulated as follows:

(a) The plaintiff shall, in his statement of claim, name the county town at which he proposes that the action shall be tried;

(b) Where the cause of action arose and the parties reside in the same county the place to be named shall be the county town of that county;

(c) Save in mortgage actions, where possession of land is claimed, the place to be named shall be the county town of the county in which the land is situate;

(d) In matrimonial causes, if the plaintiff is resident in Ontario, the place to be named shall be the county town of the county in which the plaintiff resides.

(e) The action shall be tried at the place so named, unless otherwise ordered upon the application of either party.

246. After the close of the pleadings either party may give notice of trial (Form No. 32).

247. Where interlocutory judgment has been signed against any defendant for default of appearance or pleading, notice of assessment of damages shall be given to him by personal service unless substituted service is permitted, and proof of service shall be filed when the action is set down.

248. Except in actions to be tried at Toronto, without a jury,—

(a) Notice of trial or of assessment of damages shall be served ten days before the day fixed for the commencement of the sittings and before entering an action for trial;

(b) After notice of trial is given, either party may enter the action for trial, and if both parties enter the action for trial at the same sittings it shall be tried in the order of the plaintiff's entry;

(c) Actions shall be entered for trial not later than the sixth day before the commencement of the sittings; but a Judge may permit any action in which notice of trial or of assessment of damages has been duly served to be entered after the time above limited;

(d) An action which is to be tried without a jury may be entered for trial at any sittings appointed for the place named for the trial of such action;

(e) Actions to be tried at Toronto with a Jury and which are not tried or disposed of at the sittings at which they are entered and which are entered for trial at a subsequent sittings after a fresh notice of trial pursuant to Rule 252 shall be placed at the head of the list in the order in which they were originally entered and before any cases first entered for such subsequent sittings.

249.—(1) The party entering an action for trial shall, at the time of entry (or, in the cases to which Rule 250 applies, at or before the time when the notice of trial is to be filed), deposit a record containing a certified copy of the pleadings and particulars and of any order containing directions respecting the trial.

(2) Such record shall contain the full style of cause, and shall show the date when the writ was issued, and shall give the names of the solicitors for the several parties, and shall show that judgment has been signed or the pleadings have been noted as closed as against any parties in default.

NOTE—Where there is a jury notice, a copy shall be attached to the record.—The Judicature Act, R.S.O. 1937, c. 100, s. 55 (2).

250.—(1) Actions in the Supreme Court to be tried at Toronto without a jury may be set down for trial by either party immediately after the close of the pleadings.

(2) Notice of trial or assessment of damages (Form No. 33) shall be given, by the party setting down the action within two days thereafter, and he shall within four days after so setting down the action, file the notice of trial or of assessment of damages and proof of the service thereof, with the officer with whom the action was set down, except in undefended Matrimonial Causes when the times hereinbefore stated shall be ten days and twenty days respectively.

(3) Where default is made in filing the notice of trial, any party who has been served therewith may within four days after such default, file in like manner the notice of trial served on him and proof of the service thereof.

(4) In undefended matrimonial causes when a notice of trial is filed the action shall forthwith be placed upon the list of cases for trial. In other cases when a notice of trial is filed the action shall be placed upon the list of cases for trial, upon the expiration of three weeks from the date of setting down.

(5) If two or more parties have entered the action for trial, it shall be tried in the order of the first entry.

(6) In actions in the County Court of the County of York to be tried without a jury, notice of trial shall be given and the action entered for trial in accordance with the provisions of Rule 248, but if the action is not tried or disposed of at the sittings for which it is entered for trial it shall be placed upon the list for the next sittings, and it shall not be necessary to give fresh notice of trial or re-enter the action notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 252.

251. An action may be withdrawn from trial, upon consent.

252. Actions not tried or disposed of after being once entered for trial shall not, except in the case of actions entered for trial without a jury at Toronto be heard at any subsequent sittings unless a fresh notice of trial is given and the action has been again set down, but no fee shall be payable for such setting down.

253. If, when an action is called on for trial, the defendant appears, and the plaintiff does not, the defendant shall be entitled to judgment dismissing the action, and if he has a counter-claim may prove such claim.

254. The Judge at the trial shall, at the request of either party, order a witness to be excluded from the court until he is called to give evidence, and also, if the Judge deems it expedient, a party intending to give evidence; or he may require such party to be examined before the other witnesses on his behalf, and the judge may, in his discretion, exclude the testimony of any witness or party who does not conform to such order.

255. The Judge may in all cases disallow any question put to a witness which may appear to the Judge to be vexatious and not relevant to any matter proper to be enquired into at the trial.

256.—(1) At the trial, the addresses to the jury shall be regulated as follows,—

(a) At the conclusion of the case of the party who begins, if the opposite party states his intention to be not to adduce evidence, and he has not adduced evidence, the party who begins shall have the right to address the jury for the purpose of summing up the evidence, and the opposite party shall have the right to reply;

(b) If the opposite party does not state his intention to be not to adduce evidence, or if he has adduced evidence, he shall have the right to open his case, and (after the conclusion of such opening), to adduce such evidence as he thinks fit, and when all the evidence is concluded, to sum up the evidence, and the party who begins shall have the right to reply;

(2) Where a defendant claims a remedy over against a co-defendant, he shall have the right to address the jury after the co-defendant.

(3) Where a party is represented by counsel, the right conferred by this Rule shall be exercized by his counsel.

257. Where, through accident or mistake or other cause, a party omits or fails to prove some fact material to his case, the Judge may proceed with the trial, subject to such fact being afterwards proved at such time as the Judge shall direct; and, if the case is being tried by a jury, the Judge may direct the jury to find a verdict as if such fact had been proved, and the verdict shall take effect on such fact being afterwards proved as directed; and if not so proved, judgment shall be entered for the opposite party, unless the Judge otherwise directs, but this Rule shall not apply to an action for defamation.

258. Where equitable issues are raised by the pleadings, they shall, unless the trial Judge otherwise directs, be tried, and the damages, if any, incidental thereto, assessed by the Judge without the intervention of a jury.

259. Where both legal and equitable issues are raised, and notice for a jury has been given, the action shall be entered for trial at the jury sittings, and such issues shall be tried at the same time, unless the Judge presiding at the trial otherwise directs.

260. Damages in respect of any continuing cause of action shall be assessed down to the time of the assessment.

261. A party shall not be entitled to judgment at the trial or on motion on the ground of his pleading being true, if the facts proved are not sufficient in point of law to entitle him to judgment.

262. If in an action to recover land the plaintiff is, at the time of the service of the writ, entitled to possession, but his right afterwards expires, he may by leave discontinue the action, and the costs shall be in the discretion of the Court.

263.—(1) Exhibits shall be marked and numbered in accordance with Form No. 128, and the Registrar attending the trial shall, at the conclusion thereof, make a list of the exhibits, giving a description of each exhibit, and stating by whom it was put in. (Form No. 129.) The exhibits of each party shall be classified separately in such list.

(2) The exhibits shall remain in Court until judgment is given and during any stay of proceedings, and thereafter shall be delivered out, without order, upon the application of either party upon notice to the other, unless an appeal is taken, when the exhibits shall be retained until the appeal is disposed of.

264. Where exhibits have not been applied for within two years from the date of a trial the officer in whose custody they are, may notify the solicitors for the parties that unless they are applied for in three months they will be destroyed, and unless such exhibits are applied for within that period he may by leave of a Judge destroy them.

265. The verdict and judgment shall be indorsed on the Record, and shall also be recorded by the Registrar or officer acting as clerk at the sittings in a book to be kept for recording the proceedings thereat.

266. The Judge by whom any cause or matter is tried with or without a jury, and the Court before which any cause or matter is brought by way of appeal, may inspect any property or thing concerning which any question arises therein, and where the sanity of a party is in question, may examine him for the purpose of determining his sanity.

267. A view by the jury may be ordered by the Judge presiding at the trial.

268.—(1) The Court may obtain the assistance of merchants, engineers, accountants, actuaries, or scientific persons, in such way as it thinks fit, the better to enable it to determine any matter of fact in question in any cause or proceeding, and may act on the certificate of such persons.

(2) The Court may fix the remuneration of any such person and may direct payment thereof by any of the parties.

(3) Unless all parties are sui juris and consent, the powers conferred by this Rule shall only be exercised by or by leave of a Judge.

EVIDENCE.

269. The witnesses at the trial of an action or an assessment of damages shall be examined vivâ voce and in open Court, but a Judge may at any time, for sufficient reason, order that any particular fact or facts may be proved by affidavit, or that the affidavit of any witness may be read at the trial, on such conditions as he may deem just, or that any witness whose attendance ought for some sufficient cause to be dispensed with, be examined before an examiner; but where the other party bona fide desires the production of a witness for cross-examination, and such witness can be produced, an order shall not be made authorizing his evidence to be given by affidavit.

270. All witnesses in any matter pending before a Master, shall be examined vivâ voce, unless it is otherwise ordered by the Master or by the Court on special grounds.

271. The Court may, in any cause or matter where it appears necessary for the purposes of justice, make an order for the examination upon oath before an officer of the Court or any other person and at any place, of any person, and may permit such deposition to be given in evidence. (Form No. 71).

272. Service of any notice may, in the absence of an admission of service, be proved by an affidavit of the solicitor in the cause, or his clerk.

273. A subpoena may be issued from any office of the Court at any time in blank and may be completed by the solicitor or party, and any number of names may be inserted in one subpoena. (Forms Nos. 51 and 52).

274.—(1) No subpoena for the production of an original record, or of an original document from any registry office, shall be issued, but an order for its production or transmission may be made which shall be obeyed by the officer in whose custody it is.

(2) Except in special circumstances requiring or justifying the production of the original, no such order shall be made where the document may be proved by a certified copy. Any officer required to produce a document shall be entitled to be paid ordinary witness fees.

275. A party who desires to call as a witness at the trial an opposite party who is within the jurisdiction may either subpoena him or give him or his solicitor at least five days' notice of the intention to examine him as a witness in the cause, paying at the same time the amount proper for conduct money; and if such opposite party does not attend on such notice or subpoena judgment may be pronounced against him, or the trial of the action may be postponed.

276.—(1) Upon proof to the satisfaction of the presiding Judge of the service of a subpoena upon any witness who fails to attend or to remain in attendance in accordance with the requirements of the subpoena, and that a sufficient sum for his fees as a witness has been duly paid or tendered to him, and that the presence of such witness is material to the ends of justice, the Judge may by his warrant (Form No. 54), directed to any sheriff or other officer of the Court, or to any constable, cause such witness to be apprehended anywhere within Ontario, and forthwith to be brought before the Court and to be detained in custody as the presiding Judge may order, until his presence as such witness is no longer required, or, in the discretion of the Judge, to be released on a recognizance (with or without sureties) conditioned for appearance to give evidence.

(2) The service of the subpoena and payment of conduct money may be proved by an affidavit.

277. Where the testimony of a person who is residing out of Ontario is required and for any reason an order under Rule 271 is not sufficient the Court may order the issue of a commission for the examination of such person. (Form of Order No. 68, of Commission No. 55).

278. If a party for whose examination an order has been made or a commission has issued, refuses to attend before the examiner or Commissioner, judgment may pass against him.

279. The notice of a motion for a commission to take evidence shall state the name and address of the commissioner proposed.

280.—(1) Unless otherwise directed the examination shall be upon oral questions to be reduced into writing and returned with the commission; and notice of the execution of the commission shall be given to the opposite party, if, within the time prescribed by the order, he gives the name and the address of a person resident within two miles of the place where the commission is to be executed, on whom such notice may be served.

(2) If no agent is named or the name or address given proves to be illusory or fictitious, or if the party so notified fails to attend pursuant to the notice, the commission may be executed ex parte.

281. Where the examination is to take place upon written interrogatories, the interrogatories in chief shall be delivered to the opposite party eight days before the issue of the commission; and the cross-interrogatories shall be delivered to the opposite party within four days after the receipt of the interrogatories in chief; and in default of cross-interrogatories being so delivered, the commission may be executed without cross-interrogatories.

282. The witnesses shall be examined on oath, affirmation, or otherwise in accordance with the law of the country in which the commission is executed.

283. Where a witness does not understand the English language the commission shall be executed with the aid of an interpreter nominated by the commissioner, and sworn to interpret truly the questions to be put to the witness and his answers thereto, and the examination shall be taken in English.

284. If a witness produces a book, document, letter, paper or writing, and refuses for good cause, to be stated in his deposition, to part with the original, a copy or extract certified by the commissioner shall be annexed to the deposition of the witness.

285. The depositions may be taken in shorthand either by the commissioner or a shorthand writer duly sworn.

286.—(1) Unless the examination is taken in shorthand the depositions shall be subscribed by the witness and by the commissioner.

(2) Where taken in shorthand it shall not be necessary that the depositions be read over or signed by the person examined unless counsel attending on the Commission so desires.

287. The commission, interrogatories, depositions and any documents or certified copies thereof or extracts therefrom, referred to therein, shall be sent to the proper officer, on or before the day named in the order for the commission, enclosed in a cover under the seal of the commissioner; and the same or certified copies thereof may be given in evidence, saving all just exceptions, without any other proof of the absence from Ontario of the witness therein named than an affidavit of the solicitor or agent of the party as to his belief of such absence.

288. Where the opposite party desires to join in the commission and examine witnesses on his own behalf thereunder, each party shall in the first instance pay the costs of the commission consequent upon the examination of his witnesses.

289. A commission when returned shall at the request of either party be transmitted for use at the trial, and may be opened at the trial, or before trial at the instance of either party by the officer to whom it is returned on two clear days' notice to the other party.

290. Every order for a commission shall be read as if it contained the particulars mentioned in the next preceding ten rules, and shall not set forth the same, but may contain any variations therefrom, and any other directions, which the Court sees fit to make.

291. An affidavit shall be drawn up in the first person, stating the name of the deponent in full, and his description and true place of abode, and shall be signed by him.

292. In an affidavit made by two or more deponents the names of the persons making the affidavit shall be inserted in the jurat, unless the affidavit of all the deponents is taken at one time by the same officer, in which case it shall be sufficient to state that it was sworn by both (or all) of the "above-named" deponents.

293. Affidavits shall be confined to the statement of facts within the knowledge of the deponent, but on interlocutory motions statements as to his belief, with the grounds therefor, may be admitted.

294.—(1) In an action or proceeding to which a corporation is a party, any affidavit required by these Rules to be made by a party may be made by any officer, servant, or agent of the corporation having knowledge of the facts required to be deposed to, and he shall state therein that he has such knowledge.

(2) In any action or proceeding to which a partnership is a party, any affidavit required by these rules to be made by a party may be made by any member of the partnership.

(3) Where it appears necessary in the interest of justice the Court may order a further affidavit to be made by any other member of the partnership.

295. An affidavit having in the jurat or body thereof any interlineation, alteration, or erasure shall not be used without leave unless the interlineation, alteration or erasure is authenticated by the initials of the officer taking the affidavit.

296. Where an affidavit is sworn by a person who appears to be illiterate, the officer shall certify in the jurat that the affidavit was read in his presence to the deponent, who seemed perfectly to understand it, and signed it in his presence; otherwise such affidavit shall not be used without leave.

297. An affidavit sworn before the solicitor of the party on whose behalf it is made, or before the clerk or partner of such solicitor, shall not be used; but this Rule shall not extend to an affidavit to obtain an order for arrest.

298. Affidavits upon which a notice of motion is founded shall be filed before the service of the notice of motion unless otherwise ordered by a Judge and all affidavits shall be filed before they are used.

299. Where properly marked exhibits are referred to in an affidavit filed, and are not annexed thereto, such exhibits need not be filed, but shall be left for the use of the Court, and shall be handed out on the disposal of the motion unless otherwise ordered.

PARTICULAR PROCEEDINGS IN ACTIONS.

Transmission of Interest.

300. If by reason of death (when the cause of action survives or continues) or by assignment or conveyance any estate, interest or title devolves or is transferred the action may be continued by or against the person to or upon whom such estate or title has come or devolved.

301. Where a change or transmission of interest or liability has taken place or where by reason of any person interested coming into existence after the commencement of the action, it becomes necessary or desirable that any person not already a party should be made a party, or that any person already a party should be made a party in another capacity, an order that the proceedings shall be carried on between the continuing parties and the new party may be obtained on praecipe. (Form No. 57).

302. Such order and a notice according to Form No. 58 shall be served upon the continuing parties or their solicitors, and upon the new party.

303. A person served with such order may apply to the Court to discharge or vary the order at any time within 10 days from the service thereof.

304. When death takes place after verdict or finding of the issues of fact but before the judgment, judgment may be entered notwithstanding the death, whether the cause of action would, apart from this Rule, survive or not.

305. Where a plaintiff has died and proceedings may be continued, the defendant may apply to the Court on notice to compel the person entitled to proceed with the action to proceed according to the provisions of these Rules within such time as the Court may order, and that in default the action be dismissed for want of prosecution.

306. Where an action is so dismissed an order for payment of costs may be made and enforced against the goods and lands which were of the deceased plaintiff.

Payment into Court with a Pleading, in Satisfaction.

307. A defendant may, either before or at the time of delivering his defence, or afterwards by leave of the Court, pay into Court a sum of money in satisfaction of the cause or a part of the cause of action, or of one or more of the causes of action for which the plaintiff sues, and the money when so paid in shall remain in Court subject to further order unless the plaintiff elects to take it out as hereinafter provided.

308. Payment of money into Court shall not, unless expressly so stated, be deemed an admission of the cause of action in respect of which it is paid. That money has been paid into Court shall not be mentioned to the jury.

309. With a defence setting up a tender before action, the sum alleged to have been tendered shall be brought into Court.

310. Payment into Court shall be pleaded, and in the pleading the cause of action or part thereof in respect of which the payment is made shall be specified.

311. A defendant paying money into Court before delivering his defence shall serve upon the plaintiff a notice stating that he has paid in the money, and specifying the claim or cause of action in respect of which the payment has been made. (Form No. 24).

312. The plaintiff may take the money out of Court in satisfaction of the cause of action, or part thereof, in respect of which it was paid in, upon filing and serving a memorandum (Form No. 25), which shall be equivalent to a satisfaction piece.

313. The plaintiff shall make his election to take the money out of Court within four days after the day on which he receives notice of payment in if the payment is made before defence, and if the money is paid in with the defence he shall elect before the expiration of the time for replying, and before replying.

314. Where the defendant does not allege tender before action and the plaintiff takes the money in satisfaction of all the causes of action he may tax his costs of the action, and issue execution therefor, unless the defendant pays them within forty-eight hours after taxation.

315. Where the defendant alleges tender before action and the plaintiff elects to take the money in satisfaction unless otherwise ordered the defendant may tax his costs and the amount allowed him shall be paid to him out of the money in Court and the balance shall be paid to the plaintiff.

316.—(1) Where money is paid into Court and liability is not admitted and the plaintiff does not accept, in satisfaction of the claim or cause of action in respect of which the payment into Court has been made, the sum so paid in, but proceeds with the action in respect of such claim or cause of action, the money shall remain in Court and be subject to the order of the Court and shall not be paid out of Court except in pursuance of an order or upon the consent of both parties.

(2) If the plaintiff proceeds with the action in respect of such claim or cause of action, or any part thereof, and recovers less than the amount paid into Court, the amount paid in shall be applied, so far as is necessary, in satisfaction of the plaintiff's claim, and the balance (if any) shall be repaid to the defendant, but if the defendant succeeds in respect of such claim or cause of action, the whole amount shall be repaid to him.

317. A plaintiff may, in answer to a counter-claim, pay money into Court in satisfaction thereof, subject to the like conditions as to costs and otherwise as upon payment into Court by a defendant.

318. A defendant paying money into Court shall in his praecipe state the Rule under which he is paying it in.

319. Money accepted by the plaintiff in satisfaction may be paid out to him without order, upon the pleadings and notice of acceptance being transmitted to the Accountant, who shall return the same to the proper office after having made the necessary entries in his books.

Consolidation of Actions.

320. Actions may be consolidated by order of the Court.

Discontinuance.

321.—(1) The plaintiff may, at any time before receipt of the statement of defence of any defendant, or after the receipt thereof before taking any other proceeding in the action (save an interlocutory application), by notice in writing, filed and served, wholly discontinue his action against such defendant or withdraw any part thereof; and the defendant shall be entitled to the costs of the action, if wholly discontinued against him, or if not wholly discontinued to the costs occasioned by the part withdrawn. (Form No. 28.)

(2) A plaintiff may discontinue as to one or more of several defendants.

(3) Such costs may be taxed upon production of the notice served, and if not paid within four days from taxation the defendant may issue execution therefor.

(4) Such discontinuance or withdrawal shall not be a defence to any subsequent action.

(5) Except as provided by the preceding subsections a plaintiff shall not discontinue without leave of the Court, which may be granted upon such terms as to costs and as to any other action against all or any of the defendants and otherwise as may be proper.

322. A defendant may withdraw his defence or any part thereof, by written notice filed and served.

Dismissal of Actions for want of Prosecution.

323. If the plaintiff, being bound to deliver a statement of claim, does not deliver the same within the time allowed for that purpose, at the expiration of such time the action may be dismissed for want of prosecution.

324. In actions to be tried without a jury at Toronto, if the plaintiff does not set down the action for trial within six weeks after the pleadings are closed and proceed to trial as provided in Rule 250 the action may be dismissed for want of prosecution.

325.—(1) In all other actions if the pleadings are closed six weeks before the commencement of any sittings for which the plaintiff might give notice of trial, and he does not give notice of trial therefor and enter the action for trial, the action may be dismissed for want of prosecution.

(2) Where there are separate sittings for the trial of actions with and without a jury the plaintiff shall not be considered in default for failure to enter a non-jury action at the jury sittings. (Form of Order, No. 66.)

326.—(1) When an action has been discontinued or dismissed for want of prosecution a defendant who has counter-claimed may, if he so elects, proceed with the trial of his counter-claim, and if he elects to proceed he shall give notice of his election within 10 days after the discontinuance or dismissal of the action, and the counter-claim shall then be liable to dismissal for want of prosecution for failure to proceed to trial; or the defendant may if he so elects discontinue his counter-claim in whole or in part, and the defendant by counter-claim shall then be entitled to the costs of the counter-claim if wholly discontinued, or if not wholly discontinued to the costs occasioned by the part withdrawn, and the provisions of Rule 321, (2), (3) and (4) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply.

(2) In default of such election the counter-claim shall on the discontinuance or dismissal of the action be regarded as dismissed without costs.

Examination for Discovery.

327.—(1) A party to an action whether plaintiff or defendant, may, without order, be orally examined before the trial touching the matters in question by any party adverse in interest, and may be compelled to attend and testify in the same manner, upon the same terms, and subject to the same rules of examination as a witness except as hereinafter provided.

(2) In the case of a Corporation any officer or servant of such Corporation may, without order, be orally examined before the trial touching the matters in question by any party adverse in interest to the Corporation, and may be compelled to attend and testify in the same manner and upon the same terms and subject to the same rules of examination as a witness except as hereinafter provided; but such examination shall not be used as evidence at the trial.

(3) After the examination of an officer or servant of a Corporation a party shall not be at liberty to examine any other officer or servant without an order.

328. Where a party to be examined is out of Ontario the Court may order the examination to be taken at such place and in such manner as may seem just and convenient, and service of the order and of all papers necessary to obtain the examination may be made on the solicitor of the party, and any conduct money may be paid to him unless the order makes other provisions therefor.

329. The Court may order the examination for discovery at such place and in such manner as may be deemed just and convenient of an officer residing out of Ontario of any Corporation party to an action, and service of the order and of all papers necessary to obtain such examination may be made upon the solicitor for such party, and conduct money may be paid to him, and if the officer fails to attend and submit to such examination pursuant to such order the Corporation shall be liable if a plaintiff to have its action dismissed, and if a defendant to have its defence struck out and to be placed in the same position as if it had not defended. Such examination shall not be used in evidence at the trial.

330. Any party may, at the trial of an action or issue, use in evidence any part of the examination of the opposite party; but the Judge may look at the whole of the examination, and if he is of opinion that any other part is so connected with the part to be so used that the last-mentioned part ought not to be used without such other part, he may direct such other part to be put in evidence.

331. Any person who refuses or neglects to attend at the time and place appointed for his examination, or refuses to be sworn or to answer any proper question put to him, shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of Court and proceedings may forthwith be had by attachment. He shall also be liable, if a plaintiff, to have his action dismissed, and if a defendant, to have his defence, if any, struck out.

332. When an infant is a party the opposite party may examine the next friend or guardian of the infant or at his option the infant, if he is competent to give evidence.

333. Any person examined for discovery may be further examined on his own behalf, or on behalf of the Corporation whose officer or servant he is, in relation to any matter respecting which he has been so examined, and such explanatory examination shall be proceeded with immediately after the examination in chief.

334. A person for whose immediate benefit an action is prosecuted or defended may without order be examined for discovery.

335. Where an action is brought by an assignee the assignor may without order be examined for discovery.

336. Examination for discovery may take place at any time after the statement of defence of the party examining or to be examined has been delivered or after the party to be examined has made default in appearance, or after the pleadings have been noted as closed as against him, and the examination of a party to an issue may take place at any time after the issue has been filed.

337.—(1) A party within Ontario shall attend for examination for discovery before the proper officer in the County in which he resides upon service of an appointment upon his solicitor seven days before the day appointed for the examination, and conduct money shall be paid or tendered to the solicitor.

(2) The solicitor shall forthwith communicate the appointment to the party required to attend, and shall not apply the money to any debt due to the solicitor or any other person, or pay the same otherwise than to such party for his conduct money, and the same shall not be liable to be attached.

(3) The attendance of a party may also be required under Rules 345 to 347.

General Rules as to Examinations.

338. Rules 339 to 347 shall apply to the examination of a witness upon a motion or under an order and to cross-examination upon affidavits and to all examinations for discovery.

339. Any witness examined shall be subject to cross-examination and re-examination; and the examination, cross-examination and re-examination shall be conducted as nearly as may be as at a trial.

340.—(1) The examination (unless otherwise ordered or agreed) shall, if the examiner is a shorthand writer or a shorthand writer is available, be taken in shorthand by the examiner or by a shorthand writer approved and duly sworn by him and shall be taken down by question and answer; and it shall not be necessary for the depositions to be read over to, or signed by, the person examined.

(2) A copy of the depositions so taken, certified by the person taking the same as correct, and if such person be not the examiner, also signed by the examiner, shall be received in evidence saving all just exceptions.

(3) The depositions taken by the examiner shall, upon payment of his fees, be returned to and filed in the office in which the proceedings are carried on.

341. The person to be examined or any party to the action shall, if so required by the subpoena or notice, produce on the examination all books, papers and documents relating to the matters in issue which he could be required to produce at a trial.

342. Where any person admits, upon his examination, that he has in his custody or power any such document the examiner may direct him to produce it for the inspection of the party examining, and for that purpose allow a reasonable time.

343. If any person under examination objects to any question put to him, the question and the objection shall be noted, and the validity of such objection shall be decided by the examiner, whose decision shall also be noted.

344. Any direction or ruling of the examiner shall be subject to review upon any motion with respect to such examination without an appeal.

345.—(1) Any party who is liable to be examined may be required to attend before the proper officer in the County in which he resides, for examination, upon being served with an appointment and upon payment of the proper fees.

(2) Any person not a party, liable to be examined, shall be served with a subpoena.

346. The party examining shall serve the appointment for such examination upon the solicitor of the opposite party at least forty-eight hours before the examination.

347. An order may be made for the examination of any person liable to be examined as aforesaid before any other person or in any other County.

Production of Documents.

348. Each party, after the defence is delivered, or an issue has been filed, may by notice require the other within ten days to make discovery on oath of the documents which are or have been in his possession or power, relating to any matters in question in the action; and to produce and deposit the same with the proper officer for the usual purposes. A copy of such affidavit shall be served forthwith after filing.

349. A Judge may at any time order production and inspection of documents generally or of any particular document in the possession of any party, and if privilege is claimed for any document may inspect the document to determine the validity of such claim.

350. When a document is in possession of a person not a party to the action and the production of such document at a trial might be compelled, the Court may at the instance of any party, on notice to such person and to the opposite party, direct the production and inspection thereof, and may give directions respecting the preparation of a certified copy which may be used for all purposes in lieu of the original.

351.—(1) A party shall be entitled to obtain the production, for inspection, of any document referred to in the pleadings or affidavits of the opposite party, by giving notice to his solicitor, and shall be entitled to take copies of such documents when so produced for inspection. (Form No. 29.)

(2) The party to whom such notice is given shall forthwith deliver to the party giving the same a notice stating a time within two days from the delivery thereof at which the document may be inspected at the office of his solicitor, and shall at the time named produce the document for inspection. (Form No. 30.)

(3) Inspection may also be ordered at such place as the Court may direct.

352. If the party from whom discovery of any kind or inspection is sought objects to the same, or any part thereof, the Court, if satisfied that the right to the discovery or inspection sought depends on the determination of any issue or question in dispute in the action, or that for any other reason it is desirable that any issue or question in dispute should be determined before deciding upon the right to the discovery or inspection, may order that such issue or question be determined first, and reserve the question as to the discovery or inspection.

353. If a party fails to comply with any notice or order for production or inspection of documents, he shall be liable to attachment and shall also be liable, if a plaintiff, to have his action dismissed, and if a defendant, to have his defence, if any, struck out. Service of the notice of motion upon the solicitor of the party is, unless the Court otherwise directs, sufficient.

Default of Pleading.

354. A defendant who fails to deliver a statement of defence and against whom the pleadings have been noted as closed, shall be deemed to admit all the statements of fact set forth in the statement of claim.

355. Where a plaintiff would be entitled to sign judgment for default of appearance to the writ he shall be entitled to sign a similar judgment, mutatis mutandis, for default of defence.

356.—(1) In any other case the plaintiff may after the pleadings have been noted as closed move for judgment upon the statement of claim.

(2) Where default is made by one defendant and the action proceeds to trial as against another defendant such motion may be made at the trial.

357. Except by leave a judgment for default of appearance or defence shall not be signed, nor shall pleadings be noted closed nor shall an action be set down on motion for judgment for default, after the expiration of one year from the time when the party to sign the judgment or note the pleadings or to move for judgment first became entitled so to do.

358. Where issues arise otherwise than between plaintiff and defendant, if any party to any such issue makes default in delivering any pleading, the Court may, at the trial or on motion, give such judgment as upon the pleadings may seem just.

Replevin.

359. An order of replevin may be obtained:

1. On motion therefor on showing the facts of the wrongful taking or detention complained of, the value and description of the property, and that the person claiming it is the owner thereof, or is lawfully entitled to the possession thereof (as the case may be);

2. Or on praecipe if the person claiming the property, his servant or agent, makes an affidavit stating,—

(a) That the person claiming the property is the owner or lawfully entitled to the possession thereof;

(b) The value thereof;

(c) That the property was wrongfully taken out of the possession of the claimant, or fraudulently got out of his possession, within two months next before the making of the affidavit;

(d) That the deponent is advised and believes that the claimant is entitled to the order;

(e) And that there is good reason to apprehend that unless the order is issued without waiting for a motion, the delay would materially prejudice the just rights of the claimant in respect to the property;

3. Or on praecipe if the property was distrained for rent or damage feasant, and the person claiming the property, his servant or agent, makes an affidavit stating,—

(a) That the person claiming the property is the owner or is lawfully entitled to the possession thereof (describing the property);

(b) The value thereof;

(c) That the property was taken under colour of a distress for rent or damage feasant; and in such case the order shall state that the defendant has taken and unjustly detains the property, under colour of a distress for rent or damage feasant (as the case may be). (Form No. 80.)

360. The motion shall be on notice to the defendant, unless the special circumstances of the case in the opinion of the Court justify the making of an ex parte order. The Court instead of granting or refusing the order may direct the sheriff to take a bond in less or more than treble the value of the property, or may direct him, in addition to taking a bond pursuant to Rule 362, to take and detain the property until the further order of the Court, instead of at once replevying the same to the plaintiff; or may order that the plaintiff instead of giving a bond be at liberty to pay into Court to the credit of the action, subject to further order, such sum as may be proper to stand as security to the defendant in the same manner and to the same extent as any bond which the plaintiff would otherwise be required to give to the sheriff.

361. The defendant may apply to the Court to discharge, vary, or modify the order, or to stay proceedings thereunder, or for any other relief with respect to the return, safety or sale of the property or any part thereof or otherwise.

362.—(1) Before the Sheriff acts on the order he shall take a bond, Form No. 131, from the plaintiff with two sufficient sureties in such sum as may be prescribed by the order, or if no special provision has been made, then in treble the value of the property as stated in the order of replevin.

(2) The plaintiff may instead of giving a bond pay into Court twice the value of the goods as stated in the order, and the Sheriff may act upon a certificate of the Accountant that the money has been paid.

363. When an order of replevin is issued for any property which had not been previously taken out of the plaintiff's possession, and for which the plaintiff might bring an action for conversion, the defendant shall be entitled, if the plaintiff fails in the action, to be fully indemnified against all damages sustained by the defendant, including any extra costs which he may incur in defending the action; and the bond shall be conditioned so as to require the plaintiff and the sureties to indemnify and save harmless the defendant from all loss and damage which he may sustain by reason of the seizure, and of any deterioration of the property in the meantime, in the event of its being returned, and all costs, charges, and expenses which the defendant may incur, including reasonable costs not taxable between party and party. This provision shall not be required in cases of distress for rent or damage feasant.

364. The Sheriff shall not serve a copy of the writ of summons or order until he has replevied the property, or some part thereof if he cannot replevy the whole.

365. Where the order is issued on praecipe under Rule 359 (2) the Sheriff shall take and detain the property, and shall not replevy the same to the plaintiff without the order of the Court, but may, after seven days from the time of taking the same, re-deliver it to the defendant, unless in the meantime the plaintiff obtains and serves on the Sheriff an order directing a different disposition of the property.

366. The Sheriff shall return the order on or before the tenth day after the service thereof, and shall transmit annexed thereto,—

(a) The names of the sureties in, and the date of the bond taken from the plaintiff, and the name or names of the witnesses thereto;

(b) The place of residence and addition of the sureties;

(c) The number, quantity and quality of the articles of property replevied; and in case he has replevied only a portion of the property and cannot replevy the residue by reason of the same having been eloigned out of his county, or not being in the possession of the defendant or of any other person for him, he shall state in his return the articles which he cannot replevy and the reason therefor.

367.—(1) Where the Sheriff makes such a return of the property distrained, taken or detained having been eloigned, the Court may make an order (Form No. 81) directing the Sheriff to take in withernam goods and chattels of the defendant.

(2) Where a Sheriff makes return that the whole or any part of the property has been eloigned, or that for any reason the same cannot be replevied, the plaintiff may, if he so elect, serve the writ of summons, and in his statement of claim, claim either the return of the goods and damages for their detention, or damages for their conversion.

368. Where the plaintiff is entitled to sign judgment by default, he may sign final judgment for five dollars and costs, but shall not be entitled to recover a larger sum except upon an assessment or upon filing the consent of the defendant or his solicitor, and an affidavit verifying the signature to such consent.

Interim Preservation of Property, Inspection, etc.

369. Where there is a dispute arising upon a contract or any alleged contract affecting the title to any property the Court may make an order for the preservation or interim custody of such property, or may order that the amount in dispute be brought into Court or otherwise secured, or may order the sale of the property and the payment of the proceeds into Court.

370. The Court may, at any time, order the sale, in such manner and on such terms as may seem just, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be of a perishable nature or likely to be injured from keeping, or which for any other reason it may be desirable to have sold at once.

371. Where a plaintiff seeks to recover specific property other than land, and the defendant does not dispute the title of the plaintiff, but claims to retain the property by virtue of a lien or otherwise as security for money, the Court may order that the plaintiff pay into Court, to abide the event of the action, the amount of money in respect of which the lien or security is claimed, and such further sum (if any) for interest and costs as the Court may direct, and that upon such payment into Court being made, the property claimed be given up to him.

372.—(1) The Court may, upon the application of any party and upon such terms as may seem just, make any order for the detention or preservation of property, being the subject of the action, or for the inspection of any property, the inspection of which is necessary for the proper determination of the question in dispute; and for all or any of the purposes aforesaid may authorize any person or persons to enter upon or into any land or building in the possession of a party and may authorize any samples to be taken, or any observation to be made or experiment to be tried, which may seem necessary or expedient for the purpose of obtaining full information or evidence.

(2) The Court may also on notice to any person not a party to the action make an order authorizing entry upon or into any lands or building in the possession of such person for the purposes of such inspection.

Security for Costs.

373. Security for costs may be ordered:

(a) Where the plaintiff resides out of Ontario;

(b) Where the plaintiff is ordinarily resident out of Ontario, though he may be temporarily resident within Ontario;

(c) Where the plaintiff has brought another action or proceeding for the same cause which is pending in Ontario or in any other country;

(d) Where the plaintiff or any person through or under whom he claims, has had judgment or order passed against him, in another action or proceeding for the same cause in Ontario or in any other country, with costs, and such costs have not been paid;

(e) Where the plaintiff sues as an informer, or seeks to recover any penalty given to an informer or person who sues for the same under a statute or law by which a penalty is given to any person who sues for the same, either for his sole benefit, for the benefit of the Crown, or partly for his benefit and partly for the benefit of the Crown, and the defendant swears that in his belief the plaintiff or informer is not possessed of property sufficient to answer the costs of the action in case a judgment is rendered in favour of the defendant, and that he (the applicant) has a good defence to the action upon the merits, as he is advised and believes;

(f) Where the action is brought by a nominal plaintiff;

(g) Where upon the examination of the plaintiff it appears that there is good reason to believe that the action is frivolous and vexatious, and that the plaintiff is not possessed of sufficient property in Ontario to answer the costs of the action;

(h) Where an action is brought on behalf of a class and the plaintiff is not possessed of sufficient property to answer the costs of the action, and it appears that the plaintiff is put forward or instigated to sue by others;

(i) Where under the provision of any statute the defendant is entitled to security for costs;

(j) Where either party to a garnishee, interpleader or other issue is an active claimant, and would if a plaintiff be liable to give security for costs.

374.—(1) The order shall require the plaintiff, within four weeks from service to give security in $400 for the defendant's costs of the action, and shall direct that all further proceedings be stayed in the meantime, and that in default of such security being given the action shall, as against the defendant obtaining the order, be dismissed with costs.

(2) In actions in the County Court the amount of the security shall be $200.

375. Where it appears by the writ of summons, or by an indorsement thereon, that the plaintiff resides out of Ontario, the order may be obtained on praecipe.

376. Upon default in giving security the action may upon an ex parte application be dismissed with costs.

377. Where security for costs is ordered, proceedings in the action shall be stayed, from the service of the order until the security is given, and, if given by bond, until the bond is allowed.

378. The day on which an order that a party do give security for costs is served, and the time until and including the day on which the security is allowed, shall not be reckoned in the computation of time allowed for taking any proceeding in the action.

379. A bond given as security for costs shall be to the party requiring the security, and shall be by two sufficient sureties or by a guarantee company.

380. Upon the bond being filed, with affidavits of execution and justification, either party may apply to allow or disallow the same within seven days after notice of filing it is served, otherwise the bond shall stand allowed.

381.—(1) Instead of giving a bond as security for costs, a party may, without special order, pay into Court, as such security, a sum of money not less than half the penalty of the bond required.

(2) The party paying in the money shall, when paying the same in, state the purpose for which it is paid in, and shall forthwith serve a notice upon the opposite side specifying the fact and purpose of such payment.

382. The amount of security, whether directed to be given by an order issued on praecipe or otherwise, may be increased or diminished from time to time.

383.—(1) A defendant must appear before obtaining an order for security of costs.

(2) Where the writ of summons is specially endorsed the defendant shall also file the affidavit required by Rule 56, and if an order for security for costs is issued the plaintiff may pay into Court the sum of $50, as a partial compliance with such order, and thereupon he shall be at liberty to cross-examine and move for judgment; but the order for security shall, in all other respects, have its full operation and effect.

(3) Such payment into Court shall not prejudice any motion that may be made to set aside the order for security.

(4) In actions in the County Court the amount of the partial security shall be $25.

(5) Where upon motion under Rule 57 the plaintiff is awarded judgment for a portion only of his claim, he may issue the judgment and execution thereunder, but so long as the order for security stands he shall not take any other proceedings in respect to the residue of his claim, until it has been fully complied with.

384. A bond given for security for costs may be delivered up for cancellation or suit upon consent of the solicitors in the cause without order.

385. Where money has been paid into Court as security for costs or with a defence it may be paid out on the consent of the solicitors in the cause or matter, without order and may be paid to the solicitors upon production of the consent of the client verified by affidavit.

Interim Alimony.

386.—(1) In an alimony action, the defendant may, at any time before the statement of defence is due, give notice in writing that he submits to pay the interim alimony, and costs, as demanded by the plaintiff in the indorsement on the writ; and in that case no motion for interim alimony shall be made until there has been a default in payment; and in case of default, affidavits being filed verifying the indorsement and notice and the default, an order for payment of the sum demanded shall be issued on praecipe.

(2) The defendant may give notice in writing that he submits to pay such less sum as he may deem proper and may name in his notice.

(3) Where a notice has been so served and the plaintiff accepts the amount therein mentioned as sufficien , the defendant shall pay thereafter the sum so offered as interim alimony, and no order for interim alimony shall be made until there has been default in payment.

(4) Where a notice has been so served, the plaintiff's interim disbursements may be taxed without order.

(5) Where the plaintiff does not accept the amount offered and upon motion for interim alimony it is found that the sum so offered is reasonable, and the defendant pays to the plaintiff the sum so offered, no order for interim alimony shall be made until there has been default in payment.

387. An application for interim alimony or for interim disbursements shall not be made until the time for delivering the defence has expired, and costs shall not be ordered to be paid de die in diem by the defendant, but only the amount of the cash disbursements actually and properly made by the plaintiff's solicitor.

387A. When an order for interim alimony or interim disbursements has not been complied with, a Judge if satisfied of the husband's ability to pay may postpone the trial of the action or may order the pleading of the party in default to be struck out.

388. Where the plaintiff in an alimony action fails to obtain a judgment for alimony, no costs beyond the amount of the cash disbursements actually and properly made by the plaintiff's solicitor shall be ordered to be paid by the defendant.

Change of Solicitor.

389. A party suing or defending by a solicitor may change his solicitor by filing and serving a notice to that effect.

390. A party suing or defending in person and desiring to be represented by a solicitor may file and serve a notice to that effect.

391. A party represented by a solicitor and desiring to sue or defend in person may file and serve a notice to that effect.

392.—(1) Where a solicitor who has acted for a party in the cause or matter has died or cannot be found, or has been struck off the roll of solicitors, or has been suspended from practice, and the party has not given notice of change of solicitor or notice of intention to act in person in accordance with the preceding rules, any other party to the cause or matter may, on notice to be served on the first named party personally or by prepaid post letter addressed to his last known place of address, unless the Court otherwise directs, apply to the Court for an order declaring that the solicitor has ceased to be the solicitor acting for the first named party in the cause or matter and the Court may make an order accordingly.

(2) Where the order is made the party applying for the order shall serve on every other party to the cause or matter (not being a party in default as to entry of appearance) a copy of the said order and also leave at the Registrar's Office a copy of the said order together with an affidavit showing that the order has been duly served as aforesaid. Thereafter unless and until the first named party shall either appoint another solicitor or else give such an address for service as is required of a party acting in person and shall comply with the preceding rules relating to the notice of appointment of a solicitor or notice of intention to act in person, any documents in respect of which personal service is not requisite may be served on the party so in default by mailing the same to the party at his address given in the writ or appearance (as the case may be) by registered letter.

(3) Any order made under this rule shall not affect the rights of the solicitor and the party for whom he acted as between themselves.

392A.—(1) Where a solicitor who has acted for a party in a cause or matter has ceased to act and the party has not given notice of change of solicitor in accordance with the provisions of the preceding rules, the solicitor may on notice to be served on the party personally or by prepaid post letter addressed to his last known place of address unless the Court otherwise directs, apply to the Court for an order to the effect that the solicitor has ceased to be the solicitor acting for the party in the cause or matter, and the Court may make an order accordingly: Provided that unless and until the solicitor has

(a) served on every party to the cause or matter (not being a party in default as to entry of appearance) a copy of the said order; and

(b) left at the Registrar's Office a copy of the said order together with an affidavit showing that the order has been duly served as aforesaid:

he shall (subject to the provisions of Rule 389, 390 and 391) be considered the solicitor of the party to the final determination of the cause or matter whether in the High Court or the Court of Appeal.

(2) From and after the time when the order has been deposited as required by subsection (b) of the preceding section, any document in respect of which personal service is not requisite may be served on the party to whom the order relates by mailing the same to the party at his address given in the writ or appearance (as the case may be) by registered letter, unless and until that party shall either appoint another solicitor or else give an address for service as is required of a party acting in person, and shall also comply with the provisions of Rules 389, 390 and 391 relating to notice of appointment of a solicitor or notice of intention to act in person.

(3) Any order made under this rule shall not affect the rights of the solicitor and the party as between themselves.

393. Leave to compound a penal action may be given, but in cases where part of the penalty goes to the Crown notice shall first be given to the Attorney-General for Canada or the Attorney-General for Ontario as the case may be.

394. The order for compounding shall not be made unless the defendant undertakes to pay the sum for which the Court has given him leave to compound such action.

395. Where leave is given to compound the proportion of the Crown shall, unless otherwise ordered, be paid into Court for the use of His Majesty.

Transmission of Papers.

396. Every local officer shall upon praecipe and payment of the necessary postage or express charges for transmission and return, transmit to the Registrar's Office, Toronto, all papers and documents required for use in Toronto.

397. Where documents filed with an officer of the Court are required by or for use before any other officer, the officer with whom the documents are filed shall upon the production of a request signed by the officer requiring them transmit them upon payment of the postage or express charges required for their transmission and return.

398.—(1) When an application is made to a Judge in Chambers for an order striking out a jury notice, and it appears to him that the action is one which ought to be tried without a jury, he shall direct that the issues shall be tried and the damages assessed without a jury, and in case the action has been entered for trial shall direct the action to be transferred to the non-jury list.

(2) The refusal of such an order by the Judge in Chambers shall not interfere with the right of the Judge presiding at the trial to try the action without a jury. Nor shall an order made in Chambers striking out a jury notice interfere with the right of the Judge presiding at the trial to direct a trial by jury.

(3) The Judge presiding at a jury sittings in Toronto, may in his discretion strike out the jury notice and transfer the action for trial to a non-jury sittings, and this power may be exercised notwithstanding that the case is not on the peremptory list for trial before the said Judge.

Procedure when Judgment Delayed.

398A. When a Judge who has reserved judgment in any cause, action, issue, motion, or matter,

(a) dies without giving judgment, or

(b) having resigned his office or having been appointed to any other Court does not give judgment within the time allowed by statute, or

(c) has not given judgment within six months from the time of reserving the same, the Chief Justice of the High Court may order that the cause, action, issue, motion or matter be restored to the proper list for trial or hearing, and, in case the original trial or hearing was upon evidence given viva voce, may direct that the re-trial or re-hearing shall be upon a transcript of the reporter's notes of such evidence, or upon such transcript and additional evidence given viva voce or by affidavit, or upon such transcript and evidence given viva voce and evidence given by affidavit, or upon new evidence, or otherwise as in his opinion the circumstances of the particular case may require, and may dispose of the costs of the original trial or hearing and of the costs of procuring and furnishing any copies of the transcript of the reporter's notes, or may refer the question as to such costs or any of them to the Judge presiding at the re-trial or re-hearing But no directions for a re-trial or re-hearing which include a direction for the use of the transcript of the reporter's notes shall be deemed to limit or restrict the power of the Judge presiding at such re-trial or re-hearing in his discretion to permit the recalling of any witness called at the original trial or hearing, or to receive other or additional evidence.

REFERENCES.

Referees.

399. In the event of the Referee declining to act, or dying before he has made his report, a Judge may appoint a new Referee.

400. The practice and procedure on a reference to a Referee shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as the practice and procedure in the Master's office.

401. The Court may require explanations or reasons from a Master or Referee, and may remit the cause or matter, or any part thereof, for further consideration, to the same or any other Master or Referee.

Proceedings on References.

402. Every order of reference shall be brought into the Master's office within ten days after it is issued, by the party having the carriage of the same, and in default any other party having an interest in the reference may assume the carriage of the order.

403.—(1) Unless otherwise directed by the Master, notice of the first proceeding before him shall be given to every party affected by or interested in the inquiry though any such party may not have appeared or pleaded in the action; but in the absence of special direction when default is made in appearance upon the notice, no further notice need be given unless the party in default files a written request for notice with an address for service.

(2) In case of a reference in a foreclosure action in which judgment has been entered for default of appearance or defence and no notice that the defendant desires an opportunity to redeem has been filed, it shall not be necessary to serve the defendant with an appointment upon the reference.

404. Where in proceedings before the Master, it appears to him that a person not already a party ought to be made a party, and ought to be at liberty to attend the proceedings before him, he may make an order adding him as a party defendant, and direct a copy of the order, indorsed with a notice (Form No. 39), and a copy of the judgment or order of reference indorsed with a notice in accordance with Form No. 38, to be served upon such person, who thereupon shall be treated and named as a party to the action and shall be bound as if he had been originally made a party.

405. A person so served may apply to the Court at any time within ten days from the date of such service, to discharge, add to, vary, or set aside the order of reference or the order adding him as a party.

406. Where, at any time during the reference, it appears to the Master that the interests of the parties can be classified, he may require the parties constituting each or any class to be represented by the same solicitor; and where the parties constituting such class cannot agree upon the solicitor to represent them, the Master may nominate him.

407. Where a party prosecuting a reference does not proceed with due diligence, the Master may upon the application of any other person interested commit to him the prosecution of the reference.

408. A reference shall be proceeded with as far as possible de die in diem and when an adjournment is ordered the Master shall note in his book the reason thereof and shall when practicable fix the time when it is to be resumed so as to avoid the service of a new appointment.

409. The Master shall (unless he dispenses with it) in the first instance issue an appointment to consider. Upon the return of the appointment he shall fix a time at which to proceed with the reference and shall give any special directions he thinks fit, as to:

(a) The parties who are to attend on the several accounts and inquiries;

(b) The time when each proceeding is to be taken;

(c) The mode in which any accounts referred to him are to be taken or vouched;

(d) The evidence to be adduced in support thereof;

(e) The manner in which each of the accounts and inquiries is to be prosecuted.

Any such directions may be afterwards varied or added to, as may be found necessary.

410. Under an order of reference, the Master shall have power:

(a) To take the accounts with rests or otherwise;

(b) To take account of money, rents and profits received or which, but for wilful neglect or default, might have been received;

(c) To set occupation rent;

(d) To take into account necessary repairs, and lasting improvements, and costs and other expenses properly incurred otherwise, or claimed to be so;

(e) To make all just allowances;

(f) To report special circumstances;

(g) And generally, in taking the accounts, to inquire, adjudge, and report as to all matters relating thereto, as fully as if the same had been specifically referred.

411. The Master may cause parties to be examined, and to produce books, papers and writings, as he thinks fit, and may determine what books, papers and writings are to be produced, and when and how long they are to be left in his office; or in case he does not deem it necessary that such books and papers or writings should be left or deposited in his office, he may give directions for the inspection thereof by the parties requiring the same, at such time and in such manner as he deems expedient.

412. The Master may cause advertisements for creditors or for heirs or next of kin, or other unascertained persons, and the representatives of such as are dead, to be published as the circumstances of the case require; and in such advertisements he shall appoint a time within which such persons are to come in and prove their claims, and shall notify them that unless they so come in, they are to be excluded from the benefit of the order. A claim may nevertheless be received by the Master at any later time. (Form 43.)

413. The Master shall consider the claims brought in before him pursuant to such advertisement, upon a day to be fixed by him when settling the advertisement, and the executor or person appointed to examine the claims may require the claimant to produce before him any document in his possession (Form 44), and if any claim is to be contested shall cause notice of contestation to be served upon the claimant fixing a day when he will adjudicate upon the claim. (Form No. 45.) Where a claim is not to be contested or is to be contested in part only a notice shall be sent according to Form No. 46.

414. The executor or administrator, or such other person as the Master directs, shall examine the claims sent in pursuant to the advertisement, and ascertain, as far as he is able, which of such claims is just and proper.

415. The executor or administrator, or one of the executors or administrators, or such other person as the Master directs, shall on or before the day appointed to consider the claims file an affidavit, verifying a list of the claims sent in pursuant to the advertisement, and stating which of such claims are just and proper to be allowed, and the reasons for such belief.

416. Under every order whereby the delivery of deeds or execution of conveyances is directed or becomes necessary, the Master shall give directions as to delivery of such deeds, settle conveyances where the parties differ, and give directions as to the parties to the conveyances and as to the execution thereof.

417. Where an account is to be taken, the accounting party, unless the Master otherwise directs, shall bring in the same in debit and credit form, verified by affidavit. The items on each side of the account shall be numbered consecutively, and the account shall be referred to by the affidavit as an exhibit, and shall not be annexed thereto.

418. The Master may direct that in taking accounts the books of account in which the accounts required to be taken have been kept, or any of them, be taken as prima facie evidence of the truth of the matters therein contained.

419. Before proceeding to the hearing and determining of a reference, the Master may appoint a day for the purpose of entering into the accounts and inquiries, and may direct the production and inspection of vouchers, and if deemed proper the cross-examination of the accounting party on his affidavit, with a view to ascertaining what is admitted and what is contested between the parties.

420. A party seeking to charge an accounting party beyond what he has in his account admitted to have received, shall give notice thereof to the accounting party, stating as far as he is able the amount sought to be charged and the particulars thereof in a short and succinct manner. The Master may direct any party who seeks to falsify an account to deliver particulars of the item objected to. The particulars shall refer to the item by number.

421. The Master shall keep in his office a book in which he shall enter proceedings taken before him, and the directions which he gives in relation to the prosecution of the reference, or otherwise, and it shall not be necessary to issue or serve any formal order or document embodying such directions to bind the parties attending the reference.

422. In giving directions, and in regulating the manner of proceeding before him, the Master shall devise and adopt the simplest, most speedy, and least expensive method of prosecuting the reference, and with that view may dispense with any proceeding ordinarily taken which he conceives to be unnecessary, or substitute a different course of proceeding for that ordinarily taken.

423. Where the Master directs parties not in attendance before him to be notified to attend at some future day, or for different purposes at different future days, it shall not be necessary to issue separate appointments, but the parties shall be notified by one appointment, signed by the Master, of the proceedings to be taken, and of the times by him appointed for the taking of the same.

424. As soon as the hearing of any matter pending before the Master is completed, he shall so inform the parties to the reference then in attendance, and make a note to that effect in his book; and after such entry no further evidence shall be received, or proceedings had, without the special permission of the Master; and the Master shall then fix a day to settle his report and shall cause notice of such day to be given to all parties interested not then in attendance who have appeared upon the reference or requested notice under the provisions of Rule 403, unless for special reason such notice is dispensed with.

425. In the report no part of any account, affidavit, deposition, examination or pleading used in the Master's office shall be stated or recited, but the same may be referred to by date or otherwise.

426. Reports affecting money in Court, or to be paid into Court, shall set forth, in figures, in a schedule, a brief summary of the sums found by the report, and paid or payable into or out of Court, and the funds or shares to which the sums of money are respectively chargeable.

427. As soon as the Master's report is settled and signed it shall be delivered out to the party prosecuting the reference, or in case he declines to take the same, then, in the discretion of the Master, to any other party applying therefor.

428. Pending a reference to a Master all affidavits, papers and documents relating thereto required to be filed shall be filed with the Master, but every report or certificate of a Master shall be filed in the office in which the proceedings were commenced, and upon the completion of the reference the papers shall be transferred to the office in which the proceedings were commenced.

429. Any party affected by a report may file the same, or a duplicate thereof. He shall forthwith serve notice of filing, upon all parties appearing in the action or attending upon the reference.

430.—(1) Where the Master is directed to appoint money to be paid at some time and place, he shall appoint the same to be paid into some Bank to the joint credit of the party to whom the same is made payable and the Accountant. The party to whom the same is made payable may name the Bank into which he desires the same to be paid.

(2) Where money is paid into a Bank in pursuance of such appointment, the party paying may pay the same either to the credit of the party to whom the same is made payable or to the joint credit of the party and the Accountant; and if the same be paid to the sole credit of the party, such party shall be entitled to receive the same without order.

(3) When money is paid to the joint credit of the Accountant and the party entitled, the Accountant shall sign the cheque for payment out upon the production of the consent of the party paying in, duly verified, or of his solicitor, or in the absence of such consent upon the order of a Judge.

431. Where, by a report, any money in Court is found to belong to infants, the Master shall require proper evidence of the age of the infants to be given before him and shall in his report state the date of birth and age at the time of his report of each of such infants or shall certify specially his reason for not so doing.

432. In administration suits, reports shall, as far as possible, be according to Form No. 48.

433. Every Master shall have the same power, authority and jurisdiction as the Master at Toronto when sitting in Chambers in respect to all matters referred to him, or which may arise in his office.

434. Where a Master acts as under the preceding rule the fees (payable in stamps) shall, in respect of such business, be the same as are payable for the like business in Chambers.

435. In taking accounts in administration proceedings interest shall be computed on the deceased's debts from the date of the judgment or order, and on legacies from the end of one year after the deceased's death, unless any other time of payment is directed by the will.

436. Where an order is made for payment of money out of Court to creditors, the person whose duty it is to prosecute the order shall send each creditor, or his solicitor (if any), a notice that the cheques may be obtained from the Accountant; and shall deposit with the Accountant any papers necessary to enable the creditors to receive their cheques. (Form No. 47.)

437. Every notice required to be given to a creditor or claimant shall unless the Master otherwise directs be transmitted by registered letter to the creditor or claimant at the address given in the claim sent in, or, in case the creditor or claimant has employed a solicitor, to such solicitor at the address given by him.

438. Where a sale is ordered, the Master may cause the property to be sold either by public auction, private contract or tender, or part by one mode and part by another, as he may think best for the interest of all parties.

439. The party having the conduct of the sale shall bring into the Master's office a draft advertisement, which shall show:

(a) The short style of cause;

(b) That the sale is in pursuance of an order of the Court;

(c) The time and place of sale;

(d) A short and true description of the property to be sold;

(e) The manner in which the property is to be sold, whether in one lot or several, and if in several, in how many, and what lots;

(f) What proportion of the purchase money is to be paid down by way of deposit, and at what time or times, and whether the residue of such purchase money is to be paid with or without interest;

(g) If the sale is subject to a reserve bid it shall be so stated;

(h) Any particulars in which the proposed conditions of sale differ from the standing conditions.

440. Upon the return of the appointment to settle the advertisement the Master shall also fix the time and place of sale, name an auctioneer, where one is to be employed, give direction for publication, fix the reserve bid, and make every other necessary arrangement preparatory to the sale.

441. The standing conditions of sale shall be those set forth in Form No. 49.

442. All parties may bid, except the party having the conduct of the sale, and except any trustees, agents, and other persons in a fiduciary position.

443. The Master or his Clerk shall conduct the sale where no auctioneer is employed.

444. The purchaser shall at the time of sale sign an agreement to purchase.

445. The deposit shall be paid to the vendor, or his solicitor, at the time of sale, and shall forthwith be paid by him into Court, in the name of the purchaser.

446. After the sale is concluded, the auctioneer, where one is employed, shall make an affidavit as to the result of the sale; and where no auctioneer is employed, the Master or his Clerk shall certify the result; and when expedient a separate report on sale may be made. (Form No. 50.)

447. Objection to the sale shall be by motion to set aside the same; and notice of the motion shall be served upon the purchaser and on the other parties, and biddings shall be opened only on special grounds.

448. The purchaser may pay his purchase money, or the balance thereof, into Court without further order; and after confirmation of the report on sale, upon notice to the party having the conduct of the sale, he may if he so desires obtain a vesting order; and when he is entitled to be let into possession, if possession is wrongfully withheld from him, an order against any party in possession for the delivery thereof to him may be made upon his application or upon the application of the vendor.

449. The vendor shall, forthwith upon demand, deliver an abstract of title to the purchaser; and if the purchaser does not serve objections within seven days, he shall be deemed to have accepted the abstract as sufficient; but if objections are served, the vendor shall answer them within 14 days, and if the purchaser is still dissatisfied, and the parties cannot agree, either party may obtain from the Master an appointment to consider the abstract.

450. The Master shall determine all questions upon the abstract and the sufficiency thereof; and, if desired by the purchaser, may require the vendor to make the same as perfect as he can, and if the vendor neglects or refuses to do so, may permit the purchaser to supply defects therein, at the vendor's expense.

451. The Master shall not make a report on the abstract, but shall mark the objections as allowed or disallowed, and when he finds the abstract perfect, or as perfect as the vendor can make it, he shall certify to that effect thereon; and such certificate shall be final without filing, unless appealed from in the same manner as a Master's report.

452. After acceptance or confirmation of the abstract, the verification shall be proceeded with, and the vendor shall with all diligence afford the purchaser all the means of verification in his power, in the manner and according to the practice usual with conveyancers; and after having done so, he may serve a notice on the purchaser to make objections or requisitions, if any, within seven days, or that otherwise he will be deemed to have accepted the title.

453. Upon being served with such notice, the purchaser, if dissatisfied, shall serve his objections or requisitions within the time thereby limited; and the like course shall be followed upon such objections or requisitions as is prescribed in relation to the abstract.

454. In case of the refusal or neglect of the vendor to verify the abstract to the best of his ability, or to furnish any necessary proof or documents in his power, the Master may authorize the purchaser to do so at the vendor's expense.

455. The foregoing six Rules shall apply to all cases of reference to the Master as to title, as well as to sales by the Court.

456. Purchase money shall not be paid out of Court except upon consent of the purchaser or his solicitor, or upon proof being made to the Accountant that the purchaser has received a conveyance or vesting order in respect of the property for which the money in question was paid into Court.

457. No conveyance shall be settled until evidence is produced of the purchase money having been paid into Court, and, where a mortgage is taken for part of the purchase money, until evidence is given to the said officer of such mortgage having been registered and deposited with the Accountant.

458. Where a Master is to appoint a committee, guardian or receiver, the name proposed and the names of his proposed sureties shall be given in the appointment and the Master shall appoint the committee, guardian or receiver, and settle and approve of the proposed security, and when the security has been duly filed, shall sign a written appointment.

459. The Master shall appoint a time when the person appointed is to pass his accounts and pay his balances into Court; and in default of compliance with such direction, the person appointed may, on the passing of his accounts, be disallowed any salary or compensation for his services, and may be charged with interest upon his balances.

459A. Upon the death of a mentally incompetent person, so found, the accounts of his committee shall be passed by the Master to whom the matter has been referred, upon notice to his executor or administrator, and upon payment over to the executor or administrator of the balance found to be due by the Master and upon confirmation of the Master's report the bond given by the committee shall be handed over for cancellation.

MORTGAGE ACTIONS.

460. A mortgagee may in an action claim foreclosure of the equity of redemption or a sale of the mortgaged premises and payment of the mortgage debt by any party personally liable therefor and possession of the mortgaged premises. The writ shall be indorsed in accordance with the Form applicable thereto.

460A. Where a defendant by writ in an action for foreclosure or sale desires an apportunity to redeem the mortgaged premises but does not otherwise desire to defend the action, he shall within the time allowed for appearance file and serve a memorandum entitled in the action to the following effect: "I desire an opportunity to redeem the mortgaged premises," whereupon he shall be entitled to four days' notice of the taking of the account of the amount due to the plaintiff and shall have six calendar months from the time of the taking of the account to redeem the mortgaged premises.

461. Where a defendant by writ in an action for foreclosure desires a sale, but does not otherwise desire to defend the action, he shall, within the time allowed for appearance, file and serve a memorandum, entitled in the action, to the following effect: "I desire a sale of the mortgaged premises instead of foreclosure," and shall pay into Court the sum of $80 to meet the expenses of the sale, and thereupon the judgment shall be entered for sale.

462. A person made a party in the Master's office and desiring a sale shall make a similar deposit before the Master's report is settled, and obtain an order which may be issued on praecipe directing sale instead of foreclosure, and thereupon all subsequent proceedings shall be had and taken as if the judgment had been in the first instance for sale.

463. Where there are infant defendants the Official Guardian may require the judgment to be for sale without making any deposit.

464.—(1) If the plaintiff prefers that the sale be conducted by an adult defendant desiring the sale, he may so elect; and he shall thereupon notify the defendant of such election and the defendant making the deposit shall be entitled to a return thereof.

(2) In other cases the Master shall deal with the deposit in making his report.

465. The Court may on special application either before or after judgment direct a sale instead of a foreclosure; and may direct an immediate sale without previously determining the priorities of incumbrancers, or giving the usual or any time to redeem.

466. In a mortgage action where the defendants, or some of the defendants, are infants and default is made by the adult defendants and the Official Guardian does not desire to set up any defence, the plaintiff, upon filing affidavits showing such facts and circumstances as entitle him to judgment, may move for judgment in Chambers, upon notice to the Official Guardian.

467.—(1) Where the writ has been duly endorsed and the defendant fails to appear or fails to file a notice that he desires an opportunity to redeem the mortgaged premises, the plaintiff may sign judgment for immediate sale or for immediate foreclosure unless a reference is desired as to encumbrancers. (Form 97A.)

(2) If a reference is desired as to encumbrancers the plaintiff shall be entitled to judgment with a reference and if no encumbrancer shall prove any claim the Master shall so certify and upon confirmation of the Master's report a final order of sale or of foreclosure shall be made.

(3) If upon the reference a subsequent encumbrancer shall prove a claim the usual period of redemption shall be granted unless the encumbrancer shall consent when a final order may be made at an earlier date.

(4) In the event of a notice being filed by the defendant desiring an opportunity to redeem the mortgaged premises and no reference as to encumbrancers being required, judgment may be signed and the officer signing same may in simple cases take the account on four days' notice to the defendant. His findings shall be subject to an appeal to a Judge in Chambers in the manner prescribed for appeals from the Master. In complicated cases a judgment shall issue directing a reference. (Form 97.)

(5) In the event of a notice being filed by the defendant desiring an opportunity to redeem the mortgaged premises, and a reference being desired as to encumbrancers, judgment may be signed directing a reference, and the account shall be taken by the Master on four days' notice to the person filing such notice. (Form 96.)

(6) Where the writ has not been personally served, the claim of the plaintiff shall be duly verified by an affidavit which shall be filed with the officer taking the account.

468. Upon a reference under a judgment for foreclosure or sale or redemption of mortgaged property, the Master shall enquire and state whether any person and who, other than the plaintiff, has any lien, charge, or incumbrance upon the land and premises embraced in the mortgage security of the plaintiff, subsequent thereto.

469. The plaintiff shall bring into the Master's Office certificates of the Registrar of Deeds and Sheriff of the County wherein the property lies, setting forth all the incumbrances which affect the property and such other evidence as may be necessary.

470. The Master shall direct all such persons as appear to have any lien, charge or incumbrance upon the property in question, subsequent to the mortgage in question, to be made parties to the action, and to be served with a notice. (Form No. 40.)

471. Any party served with such notice may apply at any time within 10 days from the date of the service, to discharge, add to, vary, or set aside the judgment, or the order making him a party.

472. The Master before he proceeds to hear and determine shall require an appointment (Form No. 41) to be served upon all persons made parties before the judgment appearing to have any lien, charge or incumbrance upon the lands in question, subject to the plaintiff's mortgage, and shall in the notice to the defendant by writ, required by Rule 403, state the names and nature of the claims of those so notified, and of those added under the provisions of Rule 470 as appearing to have a lien, charge or incumbrance upon the said lands, and such notice may be in the Form No. 42.

473. Where a person who has been duly served with a notice under Rule 470 or with an appointment under Rule 472 neglects to attend at the time appointed, the Master shall treat such non-attendance as a disclaimer by the person so making default; and any claim of such person shall be thereby foreclosed, unless otherwise ordered upon application duly made for that purpose.

474.—(1) When all parties have been duly served the Master shall take an account of what is due to the plaintiff and to the subsequent encumbrancers for principal and interest and tax their costs and appoint a time and place for payment.

(2) In an action for foreclosure or sale, one day shall be fixed for redemption by the owner of the equity of redemption and by all subsequent encumbrancers and in case of more than one party desiring to redeem, the question of priority of the right to redeem shall be determined by the Master.

475. On any proceeding for foreclosure or sale by, or for redemption against an assignee of a mortgagee, the statement of the mortgage account, under the oath of such assignee, shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of the state of such account, and an affidavit or oath shall not be required from the mortgagee or any intermediate assignee denying any payment to such mortgagee or intermediate assignee, unless the mortgagor or his assignee, or the party proceeding to redeem denies by oath or affidavit the correctness of such statement of account.

476. The Master's report shall state the names of all persons who have been made parties in his office, and who have been served with the notice or appointment hereinbefore provided for, and the names of such as have made default, and shall set forth the amount of the claims, and the priorities of such as have attended, and these latter shall be certified as the only incumbrancers upon the property. The report shall bear date the day upon which it is settled and shall be signed and filed within ten days thereafter, otherwise a new account shall be taken.

477. Subsequent accounts shall, from time to time, be taken, subsequent costs taxed, and necessary proceedings had, for redemption by, or foreclosure of, the other parties entitled to redeem the mortgaged premises, as if specific directions for all these purposes had been contained in the judgment.

478. If the judgment directs a sale on default in payment, then on default being made, and an order for sale obtained, the property shall be sold, with the approbation of the Master, and the purchaser shall pay his purchase money into Court to the credit of the action.

479. The purchase money, when so paid, shall be applied and paid out of Court in payment of what has been found due to the plaintiff and the other incumbrances (if any), according to their priorities, together with subsequent interest and subsequent costs.

480. Upon a reference under a judgment for redemption, the Master shall, without any special direction, take an account of what is due to the defendant for principal money, interest, and costs, and shall appoint a time and place for payment.

481. Where the judgment is for redemption or foreclosure, or redemption or sale, such proceedings are in such case to be thereupon had, and with the same effect, as in an action for foreclosure or sale, and in such case the last incumbrancer shall be treated as the owner of the equity of redemption.

482. Subject to the provisions of The Mortgages Act, upon payment of the amount found due, the mortgagee shall, unless the judgment otherwise directs, assign and convey the mortgaged property to the party making the payment, or to whom he may appoint, free and clear of all incumbrances done by the mortgagee, and shall deliver up all deeds and writings in his custody or power relating thereto.

483. If the purchase money is not sufficient to pay what has been found due to the mortgagee (where the mortgagor or person liable to pay the debt is a defendant), he shall be entitled on an ex parte application, to an order for the payment of the deficiency.

484.—(1) Where the state of account as ascertained by a judgment order or report is changed before the day appointed for payment, the mortgagee may before the day appointed, give notice of the change of account to the person called upon to pay, giving particulars of the change of account and of the sum to be paid.

(2) If notice of change of account has been given, and the sums therein mentioned appear proper to be allowed or paid, a final order may be granted without further notice, or the officer applied to may in his discretion require notice to be given and may fix a new day.

(3) If any party to whom notice of change of account is given is dissatisfied, he may apply to the Master or officer taking the account to determine the amount to be paid and to fix a new day.

(4) If the state of account has been changed before the day appointed for payment and no such notice has been given, and the amount to be paid is reduced, a new day shall be appointed for payment upon notice to the persons entitled to redeem. If the amount payable has been increased the mortgagee may take a final order without the appointment of a new day.

(5) If the state of the account has been changed after the day appointed for payment, it shall not be necessary to appoint a new day unless the officer to whom the application is made for final order shall so direct.

485.—(1) In an action for foreclosure or sale, or for recovery of possession of any mortgaged property for default in the payment of interest, or of an instalment of the principal, the defendant may, before judgment or after judgment, but before sale or final foreclosure or recovery of possession of the mortgaged property, move to stay the action upon payment of the amount then due for principal, interest and costs.

(2) Any action so stayed may upon subsequent default in the payment of a further instalment of the principal, or of the interest, be proceeded with by leave of the court.

486. In default of payment according to the report in a foreclosure action, a final order of foreclosure may be granted against the party making default, on an ex parte application.

487. In a redemption action, on default of payment being made according to the report, the defendant shall be entitled, on an ex parte application, to a final order of foreclosure against the plaintiff, or to an order dismissing the action with costs to be paid by the plaintiff.

488. In a redemption action where the plaintiff is declared foreclosed, directions may be given either by the final order foreclosing the plaintiff, or by subsequent orders, that all necessary inquiries be made, accounts taken and proceedings had for redemption or foreclosure, or redemption or sale, as against any subsequent incumbrancers, or for the adjustment of the relative rights and liabilities of the original defendants as among themselves.

489. In mortgage actions the period allowed for redemption in the first place shall be six months and when it becomes necessary to fix a date for redemption after the lapse of the first period the further time allowed shall be one month.

490.—(1) Where one or more of the persons interested in the equity of redemption are already defendants, and it is made to appear that by reason of their number or otherwise, it is expedient to permit the action to proceed without the presence of the other persons interested in the equity of redemption, the Court may give directions accordingly, and may order such other persons to be made parties in the Master's office after judgment.

(2) Where after judgment it appears that persons are interested in the equity of redemption besides those who are already parties, such persons may be made parties in the Master's office upon such terms as may seem just.

APPEALS AND NEW TRIALS.

Appeals to the Court of Appeal.

491.—(1) In all cases other than an appeal from an interlocutory order an appeal to the Court of Appeal or a motion for a new trial shall be made by notice of motion served upon all parties interested within 15 days after the date of the judgment or order appealed from. (Form No. 122.)

(2) The notice shall state the relief asked and shall set forth the grounds of appeal. No other grounds may be argued, save by leave of the Court.

(3) A motion, other than an appeal, shall be upon notice and shall be set down at least two days before the return day. Copies of all necessary papers shall be supplied for the use of the Judges.

492. In all cases other than an appeal from an interlocutory order:

(1) The appeal shall be set down for hearing by filing the notice of motion and proof of service within five days after service. There shall at the same time be left with the Registrar proof that the copies of the evidence required for use upon the appeal have been ordered.

(2) The appellant shall within thirty days after setting down the appeal cause to be transmitted to the Registrar of the Court of Appeal the record and exhibits and all such other papers as are necessary for the hearing of the appeal and shall deliver to him five typewritten copies of an appeal book for the use of the Judges, each containing in the following order,—

(a) an index;

(b) the notice of appeal;

(c) the pleadings;

(d) the judgment or order appealed from;

(e) the reasons for judgment;

(f) such of the exhibits, or such parts thereof as are material for the hearing of the appeal, arranged in chronological order (when the exhibits are copied in the evidence by the reporter they need not be copied again);

(g) the evidence (when more convenient the evidence may be bound separately);

(h) any other document material to the due hearing of the appeal.

(3) When the evidence has not been received from the stenographer within the time limited by clause (2) it shall be sufficient if it is put in within five days after it is ready.

(4) When compliance with the provisions of the Rule as to appeal books would cause undue expense or delay a Judge of the Court of Appeal may give special directions.

(5) As soon as the appeal book and evidence have been received by the Registrar the appeal shall be placed upon the list of cases ready to be heard.

(6) In County Court appeals where copies of the evidence and of the proceedings at the trial are necessary a certificate from the Judge that such copies have been ordered from the stenographer shall be deemed to dispense with the inclusion of such evidence and proceedings in the papers certified, and the appeal may be set down without such copies upon the appellant's solicitor undertaking to deposit them as soon as they are received from the stenographer. In case such undertaking shall not be performed the provisions of Rule 497 shall apply and may be enforced.

(7) The appellant shall, contemporaneously with the delivery of the appeal books to the Registrar, deliver a copy thereof to the solicitor for the respondent. If the evidence has not then been received from the reporter, a copy of the evidence shall be delivered to the respondent within the time limited by clause (3).

(8) In appeals from a County Court three copies of the appeal book and in appeals from a Division Court one copy of the appeal book for the use of the Judge or Judges shall be sufficient.

493. In an appeal from an interlocutory order:

(1) Leave to appeal shall be obtained from a Judge other than the Judge appealed from.

(2) The application for leave shall be made within one week from the pronouncing of the order appealed from, or such further time as may be allowed by the Judge hearing the application for leave to appeal.

(3) Leave to appeal shall not be granted unless,—

(a) There are conflicting decisions by a Judge or Court upon the matter involved in the proposed appeal and it is in the opinion of the Judge desirable that an appeal be allowed; or

(b) There appears to the Judge hearing the application to be good reason to doubt the correctness of the decision or order in question and the appeal involves matters of such importance that in the opinion of the Judge leave to appeal should be given.

(c) The Judge granting leave shall shortly state his reasons.

(4) If leave is given the appeal shall be set down within three days after the granting of leave, without further notice of appeal, and appeal books shall be put in within a week thereafter.

(5) Save as aforesaid the provisions of the preceding rule shall apply.

494. In an appeal under a Statute where leave to appeal is necessary, leave to appeal shall be obtained on notice to the parties interested within two weeks from the pronouncing of the order appealed from, or within such further time as the Judge hearing the application shall allow and the appeal shall be set down for hearing within three days after the granting of leave and save as aforesaid the provisions of Rules 491 and 492 shall apply.

495. In an appeal from a judgment of the Supreme Court both parties shall lodge with the Registrar five copies of a typewritten statement of the points of law and of fact intended to be argued including a list of cases intended to be cited and such references to the evidence, by page and line, as may facilitate the argument. Such statement shall be lodged at the latest upon the day before the case is placed upon the peremptory list for argument and within the same time a copy thereof shall be furnished to the other party. In default the appeal may be heard ex parte or costs may not be awarded to the defaulting party if successful.

NOTE.—It is not intended or desired that this statement should be a factum or a brief. It should be a concise statement of the points without argument.

496.—(1) An appeal which is not perfected nor prosecuted as required, within the time prescribed or allowed, shall be deemed to be in default and the respondent may have it struck from the list by the Registrar as an abandoned appeal upon giving five days' notice to the appellant of his intended application.

(2) If the appeal is perfected within the five days from the giving of such notice or if within that time an application is made for an order extending the time the Registrar shall take no action.

(3) If the appeal is not perfected within the five days or within such further time as may be allowed, the Registrar shall strike the appeal off the list and shall issue an order for payment of the costs of the abandoned appeal. (Form No. 123.)

(4) Unless an appeal is made ready for hearing by the appellant within one year from the filing of the notice of appeal it shall be deemed to have been abandoned without any order to dismiss being required unless the Court or Judge shall otherwise order, and the Registrar may upon the application of the respondent tax the costs and issue a certificate of dismissal.

(5) Unless an appeal is brought on for hearing within two years after the same is set down it shall, unless the Court or Judge otherwise order, be deemed to be abandoned and the Registrar shall return the papers to the office from which he received the same and no further proceedings shall be taken therein.

497. It shall not be necessary for a respondent to give notice of motion by way of cross-appeal except in cases where the respondent intends to appeal upon his claim or counterclaim in the action, but if a respondent only intends upon the hearing of the appeal, to contend that the decision appealed against should be varied, he shall within five days after the notice of appeal has been served upon him, give notice of such intention to any parties who may be affected by such contention and shall forthwith file such notice with proof of service. The omission to give such notice shall not diminish the power of the Court but may in the discretion of the Court be ground for an adjournment of the appeal or for a special order as to costs.

498. The time limited by Rules 491-497 may be extended by a written consent or by a Judge of the Court of Appeal.

Stay of Execution Pending Appeal.

499. The Judge at the trial may stay the entry of judgment or the issue of execution for a period not exceeding thirty days, but this shall not prevent the settlement of the judgment.

500.—(1) Unless otherwise ordered by a Judge of the Court of Appeal the execution of the judgment appealed from shall, upon an appeal being set down to be heard, be stayed, pending the appeal, but if the judgment appealed from awards a mandamus or an injunction, execution shall not be stayed unless so ordered by the Judge appealed from or by a Judge of the Court of Appeal.

(2) Where leave to appeal from an interlocutory order is granted the Judge hearing the application may give directions as to staying proceedings.

501. Where an execution has been issued and is thereafter stayed upon an appeal, the appellant shall be entitled to obtain a certificate from the Registrar that the execution has been stayed pending the appeal, and upon the certificate being lodged with the sheriff the execution shall be superseded, but the execution debtor shall pay the sheriff's fees; and the sum so paid shall be allowed to him as part of the costs of the appeal.

502. Where the execution of a judgment is stayed pending an appeal, all further proceedings in the action, other than the issue of the judgment, and the taxation of costs thereunder, shall be stayed, unless otherwise ordered by a Judge of the Court of Appeal.

Default and Disagreement of Jury.

503. Where a party does not appear at the trial, the judgment may be set aside and a new trial ordered by the Judge presiding at the sittings, or by a Judge.

504. Where the Jury disagree the action may be re-tried at the same sittings or at any subsequent sittings as may be directed.

505.—(1) Where a jury is directed to answer questions, and answers some but not all, or where the answers are conflicting so that judgment cannot be entered upon such findings, the action shall be re-tried as in the case of a disagreement.

(2) If the answers entitle either party to judgment as to some but not all the causes of action, the Judge may direct judgment to be entered on the causes of action as to which the answers are sufficient, and the issues upon the remaining causes of action shall then be re-tried as upon a disagreement.

Appeals from Masters and Referees—Local Judges and Officers in Chambers.

506.—(1) Every report or certificate of a Master shall be filed and shall be deemed to be confirmed at the expiration of fourteen days from the date of service of notice of filing the same, unless notice of appeal is served within that time.

(2) Where notice of filing is not necessary a report shall be confirmed 14 days after filing.

507. An appeal from the report or certificate of a Master or Referee shall be to the Court upon seven clear days' notice, and shall be returnable within one month from the date of service of notice of filing of the report or certificate.

508.—(1) A person affected by an order of the Master upon any application heard by him under Rule 208, a Local Judge, Local Master or other officer in Chambers, or of a Master under the authority of Rule 433, may appeal therefrom to a Judge in Chambers.

(2) The appeal shall be by motion, on notice served within four days and returnable within ten days after the decision complained of.

(3) The appeal shall not be a stay of proceedings unless ordered by a Judge or by the officer whose decision is complained of.

(4) Where the judgment, order or decision is made or given in vacation, a person affected thereby may, if the matter is urgent, appeal therefrom during vacation to the Vacation Judge, or may appeal after vacation in the same manner and within the same time as if the judgment, order or decision had been made on the first day after vacation.

(5) Appeals in Chambers shall be argued by Counsel.

509. Any person affected by a judgment or order of a Local Judge in Court may appeal therefrom to a Judge in Court, and such appeal shall be brought within the time and upon the like notice and proceedings as in cases of appeals from orders and decisions of Local Judges in Chambers.

Appeals from Taxation.

510.—(1) An appeal from the report or certificate of an officer to whom the taxation of a solicitor's bill under The Solicitors Act has been referred shall lie and may be brought in the same manner as in the case of the report of a Master.

(2) In other cases a party dissatisfied with the decision of a taxing officer upon any question of principle or as to any item respecting which objections have been duly filed, may appeal from the certificate of a taxing officer to a Judge in Chambers; the practice upon the appeal shall be the same as upon an appeal from an order made by the Master.

FORM OF JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS, ETC.

511. Judgments and orders shall be divided into convenient paragraphs, numbered consecutively.

512. It shall not be necessary in any judgment or order to reserve liberty to apply, but any party may apply to the Court from time to time as he may be advised.

513. Every judgment or order shall show on its face the day of the week and month on which it was given or made and every judgment shall also show the date upon which it is actually signed, and (except judgments signed by default and praecipe orders) shall show the name or names of the Judge or officer who gave or made the same, and shall take effect from its date. (Forms Nos. 62 and 63.)

514. An order for payment of money into Court on behalf of, or as the property of, an infant shall, unless otherwise directed, state the date of the birth of the infant.

515. All judgments and orders directing payment of costs shall direct payment to the party entitled to receive the same and not to his solicitor.

516.—(1) Every judgment, and every order pronounced in Court, shall be entered at full length.

(2) Judgment in causes and matters commenced in the Central Office, and all orders made in Court or Chambers in Toronto, shall be entered in the Registrar's Office.

(3) Judgments in causes or matters commenced in a local office and all orders made therein not entered at Toronto shall be entered in the office in which the cause or matter was commenced.

(4) Orders issued on praecipe and orders made in Chambers, shall not be entered in full, except:

Orders declaring persons mentally incompetent, or and with respect the Estates of such persons;

Orders for the Sale of Infants' Estates;

Orders for Payment of Money into or out of Court, or out of an estate or fund;

Orders for Foreclosure or Sale;

Orders for the confirmation of the report of a Master or Referee;

Orders vacating certificates of lis pendens or cautions;

Vesting Orders;

and such other orders as may from time to time be directed to be entered.

(5) Where an order made in Chambers is not required to be entered in full, a copy thereof shall be filed and a memorandum showing the issue of the order shall be made by the Entering Clerk.

517. The Entering Clerk shall note in the margin of the judgment or order book the day of entering, and shall at the foot of the judgent or order note the same date and a reference to the book in which the entry has been made.

518. All judgments and orders of the Court of Appeal shall be entered in the Registrar's Office at Toronto, and if the action was commenced elsewhere also in the office where the action was commenced.

519.—(1) Any judgment in a mortgage action may direct in general terms that all necessary inquiries be made, accounts taken, costs taxed, and proceedings had for redemption or foreclosure (or for redemption or sale, as the case may be) and that for these purposes the cause is referred to (naming the Master).

(2) Any judgment directing a sale may so direct in general terms and refer the action to the Master for that purpose.

(3) Any judgment directing partition or administration may be in general terms.

(4) Any judgment in general terms shall confer upon the Master all the powers given by these Rules and all other powers necessary to enable him to carry the judgment into full effect.

520. Any judgment by default may be set aside upon an application in Chambers.

521. Clerical mistakes in judgments or orders, or errors arising therein from any accidental slip or omission, may at any time be corrected upon an application in Chambers.

522. Where a judgment or order requires amendment in any particular on which the Court did not adjudicate, the same may be amended on motion.

523. A party entitled to maintain an action for the reversal or variation of a judgment or order, upon the ground of matter arising subsequent to the making thereof, or subsequently discovered, or to impeach a judgment or order on the ground of fraud, or to suspend the operation of a judgment or order, or to carry a judgment or order into operation, or to any further or other relief than that originally awarded may move in the action for the relief claimed.

524. Upon the production of the order of His Majesty in His Privy Council, made upon an appeal to His Majesty in Council, or of the certificate of the Registrar of the Supreme Court of Canada upon an appeal to that Court, the officer of this Court with whom the judgment or order appealed from was entered shall cause the order of His Majesty in His Privy Council or the certificate of the Supreme Court to be entered in the judgment book, and all subsequent proceedings may be taken thereupon as if the decision had been given in this Court.

525. Every judgment and order by which a judgment is affirmed, reversed, set aside, varied, or in any way modified, shall in addition to any other entry thereof, be entered in the office where the original judgment or order is entered.

526. Judgments and orders pronounced in trials at Toronto shall be settled by the Registrar to whom is assigned the duty of settling judgments.

527.—(1) Judgments in cases tried elsewhere than at Toronto shall be settled by the Local Registrar or other officer acting as Registrar at the place of trial, unless any party affected applies to the Registrar at Toronto to whom is assigned the duty of settling judgments to settle the same, or to reconsider the settlement of the same by the local officer.

(2) When settled the minutes may be varied by the Trial Judge on the application of either party.

528. Notice of settling minutes of a judgment or order other than a simple judgment or order for recovery of a sum certain with or without costs or dismissing an action or motion shall be given unless dispensed with by the officer by whom the judgment or order is to be settled, and the proposed minutes of the judgment or order shall be served or left in his office for inspection, and any party may take a copy thereof.

529. Where judgment may be signed upon the filing of any affidavit or production of any document, the officer shall examine the affidavit or document produced and ascertain that it is regular and sufficient.

530. Where a judgment or order is obtained upon a condition, and the condition is not complied with, the judgment or order shall be deemed to have been waived or abandoned as far as the same is beneficial to the person obtaining the same, and any person interested in the matter, on the breach or non-performance of the condition, may either take such proceedings as the judgment or order in such case may warrant, or such proceedings as might have been taken if the judgment or order had not been made.

531.—(1) Every judgment shall be signed by the Registrar or by the proper officer in whose office the action was commenced.

(2) Every judgment or order pronounced by the Court or by a Judge in Chambers shall be settled and signed by the Registrar or officer attending the Court or Chambers at which the same is pronounced, but the Judge pronouncing such order may himself settle or sign the same.

(3) Orders made by an officer sitting in chambers shall be signed by him, but in his absence an officer having concurrent jurisdiction may sign an order which has been approved by all parties represented on the application in the name of the officer who pronounced the order by subscribing thereto the name of such officer and adding thereto his own signature and office preceded by the word "by".

(4) Orders made by a Judge of the Court of Appeal shall be settled and signed by the Registrar or by the Judge.

531A.—(1) The minutes of every final Judgment or order of the court of Appeal shall be settled and initialled by the Registrar.

(2) Any party to the appeal who is dissatisfied with the Minutes as settled by the Registrar may apply on notice of motion returnable before the Chief Justice or other presiding Judge of the Court that heard the appeal, specifying in precise terms the alteration in the Minutes sought by him and the Chief Justice or other presiding Judge may hear the application or may delegate the hearing to any other member of the Court who heard the appeal.

(3) The Judge settling the Minutes may refer the motion to the Court.

532.—(1) In order to acknowledge satisfaction of a judgment, a satisfaction-piece shall be signed by the party acknowledging the same or his personal representative, and his signature shall, unless the Court expressly dispenses therewith, be witnessed by some practising solicitor, expressly named by him, and attending at his request to inform him of the nature and effect of such satisfaction-piece before the same is signed. (Form No. 130.)

(2) The solicitor shall declare himself in the attestation thereto to be the solicitor for the person so signing the same, and state that he is witness as such solicitor; and in cases where the satisfaction-piece is signed by the personal representative of a party deceased, his representative character shall be proved by the production of the probate of the will, or of the letters of administration (or a certified copy), to the officer having custody of the judgment.

(3) The satisfaction-piece shall be filed in the office in which the judgment is entered, and a note thereof shall be made in the book where the judgment is entered.

ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS AND ORDERS

533. A judgment for the recovery by or payment to any person of money may be enforced by the issue of a writ of execution against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the debtor, but if the amount due on the judgment is less than $40.00 no execution shall issue against lands and tenements. (Form No. 108.)

534. Any judgment for the payment of money into Court may be enforced in the same way as a judgment for payment to any person, and the person having the carriage of the judgment shall be deemed to be a judgment creditor for the purpose of its enforcement.

535. A judgment for the recovery of money on behalf of an infant, mentally incompetent person, or person of unsound mind or on behalf of a class shall direct the money to be paid into Court, and no payment to the guardian, next friend, or committee of money of such infant, mentally incompetent person or person of unsound mind, or person having the conduct of the proceedings on behalf of the class, shall be a valid discharge as against the infant, mentally incompetent person or person of unsound mind, or the class.

536. Every writ of execution for the levying of any money to be paid into Court shall be indorsed by the officer issuing the same with the following notice: "All money made under this execution is to be paid into Court by the Sheriff."

537. Where any party is by a judgment entitled to any relief subject to or upon the fulfilment of any condition or contingency, he may, upon the fulfilment of the condition or contingency, apply for leave to issue execution.

538. Every judgment creditor shall be entitled immediately to issue one or more writ or writs of fieri facias; but if the judgment is for payment within a period therein mentioned, the writ shall not be issued until after the expiration of such period.

539. When a Sheriff returns that he has "goods (or lands) on hand for want of buyers", a writ of venditioni exponas or a writ of venditioni exponas for part and fieri facias for the residue may be issued. The Sheriff may make this return by certificate and the original writ of execution shall remain in force for the residue. (Forms Nos. 112*a* and 113.)

540. A judgment for the recovery or for the delivery of the possession of land may be enforced by writ of possession. (Form No. 114.)

541. Where by any judgment any person therein named is directed to deliver up possession of any lands to some other person on or at any specified time after being served with the judgment, the person prosecuting the same shall without any further order for that purpose be entitled to issue a writ of possession, on filing an affidavit showing due service of the judgment and that the same has not been obeyed.

542. When a judgment directs recovery of any land and money, one writ or separate writs of execution for the recovery of possession and for the money may be issued at the election of the party entitled to recover.

543. A judgment for the recovery of dower may be enforced by a writ of assignment of dower, directed to the Sheriff of the County in which the lands lie; and the writ shall set forth the lands out of which the plaintiff is to recover dower. (Forms Nos. 119 and 120.)

544.—(1) Where a judgment directs the recovery of specific goods, chattels, deeds, securities, documents, or any property other than land or money, a writ of delivery may issue directing the sheriff to cause such goods or property to be delivered up in accordance with the judgment. (Form No. 115.)

(2) If the goods and property are not delivered up by the judgment debtor and cannot be found and taken by the sheriff, the judgment creditor may apply for an order directing the sheriff to take goods and chattels of the judgment debtor to double the value of the property in question to be kept until the further order of the Court to enforce obedience to the judgment.

(3) By leave of the Court such judgment may also be enforced by attachment, committal, or sequestration.

545. A judgment requiring any person to do any act other than the payment of money, or to abstain from doing anything, may be enforced by attachment, or by committal. (Form No. 117.)

546. A writ of attachment shall not be issued without the leave of the Court or a Judge, on notice to the person against whom the attachment is to be issued.

547. Where a person is taken or detained in custody under a writ of attachment, without obeying the judgment, then upon the sheriff's return that the person has been so taken or detained, the party prosecuting the judgment shall be entitled upon motion to a writ of sequestration against the estate and effects of the disobedient person.

548. If an attachment cannot be executed against the person refusing or neglecting to obey the judgment, by reason of his being out of the jurisdiction of the Court, or of his having absconded, or that with due diligence he cannot be found, or if in any other case the Court may think proper to dispense with a writ of attachment, an order may be granted for a writ of sequestration against the estate and effects of the disobedient person; and it shall not be necessary for that purpose to issue an attachment.

549. If a person who is ordered to pay money, neglects to obey the judgment, the Court may, upon the application of the party prosecuting the same, at the expiration of the time limited for performance, make an order for a writ of sequestration. (Form No. 118.)

550. A writ of sequestration shall be directed to the Sheriff, unless otherwise ordered.

551. In case a person has been committed to gaol for contempt of Court, there to be detained and imprisoned until he shall have purged his contempt, if it be made to appear that he is in actual custody under such committal, the Court may modify the order and limit the term of imprisonment or grant such other relief as may in the nature and circumstances of the case seem just, but any relief that may be granted to any such person shall not relieve him from any civil liability.

552. If a mandamus granted in an action or otherwise, or a mandatory order, injunction, or judgment for specific performance of any contract is not complied with, the Court, besides or instead of proceedings against the disobedient party for contempt, may direct that the act required to be done may be done so far as practicable by the party by whom the judgment has been obtained, or some other person appointed by the Court, at the cost of the disobedient party; and upon the act being done the expenses incurred may be ascertained in such manner as the Court may direct and execution may issue for the amount so ascertained and costs.

553. Any judgment against a Corporation wilfully disobeyed may be enforced by sequestration against the Corporation or by attachment against the directors or other officers of the Corporation.

554. Any Corporation or individual disobeying a judgment, or guilty of any other contempt of Court, may be fined. Such fine may be in lieu of or addition to punishment by attachment, committal or sequestration.

555. Any person not a party against whom obedience to a judgment may be enforced shall be liable to the same process and punishment as if he were a party.

556.—(1) Under an execution against one partner, partnership assets shall not be taken in execution, but an order may be made charging the partner's interest in the partnership property and profits with the payment of the amount of the executions in the Sheriff's hands, and by the same or a subsequent order a receiver may be appointed of the partner's share of profits whether already declared or accruing and of any other money which may be coming to him in respect of the partnership, and the Court may direct all accounts and inquiries and give all such other directions as might be directed or given if the charge had been given by the partner.

(2) The other partners may redeem the interest charged or in event of a sale may purchase the same.

557. Where goods or chattels are seized in execution under a writ of fieri facias, the Sheriff, or his officers acting for him, shall, on request, deliver to the owner, his agent or servant, an inventory thereof before they are removed from the premises on which they have been so seized; and no Sheriff or other officer shall sell any goods or chattels under a writ of execution until he has previously thereto given at least eight days' public notice in writing of the time and place of sale in the most public place in the municipality where such goods or chattels have been seized.

558. The Sheriff shall where goods seized by him under a writ of fieri facias remain unsold in his hands for want of buyers, state in his return of "goods on hand for want of buyers", the time and place when and where such goods were offered for sale by him, and the names of at least three persons who were present at the time of such attempted sale, if so many were present, but if so many were not present, then the names of those who were present, if any, and that there were no others, and if no person was present then he shall state that fact.

559. The Sheriff shall not expose lands for sale under a writ of fieri facias, or sell the same within less than twelve months from the day on which the writ is delivered to him.

560. Where a writ of fieri facias is issued against an absconding debtor in an action in which an order for attachment has been issued, the Court may order the Sheriff to sell lands of the absconding debtor before the expiration of the twelve months.

561. A sale of lands shall not be had under any writ of fieri facias until after a return of nulla bona, in whole or in part, in the same action or matter by the Sheriff of the same county.

562. If the amount authorized to be made and levied under a writ of fieri facias is made and levied thereunder out of goods and chattels, the person issuing the writ shall not be entitled to the expenses of any seizure or advertisement of lands thereunder; and the return to be made by the Sheriff to the writ for sale of lands shall be to the effect that the amount has been so made and levied as aforesaid.

563. Before the sale of lands under a writ of fieri facias, the Sheriff shall publish once, not less than three months and not more than four months preceding the sale, an advertisement of sale, in the Ontario Gazette, specifying:

(a) The property to be sold;

(b) The name of the plaintiff and defendant;

(c) The time and place of the intended sale;

(d) The name of the debtor whose interest is to be sold;

and he shall, upon one day at least in each week for four successive weeks next preceding the sale, also publish such advertisement in a public newspaper of the County or District in which the lands lie; and he shall also for three months preceding the sale, put up and continue a notice of such sale in the office of the Clerk of the Peace, and on the door of the Court House or place in which the General Sessions of the Peace of the County or District is usually holden; but nothing herein contained shall be taken to prevent an adjournment of the sale to a future day.

564. The advertisement in the Ontario Gazette of any lands for sale under a writ of fieri facias, during the currency of the writ, shall be deemed a sufficient commencement of the execution to enable the same to be completed by a sale and conveyance of the lands after the writ has become returnable.

565. As between the original parties to a judgment, execution may, without leave, issue at any time within six years from the date of the same.

566. Where the six years have elapsed or any change has taken place by death or otherwise in the parties entitled or liable to execution, or where a party is entitled to execution upon a judgment of assets in futuro, the party alleging himself to be entitled to execution may apply for leave to issue execution accordingly or to amend any execution already issued. (Form No. 85.)

567. Every writ of execution shall be indorsed with the name and address of the solicitor issuing the same; and if he issues the same as agent for another solicitor, the name and address of such other solicitor shall also be indorsed. Where the writ is issued by a suitor in person his name and address shall be indorsed.

568. Every writ of execution for the recovery of money shall be indorsed with a direction to the officer to whom the writ is directed, to levy the money really due and payable and sought to be recovered under the judgment, stating the amount, and also to levy interest thereon at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum from the time when the judgment was entered.

569. The officer issuing the writ or renewal thereof shall indorse upon the same a memorandum signed by him of the amount which the party issuing such writ is entitled to receive for the costs of such writ, and any renewal and for any further or other writs or renewals, and no sum not so indorsed is to be collected for such costs.

570. Upon every execution there may be levied, in addition to the sum recovered by the judgment and interest thereon, the poundage, fees, and expenses of execution.

571. A writ of fieri facias shall remain in force for three years from its issue, unless renewed before its expiration, when it shall be in force for a further period of three years from the date of such renewal, and so on from time to time. A writ may be renewed by being marked in the margin with a memorandum signed by the proper officer, stating the date of the day, month and year of such renewal, or by a certificate of renewal signed by such officer; a writ so marked (or if renewed by certificate the certificate) shall be placed in the hands of the Sheriff before its expiry, when it shall have effect and be entitled to priority, according to the time of the original delivery thereof.

572. The Sheriff to whom a writ is directed shall indorse on such writ all returns thereto and shall give a certificate thereof when demanded, which certificate shall be deemed a return. (Form No. 121.)

573. Where the party who delivered any writ or process to any Sheriff to be executed, or any other person entitled to call for a return requires, by a demand in writing, the Sheriff to return the writ either by returning the writ to the Court from which the writ issued, or by granting a certificate under the preceding rule, the Sheriff shall, within eight days, return the writ according to the terms of the requisition; and if he wilfully refuses or neglects to do so, he may be ordered to return the writ, and may be further proceeded against as in other cases of contumacy.

574. Upon filing the demand and proof of service an order against the Sheriff to return the writ in six days from service shall be issued on praecipe.

575. Personal service of the demand or order on the Sheriff shall not be necessary, if it appears by affidavit that inquiry was made for him, and that he could not conveniently be found, and the demand or order was served upon the Sheriff's clerk, or bailiff in, or having charge of, the Sheriff's office.

576. Where a Sheriff neglects or refuses to return any writ when so demanded, he may be ordered to pay the costs of any order taken out to compel the return, and all other costs consequent thereon, and also the costs of the previous demand.

577. Where the Sheriff is ordered to return a writ, and does not make the return within the time specified in the order, the Court may order the Sheriff to be attached, or direct that an attachment shall issue unless a return be made within a limited time.

578. If the writ is not returned at the expiration of any further time limited, and if the service of the order and the failure of the Sheriff to return the writ are proved, the Court may order the attachment to issue forthwith against the Sheriff upon an ex parte application.

579. The Sheriff when required to return a writ to the Court, shall file the writ or his certificate under Rule 572, in the office from which the order to return the same was issued, and the officer with whom it is filed shall indorse the day and hour when it was filed.

EXAMINATION OF JUDGMENT DEBTORS AND ATTACHMENT OF DEBTS.

580. A judgment creditor may, without an order, examine the judgment debtor upon oath before the proper officer of the County in which he resides, touching his estate and effects, and as to the property and means he had when the debt or liability which was the subject of the cause or matter in which judgment has been obtained against him was incurred (or in the case of a judgment for costs only, at the time of the commencement of the cause or matter), and as to the property and means he still has of discharging the judgment, and as to the disposal he has made of any property since contracting such debt or incurring such liability (or in case of a judgment for costs only, since the commencement of the cause or matter), and as to any and what debts are owing to him.

581. Where the judgment is against a corporation the judgment creditor, may in like manner examine any of the officers of such corporation, touching the names and residences of the stockholders in the corporation, the amount and particulars of stock held or owned by each stockholder and the amount paid thereon, and as to what debts are owing to the corporation, and as to the estate and effects of the corporation; and as to the disposal made by it of any property since contracting the debt or liability in respect of which the judgment was obtained, or, in the case of a judgment for costs only, since the commencement of the cause or matter.

582. The Court may order any clerk or employee or former clerk or employee of the judgment debtor, or any person or the officer or officers of any corporation to whom the debtor has made a transfer of his property or effects, exigible under execution, since the date when the liability or debt which was the subject of the action in which judgment was obtained was incurred (or where the judgment is for costs only, since the commencement of the cause or matter) to submit to be examined upon oath as to the estate and effects of the debtor, and as to the property and means he had when the debt or liability aforesaid was incurred (or in the case of a judgment for costs only, at the date of the commencement of the cause or matter) and as to the property or means he still has of discharging the judgment, and as to the disposal he has made of any property since contracting the debt or incurring the liability, and as to any and what debts are owing to him.

583. Where the Court is satisfied that there is reasonable ground for supposing that any person or corporation is in possession of any property of the judgment debtor exigible under execution, it may order such person or any officer of said corporation to attend and submit to examination touching the property and means of the judgment debtor.

584. Where a difficulty arises in or about the execution or enforcement of a judgment, the Court may make such order for the attendance and examination of any party or person as may seem just.

585. A person liable to be examined under the preceding Rules may be compelled to attend and testify, and to produce books and documents, in the same manner and subject to the same rules of examination, and the same consequences of neglecting to attend or refusing to disclose the matters in respect of which he may be examined, as in the case of a witness.

586. A person liable to be examined as a judgment debtor or as an officer of a corporation which is a judgment debtor need not be served with a subpoena, but may be served with an appointment signed by the officer before whom he is to be examined at least 48 hours before the time fixed for his examination, and the person to be examined shall be paid the same fees as a witness.

587. Where the judgment debtor does not attend, does not allege a sufficient excuse for not attending, or if attending, refuses to disclose his property or his transactions, or does not make satisfactory answers respecting the same, or if it appears from such examination that such debtor has concealed or made away with his property in order to defeat or defraud his creditors or any of them, the Court may order the debtor to be committed to the common gaol of the County or District in which he resides, for any term not exceeding twelve months; or that a writ of capias ad satisfaciendum may be issued against the debtor, or in case the debtor is at large upon bail, may make an order for his committal to close custody; and the Sheriff, on due notice of the order, shall forthwith take the debtor and commit him to close custody until he obtains an order allowing him to go out of close custody, on giving the necessary bond in that behalf, or until he is otherwise discharged in due course of law.

588. Where any officer of a corporation or other person liable to be examined does not attend, and does not show a sufficient excuse for not attending, or if attending, refuses to disclose any of the matters in respect of which he may be examined, the Court may order him to be committed to the common gaol of the County or District in which he resides, for any term not exceeding six months.

589. Where a person has been committed to gaol, the Court may limit the term of imprisonment or grant such other relief as may seem just, but the order shall not relieve such person from any civil liability to any other person.

590.—(1) The Court, upon the ex-parte application of the judgment creditor, upon affidavit stating that the judgment is unsatisfied and

(a) that some person within Ontario is indebted to the judgment debtor, or

(b) that some person not within Ontario is indebted to the judgment debtor and that the debt to be attached is one for which such person might be sued in Ontario by the judgment debtor, may order that all debts owing or accruing from such third person (hereinafter called the garnishee) to the judgment debtor, shall be attached to answer the judgment debt and that the garnishee do at a time named show cause why he should not pay the judgment creditor the debt due from the garnishee to the judgment debtor or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the judgment debt and the claims of any other execution creditors. Notice of the application to pay over shall, unless dispensed with, be given to the judgment debtor. (Form No. 72.)

(2) When the garnishee is not within Ontario, and is neither a British subject nor in British dominions, notice of the order and not the order itself shall be served. (Form No. 73.)

(3) Where a debt owing from a firm carrying on business within Ontario, but having members out of Ontario, is attached, service may be effected upon any person having control or management of the partnership business or any member of the firm within Ontario.

591. The garnishee shall be deemed to be indebted, although any debt sought to be attached has been assigned, charged or incumbered by the judgment debtor, if the assignment, charge or incumbrance is fraudulent as against creditors or is otherwise impeachable by them.

592. The order from the time of service shall bind the debts attached.

593. If the garnishee admits his liability he may pay the amount admitted into Court, less $3 for his costs of paying in, and give notice of such payment to the judgment creditor.

594.—(1) If the garnishee does not pay into Court the amount due from him to the judgment debtor, and does not dispute the debt due or claimed to be due from him to the judgment debtor, or if he does not appear upon notice to him, then the Court may order payment into Court of the debt. (Form No. 74.)

(2) If the debt be not payable at the time of the attachment, an order may be made for the payment thereof when it becomes payable.

595. If the garnishee disputes his liability, the Court may determine the dispute in a summary way or may order that an issue be tried in such manner as may be directed.

596.—(1) Where a garnishee has notice of any assignment of the debt or of any claim thereto or charge thereon he shall give notice thereof and the Court may order the assignee or the claimant to appear and state the nature and particulars of his claim.

(2) After hearing the allegations of such third person, and of any other person who by the same or any subsequent order may be ordered to appear, or in case of such third person not appearing when ordered, the Court may order payment of the amount due from the garnishee, or may order an issue to be tried, or may bar the claim of the third person, or may make such other order as may seem just.

597. Where the debt claimed to be due or accruing from a garnishee is of the amount recoverable in a County Court, the order to show cause shall require the garnishee to appear before the Judge of the County Court of the County within which the garnishee resides, on a day and at a place within his County to be appointed by such Judge; and the garnishee shall be served with notice of the day and place appointed. All subsequent proceedings shall then be taken and carried on before such Judge.

598.—(1) Where the debt claimed to be due or accruing from a garnishee is of the amount recoverable in a Division Court, the order to show cause shall require the garnishee to appear before the Judge of the Division Court within whose Division the garnishee resides, on a day to be appointed in writing by such Judge, and the garnishee shall be served with notice of the day appointed.

(2) The proceedings shall thereafter be carried on before the Judge as though the garnishee summons had issued out of the said Division Court, and all proceedings may thereafter be carried on in the Division Court, and execution may be issued in the Division Court to enforce any order or judgment made.

599. Payment into Court or under an order by the garnishee shall be a valid discharge to him, as against the judgment debtor, or any assignee or claimant of whose claim he has given notice and who has been called upon to show cause under the preceding rules.

ORIGINATING NOTICES.

600. The executors or administrators of a deceased person or any of them, and the trustees under any deed or instrument or any of them, or any person claiming to be interested in the relief sought as creditor, devisee, legatee, next-of-kin or heir-at-law of a deceased person, or as cestui que trust under the trusts of any deed or instrument, or as claiming by assignment or otherwise under any such creditor or other person as aforesaid, may apply by originating notice for the determination without an administration of the estate or trust of any of the following questions or matters:

(a) Any question affecting the rights or interests of the person claiming to be creditor, devisee, legatee, next-of-kin or heir-at-law, or cestui que trust.

(b) The ascertainment of any class of creditors, legatees, devisees, next-of-kin, or others.

(c) The furnishing of any particular accounts by the executors or administrators or trustees and the vouching (where necessary) of such accounts.

(d) The payment into Court of any money in the hands of the executors or administrators or trustees.

(e) Directing the executors or administrators or trustees to do or abstain from doing any particular act in their character as such executors or administrators or trustees.

(f) The approval of any sale, purchase, compromise or other transaction.

(g) The opinion, advice or direction of a Judge pursuant to The Trustee Act.

(h) The determination of any question arising in the administration of the estate or trust.

(i) The fixing of the compensation of any executor, administrator or trustee.

601.—(1) The persons to be served with notice under the next preceding Rule in the first instance shall be as follows:

(A) Where the notice is served by an executor or administrator or trustee,—

(a) For the determination of any question under clause (a), (e), (f), (g), (h), or (i) the persons or one of the persons whose rights or interests are sought to be affected;

(b) For the determination of any question under clause (b), any member or alleged member of the class;

(c) For the determination of any question under clause (c), any person interested in taking such accounts;

(d) For the determination of any question under clause (d), any person interested in the money;

(e) If there are more than one executor or administrator or trustee and they do not all concur in the application, service of the notice shall be upon those who do not concur.

(B) Where the notice is served by any person other than the executors, administrators or trustees, it shall be served upon the executors, administrators or trustees, and upon one or more of the persons interested adversely to the applicant.

(2) The Judge before whom the motion is returnable may direct such other person to be served as he may deem proper.

602. When upon an originating notice under The Vendors' and Purchasers' Act it appears that some third person is or may be interested in the question raised, the Court may require notice to be given to such person so that the question may be determined not only as between the vendor and purchaser, but so as to bind such third person.

603.—(1) Where any person claims to be the owner of land, but does not desire to have his title thereto quieted under The Quieting Titles Act, he may have any particular question which would arise upon an application to have his title quieted determined upon an originating notice.

(2) Notice shall be given to all persons to whom notice would be given under The Quieting Titles Act, and the Court shall have the same power finally to dispose of and determine such particular question as it would have under the said Act, but this shall not render it necessary to give the notice required by Rule 705.

604. Where the rights of any person depend upon the construction of any deed, will or other instrument, he may apply by originating notice, upon notice to all persons concerned, to have his rights declared and determined.

605.—(1) Where the rights of the parties depend,—

(a) Upon the construction of any contract or agreement and there are no material facts in dispute;

(b) Upon undisputed facts and the proper inference from such facts; such rights may be determined upon originating notice.

(2) A contract or agreement may be construed before there has been a breach thereof.

606.—(1) The Judge may summarily dispose of the questions arising on an originating notice and give such judgment as the nature of the case may require, or may give such directions as he may think proper for the trial of any questions arising upon the application.

(2) Any special directions, touching the carriage or execution of the judgment or order or the service thereof upon persons not parties, may be given as may be deemed proper.

607. Service of an originating notice shall not interfere with or control any power or discretion vested in any executor, administrator or trustee, except so far as such interference or control may necessarily be involved in the particular relief sought.

ADMINISTRATION, PARTITION, INFANTS' ESTATES AND DOWER.

Administration.

608. Any person claiming to be a creditor, or a specific, pecuniary, or residuary legatee, or the next-of-kin, or one of the next-of-kin, or the heir, or a devisee interested under the will of a deceased person may apply by originating notice for the administration of the estate, real or personal, of such deceased person. (Form of Order No. 99.)

609. A judgment for the administration of an estate in which an infant or a mentally incompetent person who has no committee except the Public Trustee is interested, shall not be made unless the infant or mentally incompetent person is made a party defendant and notice is given to the Official Guardian. Notice of such application shall, unless otherwise ordered, also be given to such mentally incompetent person.

610. An executor or administrator may, upon summary application, obtain a judgment for administration.

611.—(1) Where judgment for administration is granted the Master to whom the matter is referred shall proceed to administer the estate in the most expeditious and least expensive manner, and in doing so shall, without special direction, take,—

(a) An account of the personal estate of the deceased, come to the hands of his executor or administrator;

(b) An account of his debts;

(c) An account of his funeral expenses;

(d) An account of the said testator's legacies;

(e) An inquiry as to what parts, if any, of the real and personal estate are outstanding or disposed of;

(f) An inquiry as to what real estate the deceased was seised of, or entitled to, at the time of his death;

(g) An inquiry as to what incumbrances affect the real estate;

(h) An account of the rents and profits of the real estate received by any party since the death;

(i) An account of what is due to such of the incumbrancers as shall consent to sale in respect of their incumbrances;

(j) An inquiry as to what are the priorities of such last-mentioned incumbrances.

(2) The Master shall, under any such reference, have power to deal with both the real and personal estate, including the power to give all necessary directions for its realization, and shall finally wind up all matters connected with the estate, without any further directions, and without any separate interim, or interlocutory reports or orders, except where the special circumstances of the case absolutely call therefor.

(3) All money realized from the estate shall forthwith be paid into Court, and no money shall be distributed or paid out for costs or otherwise without an order of a Judge, and on the application for an order for distribution the Judge may review, amend, or refer back the report, or make such other order as may seem just.

612. It shall not be obligatory on the Court to pronounce or make a judgment or order for the administration of any trust or of the estate of any deceased person, if the questions between the parties can be properly determined without such judgment or order.

613. In any action or proceeding for the administration or execution of trusts by a creditor or beneficiary under a will, intestacy or instrument of trust, where no accounts or insufficient accounts have been rendered, the Court may, instead of pronouncing judgment for administration:

(a) Order that the executors, administrators or trustees, shall render to the plaintiff or applicant a proper statement of their accounts, with an intimation that if it is not done they may be made to pay the costs of the proceedings, and may direct the action or proceeding to be stayed or to stand over in the meantime, as may seem just;

(b) The Court may make the usual judgment for administration with a provision that no proceedings are to be taken thereunder without the leave of the Court. Such judgment shall prevent proceedings being taken by any creditor or beneficiary without first obtaining leave.

614. Special directions touching the carriage or execution of the judgment may be given as may be deemed expedient; and in case of applications by two or more persons, or classes of persons, judgment may be granted to one or more of the claimants as may seem just; the carriage of the judgment may be subsequently given to other persons interested.

Partition.

615.—(1) An adult person entitled to compel partition of land or any estate or interest therein may, by originating notice served on one or more of the persons entitled to a share therein, apply for partition or sale. (Form of Order No. 100.)

(2) Where an infant or a mentally incompetent person who has no committee except the Public Trustee is interested, he shall be made a party defendant before judgment, and notice shall be given to the Official Guardian. Notice of such application shall, unless otherwise ordered, also be given to such mentally incompetent person.

(3) The Master shall proceed in the least expensive and most expeditious manner, for partition or sale, the adding of parties, the ascertainment of the rights of the various persons interested, the taxation and payment of costs, and otherwise.

(4) All money realized shall forthwith be paid into Court, and no moneys shall be distributed or paid out for costs or otherwise, without an order of a Judge; and on the application for an order for distribution, the Judge may review, amend, or refer back to the Master his report or make such other order as may seem just.

616. An application for partition on behalf of an infant by his guardian or next friend may be made with the sanction of a Judge to be first obtained upon notice to the Official Guardian.

Dower.

617. Where the right to dower is not disputed, either the dowress or the tenant of the freehold may apply upon originating notice for a writ for the assignment of dower.

Infants' Estates.

618. All applications for the sale, mortgage, lease, or other disposition of an infant's estate shall be made to a Judge upon notice to the Official Guardian.

619.—(1) The affidavits filed shall state the nature and amount of the personal property to which the infant is entitled, the necessity of resorting to the real estate, its nature, value, and the annual profits thereof; the occupation of the lands to be disposed of, and state specifically the relief desired, and circumstances sufficient to justify the order sought.

(2) If an allowance for maintenance is desired, a case shall also be stated and made, to justify such an order, and to regulate the amount.

(3) If the appointment of a guardian is desired, a case shall be stated and made, for the appointment of the person proposed.

620.—(1) The consent of all infants over 16 years of age shall be filed, verified by an affidavit of a solicitor stating that the consent was read over by him to the infant and fully explained to and apparently understood by the infant.

(2) When so directed by the Judge, the infant shall be produced before him or before a Master, and shall be examined apart as to his consent.

(3) Where the infant is out of Ontario the Judge may direct inquiry as to the infant's consent in such manner as may seem proper.

621. Witnesses in support of the application may be examined vivâ voce before the Judge making the order or before a Master of the Supreme Court.

MANDAMUS, ETC.

622. Mandamus prohibition and certiorari may be granted upon a summary application by originating notice.

623. No writ of mandamus prohibition or certiorari shall be issued, but all necessary provisions shall be made in the judgment or order. (Forms Nos. 82 and 83.)

624. The Court may require notice to be given to any person claiming any right or interest in the subject-matter of the application.

INTERPLEADER.

625. Relief by way of interpleader may be granted:

(a) Where the person seeking relief (hereinafter called the applicant) is under liability for any debt, money, goods or chattels, for or in respect of which he is, or expects to be, sued by two or more persons (hereinafter called the claimants) making adverse claim thereto;

(b) Where the applicant is a Sheriff and claim is made to any money, goods, or chattels, lands or tenements, taken or intended to be taken in execution under a writ of execution, or to the proceeds or value thereof, by any person other than the person against whom the process issued.

626. The applicant shall satisfy the Court by affidavit, or otherwise:

(a) That he claims no interest in the subject-matter in dispute, other than in respect of a lien or for charges or costs;

(b) That he does not collude with any of the claimants; and

(c) That he is willing to pay or transfer the subject-matter into Court, or to dispose of it as the Court may direct.

627. The applicant shall not be disentitled to relief by reason only that the titles of the claimants have not a common origin, but are adverse to and independent of one another.

628. Where the applicant is a defendant, application for relief may be made at any time after service of the writ of summons; and the Court may stay all proceedings in the action.

629. The applicant may make a motion calling on the claimants to appear and state the nature and particulars of their claims, and either to maintain or relinquish them.

630. Where a claimant does not appear on the motion after having been served with a notice of motion calling on him to appear and maintain or relinquish his claim, or, having appeared, neglects or refuses to comply with any order made thereafter, an order may be made declaring him and all persons claiming under him to be for ever barred as against the applicant and all persons claiming under him, but the order shall not affect the rights of the claimants as between themselves. (Form No. 75.)

631. Where the claimants appear on the motion, any claimant may be made a defendant in any action already commenced in respect of the subject-matter in dispute in lieu of or in addition to the applicant, or an issue between the claimants may be stated and tried, and in the latter case the order shall direct which of the claimants shall be plaintiff, and which defendant. (Forms Nos. 76 and 77.)

632. The Court may, with the consent of both claimants, or on the request of any claimant, if, having regard to the value of the subject-matter in dispute, it seems desirable so to do, dispose of the merits of their claims, and, subject to appeal, decide the same in a summary manner. (Form No. 78.)

633. Where the question is one of law, and the facts are not in dispute, the Court may decide the question without directing the trial of an issue, or order that a special case be stated for the opinion of the Court.

634. Where goods or chattels have been seized in execution by Sheriff, and any claimant alleges that he is entitled, under a bill of sale or otherwise, to the goods or chattels by way of security for debt, the Court may order a sale, and direct the application of the proceeds of the sale in discharge of the amount due the claimant if it is not disputed, or that sufficient to answer the claim be paid into Court pending trial of the claim.

635. Where a Sheriff applies for relief by interpleader, and any execution creditor declines to join in contesting the claim of the adverse claimant, the Court may direct that such creditor shall be excluded from any benefit which may be derived from the contestation of the claim.

636. The Court which tries the issue may finally dispose of the interpleader proceedings, including all costs not otherwise provided for.

637. When a Sheriff finds property in the possession of a debtor against whose property he has a writ or other process in his hands, and a claim is set up to such property by or on behalf of a third person who is out of possession or is in joint possession with the debtor, the claim of such third person shall be made in writing, and upon receipt thereof the Sheriff shall forthwith give notice thereof to the execution creditor, and the execution creditor shall, within seven days thereafter, give notice to the Sheriff that he admits or disputes the claim. If the execution creditor admits the title of the claimant, and gives notice as directed by this Rule, he shall only be liable to such Sheriff for fees and expenses incurred before the receipt of the notice admitting the claim; and no action shall be brought against the Sheriff in respect of the seizure of the property.

638. Where the execution creditor does not in due time admit or dispute the title of the claimant to the property, and the claimant does not withdraw his claim thereto by notice in writing to the Sheriff, the Sheriff may apply for relief by interpleader.

639. In case a Sheriff has more than one writ of execution against the same property, or there is more than one claimant to goods seized under the execution, he shall make one application, and make all the execution creditors and claimants parties.

640. Where there is an execution from the Supreme Court the application for interpleader shall be made in the Supreme Court notwithstanding that other executions in the Sheriff's hands have issued from County or Division Courts.

641.—(1) Where an issue is directed to be tried, the costs of the Sheriff incurred in consequence of the adverse claim shall be a first lien or charge upon the moneys or goods which may be found in the issue to be applicable upon the execution.

(2) The Sheriff may also tax such costs, and serve a copy of the certificate of taxation upon each of the parties to the issue, and the successful party upon the issue shall tax such costs as part of his costs of the cause, and upon receipt thereof shall pay over the same to the Sheriff.

(3) Where after the service of the certificate the party succeeding upon the issue neglects or refuses to tax such costs, the Sheriff may obtain an order that the successful party shall pay the same.

(4) Where the proceedings are compromised between the parties thereto, the costs of the Sheriff shall be paid by the party by whom the execution was issued.

642. Where, after the seizure, an issue is directed, and the property seized remains, pending the trial of the issue, in the custody of the Sheriff who seized the same, the Court may make an order for the payment to the Sheriff of a reasonable sum for his trouble in and about the custody of the property; and the Sheriff shall have a lien upon the property for payment of the same in event of the property being held to be exigible against the claimant.

643. The Court may make all such orders respecting the satisfaction or payment of any lien or charges of the applicant as may be just and reasonable.

644.—(1) Relief by interpleader may be granted in a County Court,—

(a) Where the applicant is sued in the County Court;

(b) Where the applicant is not so sued and the debt, money, goods or chattels in question do not exceed in value $500.

(2) Where the applicant is a Sheriff acting under a writ or writs of execution issued from a County Court or different County Courts the application may be made to the Judge of his own County.

645. All subsequent proceedings shall be had and taken in the County where the application is made; but the Judge to whom the application is made may order that the subsequent proceedings be had and taken in any other County, if that course seems just and more convenient.

646. Where the amount claimed under or by virtue of writs of execution, in the Sheriff's hands, does not exceed the sum of $400, exclusive of interest and Sheriff's costs, or when the goods seized are not, in the opinion of the Judge or other person making the order, of the value of more than $400, the issue may be directed to be tried in a County Court and in such case all subsequent proceedings shall be had and taken in the County Court.

647. Where the amount of the execution or the value of the goods does not exceed $100, the issue may be directed to be tried in a Division Court, and thereafter all proceedings shall be carried on in such court.

648. When money has been paid into Court and an issue has been directed to be tried in the County or Division Court the money shall be paid out upon the order of the County or Division Court.

Private Bills

PUBLIC NOTICE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO

The attention of Municipal Officials, Solicitors and all other persons who may be interested in the preparation of Private Bills for submission to the Legislative Assembly of Ontario is directed particularly to the following Rules of the House governing the submission of such Bills.

RULES RE SUBMISSION OF PRIVATE BILLS

63.—(1) No petition for any Private Bill is received by the House after the first two weeks of each Session; nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session; nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first six weeks of each Session and no motion for the general suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House unless after reference made thereof, at a previous sitting of the House, to the several Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills or upon Report submitted by two or more of such committees.

64.—(1) Any person desiring to obtain a Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House at least eight (8) days before the meeting of the House a copy of such Bill, together with a fee of $150, and if such Bill is not deposited by that time the applicant shall pay $10 for each and every day which intervenes between the said eighth day and the date of the filing of the Bill.

(2) After the first reading of the Bill, and before its consideration by the Committee to which it is referred, the applicant in every case shall pay the cost of printing the Act in the Statutes.

(3) The following charges shall also be levied and paid in addition to the foregoing:

(a) When any rule of the House is suspended with reference to a Bill or the Petition therefor, for each suspension $50.

(b) When a Bill is presented to the House after the first three weeks of the Session and before the end of the fourth week, $75.

(c) When a Bill is presented after the fourth week of the Session, $100.

(4) In case of any Bill incorporating a company or increasing the capital stock of a company already incorporated, there shall be paid to the Clerk of the House, by or on behalf of the applicant, before the same is reported to the House, the same fee as would be payable to the Provincial Secretary in the case of an incorporation or increase of capital under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, less the sum of $150 already paid to the Clerk of the House.

(5) When a Bill is for the purpose of confirming by-laws, bonds, debentures or other securities, or authority is asked to borrow money or to increase borrowing powers, the following additional fees shall be paid according to the amount of money involved:

On amounts less than $10,000, $25; on amounts over $10,000 and up to $25,000, $50; on amounts over $25,000 and up to $40,000, $75; on amounts over $40,000 and up to $75,000, $100; on amounts over $75,000 and up to $125,000, $125; on amounts over $125,000 and up to $175,000, $150; amounts over $175,000 and up to $250,000, $200; an amounts over $250,000 and up to $350,000, $250; and an additional fee of $50 for every $100,000 over $350,000.

66. All applications for Private Bills properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, within the purview of "The British North America Act, 1867" shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such Notice to be published as follows, viz.:

A notice inserted in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE and in one newspaper published in the Municipality affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest municipality in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

If the application is by a Municipal Corporation for authority to issue debentures the notice shall set out the particulars of the existing debenture debt and the amount of the rateable property of the Municipality according to the last revised assessment roll of the Corporation, and in brief and general terms, the object for which the new issue of debentures is required.

67. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the Notice required by the preceding Rule, also, at the same time and in the same manner, give Notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privileges, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

68. Before any Petition praying for leave to bring in a Bill for the construction of Railways, Tramways or Canals is received by the House, the person or persons petitioning for such Bill shall deposit with the Clerk the following documents:

1. A map or plan upon a scale of not less than half an inch to the mile, showing the location upon which it is intended to construct the proposed work, and showing also the lines of existing or authorized works of a similar character within, or in any way affecting the district or any part thereof which the proposed work is intended to serve. Such map or plan to be signed by the Engineer or other party making the same.

2. A book of reference in which shall be clearly set out the following information in separate schedules namely:

SCHEDULE A.—The name of each municipality within which the proposed works or any part thereof are intended to be constructed; the population of each such municipality as returned by the next preceding census, the rateable value of the property within each such municipality, as returned by the next preceding assessment rolls thereof; and this schedule may contain in a separate statement similar information as to the adjoining districts intended to be served by the proposed work.

SCHEDULE B.—A general description of the nature, extent, and proposed character of the contemplated works, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, distinguishing the general items of construction and the cost thereof respectively, as well as the nature, extent and probable cost of all engines and car stock or other outfit or equipment necessary to the use and operation of the proposed undertaking, such schedule to be signed by the Engineer, or other person preparing the same.

SCHEDULE C.—An exhibit showing the total amount of capital proposed to be raised for the purposes of the undertaking and the manner in which it is proposed to raise the same, whether by ordinary shares, bonds, debentures or other securities, and the amount of each respectively.

SCHEDULE D.—An estimate of the probable revenues of the proposed undertaking showing the sources whence the same are expected to be derived; the annual earnings thereof respectively; the probable annual cost of operation or working expenditure, and the annual net revenue applicable to the payment of interest on the proposed investments, such schedules to be signed by the person preparing the same.

72. When any Bill for confirming any Letters Patent, or Agreement, is presented to the House, the copy of such Letters Patent, or Agreement, shall be attached to it.

74. Every Private Bill, when read a first time shall, unless it be an Estate Bill or a Bill providing for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a Municipal Corporation, shall stand referred to the proper Standing Committee, and all petitions before the House, for or against the Bill, are considered referred to such Committee.

75. Every Private Bill, in so far as it provides for the consolidation of a floating debt or for the consolidation or renewal of debentures (other than local improvement debentures) of a municipal corporation, when the Bill has been read a first time, shall, without special reference, stand referred to The Ontario Railway and Municipal Board for their report; and a copy of such Bill and of the Petition on which the same is founded shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the Board, in order that the Board may, after an inquiry into the allegations set out in the Bill, and into any other matters which the Board may deem necessary in connection therewith, report to the House whether or not it is reasonable that such Bill or the part thereof relating to the matters aforesaid, shall be passed, and what alterations, if any, should be made in the same, and the Board shall make such inquiry accordingly, and shall sign the same; and the said Report, Bill and Petition shall be transmitted to the Clerk, and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table and shall be entered on the Journals of the House, and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills.

76. Every Estate Bill, when read a first time shall without special reference, stand referred to the Commissioners of Estate Bills, for their Report, and a copy of such Bill, and of the Petition on which the same is founded, shall be forthwith transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the said Commissioners, or one of them, in order that they, or any two of them, may, after perusing the Bill, without requiring any proof of the allegations thereof, report to the House their opinion thereon under their hands; and whether presuming the allegation contained in the preamble to be proved so the satisfaction of the House, it is reasonable that such Bill do pass into a law: and whether the provisions thereof are proper for carrying its purposes into effect, and what alterations or amendments, if any, are necessary in the same, and in the event of their approving the said Bill they are to sign the same; and the said Report, with the said Bill and Petition, are to be transmitted by the said Commissioners to the Clerk; and the Report shall be read by the Clerk at the Table, and shall be entered on the Journals of the House; and the Bill, together with the Report, shall stand referred to the Standing Committee on Private Bills, which is not to consider the said Bill, before the delivery of the said Report, Bill and Petition to the Chairman of the said Committee.

77. In the event of the Commissioners of Estate Bills reporting that, in their opinion, it is not reasonable hat the Bill submitted to them shall pass into law uch Bill shall not be further considered.

ALEX. C. LEWIS, K.C.,
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly
of Ontario.

Publications Under The Regulations Act, 1944

APRIL 21st, 1945

(Regulations Filed in 1944)

THE REGULATIONS ACT, 1944

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection 1 of section 3 of The Regulations Act, 1944, that every regulation shall within one month of the filing thereof be published in THE ONTARIO GAZETTE, and whereas by virtue of subsection 2 of the said section 3 and of a certain Order-in-Council dated the 11th day of May, 1944, the Attorney General may at any time by order, extend the time for publication of a regulation, such order to be published with the regulation, and whereas having regard to the volume of regulations which have been and which will be filed before the 31st day of December, 1944, and to the present shortage of skilled craftsmen in the printing trade, it will in many cases be impossible to comply with the provisions of subsection 1 of section 3 of the said Act;

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the time for publication of regulations filed before the 1st day of January, 1945, be extended for such period as may be necessary in the case of each set of regulations so filed.

Dated at Toronto this 9th day of November, 1944.

Attorney General.

THE JUDICATURE ACT

COSTS.

649. Where an action of the proper competence of a County Court is brought in the Supreme Court, or an action of the proper competence of a Division Court is brought in the Supreme Court, or in a County Court, and the Judge makes no order to the contrary the plaintiff shall recover only County Court costs, or Division Court costs, as the case may be, and the defendant shall be entitled to tax his costs of suit as between solicitor and client; and so much thereof as exceeds the taxable costs of defence which would have been incurred in the County Court or Division Court, shall, on entering judgment, be set off and allowed by the Taxing Officer against the plaintiff's County Court or Division Court costs to be taxed, or against the costs to be taxed and the amount of the verdict if it be necessary; and if the amount of costs so set off exceeds the amount of the plaintiff's verdict and taxed costs, the defendant shall be entitled to execution for the excess against the plaintiff.

650. Where judgment is entered for default and the action is within the jurisdiction of an inferior Court, the taxation shall be on the scale of fees in such Court.

651. The Taxing Officer may make all inquiries necessary to determine whether an action is within the competence of an inferior Court.

652.—(1) A judgment or order may direct payment of a sum in gross in lieu of taxed costs.

(2) No sum in excess of $30 shall be allowed, without taxation, save by a Judge.

(3) In all cases where infants or mentally incompetent persons are concerned and are represented by the Official Guardian, the Taxing Officer may fix costs at a sum gross to be inserted in the order.

653.—(1) In actions or proceedings for administration, or partition, or administration and partition, unless otherwise ordered by a Judge, instead of the costs being allowed according to the tariff, each person properly represented by a solicitor, and entitled to costs out of the estate—other than creditors not parties to the action or proceeding—shall be entitled to his actual disbursements in the action or proceeding, not including counsel fees, and there shall be allowed, for the other costs of the suit payable out of the estate, a commission on the amount realized, or on the value of the property partitioned, which commission shall be apportioned among the persons entitled to costs, as may seem just. Such commission shall be as follows:

|---|---|
| On the first $500 | 20 per cent. |
| On every additional $100 over $500 and up to $1,500 | 5 " " |
| On every additional $100 over $1,500 and up to $4,000 | 3 " " |
| On every additional $1,000 over $4,000 and up to $10,000 | 2½ " " |
| On every additional $1,000 over $10,000 | 1 " " |

and such remuneration shall be in lieu of all fees, whether between party and party or between solicitor and client.

(2) Where an order or judgment in any such action or proceeding by any form of words directs that the costs thereof be taxed, it shall be taken to mean the allowance of commission and disbursements, in accordance with subsection 1, unless it is otherwise expressly provided.

654. The costs of every interlocutory vivâ voce examination and cross-examination shall be borne by the party who examines unless, as to the whole or part thereof, it be otherwise directed, in actions in the Supreme Court by the Taxing Officer at Toronto, on his appointment served, and in actions in a County Court by a Judge thereof.

655. Where the Official Guardian or other guardian of an infant, or mentally incompetent person, is entitled to costs, the Court may order a successful party to pay such costs and add them to his own.

656. Where several actions are brought on one bond, recognizance, promissory note, bill of exchange, or other instrument, or where, several actions are brought against the maker and indorser of a note, or against the drawer, acceptor or indorser of a bill of exchange, there shall be collected or recovered the costs taxed in one action only, at the election of the plaintiff, and the actual disbursements only in the other actions, unless the Court otherwise orders; but this provision shall not extend to any interlocutory costs.

657. Where any one of the persons constituting a class formed by a Master for representation in his office by one solicitor insists on being represented by a different solicitor, he shall pay the costs of his own solicitor and all such further costs as are occasioned to any of the parties by his being represented by a different solicitor from the solicitor so nominated.

658. No ex-parte order in an action shall contain any direction as to costs, but the costs of any such motion shall be dealt with by the Taxing Officer.

659. Costs claimed upon a specially indorsed writ may be taxed although paid, and if more than one-sixth be taxed off the plaintiff's solicitor shall bear the cost of taxation.

660.—(1) Unless otherwise ordered, if a party who serves a notice of motion does not set the motion down, he shall be deemed to have abandoned the same, and the opposite party shall thereupon be entitled without an order to the costs of the motion.

(2) A party who serves a notice of motion may countermand the same by notice served on the opposite party, who shall thereupon be entitled to the costs of the motion.

(3) In either of such cases the costs may be taxed without an order, upon the production of the notice of motion served, with an affidavit that the motion was not set down, or of the notice of countermand served; and if the costs are not paid within four days from taxation, the party entitled thereto may issue an execution therefor.

(4) The provisions of this Rule shall apply to an appeal to the Court of Appeal.

661.—(1) Where costs are ordered to be paid, they may be taxed either by the Taxing Officer at Toronto or by the proper officer where the proceedings are begun.

(2) On the signing of default judgment the officer signing judgment may fix and ascertain costs without taxation.

(3) The officer taking an account in a mortgage action may tax costs.

662. Where a notice of taxation is necessary, one day's notice shall be sufficient if served with a copy of the bill of costs and affidavit of disbursements.

663. The Taxing Officer may direct what parties are to attend before him on the taxation of costs to be borne by a fund or estate, and disallow the costs of any person whose attendance he considers unnecessary in consequence of the interest of the party in the fund or estate being small or remote, or sufficiently protected by other parties interested.

664. Where any party entitled to costs refuses or neglects to bring in his bill of costs for taxation, or to procure the same to be taxed, and thereby prejudices any other party, the Taxing Officer shall certify the costs of the other parties, and certify such refusal or neglect, or may allow such party refusing or neglecting a nominal or other sum for such costs, so as to prevent any other party being prejudiced by such refusal or neglect.

665. Where a party entitled to receive costs is liable to pay costs to any other party, the Taxing Officer may adjust the same by way of deduction or set off.

666. A set-off of damages or costs between parties shall not be allowed to the prejudice of the solicitor's lien for costs in the particular action in which the set-off is sought; but interlocutory costs in the same action awarded to the adverse party may be set off notwithstanding any lien.

667. Between party and party the Taxing Officer shall not allow the costs of proceedings:

(a) Unnecessarily taken;

(b) Not calculated to advance the interests of the party on whose behalf the same were taken;

(c) Incurred through overcaution, negligence or mistake; or

(d) Which do not appear to have been necessary or proper for the attainment of justice or defending the rights of the party.

668. Upon a taxation between a solicitor and his client the Taxing Officer may allow the costs of proceedings taken which were in fact unnecessary where he is of the opinion that such proceedings were taken by the solicitor because, in his judgment, reasonably exercised, they were conducive to the interests of his client, and may allow the costs of proceedings which were not calculated to advance the interest of the client where the same were taken by the desire of the client after being informed by his solicitor that they were unnecessary and not calculated to advance his interests. This rule shall not apply to solicitor and client costs payable out of a fund not wholly belonging to the client, or by a third party.

669. Where two or more defendants defend by different solicitors under circumstances entitling them to but one set of costs, the Taxing Officer shall allow but one set of costs; and if two or more defendants defending by the same solicitor separate unnecessarily in their defences, or otherwise, the Taxing Officer shall allow but one defence and set of costs.

670. It shall be the duty of the Taxing Officer, without any direction, to disallow in whole or in part the costs of any writ, pleading, petition, affidavit, evidence, account, statement, or other proceeding, which is improper, unnecessary or contains unnecessary matter, or is of unnecessary length. Affidavits and evidence may be disallowed, although the same may be entered as read in any judgment or order.

671. When anything in the course of an action or reference which ought to have been admitted, has not been admitted, the party who neglected or refused to make the admission may be ordered to pay the costs occasioned by his neglect or refusal.

672.—(1) An affidavit of disbursements shall be made by the solicitor in the cause or matter or some clerk having the management thereof, or by the client, setting forth the sums paid to counsel, the names of witnesses, their places of abode, the places at which they were subpoenaed, and the distance which each such witness was necessarily obliged to travel in order to attend the trial, and the sums paid to them, and shall state that all such witnesses were necessary and material for the client in the cause, or matter, that they did attend, and that they did not attend as witnesses in any other cause (or otherwise, as the case may be) and the number of days which each witness was necessarily absent from home in order to attend such trial.

(2) If a solicitor attends as a witness it shall be stated whether or not he attended at the place of trial as solicitor or witness in any other cause, and whether or not he had any other business there. The day on which the trial took place shall be stated.

(3) The necessity for maps and plans used at the trial, the sum paid for them, and that they were prepared or procured with a view to the trial of the cause, shall be shown by the affidavit of disbursements.

673. In cases not otherwise provided for, the Taxing Officer may allow a reasonable sum for the expense of a shorthand writer, on the certificate of the Judge before whom the examination of any witness or witnesses in any such cause, matter or other proceeding takes place; and also on the certificate of a Local Master in references before him when the parties agree to the employment of a shorthand writer.

674. Costs may be taxed on an award, although the time for appealing from or moving against the award has not elapsed.

675. The costs of removing a bond or other security from the files of the Court for the purpose of bringing an action thereon, may be taxed as costs in the cause in the action brought thereon.

676.—(1) Costs shall be allowed and taxed according to Tariff A appended to these Rules, and no other fees, costs or charges than are therein set forth shall be allowed in respect of the matters thereby provided for.

(2) The fees and disbursements payable upon proceedings in the Supreme Court and in the County Courts shall be those enumerated in the Tariff B appended to these Rules.

(3) The fees and allowances to be taken and received by Sheriffs other than those provided for by any statute shall be the fees and allowances set forth in the Tariff C appended to these Rules.

(4) When the costs incurred in Canada of an appeal to His Majesty in his Privy Council have been awarded and the same have not been taxed by the Registrar of the Privy Council the same may be taxed by the Taxing Officer, at Toronto, and the taxation shall be according to the scale of Tariff D.

(5) Costs payable out of the proceeds of land sold, mortgaged or leased under The Devolution of Estates Act shall be allowed and taxed according to Tariff E to these rules.

677. Costs payable out of the proceeds of lands sold under The Devolution of Estates Act, with the approval of the Official Guardian, shall be taxed by the Taxing Officer at Toronto.

678.—(1) All bills of costs or disbursements,—

(a) in proceedings for administration or partition;

(b) in actions in which an infant or mentally incompetent person is interested;

(c) where costs are payable out of an estate or out of a fund in Court; shall be revised by the Taxing Officer at Toronto before the amount thereof is inserted in any certificate, report, order or judgment.

(2) In case of urgency leave may be granted to issue a writ of execution, subject to the future revision by the Taxing Officer, and if the amount taxed is reduced on revision, the party entitled to the costs shall forthwith give credit upon the execution for the amount struck off.

679. The local officer shall forthwith, after taxing any such bill of costs, transmit the same by mail to the Taxing Officer, and shall allow in the bill the postage for the transmission and return of the bill and shall prepay the same; and shall allow in the bill the sum of one dollar as a fee for the revision of the bill; and a law stamp for that sum, with postage stamps for return postage, shall be paid at the time of taxation by the party procuring the bill to be taxed, and be transmitted therewith.

680. The Taxing Officer at Toronto, upon receiving the bill of costs shall revise the taxation either ex parte, or upon notice to the Toronto agent of the solicitor whose bill is in question, as he may see fit, giving notice in all cases where the taxation is not clearly erroneous, or where the amount in question is large. Notice may be by appointment mailed to the address of the solicitor or of his agent. The Taxing Officer shall re-transmit the bill when revised to the local officer.

681.—(1) When upon the taxation of costs a party is dissatisfied with the allowance or disallowance by the Taxing Officer of the whole or any part of any item he may at any time before the certificate is signed, deliver to the other party interested therein, and to the Taxing Officer, objections in writing to such allowance or disallowance, specifying concisely the item objected to, and may thereupon apply to the Taxing Officer to review the taxation in respect of the same.

(2) The Taxing Officer shall, upon request, hold the taxation open for a reasonable time in order to allow such objections to be delivered.

682. The Taxing Officer shall then reconsider and review his taxation upon such objections, and he may receive further evidence in respect thereof, and, if required, he shall state either in his certificate of taxation or by reference to such objections, the grounds and reasons of his decision thereon, and any special facts or circumstances relating thereto.

683.—(1) A Sheriff claiming any fees, poundage, expenses or remuneration, which have not been taxed, shall, upon being required by either party, and on payment of 25 cents for a copy of his bill in detail (which he shall be bound to render) have his fees, poundage, expenses or remuneration, as the case may be, taxed by the proper Taxing Officer of his County.

(2) A Sheriff shall not, without taxation, collect any fees, costs, poundage or expenses, after he has been required to have the same taxed.

684. The Sheriff or the party requiring taxation may obtain an appointment for taxation, and the Taxing Officer, upon proof of service of such appointment or upon the parties attending before him, shall examine the bill, and satisfy himself that the items charged in such bill are correct and legal, and strike out items charged for unnecessary services, and give, when requested, a certificate of the taxation.

685. A party dissatisfied with the taxation may appeal therefrom as in ordinary cases of taxation between party and party.

686.—(1) Where part only is made by the Sheriff on or by force of an execution against goods and chattels, the Sheriff shall be entitled, besides his fees and expenses of execution, to poundage only upon the amount so made by him, whatever be the sum indorsed upon the writ; and where the personal estate, except chattels real, of the judgment debtor is seized or advertised on or under an execution, but not sold by reason of satisfaction having been otherwise obtained, or from some other cause, and no money is actually made by the Sheriff on or by force of such execution, the Sheriff shall be entitled to the fees and expenses of execution and poundage only on the value of the property seized not exceeding the amount indorsed on the writ, or such less sum as the Court may deem reasonable.

(2) Where land or chattels real of the judgment debtor have been advertised under an execution, but not sold by reason of payment or satisfaction having been otherwise obtained on, or within one month before, the day on which the property has been advertised to be sold, or any day to which the sale may be adjourned, the Sheriff shall be entitled to the fees and expenses of the execution, and the poundage only on the value of the debtor's interest in the property not exceeding the amount indorsed on the writ, or such less sum as the Court may deem reasonable.

687. Where there are writs of execution upon the same judgment to several Counties or Districts and the personal estate of the judgment debtor has been seized or advertised, in one or in one or more or all of such Counties, but not sold, by reason of satisfaction having been obtained under and by virtue of a writ in any of the Counties, and no money has been actually made on the execution, the Sheriff shall not be entitled to poundage, but to mileage and fees only for the services actually rendered and performed by him, and the Taxing Officer may allow him a reasonable charge for such services, in case no special fee therefor is assigned in any tariff of costs.

688. Where a person liable on an execution is dissatisfied with the amount of poundage fees or expenses of execution claimed by a Sheriff, the Court may, before or after payment thereof, upon the application of such person, upon notice to the Sheriff, if the amount appears to be unreasonable, notwithstanding that it is according to the tariff, reduce the same or order the same to be refunded upon such terms as may seem just.

689.—(1) Where a solicitor has been employed to prosecute or defend any cause or matter, the Court may, upon a summary application, declare such solicitor, or his personal representatives to be entitled to a charge upon the property recovered or preserved through the instrumentality of such solicitor, for his costs, charges and expenses of or in reference to such cause, matter or proceeding; and all conveyances and acts done to defeat, or which may operate to defeat, such charge or right shall, unless made to a bona fide purchaser for value without notice, be absolutely void and of no effect as against such charge.

(2) The Court may make an order for taxation of such costs, charges and expenses and for the raising and payment of the same out of the property.

DEVOLUTION OF ESTATES.

690. Before an executor or administrator takes proceedings under The Devolution of Estates Act, for the sale of real estate in which an infant is concerned, he shall give to the Official Guardian or Local Guardian appointed under that Act notice of the intention to sell, and shall not be entitled to any expenses incurred before giving such notice.

691. The Official Guardian or other officer aforesaid, or any person interested in the land or in the proceeds of the sale thereof, may apply to a Judge, upon notice to all parties concerned or to such parties as the Judge may direct, for such direction or order touching the real estate and the proceeds thereof or the costs of the proceedings as to the Judge may seem meet.

QUIETING TITLES.

692. A petition for an investigation of titles, under The Quieting Titles Act, shall not include two or more properties dependent on separate and distinct titles, but may include any number of lots or parcels belonging to the same person, and dependent on one and the same chain of title.

693. Where an application is made under section 2 of the said Act, the proper officer in the Registrar's Office at Toronto shall attend one of the Judges with the petition, for directions, before the same is referred for investigation.

694. All petitions under the said Act shall be filed in the Registrar's Office at Toronto, and may, at the option of the petitioner, be referred to the Referee in Toronto or to any Local Master.

695. The Master shall be the sole Inspector of Titles, in respect of petitions filed under The Quieting Titles Act, and the sole Referee in Toronto, but he may assign to any Assistant Master such duties as inspector or referee as he may from time to time deem advisable.

696. Petitions to be referred to any Local Referee shall be indorsed thus: "To be referred to the Referee at..... and to Mr. ....., Inspector of Titles."

697. Petitions filed unindorsed shall, without order, stand referred to the Referee in Toronto, but a petition indorsed with the name of any Local Referee shall stand referred to him.

698. Petitions to be referred to a Local Referee shall be entered with the Inspector of Titles before being filed.

699. A Local Referee shall be entitled to confer or correspond from time to time with the Inspector of Titles, for advice and assistance on questions of practice or evidence, or other questions arising under the Act or under these Rules.

700. Upon the filing of the petition it shall be delivered or mailed by the proper officer to the Referee.

701. The particulars necessary, under the Act, to support the petition shall be delivered or sent by the petitioner, or his solicitor, to the Referee, and shall be forthwith examined and considered by him.

702.—(1) In every case of an investigation of title to property under the Act, the petitioner shall deliver to the Referee a plan and description of the property, verified by the affidavit of a qualified land surveyor who has personally inspected the property; and the affidavit shall state the manner in which the land described is indicated upon the plan; the names of the person or persons in actual occupation of the whole or any part thereof; the nature of the buildings upon the property; and any evidence of continued possession which might be of assistance in considering the petition.

(2) The petitioner shall also show, by affidavit or otherwise, whether possession has always accompanied the title under which he claims the property, or how otherwise, or shall show some sufficient reason for dispensing with such proof either wholly or in part.

703. Where there is no contest, the attendance of the petitioner, or of any solicitor on his behalf, shall not be required on the examination of the title, except where, for any special reason, the Referee directs such attendance.

704. If, on such examination as aforesaid, the Referee finds the proof of title defective, he shall deliver or mail to the petitioner, or his solicitor, a memorandum of such finding, stating shortly therein what the defects are, and he shall therein state as far as possible all the objections to the title.

705. When the Referee finds that a good title is shown he shall prepare the necessary advertisement, and, unless the publication thereof is dispensed with under the provisions of the Act, the same shall be published in the Ontario Gazette and in any other newspaper or newspapers in which the Referee thinks it proper to have the same inserted; and unless otherwise directed by the Referee a copy of the advertisement shall also be put up on the door of the Court House of the County where the land lies, and, unless the nearest post office is in a city, in some conspicuous place in the post office which is situate nearest to the property, the title of which is under investigation; and the Referee shall indorse on the advertisement so prepared by him the name of the newspaper or newspapers in which the same is to be published, and the number of insertions to be given therein respectively, and the period (not less than four weeks) for which the notice is to be continued at the Court House and post office respectively.

706. Any notice of the application to be served or mailed under section 13 of the Act, shall be prepared by the Referee; and directions shall in like manner be given by him as to the persons to be served with the notice, and as to the mode of serving the same.

707. The Inspector, or Toronto Referee, shall from time to time confer with one of the Judges in respect of matters before such Inspector or Toronto Referee, as there may be occasion.

708. When any person has shown himself, in the opinion of a Local Referee, to be entitled to a certificate or conveyance under the Act, and has published and given all the notices required, the Referee shall write at the foot of the petition, and sign, a memorandum to the following effect: "I am of opinion that the petitioner is entitled to a certificate of title (or conveyance) as prayed (or subject to the following incumbrances, etc., as the case may be);" and shall transmit the petition (charges prepaid) with the deeds, evidence, and other papers before him in reference thereto, to the Inspector of Titles, who shall examine the same carefully, and if he finds any defect in the evidence of title, or in the proceedings, he shall, by correspondence or otherwise, point the same out to the petitioner, or his solicitor, or to the Referee, as the case may be, in order that the defect may be remedied before a Judge is attended with the petition and papers for approval.

709.—(1) Where the Inspector, or Reteree at Toronto, finds that the petitioner has shown himself entitled to a certificate of title, or a conveyance under the Act, and has published and given all the notices required, he shall write at the foot of the petition, and sign, a memorandum to the same effect as is required from a Local Referee, and shall prepare the certificate of title, or conveyance, and shall engross the same in triplicate on heavy paper of good quality; and shall sign the same respectively at the foot or in the margin thereof; and shall attend one of the Judges therewith, and with the deeds, evidence and other papers before him in reference thereto; and, on the certificate or conveyance being signed by the Judge, the Inspector or other Referee aforesaid, as the case may be, shall deliver or transmit the same to the Registrar to be sealed and registered, and the Registrar shall retain one of the signed certificates or conveyances and shall deliver or transmit the other two, when so sealed and registered, to the petitioner, his solicitor or agent.

(2) Unless the Judge otherwise directs, the certificate shall be dated as of the date of the filing of the petition.

710. When a certificate of title has been granted, the Inspector or Referee may, without further order, deliver, on demand, to the party entitled thereto, or his solicitor, all deeds and other evidences of title, not including affidavits made and evidence given in the matter of the title; and shall take his receipt therefor.

711. The Inspector and Referee shall keep a book and preserve therein a copy of all his letters under these Rules.

712. The applicant shall pay, or prepay, as the case may be, all postages and other expenses of transmitting letters or papers.

713. Petitions under section 30 of the Act shall be filed and proceeded with in the same manner (as nearly as may be) as petitions for an indefeasible title.

714. The certificate of the Inspector or of a Referee upon any contest before him shall be filed and an appeal shall lie from such certificate in the same way as from a Master's Report.

ACCOUNTANT'S OFFICE.

715. All such books and records shall be kept as may be directed by the Finance Committee, and the forms used for directions and cheques shall be subject to the approval of that Committee.

716. In the month of January in each year the Accountant shall present to the Finance Committee a statement of the amounts paid for salaries and expenses of the Accountant's office during the previous year, and the names of the persons to whom such amounts were paid, and also an estimate of the salaries and expenses of his office for the current year; and such estimates shall be examined by the Finance Committee, who shall be at liberty to make such variations therein as may be deemed proper, and when approved a fiat shall be indorsed thereon or appended thereto which shall authorize the payment of the sums mentioned and cheques may issue accordingly.

717. An auditor shall be appointed whose duty it shall be to see that books and records are kept as required by the Finance Committee and to examine and verify the accounts, books and securities in the Accountant's office and to compare the balances with the Bank Account, and to make such further and other examination of the said books and securities as he may think necessary for the proper audit thereof, and to report forthwith, after making such examination, the result thereof to the said Committee, and from time to time to make such suggestions as may appear to be desirable for the efficient keeping of the accounts.

718. The Auditor's remuneration shall be fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council and shall be payable in monthly instalments, as part of the expenses of the Accountant's office.

719. It shall be the duty of the Official Guardian to see that moneys payable on mortgages held by the Accountant, in which persons for whom the Guardian has acted are interested, are promptly paid, and that the mortgaged premises are kept properly insured, and that the taxes thereon are duly paid.

720.—(1) All mortgages and other securities taken under an order or judgment of the Court, and all bonds and other instruments required by the practice of the Court for the purpose of security, save security for costs, shall, unless otherwise ordered, be taken in the name of the Accountant, and shall be deposited in his office.

(2) Mortgages and other securities made to or vested in the Accountant, in any action or matter, are to be held by him subject to the order of the Court; but no duty or liability save as custodian of the instrument shall by reason of such mortgage or other security being made, given to or vested in him, be imposed on the Accountant in respect of such mortgage or security or any property thereby vested in him.

721.—(1) Any person entitled to the discharge of a mortgage made to or vested in the Accountant may leave with the Accountant the required discharge with a request that the same be executed.

(2) The Accountant shall thereupon certify as to the payment of the money secured by the mortgage, and the matter shall in such case be considered by the officers whose duty it is to sign and countersign cheques for payment of money out of Court, and if they find that the mortgage has been satisfied in full and that the proposed discharge is in due form they shall indorse upon such certificate and discharge a direction for the execution of the said discharge by the Accountant.

(3) Thereupon the Accountant may execute such discharge and may on a receipt being given therefor, deliver up all deeds and documents relating to such mortgage in his hands and may assign any policy of insurance held by him as collateral security for such mortgage to the person entitled to such discharge or as he may by writing direct.

722.—(1) Interest shall not be credited in any action or matter in respect of money paid into Court,—

(a) With a defence;

(b) As security for costs of an action or appeal;

(c) As security for debt or costs, to stay execution;

(d) As a deposit for sale in mortgage actions;

(e) As a condition imposed by any injunction order;

(f) As proceeds of sale in, or to abide the result of, interpleader proceedings; or

(g) For any other merely temporary purpose;

unless or until after the same shall have been in Court for six months and then only at the rate of 2 per cent. per annum not compounded in any case; but the Finance Committee may for special reasons order that in any particular case interest shall be allowed on such moneys at any higher rate not exceeding 3 per cent. per annum.

(2) Interest shall be credited upon the Assurance fund at the rate of 2½ per cent. per annum.

(3) Interest shall be credited to suitors' accounts other than as above provided at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum until otherwise ordered by the Finance Committee; but the Finance Committee may in its discretion, from time to time, direct that interest at a lesser rate but not less than 4 per cent. per annum, until otherwise ordered by the Finance Committee, shall be credited upon any account when the amount of such account to its credit in Court exceeds $50,000.

(4) Interest shall be credited upon money paid into Court only after the same has been in Court for fifteen days.

(5) Compound interest shall not be credited to any action or matter or allowed or paid to any suitor in respect of any fund which has not been in Court for at least five years. (But see Statute 1938 (Ont.), c. 18, s. 6 (2).)

723.—(1) All sums less than $10 standing to the credit of an adult and unclaimed for two years, shall be transferred to the Suspense account.

(2) All sums which are not claimed within ten years from the time when the same became payable out of Court, shall be transferred to the Suspense account.

(3) Money transferred to the Suspense account shall cease to bear interest, but shall at any time be paid to the person entitled. (But see Statute 1938 (Ont.), c. 18, s. 6 (2). )

724. Where money or securities in Court are to be paid out of Court or transferred to the legal personal representative of any person, the same may, upon proof to the satisfaction of the Accountant of the death of any of them whether before, on, or after the day of the date of the order, be paid to the survivors or survivor of them.

725. Where money or securities in Court are to be paid out or transferred to any person named in the order or judgment, or named or to be named in any report, the same or any portion thereof for the time being remaining unpaid or untransferred, may, on proof to the satisfaction of the Accountant of the death of such person whether before, on, or after the date of the order or judgment and that his legal personal representatives are entitled thereto, be paid or transferred to such legal personal representatives or the survivors or survivor of them.

726. Any person claiming to be interested in, or to have a lien or charge upon, or an assignment of, any money or securities in Court, or invested in the name of the Accountant, or any portion thereof, or claiming to have the same applied towards the satisfaction of any judgment or execution against the person to whose credit such moneys or securities stand, or for whose benefit the same are held by the said Accountant may, upon an affidavit verifying his claim, apply ex parte for an order directing that such money or securities shall not be paid out or dealt with except upon notice to him. (Form No. 67.)

727. Money to be paid into Court shall be paid into the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Toronto, or in some branch of it or into a chartered Bank being its agent in Ontario, and in no other way.

728.—(1) The person paying money into Court shall obtain a direction to the Bank to receive the money.

(2) The person applying for a direction or cheque shall leave a praecipe therefor, and the judgment or order under which the money is payable, together with a copy thereof and of the report where necessary, which is to be on good paper of foolscap size, folded lengthwise, and is to be verified by an officer in the Accountant's office, and to be retained by the Accountant.

(3) If the direction is obtained elsewhere than in Toronto, these papers, with the necessary postage for their retransmission, shall be sent to the Accountant forthwith.

(4) The copy so verified shall be marked with a number corresponding with that of the account, and shall be bound and kept for reference in a book to be called the "Order Book."

(5) When money is required to be paid into Court to the credit of the Assurance Fund established under The Land Titles Act, the direction to receive the money, if the same is payable into a Bank in Toronto, shall be obtained from the Master of Titles, and if payable into a Bank outside of Toronto the direction shall be obtained from the proper Local Master of Titles.

729. The person paying money into Court shall be entitled to credit therefor as of the date on which the same was deposited in the Bank.

730. The Bank, on receiving the money, shall give a receipt therefor in duplicate; and one copy shall be delivered to the party making the deposit, and the other shall be posted or delivered the same day to the Accountant.

731.—(1) Money shall be paid out of Court upon the cheque of the Accountant, countersigned by an officer of the Court or other person designated by the Finnace Committee, and every cheque shall first be initialed by the Assistant Accountant or Chief Clerk.

(2) The person entitled to a cheque shall produce and leave with the Accountant a praecipe therefor, together with the orders and reports entitling such person to the money.

732.—(1) Where an order for payment of money out of Court is made otherwise than by a Judge of the Supreme Court, the Accountant before acting thereon shall apply to a Judge for his approval.

(2) An order dispensing with the payment of money into Court unless it is made by a Judge of the Supreme Court shall not be acted on unless or until a Judge approves thereof.

(3) An order dispensing with payment of money into Court, or a certified copy thereof, shall be left with the Accountant forthwith after entry thereof.

733.—(1) The Official Guardian shall deposit in the Accountant's office a statement showing the distribution of the proceeds of lands sold or mortgaged with his approval under The Devolution of Estates Act, and the dates of births of the infants interested.

(2) All money received by the Official Guardian on behalf of infants, mentally incompetent persons, absentees, or other persons for whom he acts, shall, without order, be paid into Court to the credit of the person entitled.

(3) Money paid into Court under this rule to the credit of infants, shall be paid out to them when they attain their majority.

(4) Money paid into Court to the credit of non-concurring heirs and devisees shall be paid out to them upon application to the Accountant, without order.

(5) Money paid into Court to the credit of an absentee shall be paid out to him upon the fiat of a Judge, to be obtained upon proof of identity after notice to the Official Guardian.

(6) Where the amount of money payable into Court under this Rule is ascertained by the deduction of untaxed costs from a fund, the Official Guardian may require such costs to be taxed and the solicitor who has received such costs shall forthwith pay into Court for the infant or mentally incompetent person or absentee any balance that shall be found to be due as a result of such taxation.

734. When costs are directed to be paid out of money in Court, the solicitor of the party entitled to receive the same shall be entitled to have the cheque drawn in his favour upon filing with the Accountant an affidavit stating:

(a) That he is entitled to receive such costs, and

(b) That he has not been paid his costs or any part thereof, and that the costs, payment of which is sought, are justly due to him.

If the solicitor has been changed in the course of the litigation, that fact shall be shown in the affidavit, and the consent of both solicitors shall be filed.

735.—(1) When money to which an infant or mentally incompetent person is entitled is paid into a Surrogate or County Court, the Registrar or Clerk of that Court shall forthwith cause the same to be transmitted to the Accountant with a statement showing when the money was so paid in, and a copy (certified by the Registrar or Clerk) of all judgments or orders affecting the same, and the money shall thereupon be placed to the credit of the said infant or mentally incompetent person.

(2) All money paid into a Surrogate or County Court and unclaimed for two years shall be transmitted by the Registrar or Clerk to the Accountant, together with a statement showing when the money was paid in and a certified copy of all judgments or orders affecting the same.

(3) Such money shall be paid out to any person found entitled thereto upon the production of a judgment or order of the Surrogate or County Court Judge, and shall in the meantime be dealt with as other money in the Supreme Court.

736. When money is in Court to the credit of an infant it shall be paid out of Court to him with accrued interest without further order upon his attaining his majority, unless otherwise ordered.

737.—(1) When money is in Court to the credit of an infant or mentally incompetent person it may be paid out upon the fiat of a Judge in Chambers without formal order.

(2) Such fiat shall be prepared by the Official Guardian and may be signed either by the Judge or the Clerk in Chambers, and shall be entered at length in the order book of the Clerk in Chambers, and the fiat or copy to be verified by the Accountant shall be deposited with the Accountant, and no law stamp shall be required upon such fiat.

(3) The Judge may in his discretion fix and direct payment of the costs of the application to the solicitor and dispense with the affidavit required by Rule 734.

(4) When an order has been made for payment of maintenance out of money in Court to which an infant is entitled the cheque shall, upon application to the Official Guardian, be obtained and forwarded by him without expense to the applicant, and no law stamp shall be required upon any such cheque.

(5) An application for such maintenance shall be lodged with the Accountant before the beneficiary attains his majority, otherwise it may be disregarded.

PETITIONS OF RIGHT.

738. A petition of right shall be according to Form No. 124, and shall be signed by the suppliant, his counsel or solicitor.

739. The petition shall be left with the Provincial Secretary, in order that the same may be submitted to the Lieutenant-Governor for his consideration, and in order that the Lieutenant-Governor, if he thinks fit, may grant his fiat that right be done; and no fee or sum of money shall be payable by the suppliant therefor.

740. Where a fiat is granted a copy of the petition and fiat shall be left at the office of the Attorney-General, with an indorsement thereon, praying for an answer on behalf of His Majesty within 28 days.

741. Where the petition is presented for the recovery of real or personal property, or any right in or to the same, which has been granted or disposed of by or on behalf of His Majesty or his predecessors, a copy of the petition and fiat shall be served upon or left at the last or usual or last-known place of abode of the person in the possession, occupation or enjoyment of the property or right, indorsed with a notice according to Form No. 125.

742. The person so served shall appear and file his defence to the petition, as required by such notice.

743. The petition may be answered by statement of defence by or in the name of His Majesty's Attorney-General, on behalf of His Majesty, and by any other person who may be called upon as aforesaid, in the same manner as in an action.

744. When no other provision is made and so far as the same are applicable, these Rules shall apply to petitions of right.

745. In case of a failure on the behalf of His Majesty, or of any other person duly called upon, to defend in due time, at any stage of the proceedings, the suppliant may apply to the Court for an order that the petition may be taken as confessed; and the Court may order that such petition may be taken as confessed, as against His Majesty or other party so making default, and judgment may be given by the Court in favour of the suppliant.

746. A petition of right shall be tried by a Judge without a jury.

747. The judgment of the Court shall be that the suppliant is or is not entitled either to the whole or to some portion of the relief sought by his petition, or that such other relief may be given, and upon such terms and conditions (if any) as to the Court seem just.

748. The costs of a petition of right shall be in the discretion of the Court or of a Judge, and shall be recovered in the same way as in ordinary actions, save when costs are ordered to be paid by His Majesty.

749. Upon any judgment or order for the payment of costs or damages by His Majesty, the Judge may, upon application in behalf of the party entitled after the lapse of 14 days from the making, giving or affirming of the judgment or order, certify to the Provincial Treasurer according to Form No. 126.

750. Nothing in these Rules shall prevent a subject from proceeding by petition of right in any manner in which he might have proceeded before the 23rd day of April, 1887; nor shall anything in these Rules be construed as entitling a subject to proceed by petition of right in any case in which he would not be entitled so to proceed under the Acts passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom before the said date.

OFFICERS AND OFFICES.

751. The Registrar or such other officer as he may direct shall attend the Weekly Sittings at Toronto, and the officer so attending shall settle and sign all orders and settle all orders and judgments pronounced thereat.

752.—(1) Local Registrars shall, with respect to all matters in their offices, perform the same duties in the same manner as the like duties are performed in the Registrar's office at Toronto.

(2) When there is a Deputy Clerk of the Crown or Deputy Registrar he shall have the like powers and duties with reference to all matters in his office.

753. Every Local Registrar, Local Master, Deputy Registrar and Deputy Clerk of the Crown shall be a Local Taxing Officer.

754. Every Local Taxing Officer shall, subject to the provisions of Rules 677 to 679 in actions begun or pending in his office be entitled to tax all bills of costs, including counsel fees, subject only to appeal to a Judge. This Rule shall not apply to cases in which infants are concerned, unless the Official Guardian is the guardian ad litem for the infants.

755. All Taxing Officers shall, for the purpose of any taxation, have power to administer oaths and take evidence, direct production of books and documents, make certificates, and give general directions for the conduct of taxations before them.

Business in Offices.

756. Except as provided in respect to Quieting Titles matters, no business shall be transacted in any of the offices of the Courts, either in procuring or issuing process, or in entering judgments or taking any proceeding whatever in a cause, unless upon the personal attendance of the party on whose behalf such business is required to be transacted, or of the counsel or solicitor of such party, or the clerk or agent of the solicitor, or the clerk of the agent.

757. All officers shall be auxiliary to one another for promoting the correct, convenient, and speedy administration of business.

758. In case of the absence or illness of any officer to whom any special duty is assigned or of the office being vacant, the duty may be performed by such other officer as may be designated for that purpose by the Chief Justice of Ontario.

759. Where the first document in a cause or matter is required to be filed in Toronto, the Registrar's office shall be deemed to be the office in which the cause or matter is commenced and in other cases the office of the Deputy Clerk of the Crown, Deputy or Local Registrar of the County or District in which such first document is required to be filed shall be deemed to be the office in which the cause or matter is commenced.

760. All proceedings in a cause or matter shall be carried on in the office in which the cause or matter is commenced.

761. All persons called to the Bar of Ontario or admitted as solicitors of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario, shall sign the rolls provided upon taking the prescribed oaths.

COUNTY AND LOCAL COURTS.

762. All writs in the County Courts shall be issued by the Clerk and shall be under the seal of the Court, and shall be tested in the name of the Judge thereof; or in the case of the death of such Judge, then in the name of the Junior or acting Judge for the time being.

763. The Judges of the County Courts shall have power to sit and act at any time for the transaction of any part of the business of such Courts, or for the discharge of any duty including the trial of non-jury actions.

764. Where the plaintiff fails to recover judgment in an action or other proceeding brought in a County or Division Court by reason of such Court having no jurisdiction over the subject matter thereof, the County Court, or the Judge presiding in the Division Court, as the case may be, shall have jurisdiction over the costs of such action or proceeding, and may order by and to whom the same shall be paid.

765. In all actions brought in a County Court the Judge of the County Court where the proceedings were commenced, or the Master (subject to appeal in either case as if the case were in the High Court of Justice) may change the place of trial, and in the event of an order being obtained for that purpose, the Clerk of the County Court in which the action was commenced shall forthwith transmit all papers in the action to the Clerk of the County Court to which the place of trial is changed, and all subsequent proceedings shall be entitled in such last-mentioned Court, and carried on in such last-mentioned County Court as if the proceedings had originally been commenced in such last-mentioned Court.

766. These Rules, and the practice and procedure in actions in the Supreme Court shall, so far as the same can be applied, apply and extend to actions in the County Court.

767. In actions in the County Court the Clerk shall, subject to the directions of the Judge, discharge all the duties and have all the powers of the Registrar of the Supreme Court and shall act as Referee in the taking of any accounts that may be referred to him by the Judge.

768.—(1) Money to be paid into a County Court or Surrogate Court shall be paid into some incorporated bank designated for that purpose, from time to time, by order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council; or where there is no such bank, then into some incorporated bank in which public money of the Province is then being deposited, and which has been appointed for that purpose by any General Rule in that behalf; or if no bank has been appointed, into any bank in which public money of the Province is being deposited.

(2) The money shall be paid into the credit of the cause or matter in which the payment is made, with the privity of the Clerk or Registrar (as the case may be) of the Court, and in no other manner; and such money shall be withdrawn only on the order of the Court or a Judge thereof, with the privity of the Clerk or Registrar of the Court.

(3) Where money is paid in under a plea of payment into Court, the Clerk on the production of the receipt of the bank for the money or other satisfactory proof of such payment, shall sign a receipt for the amount in the margin of the pleading.

769. The Clerk of a County Court and the Registrar of a Surrogate Court shall each keep a book containing an account of all money so paid into their respective Courts, and of the withdrawal thereof; and shall prepare in the month of January in every year a statement of all money so paid in and withdrawn, and a statement of the condition of the various accounts upon the thirty-first day of the preceding December, and shall transmit to the Provincial Secretary and to the Judge or each of the Judges of such Courts, a copy of such statement, with a declaration thereto annexed. (Form No. 132.)

770. The book so to be kept shall be open for inspection during office hours; and the Clerk or Registrar shall give a certificate of the state of an account or an extract therefrom at the request of any party interested or his solicitor on his paying to the Clerk or Registrar the sum of twenty cents for such inspection or certificate and the sum of ten cents per folio for such extract.

771. The Official Guardian shall be entitled to make any search and take any extracts without payment of any fee.

MATRIMONIAL CAUSES.

772. No cause of action, save for alimony or the custody of children, shall be joined with a claim for the dissolution of marriage or for the annulment of marriage without the leave of a Judge to be obtained ex parte before the issue of the writ; a copy of any such order shall be served with the writ. (Formerly M. R. 1.)

773. The statement of claim shall be filed at the time the writ is issued and shall be served therewith, and the writ shall contain an appropriate provision directing a statement of defence to be filed within ten days from the entry of appearance. (Formerly M. R. 2.)

774. The statement of claim shall show:—

(a) The place and date of the marriage and name of the wife before marriage, and the address and status of the parties at the date of marriage;

(b) Whether there has been issue of the marriage, and, if so, the names and dates of birth of all the living issue of the marriage;

(c) The occupation of the husband and the place of his residence, his domicile at the time of the marriage and at the date of the institution of the action, and if the wife claims to be entitled to maintain an action under The Divorce Jurisdiction Act, 1930, the facts upon which such claim of right is founded;

(d) A statement of all previous proceedings instituted with reference to the marriage, including applications to the Parliament of Canada, and actions for alimony and the result of such proceedings;

(e) The matrimonial offences set out in separate paragraphs, giving the name and address of every person with whom adultery is charged, if this is possible, and shall conclude with a prayer setting forth the particular relief claimed. (Formerly M. R. 3.)

775. Except in cases in which an order has been made under Rule 776, every person with whom adultery is alleged shall be made a party defendant in the action. (Formerly M. R. 4.)

776. If the name of the person with whom adultery is alleged is unknown to the plaintiff at the time of bringing of the action, the plaintiff may apply to a Judge for an order allowing the action to be brought without adding such person as a party defendant. Such leave may be given upon the terms that, so soon as the name of the alleged adulterer is ascertained, he shall be added as party defendant and all necessary amendments shall be made. The order shall be served with the writ. This rule shall mutatis mutandis apply to a counterclaim. (Formerly M. R. 5.)

777. Where either party has been guilty of matrimonial misconduct, and it is intended to ask at the hearing that the discretion of the Court shall be exercised in his favour, the statement of claim, or defence, shall contain a special prayer to this effect. (Formerly M. R. 6.)

778. In cases in which the exercise of discretion by the Court is asked, a statement signed by the party setting forth all the facts upon which he relies and the grounds upon which the exercise of discretion is asked shall be deposited at the time of the filing of the statement of claim, or defence, in the office in which such statement of claim, or defence, is filed, in a sealed envelope which shall not be opened without the leave of a Judge granted at or before the trial. The Judge may peruse the statement and may order it to be re-sealed or to be communicated to the opposite party or to be dealt with as he sees fit. (Formerly M. R. 7.)

779. At the time the statement of claim is filed, there shall also be filed an affidavit of the plaintiff which may be made "In the Matter of an Intended Action between A.B. and C.D., etc." verifying the facts alleged of which he has personal knowledge, and stating his belief in the truth of the facts alleged, and further stating that no collusion or connivance exists between the plaintiff and the defendants or any of them. This affidavit shall be served with the statement of claim. (Formerly M. R. 8.)

780. The writ and all papers required to be served therewith shall be served personally by some person other than the plaintiff. The affidavit of service shall show the means of knowledge of the deponent as to the identity of the person served. No judgment nisi in case of default of appearance or defence shall be pronounced unless and until it is clearly shown at the trial that the person served was the defendant. (Formerly M. R. 9.)

781. Service of the notice of trial upon a defendant who is not represented by a solicitor shall be personal unless otherwise ordered in special circumstances by a Judge. (Formerly M. R. 10.)

781. Service of the notice of trial upon a defendant who is not represented by a solicitor shall be personal unless otherwise ordered in special circumstances by a Judge. (Formerly M. R. 10.)

782. Any order as to substituted service in a matrimonial cause shall be made by a Judge. (Formerly M. R. 11.)

783. When the statement of defence to the statement of claim or counterclaim is more than a denial, there shall be filed and served with such statement of defence an affidavit of the party pleading verifying the facts of which he has personal cognizance and deposing to belief in the truth of the other facts pleaded. (Formerly M. R. 12.)

784. Where the defendant seeks relief by reason of a countercharge, he shall deliver a counterclaim. With every counterclaim there shall be filed and served an affidavit made by the plaintiff therein verifying the facts of which he has personal cognizance and deposing to belief in the truth of the other facts alleged in the counterclaim and further stating that no collusion or connivance exists between the plaintiff by counterclaim and the defendants by counterclaim or any of them. (Formerly M. R. 13.)

785. In every counterclaim, every person with whom adultery is alleged shall be made a party defendant to the counterclaim unless an order is obtained under Rule 776. (Formerly M. R. 14.)

786. In every counterclaim, the matrimonial offences shall be set out in separate paragraphs giving the name and address of every person with whom adultery is charged, if this is possible, and the counterclaim shall conclude with a prayer setting forth the particular relief claimed. (Formerly M. R. 15.)

787. In any matrimonial cause, no judgment shall be entered upon consent of the parties or admissions or in default of appearance or of pleading or otherwise than after a trial. At the trial, admissions of a matrimonial offence made in pleadings or upon an examination for discovery or upon a cross-examination upon an affidavit shall not be accepted as sufficient proof of the matrimonial offence. (Formerly M. R. 16.)

788. If either party serves a jury notice, the action shall be heard at a sitting for the trial of actions with a jury and any question of fact shall be determined by the jury upon written questions submitted to them by the Judge. A general verdict shall not be taken. Notwithstanding this provision an action in which a jury notice has been served may in the discretion of the Trial Judge be tried without a jury when all parties consent. (Formerly M. R. 17.)

789. Every judgment for the dissolution of marriage or for the annulment of marriage shall be a judgment nisi not to be made absolute until after the expiration of six months from the pronouncing thereof. The provisions of Rules 175 and 176 shall not apply to the time prescribed by this rule except as provided in Rule 790. (Formerly M. R. 18.)

790. Upon the application of the plaintiff made not less than fifteen days after the date of the judgment nisi on notice to the defendant or defendants (served personally unless a Judge otherwise directs) and to the Attorney-General, a Judge may abridge the six months' period mentioned in Rule 789 and amend the judgment nisi accordingly, if in his opinion it is expedient so to do, when a member of His Majesty's Forces, including the Naval, Military or Air Forces of Canada, is shown, on evidence of competent authority, to be on Active Service outside of Canada or to be likely to be sent on Active Service outside of Canada before the expiration of the said period.

791. A copy of the judgment nisi shall be served upon the defendant spouse and the Attorney-Genera within one month from its date. Such service on such defendant must be personal unless he is represented by a solicitor or unless a Judge otherwise orders. Either before or after the expiry of the month, the time for service may be extended by a Judge, but in such case judgment absolute shall not be granted before the expiry of five months from the day of the last service. Upon the copy of the judgment nisi so served upon the defendant spouse shall be endorsed a notice, signed by the plaintiff or his solicitor, in the words following or to the like effect:

To.....(inserting the name of the defendant spouse) Take notice that after the expiration of six months from the date of the within judgment [or, (in case the time for service has been extended), after the expiration of five months from the time of the service of this paper on you] a motion for judgment absolute will be made without further notice to you unless in the meantime you have delivered, or caused to be delivered to the Registrar of the Supreme Court of Ontario at Osgoode Hall, Toronto [or, (in cases where the writ has issued elsewhere than at Toronto), to the Local Registrar of the Supreme Court of Ontario at his office in the Court House in.....]— and to the undersigned at.....(giving an address for service) a written notice stating that you desire to have notice of the time and place at which such motion for a judgment absolute will be heard. (Formerly M. R. 19.)

792. During the period of six months from the pronouncing of a judgment nisi or such shorter time as may be ordered pursuant to Rule 790, or by leave of a Judge at any time thereafter before the pronouncing of a judgment absolute any person shall be at liberty to intervene to show cause why the judgment should not be made absolute by reason of the same having been obtained by collusion or by fraud or by reason of material facts not brought before the Court or for any other valid reason. (Formerly M. R. 20.)

793. A Judge presiding at the trial of a matrimonial cause may direct that the trial shall be adjourned either until a later named day in the same sittings or until a later named sittings as may to him seem best, and that a notice of the bringing of the action and of the state of the cause shall be given by the plaintiff to the Attorney-General, and if the Judge in his discretion so directs also a copy of the pleadings, examinations for discovery (if any) and of the evidence adduced at the trial up to such time or such part or parts of any of them as he deems proper to be furnished by the plaintiff to the Attorney-General, who shall be at liberty to intervene in the action and to attend upon the trial and call such evidence as he may be advised. The Judge may give such directions for taking the evidence de novo or for a transcript of the evidence already taken being used at the adjourned trial as to him shall seem proper, and he may himself determine upon the evidence already taken any question that is determinable by the Court, and such determination shall be endorsed upon the record. Such finding or determination shall be subject to appeal and the time for appealing shall run from the same day as the time for appealing against the judgment pronounced at the resumed trial. (Formerly M. R. 20A.)

794. The Attorney-General at any stage of the action may intervene for the purpose of showing collusion or fraud or of bringing any evidence before the Court. (Formerly M. R. 21.)

795. Where the Attorney-General or any other person desires to intervene he shall file and serve notice of his intention to intervene and shall thereafter be served with notice of all proceedings in the cause. (Formerly M. R. 22.)

796. Where notice of intervention has been filed and served the person intervening or any party to the action may apply to a Judge for directions concerning the intervention. (Formerly M. R. 23.)

797. The Judge may dispose of the intervention in a summary way or may direct the trial of an issue and may direct the delivery of pleadings and particulars for the purpose of such trial. The trial may take place at any sittings of the Court either with or without a jury or at such time and place as the Judge may direct and appoint. The Judge may permit examinations for discovery and may direct the production of documents. (Formerly M. R. 24.)

798. Upon the hearing or trial of any intervention, the Court may reverse the judgment nisi or may direct further enquiry or may make such other order as justice may require. (Formerly M. R. 25.)

799. Where a notice of intervention has been filed no motion for a judgment absolute shall be made until there has been final disposition of the intervention. (Formerly M. R. 26.)

800. After the expiry of the period of six months mentioned in the judgment nisi or any extension thereof, the cause may be set down for hearing before a judge in Court upon a motion that the judgment may be made absolute. Upon this motion, it shall be shown by affidavit made after the expiration of the said six months' period or any extension thereof and within ten days of the hearing of the motion that no appeal from the judgment nisi or from the judgment on any intervention is pending; that the judgment nisi was duly served; that upon the copies of the judgment nisi so served was endorsed the notice required by Rule 791, the dates of such service; and that no notice of intervention has been given by the Attorney-General or by any other person, or that any intervention has been disposed of under the provisions of the preceding rules. (Formerly M. R. 27.)

801. Upon a motion for judgment absolute, an affidavit by the plaintiff made after the expiration of the said six months' period, or any extension thereof, and within ten days of the hearing of the motion shall be filed showing that, since the granting of the judgment nisi, he has not cohabited with the defendent spouse or been guilty of adultery with any person. If, for any reason, the plaintiff cannot make the affidavit required by this rule, he shall make an affidavit stating fully the facts upon which he wishes the discretion of the Court to be exercised in his favour, and the Judge may, as he sees fit, grant the order asked. (Formerly M. R. 28.)

802. If the application to make the judgment absolute is not made by the plaintiff within nine months after the date of the judgment nisi, any other party to the action may move to have the judgment nisi vacated and the action dismissed for want of prosecution. (Formerly M. R. 29.)

803. An order may be made for payment of a wife's interim disbursements by her husband. (Formerly M. R. 30.)

804. Where a person with whom it is alleged adultery has been committed has died before the bringing of the action, his executors or administrators shall be made a party defendant. (Formerly M. R. 31.)

805. Where a person with whom adultery was alleged to have been committed dies pending the action, notice of the pendency of the action shall be given to his executor or administrator who shall be at liberty, within fourteen days of being notified, to obtain an order on praecipe substituting him as a party by revivor. In default of such order being obtained no further notice need be given to the representatives of the deceased party but the style of cause shall thereafter be amended by inserting the words "now deceased" immediately after the name of the person who has died. (Formerly M. R. 32.)

806. When a person with whom adultery is alleged to have been committed has died and letters probate have not been granted and no administrator has been appointed, an application shall be made to a Judge for direction as to what service, if any, shall be effected. Upon such application it shall be shown that enquiry has been made and, so far as can be ascertained, who are the next-of-kin of the deceased person. (Formerly M. R. 33.)

807. (a) Where a party defendant to a matrimonial cause is a mentally incompetent person at the time of the issue of the writ he shall be served and the action proceed as in the ordinary case of a defendant who is a mentally incompetent person.

(b) Where a party defendant to a matrimonial cause becomes a mentally incompetent person pending the final disposition of the cause, such notice shall be given to his committee, guardian or next-of-kin as a Judge may direct; and

(c) Where a party to a matrimonial cause is a mentally incompetent person, the affidavits required by these rules shall not be necessary, but the committee, guardian or next friend of such party shall, in lieu thereof, file an affidavit showing that he has made careful enquiry into the facts and that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief the facts required to be deposed to if the party were mentally competent are true. (Formerly M. R. 34.)

The former Rules respecting the Conduct of Matrimonial Causes are repealed as of 1st February, 1939, and these Rules shall come into force on such date.

MEETING OF JUDGES.

808. Meetings of the Judges of the Supreme Court or of the High Court may be called by instruction of the Chief Justice of Ontario or of the Chief Justice of the High Court or of any two Judges.

FORMS.

809.—(1) The forms contained in the Appendix hereto shall be used with such variations or modifications as circumstances may require; but any variance therefrom, not being in matter of substance, shall not affect their regularity.

(2) The provisions contained in the form prescribed shall be deemed to be authorized by these Rules.
